

LOCAL LORE.

Clarence Heck spent Christmas day in Seneca.

Dick Turner came down from Humboldt Monday.

Grace Hoppe left for St. Joe to spend a week with friends there.

Ross Foster of Wray, Colorado is visiting his parents in this city.

Walter Boyle of Omaha is visiting with his mother, Mrs. J. C. Yutzy.

Ward Mowers spent Christmas at the home of his parents in this city.

J. A. Fellers of Talmage was a pleasant caller at this office on Monday.

Bert Baker left Saturday afternoon for Kansas City to spend a few days.

Sadie Meyers left Monday for a weeks visit with her parents in Preston.

Clarence Chamberlain of Nelson spent Sunday with Quimby Hossack in this city.

Supervisor Atwood of Humboldt was a pleasant caller at this office Tuesday.

Ed Culp of Hoover, Colorado is visiting with her parents, J. Culp and wife in this city.

Mrs. Ferd Harlow returned Saturday from a weeks visit with her uncle at Rulo.

Laura Holmes of Table Rock visited during the week at the home of B. F. Norris.

Joe Norris of Lincoln spent several days of this week with his parents in this city.

L. C. Edwards of Humboldt spent a portion of this week among Falls City friends.

Mrs. O. J. McNall returned Monday from a brief visit with friends in St. Joseph.

Mrs. W. C. Sloan and little son of Verdon spent Christmas with Sheriff Hossack and family.

Fred Oswald of Lincoln spent several days of this week visiting friends and relatives in this city.

Don't wait for the collector, if you are in arrears on subscription drop in and get your receipt.

Richard Law and wife of Table Rock spent several days the first of the week with relatives here.

George Clark and little son of Fairbury are visiting relatives and old friends in this community.

Fred Graham returned from Chicago, where he is attending school and will remain home a few days.

Ephraim Withee and wife of Stella spent a few days the first of the week at the home of John Hossack.

Jacob Greenwald returned to Kansas City Monday night after spending a few days at his home in this city.

Harry Messler who has been employed in Humboldt for some time spent the first of the week in this city.

The Falls City & S. S. S. Ry. seems to be a sure go. The Kansas papers were full of it last week.

How is this for a new year's resolution? I will pay cash as I go and try to save 25 cents out of every dollar I earn.

Eva McNall left Monday afternoon for Fairfax, Mo., where she will spend the week the guests of friends in that city.

Frank Greenwald who is traveling for a shoe company in South Dakota, is in the city to spend a week with his wife and baby.

V. G. Lyford purchased the residence where he now lives from Ed Holbrook last week. Consideration being $3200.

The new railroad from Falls City, Sycamore Springs and Sabetha and so on to Topeka, will doubtless be built as surveyors are already laying out the route. The route from Sabetha to Falls City will be along Pony creek as that stream flows all the way from the two points. It is considered to be the most feasible route. After this road is built those in Fairview who wish to reach Topeka can do so by the Sabetha route.—Enterprise.

Ed Jones accompanied by his family spent Christmas with relatives in this city. Ed has sold his implement business in Grand Island and will remove to Omaha about January 6 to take a position with the Avery people. Ed and his brother Doc. are two boys whose progress speaks well of industry, integrity and hustle. The Tribune acknowledges favors.

The Hiawatha papers frequently speak of the crack trap shots over there. A week or so ago Jake Norris met some of the crack shots from Hiawatha in a shoot in Hamlin, Kansas and skinned them so badly that they took their guns and went home without finishing the shoot. There may be good shots in Hiawatha but the ones that showed up at Hamlin were quitters pure and simple.

Father Bex, of the Catholic church at Falls City has challenged Father Smith of the Episcopal church, to play a 50 point game of billiards. If Rev. Connelly of the Congregational church were here, we would like to enter him against the winner.—Hiawatha World.

Joe McGinnis of Nemaha precinct was a business visitor Friday. Mr. McGinnis is one of the farmers who wonders when Falls City is going to do the right thing with the mutual companies. The Tribune will keep him posted for the ensuing year.

"Mark this," says a Falls City paper: "There will be something doing in Falls City next year." It is earnestly to be hoped that the prediction is true. Heretofore, save for a fight and shooting, Falls City hasn't done much.—Hiawatha World.

Billie Veach is the crack blue rock shot at Falls City and he is arranging for a blue rock shoot there. At the big shoot at Omaha Veach broke 194 out of 200 and got second place.—Hiawatha World.

Dave, George and June Abbott with their families ate Christmas dinner with the old folks, and Dave, George and June can do a pretty good job at a Christmas dinner at that.

