

LOCAL LORE

Jack Glines is in this city.
 Pancake flour, maple syrup at Harlow's.
 John Oswald was in Stella on Wednesday.
 Mrs. W. L. Veach returned to Verdon Tuesday.
 Sam Drake went to Stella Wednesday afternoon.
 California prunes 7½, 10 and 12½ cents per pound.
 R. S. Molony of Humboldt attended court here this week.
 Ed Glines and wife returned on Wednesday from Cabool, Mo.
 J. H. Morehead transacted business in Humboldt during the week.
 George Holt returned Friday from a brief visit with Kansas friends.
 J. C. Leister of Duluth, Minnesota is visiting with his parents in this city.
 James Morris of Stella attended the Woodman meeting in this city Monday.
 Mrs. William Fenton of Dawson was visiting friends in this city Wednesday.
 Lillian Oswald spent a portion of this week with friends in Mound City, Mo.
 Mrs. Sam Drake and children left Wednesday for a weeks visit in Sabetha and Salem.
 Jerry Fenton of Dawson was shaking hands with Falls City friends on Wednesday.
 Harlow has log cabin maple syrup, took Gold Medal at St. Louis no purer goods made.
 Mrs. A. Harris and daughter, Gladys, left Tuesday for a brief visit with friends in Verdon.
 Frank Hoppe, from near Omaha spent the first of the week with his mother in this city.
 John Casey was brought from a St. Joseph hospital on Sunday and is at the home of Dennis McCarty.
 Fred Freie during the week added his name to our subscription list and has our thanks for the same.
 Sam Kennedy of Salem has our thanks for an extension of one year's subscription to The Tribune.
 Mr. Moore came us from St. Joseph Saturday. He will use his ditching apparatus on a farm near Dawson next week.
 Ned Stoughton who has been connected with the Parker Amusement company during the past season, is now at home in this city.
 John Hutchings, Josh Lord, Dr. Hahn, Reuben Horrocks and Rev. Henry Benton Smith left Wednesday for the Indian Territory.
 Mrs. Nesladek who has been visiting in Dawson for the past two weeks returning Wednesday afternoon to her home in Hiawatha.
 C. F. Reavis and wife attended a reception given at the home of General and Mrs. John L. Webster in Omaha Wednesday evening to meet George R. Peck of Chicago, president of the American Bar Association.
 Our portable corn cribs are cheap and handy and just the thing for you to use. Can be set up in ten minutes and when empty can be used for chicken fence. Sold by Charles Rickards at the Chicago Lumber & Coal Co.
 To meet you and get acquainted, I will give free diagnosis and prescriptions to all who apply to me at my office from the date of this issue until December 1st '05. Will be glad to give the benefit of twenty-eight years of experience in the treatment of chronic as well as acute diseases. Come and see us. Office up stairs, over Moore's Pharmacy.—Respt, P. L. Moore, M. D. 4194

