

LOCAL LORE

Gus Neitzel was a Rulo visitor last Saturday.

Fred Brecht was a Rulo visitor the last of last week.

Frank Martin was a Lincoln visitor during the week.

Mr. Simanton made a business trip to Stella on Monday.

S. H. Bain was a Salem visitor the fore part of this week.

F. W. Cleveland made a business trip to Salem Monday.

Chas. Baldwin returned to Dawson Monday afternoon.

Robert Kanaly was a business visitor in Stella on last Tuesday.

J. H. Miles was a business visitor in Lincoln during this week.

Ike Lyons, Jr., was a B. & M. passenger for Oxford on Tuesday.

A. N. Harris of Nemaha was in this city the latter part of last week.

C. J. Thomas of Rulo has our thanks for a renewal of his subscription.

Sadie Meyers and George Wahl visited with Preston friends on Sunday.

John Bauer of Verdon transacted business in this city on Tuesday.

Mrs. Berry who has been visiting relatives here, left Tuesday for Atchison.

Sam Stewart and wife of Reserve, Kansas visited relatives here last Saturday.

Kellogg the bird man is much more of a curiosity than Barnum's white elephant was.

Emma Baker returned to this city Friday after spending a few days in Nebraska City.

R. N. Cox of Steinauer was called to this city the first of the week by the death of his father.

Mrs. Will Wylie and daughter Edith of Nebraska City is visiting with relatives here this week.

Wm. McPherson, proprietor of the City Hotel, and daughter, Edna, spent Monday in Table Rock.

Ethelle Mitchell of Auburn was the guest of Mrs. Spence at The National the first of the week.

Come and hear how Kellogg holds animated conversations with the feathered songsters in the woods.

Mrs. McNeil, after a week's visit with her aunt Mrs. Keim, returned Monday to her home in Onawa, Iowa.

Don't fail to see and hear such an attraction as Kellogg the bird man at the Gehling Theatre Friday Nov., 24.

Mamie Kanaly of Rulo attended the Teachers Association last Saturday and called at this office while in the city.

Ed Hammond wife, and son Ralph who have been visiting with relatives here returned to Stella Saturday.

Nelle and Georgia Gandy of Humboldt were the guests of Mrs. Emma Ruegge the latter part of last week.

J. M. DeWald who has been visiting with relatives in this city returned on Tuesday to his home in Alma Nebraska.

Mrs. Evans who spent the past week the guest of Mrs. Keim, returned to her home in Rockport, Pennsylvania on Monday.

W. S. Leyda and wife left Monday afternoon for Lincoln, where he attended a meeting of the Grand Trustees of the Knights of Pythias.

Minnie and Georgia Albright went to White Cloud Saturday afternoon, where they will spend a week with their sister, Mrs. A. R. Bentley.

Mrs. George Cleveland and Goldie Fisher returned last week from Oswego, Kansas where they have been visiting with Chester Fisher and wife.

May Jones was a Reserve visitor on Sunday.

Elva Sears was a Reserve visitor on last Sunday.

James Casey spent Sunday with Rulo friends.

Nora and Ida Stalder returned to Humboldt Sunday.

Dr. Messler transacted business in Salem Wednesday.

May Crawford came down from Dawson last Saturday.

Fred Arnold of Humboldt spent Saturday in this city.

Daisy Morris was a guest in this city last Saturday.

Charles Cornell was a Reserve visitor Sunday afternoon.

Donald Price is spending this week with Verdon friends.

Belle Hossack returned Sunday from a short visit in Omaha.

Mr. Jackson of Highland spent Wednesday here with friends.

Clarence Heck spent Sunday afternoon in Reserve, Kansas.

Mrs. Margery Grant spent this week with relatives at Preston.

Judge Isham Reavis attended court in Hiawatha on Thursday.

John Dorrington has been visiting a few days in Leavenworth.

Jennie and Anna May Gravatt spent Saturday with friends here.

Prof. Wilson and wife of Stella were visitors in this city Saturday.

Albert Ramsey and wife of Verdon were visiting here Friday.

W. E. Kentner returned Wednesday afternoon from Humboldt.

Mathew and Robert Moore of Humboldt called at this office Friday.

Mamie Byerly of Verdon spent Sunday with Nellie Hossack in this city.

Mr. Dempsey of the M. P. station spent Saturday afternoon in Humboldt.

Leona Barlow of Dawson attended the basket ball game held here Friday.

Clarence Shugart of Lincoln was a business visitor here on last Thursday.

