

THE FALLS CITY TRIBUNE.

Vol. III FALLS CITY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1906. Whole No. 108

Mrs. T. F. Brown Dead.

Sunday morning Death claimed one of the best known among the older residents of Humboldt when it claimed as its victim Mrs. T. F. Brown. She had been ill for some time from a cancer, and died at the age of seventy-five years. Mr. and Mrs. Brown were among the pioneers of Richardson County having settled here over fifty years ago and were among the very first of the white residents. Mr. Brown took up land at that place among Indians in the roughness of a frontier life where he was later joined by his wife. They remained on this farm until the past few years when they then moved into Humboldt. Mrs. Brown was one of those courageous, helpful women who make the hardships in life's dooryard less evident and magnified the sunny places to such an extent that others were helped in their every day journey. She leaves besides her husband two daughters, Mrs. Virgie Boaz of Burlington Junction and Mrs. Mary Starks of Kansas City.

Change in Millinery.

During the week Mrs. Blakely purchased the Breithaupt millinery stock in this city, and will continue the trade of the same in this city. The public is sorry to lose Mrs. Breithaupt in the business circle, and at the same time are assured that the present proprietress will merit the best of patronage.

Married.

In the parlors of the Union House at Falls City, on Jan. 30th at 7:00 o'clock p. m. by T. A. Lindenmeyer, minister of the First Christian church, Mr. Walter Brown of Wymore, Neb., and Miss Josephine Trapp, of St. Louis, Mo. The groom is a traveling salesman for a jewelry house and they departed for Wymore on the 31st.

Collar Bone Broken.

While playing with several other children on the lawn at the John Wilson residence, Tuesday evening, George Anna Albright fell from a box, thus breaking her left collar bone. The accident was a very painful one. Dr. Fleming gave the fracture her attention and the little one is getting along all right but it will be some time before she will be able to be out.

Contest For New Member.

The A. O. U. W. of Falls City has been having a contest for new members by dividing the membership into two companies, with W. W. Brown as captain of one company and J. C. Morehead captain of the other. The contest closed Jan. 25 at which time there was initiated 18 new members. J. C. Morehead's company being winner of the contest. The losing side is to give an oyster supper to the A. O. U. W. and D. of H. lodges. The supper will be held on Feb. 18th. All members of the two lodges are expected to be present. Another contest is on for 60 days under same conditions.

Scarlet Fever.

John A. Crook was taken ill Saturday evening. Dr. Boose diagnosing the case as scarlet fever. The city physician was notified as representing the city board of health and sustaining the diagnosis of the above physician promptly placed a quarantine upon the premises. It is hoped that no more cases will develop in our community. Dr. Boose reports as we go to press that John is doing well.

Burglar At Rulo.

The saloon owned by Davis & Seeds at Rulo Nebraska was broken into Sunday night by, as yet, unknown parties who secured two revolvers and $15 in money. Not satisfied with this they proceeded to force an entrance into the newly opened store of George N. Ocamb, by prying open a window in the rear end of the building. Nothing was reported missing here so the supposition is that the burglars were frightened away before making an inventory. This is the third attempt within the past few months, on the business houses of that town. The first time they secured a large amount of money, whiskey and cigars from John Kanaly's saloon and attempted an entrance to the post office. Later they effected an entrance to the store of R. S. Coupe securing several hundred dollars value in watches and other jewelry. As yet the guilty parties have not been apprehended.

Announcement.

Having purchased the Meyers hardware stock, I wish to announce to the patrons of this institution and my friends in general, that I am now ready for business and at your service in my line. I shall not only endeavor to keep our stock complete in the various lines, but aim to keep the very best on the market and sell at a price within the reach of all.

I have retained the services of Richard Bachstein, who for years has held the first in the tinshop and by faithful and honest work has gained an enviable reputation as a thorough workman. Also Joseph Sepek who as a machinist has no superior in this part of the state. He can save you delay in sending for new repairs by making the old one do the work.

Our line of hardware, stoves, barb wire is now complete. We handle Pittsburg electric well woven wire fence, garden and field seeds, paints, oils and bee supplies. We pay especial attention to plumbing and heating.

Call and see me at the old stand, first door south of The First National bank, you will always receive a hearty welcome.

Respectfully,
J. C. TANNER.

Ninety-Seventh Birthday.

A surprise party was given Mrs. Rebecca Jones on January 28th at the home of L. M. Jones 4 miles north east of Rulo. The affair was in honor of her 97th birthday. Among the many gifts received by Grandma Jones was a nice dress pattern and she remarked that if some one would keep a needle threaded she would make the dress herself.

Rebecca Moris was born in New Jersey January 28, 1809 and in the year 1827 was married to Wm. Jones in the state of Ohio. She has lived a frontier life, is the mother of nine children and is as spry as a woman of thirty. She can walk a mile from one house to the other without feeling fatigued in the least.

The little girls of the neighborhood enjoyed the surprise on "their grandma" almost as much as she did.

To Whom It May Concern.

I am living now in my own house and I would be glad of your patronage. I am going to do all kinds of plain sewing. Make comforts, quilt quilts, and do knitting of different kinds, and other miscellaneous kinds of work. If you have any work of this kind to do please give me a call and oblige. Harlan Street, three blocks south of Presbyterian church.

MRS. BELLE MULLIGAN.

Society News.

On last Saturday evening a number of Mary Albright's friends very pleasantly surprised her at her home in the east part of town, in honor of her eighteenth birthday. Cards and music made the evening a very pleasant one. At a late hour an elegant luncheon was served by Mrs. Albright, assisted by Mesdames A. Bentley and W. Boyd. The guests presented Miss Mary with a number of elegant presents, among them being a gold watch fob and a gold and pearl handled silk umbrella.