Simon Davies and wife returned to Stella Monday.
 Harlow has three pound can tomatoes for 10 cents.
 Harlow's can peas are the finest goods put up this year.
 Leland Wood of Pawnee City spent Sunday in this city.
 Will Gibson came down from Verdon on business Monday.
 Mr. Hillyard returned Monday to his work at Prairie Union.
 Officer Herman of Rulo was in this city the first of the week.
 Harlow has plenty of can corn at 5 cents per can this year pack.
 Mrs. Geo. Holt returned Wednesday from Manhattan, Kansas.
 Harlow has Forest City and Eagle self self rising cake flour.
 Harlow's navy beans are Michigan hand picked this year's crop.
 Mrs. Will Crouch of near Verdon was shopping in this city Saturday.
 Mrs. Will Price was in Verdon Saturday and visited relatives a few day.
 Rev. Smith returned Monday afternoon from Fairbury and Lincoln.
 John Burk remembered The Tribune in the form of one year's subscription.
 Harlow can give you a good three pound can peaches for 15 cents.
 Mrs. Art Smith was the guest of Mrs. Milo Shields the first of the week.
 Mrs. Thomas Veach of Colorado Springs is visiting relatives in this city.
 J. G. Heinzelman wife and little son of Verdon spent Tuesday in this city.
 Harlow has can corn at 52½ cents per dozen or a case of two dozen for $1.05
 Mrs. Ermina Strother returned to this city Monday after several weeks vitit in Verdon.
 The Royal Neighbors of America have purchased a new organ for use in their council.
 Go to Harlow's to get bulk oat meal fresh from the Quail Mill six pounds for 25 cents.
 Charles Stanton has purchased the David Abbott cottage in the Crook and Towle addition.
 Carrie Stetler returned to Pawnee City on Monday after a two weeks visit in this city.
 Rev. W. T. Cline is in Table Rock assisting the local minister with a series of protracted meetings.
 Harlow can and will make you closer prices on candy and nuts than any other house in the county.
 Harlow has just received 200 pounds of English walnuts they are this years crop, only 20 pound.
 The warmest fire a going can be procured by burning coal bought of the Chicago Lumber & Coal Co
 There will be a foot ball game here Thanksgiving afternoon between the High School and Business College teams.
 Harlow gives you three bars of Lenox soap fo 10 cents, or eight for 25 cents, or a box of one hundred bars for $2.85.
 John Dorrington returned the first of the week from Leavenworth where he spent several days with his sister Mrs. Ed. Fisher.
 Will pay 7 cents for hens and springs above price good till Saturday November 25th first door west of V. G. Lyfords store. Phone 25.—P. H. Hermes.
 Each section of our portable corn crib contains six cable wires and can be used as a pen for small pigs or a good yard to feed small chicks in. Sold by the Chicago Lumber & Coal Co.

Mrs. Ferd Harlow is visiting in Rulo.
 J. H. Miles returned from Lincoln Friday.
 Benj. Foster returned to Prairie Union Monday.
 Wm. Harnack returned to Verdon on Monday.
 W. W. Jenne spent Sunday with his family in this city.
 George Fisher went to Prairie Union the first of the week.
 Virgie Mead spent Sunday with Salem friends in Salem.
 Will Goldner came down from Tecumseh Saturday evening.
 R. R. Shelly of Preston transacted business here Monday.
 Judge Isham Reavis attended court in Hiawatha yesterday.
 Mrs. W. S. Leyda returned Friday evening from Lincoln.
 P. A. Smith was a pleasant caller this office the past week.
 Harlow has Filberts, Brazilian Pecan nuts at 15 cents per pound.
 Mrs. W. H. Keeling is visiting with relatives at Lawrence, Kas.
 Harlow has the best soft shell almonds for 20 cents per pound.
 Gertrude Beauer of Nebraska City spent Friday with friends here.
 Procter & Gamble's Naptha soap at Harlow's six bars for 25 cents.
 M. W. Spurlock of Salem was the guest of Mrs. John Holt Friday.
 Mrs. L. Mauger spent several days of the past week with friends in Rulo.
 Jennie Fellers and Lou Howe of Humboldt spent Sunday in this city.
 Mr. Hedges and wife of Lincoln spent Sunday with Falls City friends.
 Mrs. Etta Mason and son of Preston spent Monday with relatives here.
 Sam Bayne and wife returned Friday from a weeks visit with Salem friends.
 Mrs. G. W. Crocker and daughter Alice went to Dawson Saturday afternoon.
 Harlow's 20 cent coffee is sold every where at 25 It is the Original Java blend.
 Mrs. Dora Leeds and son of Omaha spent Friday of last week the guest of Oddie Lapp.
 Laura Heinzelman and Ruth Wheatley of Verdon spent Tuesday with Nellie Hossack.
 T. L. Himmelrich and with returned Sunday from a two weeks visit at Albion, Nebraska.
 Rev. W. T. Cline returned the latter part of last week from a three weeks visit with relatives in Indiana.
 John Harkins and wife were M. P. passengers Monday for Auburn where they will spend the week with relatives.
 Harlow don't take a back seat for any body on coffee—he claims and can prove it—his 15 cent coffee is equal to any 20 cent coffee offered.
 The portable corn cribs sold by Charlie Rickards are just the thing to set up in the field while husking or to feed out of during the winter.
 General Lew Wallace would not permit a dramatization of "Ben Hur" until almost twenty years after he had written it. His other famous novel, "The Fair God," was dramatized, nearly eighteen years ago and had a dozen years unbroken success before Gen. Wallace relented and "Ben Hur" was g iven to the stage. "A Royal Slave", which comes to the Gehling was founded upon "The Fair God."