Winifred Ryan came down from Dawson Friday for the basket ball game.

Kellogg comes direct from the Lincoln Y. M. C. A. $1850.00 Lecture Course.

Pearl Klima of Dawson attended the basket ball games held in this city Friday.

Ralph McDonald of the Hiawatha World spent Sunday with friends in this city.

W. D. Easley of Kansas City transacted business in this city the first of the week.

Oakley James of Humboldt made The Tribune force a pleasant call last Saturday.

Mrs. Joseph Varner and daughter, Marion will leave next week for a visit in Oklahoma.

W. W. Abbey has been confined to the house for the past week with sciatic rheumatism.

Master Albert Tanner of Humboldt spent Saturday with his grand parents in this city.

Every cent saved is a cent earned. The Tribune till January 1st 1907, for one hundred cents.

George Hansell and wife of Salem were visiting friends here Saturday. Mr. Hansell called at this office.

You will not have to go to Chicago or New York to hear Kellogg as he will appear at Gehlings Theatre, Nov., 24.

See the bird rocks of Nova Scotia with the millions of birds, at Kelloggs entertainment it cost $1,000 to get the pictures alone.

Ed Howe of the Atchison Globe is becoming something of a Globe trotter. He recently left San Francisco for a trip around the world.

James DeWald is on the sick list.

1 gallon can peaches 50c at Harlows.

3 pound tomatoes 10 cent can at Harlows.

Ingram Cain came down from Stella Sunday.

3 pound peaches, 15 cents per can at Harlows.

M. J. Byrne came down from Dawson Saturday.

Canned corn 52 1/2 cents per doz. cans or 24 cans for $1.05.

Oliver Emmert of Salem was a Tuesday visitor to this city.

J. R. Williamson of Salem was a business visitor here Tuesday.

Get prices on cranberries, bananas, oranges and lemons at Harlows.

J. Whitaker was transacting business out of the city nearly all week.

Try Harlows bulk oat meal just from the mill 6 pounds for 25 cents.

Mr. Brown, general salesman to Samuel Wahl, was in this city Wednesday.

John Ross had a severe sick spell this week but his condition is improving.

Harlows pure buck wheat flour dont only make the cake but takes the cake.

Mrs. Gould and son Ray were M. P. passengers to Leavenworth last Wednesday.

Fred DeWald transacted business affairs in Verdon and Salem last Wednesday.

Miss Grace Pyle of Preston was the guest of Mrs. Bert Harpster on Wednesday.

Don't forget the Christmas bazaar to be given by the ladies of the Christian church.

Mrs. Bert Harpster returned Wednesday from a brief visit with relatives in Preston.

Harlows bulk dill, sweet and sour pickles are proving to be the best on the market for years.

F. W. Deal of Spearfish, S. D. called at this office Wednesday and added his name to our list of subscribers.

Harlow has good things to eat. He carries only first class goods and will make you prices that will please you.

The price of a cigar will bring you The Tribune a month. A dollar till January 1st, 1907. We pay the freight.

Ed Bell and wife left Sunday for Kansas City, where she will remain for a few weeks under the care of a physician.

Little Neal Sloan of Verdon is spending this week with his grandparents, Sheriff Hossack and wife in this city.

Mrs. R. A. Allison, Mrs. Burris and Elizabeth Goolsby left Wednesday afternoon for an extended visit in Maxwell, Iowa.

Mrs. Peter Resterer and Misses May and Grace Maddox, spent a portion of the week, the guests of Mrs. McCoy in Hiawatha.

Harlow has on sale John Mowells hams, bacon, lard and pigs feet. No finer goods on the market. Prices no higher than inferior goods are sold.

Florence Culp came down from Shubert last Friday for a brief visit with friends here. She attended the teachers association held in this city last week.

Jesse Whetstine and John Martin left Wednesday morning for Alma, Nebraska where they will enjoy a four days hunting trip on the Wertz Bros. Ranch.

Harlow has secured 200 cans this years pack of California Evaporated apricots, peaches, and prunes, bought before the big raise in prices. We will give you bargains in this line.

Potato chips 10c box at Harlows.

Martha King came down from Verdon Friday.

The Tribune until January 1st 1907, for a dollar.

Dr. R. P. Roberts, dentist over King's Pharmacy.

George Neitzel was up from Preston Thursday evening.

E. L. Sandusky was a Stella visitor Friday of last week.

Cooking figs best quality at Harlows 7 1/2 cents per pound.

George Jennings and wife spent Sunday with Salem relatives.