E. S. Towle and wife and E. H. Towle, wife and daughter Mary spent Christmas with John W. Towle and family in Omaha. Ned expects to bring the division home with him.

The rush at the Missouri Pacific occasioned by the action of the Burlington in the tax matter has kept Joe Varner away from dancing school for several weeks.

A little school boy was asked by his teacher to give a sentence in which the word "dogma" was used. Here is what he gave: "Our dogs ma has pups."

Ed Howe writes that when he returns from Japan he intends to wear the national costume of that country which is a kimono and a plug hat.

Nora Shaffer of Rowan, Iowa who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Jane Bohrer and other relatives of this city returned to her home Thursday.

Gus Ruegge, who has been in the employ of the Western Union Telegraph Co. at Wray, Colorado spent Christmas in this city.

Will Grush puts his name a year in advance with the Tribune.

How do you like cold turkey by this time?

J. I. James came down from Stella Tuesday.

Ada Judy returned to Hiawatha last Tuesday.

L. F. Gilbert was down from Stella on Monday.

George Martin returned Tuesday from Hiawatha.

A Graham made a business trip to Stella on Wednesday.

Dr. Kent was a business visitor in Verdon last Wednesday.

The cold weather is coming, buy your horse a blanket.

Ed. Pribbeno returned to Preston Tuesday evening.

H. Gerdes came down from Barada on Friday last.

Mrs. Ed. May is visiting with friends in Nebraska City.

Frank Weller was down from Stella the first of the week.

Herbert Hayes came down from Stella Tuesday afternoon.

Uncle John Bauer returned to his home in Verdon last Tuesday.

Mrs. E. Wheeler returned to her home in Stella last Tuesday.

John Donaner of Pawnee City was a Saturday visitor in this city.

J. W. King transacted business affairs at the county seat on Wednesday.

George Shields was a business visitor in St. Joseph during the week.

May Jones returned Monday from a two weeks visit in Seneca Kansas.

Pearl Garver of Humboldt spent Tuesday with Falls City friends.

W. W. James of Shubert was a guest of Falls City friends last Tuesday.

Nora Potet is visiting with her sister Mrs. Will Hurst in Padonia Kansas.

George Jones came up from Reserve last Tuesday returning Wednesday.

Ella Miller came down from Omaha Sunday returning on Tuesday.

W. S. Leyda was an M. P. passenger for Stella Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Joe Holmes returned Tuesday from a visit with Hiawatha friends.

Mrs. Martha Ham, of Liberty, Neb., is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Siloan.

Frank Hurr of Table Rock spent the first of this week with Falls City friends.

Mrs. Ermna Strother of Verdon transacted business in this city this week.

Mrs. John Oswald returned Tuesday afternoon from a visit with her parents in Stella.

G. E. Hall left Saturday on a visit to his brother F. E. Hall at Galesburg, Illinois.

Edna and Thornley Hoppe of Bancroft Nebraska are visiting friends in this city.

Stella Wheeler of University Place was the guest of Virgie Mead the first of this week.

Frankie Moran of Omaha is spending the week with her mother in this city.

Lloyd Morris and wife of Stella spent Monday with her parents D. Lowe and wife here.

James Jellison is home from Geneva and Edgar where he has been at work all summer.

I. R. Basim of the local Burlington force spent Monday at his home in Odell, Nebraska.

Will Hutchings and wife of Joplin Mo., spent Christmas with his brother and sisters east of town.

Mrs. Rhodes of Mount Pleasant Iowa is spending the holidays with her daughter Mrs. W. W. Abbey.

One Falls City man purchases his Christmas presents the day after Christmas because they are cheaper then. His children stand about on Christmas day watching with sad eyes and disconsolate faces their more fortunate playmates, but then father saves a few cents.

The pastor is very anxious to see every member of the church and congregation present next Sabbath morning. Subject of sermon will be "Memory, Hope Help and Hindrance." Everybody cordially invited.—S. W. GRIFFIN, Pastor.

The weather for the past three weeks has been all right from the standpoint of the coal bin or the young man and his steady with their evening walk but it will have to change very soon or endanger next years crop greatly.

Several Falls City men woke up in the cold gray dawn of the morning after Christmas with anything but a peace on earth good will towards men taste in their months.

Anna Margaret Gist who has been so seriously ill with typhoid fever is considered out of danger, and is progressing rapidly toward complete recovery under the care of Dr. Houston.

If you enjoy a good novel filled with dramatic situations, a charming love story and the most delicate humor, don't fail to read the Spenders soon to commence in The Tribune.

Mrs. Amanda Beaver from the western part of this state came here to spend Christmas with her brother, Benj. Foster and to attend the wedding of his daughter Miss Elsie.