HOLIDAY GOODS

Heretofore our display of strictly Holiday Goods has been quite limited. Having much more room we now open what will amount to practically a new department. A large space in the rear of our first floor will be given exclusively to Toys, Dolls and kindred lines. Do not buy your Christmas gifts until you see our offerings. We name below some of our numerous lines suitable for Gifts.

Toys, Dolls, Books, Toilet Articles, Brushes, Brush Sets, Perfumes, Jewelry, Cut Glass, China Lamps, Ladies and Gents Neckwear, Hosiery, Kid and Fabric Gloves and Mittens, Handkerchiefs, Mufflers, Purses, Handbags, Shirt Waists, Dressing Saques, Ladies and Childrens Cloaks, Childs and Ladies Furs, Skirts, Petticoats, Dress Goods, Silks, Table Linens, Stamped Linens, Fine Towels, Laces, Ribbons, Fascinators, Single and Double Shawls, Umbrellas, Suit Cases, Trunks, Lace and Tapestry Curtains, Rugs, Carpets, Hats, Caps, Candies, Nuts; Christmas Trees, Tree Ornaments.

V. G. LYFORD
FALLS CITY, NEBRASKA

We See The Stock

that comes to this market is the best or it cannot remain. The finest and heaviest beef to be had. The youngest spring lambs. The choicest corned porkers. We see that what you get

Is worth the price

We protect you from inferiority and guarantee that everytime you buy here you'll receive the full equivalent for your cash. And our prices are always satisfactory.

HEISER & MOSIMAN
 Phone 74

James Maddox was up from Preston Saturday.
 J. H. Morehead was a business visitor in Humboldt Friday.
 V. G. Lyford returned Friday from a business trip to Chicago.
 Ernest Clift of Humboldt was in the city the latter part of last week.
 J. J. Saxe of Milwaukee, Wis. spent Thursday with friends in this city.
 John Crook and wife left Friday afternoon for Omaha to spend a few days with friends.
 Tubby Clark of Nims City was casting his bland smiles on his numerous friends in this city Monday.

Maddox Grocery
 —and Queensware—

On account of the small yield of fruits the general run of prices are higher than they have been for some time I have 300 cases of the highest grade of California fruit that was bought on the "future order" plan and can sell at last year's prices. Here are some prices to think over.

- Defiance California Canned Fruit, 2 cans for.....50c
- Standard Canned Fruit, 2 cans for.....40c
- Best Grade Tomato, 2 cans for.....25c
- Standard Tomato, 3 cans for.....25c
- Best High Patent Flour, per sack.....$1 40
- Potatoes, per bu.....50c
- Michigan Salt, per bbl.....$1 35

Now here is the best of all: With a CASH ORDER of $3 00 (not including soap) 23 bars Lenox Soap.....50c

In Queensware remember I have the largest collection of staple and fancy goods ever in the county and you can get prices equal to, and in many cases better than in large cities.

Cash price 22 cents per dozen for Eggs

PHONE 141 O. H. Maddox Opposite Court House

For Thanksgiving

Select from these
Ice Cream and Ices
Oranges, Dates, Figs,
Raisins, Bananas,
Grapes and Nuts
Chocolates & Candies

SOWLES
 PHONE 9 FALLS CITY

Notice.
 All accounts due Chicago Lumber & Coal Co under former management if not paid by December 1st will be put in hands of collectors. C. H. Rickards, Manager.

George Hansell of Salem called at this office Saturday.
 Mrs. Frank Stohr left Sunday evening for St. Joseph.
 Ross Jackson of Rulo spent Saturday afternoon with friends here.
 John Weber of Verdon has our thanks for his subscription to this paper.
 J. H. Cornell was seriously ill the first of the week but is now a great deal better.
 G. W. Segrist, representing The Nebraska Farmer called at this office Monday.
 Mrs. Vinton Chaffin of Humboldt was the guest of her daughter Mrs. Milo Shields, during the week.