C. R. Harford remembered The Tribune with a years subscription.

Dr. Kent made a professional trip to Verdon Friday afternoon.

Tim Horn of Preston attended a dance given here Thursday evening.

Maud Boyd was down from Verdon the latter part of last week.

Nettie Weller of Stella was the guest of friends in this city last week.

Mrs. M. A. Veach spent Friday and Saturday with Falls City friends.

Maud Montgomery of Stella spent a few days of last week in this city.

H. E. Boyd of Humboldt was a caller at this office Thursday evening.

James Maddox of Preston attended the dance here Thursday evening.

Prof. Frank Stevens of Rulo has our thanks for cash on subscription.

Mrs. Bessie Brinegar of Rulo has our thanks this week for a renewal.

Nellie Swihart of Stella attended the teachers meeting here last week.

W. H. Hogrete of Stella transacted business affairs in this city on Friday.

T. J. Waggener came down from Dawson the latter part of last week.

George Sinclair of Preston spent Thursday evening with friends here.

Ora French of Salem was the guest of Virgie Mead the fore part of this week.

Julia Cronin of Rulo was a most pleasant caller at this office Saturday morning.

Miss Acott of Verdon was the guest of friends here during the teachers association.

Marie Riggs of Shubert spent the latter part of last week the guest of Estella Stone.

Ada Judy came up from Hiawatha on Friday for a few days visit with her parents.

Clara Laughrey of Verdon attended the teachers association here Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Joe Ranger of Salem spent a part of last week with her daughter, Mrs. Eyeret Scott.

Lost.—An engraved gold pin bearing the initials M. A. Finder please leave same at this office.

John Dorrington went to Leavenworth Friday where he will spend a few days with his sister Mrs. Ed Fisher.

Joe Harbaugh came down from Dawson to attend the basket ball game held on the local campus Friday evening.

George Jones returned to Margraves ranch last Friday after spending a few days with his parents in this city.

Ola Ashenfelder who has been visiting with her cousin, Mrs. Everett Scott returned to her home in Beatrice the latter part of last week.

HANDSOME TABLE SILVER

Supplies that something which is so often lacking to complete the charm of an otherwise faultless dinner table

With Thanksgiving so near and Christmas not far off, the housewife is naturally concerned for her dinner appointments.

In our stock of table silver you will find the representative patterns of leading makers, rich in design, graceful in decoration—different in conception and execution from the ordinary and the trite.

We have just received a line of cut glass unexcelled in quality and beauty of design.

We request you to inspect our stock of rich and varied wares.

Remember we still have the best institution for good jewelry, watch and clock repairing in the county.

A. E. JAQUET
THE OLD RELIABLE JEWELER

Maddox Grocery
—and Queensware—

On account of the small yield of fruits the general run of prices are higher than they have been for some time I have 300 cases of the highest grade of California fruit that was bought on the "future order" plan and can sell at last year's prices. Here are some prices to think over.

Defiance California Canned Fruit, 2 cans for.....50c
Standard Canned Fruit, 2 cans for.....40c
Best Grade Tomato, 2 cans for.....25c
Standard Tomato, 3 cans for.....25c
Best High Patent Flour, per sack.....$1.40
Potatoes, per bu.....50c
Michigan Salt, per bbl.....$1.35

Now here is the best of all: With a CASH ORDER of $3.00 (not including soap) 23 bars Lenox Soap.....50c

In Queensware remember I have the largest collection of staple and fancy goods ever in the county and you can get prices equal to, and in many cases better than in large cities.

Cash price 22 cents per dozen for Eggs

PHONE 141 O. H. Maddox Opposite Court House

GEHLING THEATRE

ONE NIGHT
Friday, November 24

The World's Greatest Entertainment

KELLOGG THE BIRD MAN

Known as the Human Bird Warbler

First number on the Falls City Entertainment Course.

PRICES

Season ticket, six months, adults, $2.00
Season tickets, six months, children, $1.00
General admission, 50 cents
Balcony, 35 cents.

C. H. MARION AUCTIONEER,

Sales conducted in scientific and businesslike manner

C. H. MARION Falls City, Nebraska

Low Rates on M. P.

One way colonist tickets to California for $25.00, on sale Sept. to Oct. 31st.
One way colonist tickets to Portland $23.00, also Seattle, to Spokane $22.50, tickets on sale September 15th, to Oct. 31st

J. B. VARNER, Agent.

Dancing School.

Fred Beaulieu will open a dancing school next Wednesday evening. The classes will meet at Bode's hall at 7:30 p. m.