Guy E. Sears was very pleasantly surprised last Thursday evening by twelve or fifteen of his friends, the occasion being his nineteenth birthday. Graphophone selections were enjoyed and dancing formed a large portion of the evening's pleasures. Refreshments were served. Mr. Sears was presented with a token of remembrance by the guests.

Mrs. Allan D. May and Mrs. Will Uhlig entertained on Friday evening, at the home of the former, in honor of Mrs. Ella Heckler-Burdick. It was a very pleasant affair as both ladies are excellent hostesses. Dainty refreshments were served during the evening, and the many guests enjoyed one of the most pleasant of this year's social events.

The ladies of the Episcopal church held a ten cent tea at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Cleveland Wednesday evening. The spread was sumptuous and the social function all that could be wished for while the attendance was certainly a full house between the hours named in the announcement. This worthy couple are certainly adepts at entertaining.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church held a pleasant and unique social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Heacock last evening. Oranges, of the manufactured kind, were sold to the gentlemen guests at 10 cents each and each contained a prize. You were in duty bound to display your catch which added much to the zest and spirit of the evening. Refreshments were served and an enjoyable time had by all present.

DIED.

On Monday January 29, 1906 occurred the death of Mrs. Christina A. Brecht at the advanced age of 84 years 1 month and 2 days. Mr. and Mrs. Albrecht were residents of Richardson County for forty years, being among the first settlers at Arago. Mrs. Christina Albrecht was preceded eleven years by her husband to the Land across the Silent River and since that time has made her home with Sigmund Spaeth and family who were close friends in the Faderland. Mrs. C. Rosina Albrecht was born in Wurttemberg, Germany December 27, 1821 and came to this country before the great war. Death was due to old age. She lived a happy, useful life and made many friends. Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon by Pastor Tensen at the Spaeth residence on North Main Street, interment being in the Steele Cemetery.

Word was received during the week of the death of Howard D. Bucher of Lisbon, Ia. He was a former resident of this city and has many warm friends in this city that will be grieved to learn of the early death of this exemplary young man. He was employed with his father in the furniture business and his life in the business world was one of aptitude and ability. The deceased was a brilliant, forceful student not being content with equalling but striving to excel by straightforward honest methods. The sad news cast a gloom over the entire community which will take many days of sunshine to dispel. Howard D. Bucher was born January 30, 1883 being at the time of his death 22 years, 11 months and 21 days old. He was a graduate of high school with the class of 1901 and for 8 years had been a faithful devoted member of church. He was a nephew of Samuel Bucher of this city and the deepest sympathy is extended to the sorrowing father and sister who survive him.

District Court.

Judge Raper is breaking the record for rapidity in the disposal of court business. That lawyers, litigants and clients are kept on the jump and the closing of this week of court will disclose some very weary men. The jury in the Schulenberg case returned a verdict of guilty after several hours of deliberation with a recommendation for clemency on the part of the court. A motion for a new trial has been filed and will be argued later on. The jury in the case of Amelia Constantine against the county which arose out of the bridge accident in Barada precinct last June returned a verdict against the county for $2,000, after a deliberation of a short time. There are two of these cases yet to be tried but it is probable that they will go over the term and some settlement be made by the interested parties. The accounting case of M. E. Gandy vs Jerome Wiltse has been on since Monday, the court holding a night session Wednesday night, we go to press too early to give the result. The next case to be heard is the State vs Burk, a Rulo case, after which the Fink case will be heard. The first case for next week will be The Gaiser Manufacturing Co., vs Roy King. It is probable that court will last most of next week.

Judge Kelligar was down Monday and heard several matters of minor importance in the clerk's room while Judge Raper was hearing jury cases. Among the matters heard by the Judge Kelligar was the divorce case of Whitten vs Whitten, in which Wilmer Whitten was granted a divorce from his wife and the custody of his child.

Farmer's Institute.

The program as carried out at the Farmers' Institute held in this city on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week was very successful both from an interesting and instructive stand point. The Jenne Opera house which had been secured by the Falls City Telephone Company for the use of the Institute was crowded during the entire session. Each number received due attention, and every one was delivered in a manner that conveyed the thought and work given to each special line. The session opened Tuesday afternoon with special music, followed by addresses by Vol. Keyser and Wm. Mohler. Both gentlemen gave much instructive advice both on the spraying of fruit trees and the raising of seventy-five bushels of corn to the acre. This was followed by a general discussion in which much interest was manifested. The ladies were greatly pleased with the general pointers and helps given by Miss Rose Bouton in remarks on Chemistry in the kitchen. The evening session commenced at 7:30 o'clock with another musical number. Mr. Keyser and Miss Bouton delivered two good lectures on Decorative Plants and Domestic Science.

What was especially pleasing was the manner in which the general discussion session was taken up. M. L. Leonard gave a careful, resourceful talk on Economic Pork Production. Growing potatoes was equally as good by I. G. Ferguson, and this took up the forenoon. The afternoon session was devoted to feeding sheep by Mr. Leonard and "How to Till and Fertilize the Farm" by I. G. Ferguson. That the institute was a success and should be continued every year is shown by the excellent results of those held in the past.

Resolutions were adopted thanking the people, committee and officers in their various ways in helping toward the success of the Institute.

Officers elected for the coming year were: President, M. J. Schaible; Vice President, John Rieschick; Secretary and Treasurer, H. H. Long.