Mrs. Clarence Peabody returned to St. Joseph Wednesday evening after a four days visit at the home of her parents Samuel Prater and wife in this city.

John Lippold who has spent the past two weeks with friends here, returned to his home in Blue Springs on Wednesday.

Mrs. Kackelries who has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Will Crook returned to her home in Alma, last Saturday.

If you owe on subscription, pay up. Your dollar isn't muct, but several hundred of them count up. Do your part.

Mrs. Hayden Prater left Tuesday for Dawson where she spent several days at the home of her uncle Will Albright.

Mrs. Geo. Prater went to Hiawatha on Wednesday and will visit with friends in St. Joseph before returning to this city.

Mable Lyford who is attending the University at Lincoln spent the holidays with her parents V. G. Lyford and wife.

Mrs. McKillip who has been visiting with her sister Mrs. Wilson Shock returned Tuesday to her home in Wyoming.

James Powell headed a crowd of hunters in search of the festive Jack on Christmas day. A good days sport is reported.

Frank Martin and wife of Lincoln were the guests of her parents M. Giannini and wife, during the week.

J. E. Hoppe and wife moved yesterday from Oneida, Kan., and will make Falls City their future home.

Frank Riley of Glen Elder Kansas visited his uncle I Heaston in this city the fore part of this week.

Dr. Lee Kerr and wife of Kansas City spent the first of this week the guests of Dr. W. H. Kerr and wife.

Fred Cain came in from Montanna to spend Christmas at his home in this city. He is looking well.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Hanson of Norfolk, Nebr. spent a portion of this week with Dr. Kerr and wife.

RUGS!

We are having our Annual Rug Sale from now on till Christmas. And that means that you can buy a rug from one-half to one-third its regular price.

E. BODE & SONS

DR. J. C. AGEE

SPECIALIST

Consultation Free

Will be in Falls City at the CITY HOTEL
First Visit Dec. 30, 1905

Special attention given to Diseases of the Skin
Diseases of Women and Children
Chronic Diseases,

Second Visit Wednesday January 31st, 1906

DON'T FORGET THE PLACE AND DATE

Mrs. Siloan is very ill with pneumonia fever.

Charles Hinton returned to his home in Salem Saturday.

H. Walker was over from Morrill, Kansas last Saturday.

Lettuce Stewart of Salem spent Wednesday with friends here.

Jasmer Lane came down from Table Rock the last Tuesday.

John H. Davis of Salem spent the past Saturday in this city.

Mrs. W. L. Sears was on the sick list the first of this week.

Katherine Heacock is home from the University at Lincoln.

Harry Crooks of Hiawatha spent Sunday with friends here.

Mr. Ryan the piano man returned from St. Joseph last Saturday.

Frank Wiley made a business trip to St. Joseph the first of the week.

J. S. Lord, county clerk-elect was down from Salem last Saturday.

J. F. Young of Fargo was a guest at the City Hotel last Saturday.

Albert Bauman of Fargo spent last Saturday among Falls City folks.

L. W. Atwood of Humboldt was a business visitor in this city Tuesday.

John W. Rader of Hiawatha was in this city the first of this week.

Miss Francis Morton left the first of the week for a brief visit in Lincoln.

Ethel Mitchell of Auburn was a guest of friends at the National hotel last Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Judy returned Wednesday from a weeks visit with her daughter, Mrs. Etta Mason at Preston.

Did you hang up your stockings?

Stephen Miles left Saturday afternoon for Kansas City.

Harvey Foehlinger spent Monday evening in Preston.

Edward Hayes came up from St. Joseph last Tuesday.

Prof. Tobie went to Lincoln the first of the week.

Herman Kelly came down from Shubert on Wednesday last.

Charlie Cornell is suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism.

The Misses Tichen of Dawson spent Thursday with friends here.

Mrs. J. Goldman left the latter part of last week for a brief visit with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Foehlinger at McCook.

P. O. Avery of Humboldt was a caller here Friday while enroute for Kansas City where he will receive medical treatment.

Congressman Longworth of Ohio is quite a fiddle player and is now spending most of his time on the tune "Alice, where art thou."

Miss Flora Fifer of York, the former principal in our High school was visiting friends in this city during the week.

Wednesday was ladies day at the Elk club rooms and a large number of the members wives took advantage of the opportunity to spend an afternoon at the card tables and in the billiard room.

C. W. Breithaupt and wife John Mosiman jr., and wife Anna Schmidli, Mary, Lyda and Louisa Werner, Christine Tuback, and Mr. Henry Mosiman attended the Christmas entertainment Monday evening at the Zion church five miles east of this city and an excellent time was enjoyed by all.