

LOCAL LORE

Eat Sowles' candy.

Robert Kanaly was a Dawson visitor last Friday.

Miss Reese came down from Verdon Monday.

Guy Thompson was over from Morrill on Monday.

F. F. Stevens came up from Rulo last Saturday.

Cash paid for eggs and Poultry at Heck's feed store.

Thomas Glines was over from Hiawatha last Sunday.

A. D. Larabee was up from Preston last Saturday.

Goods received every day at the Bon Ton Millinery.

Mrs. Jim Powell is visiting with Kansas City friends.

Sadie Meyers was up from Preston last Friday evening.

Etta Larson of White Cloud, Kansas, was here on Monday.

J. F. Long of Fargo was a business visitor here last Friday.

David Scott on route 1 came in Saturday and gave us a friendly call.

J. S. Lichty was over from Norton, Kan., the first of the week.

J. E. Halley was over from the Kansas town of Everest, on last Monday.

James Neeld of Dawson, was transacting business in our midst Saturday.

Tubby Clark and Frank Blakey were down from Nims City on Monday.

Rev. Lindenmeyer was a B. & M. passenger for Pawnee City the past Friday.

Mrs. Emmett Satterwhite spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Drake and children went to Salem Saturday on a brief visit.

For reliable fire and Tornado Insurance see Rieger & Sebald, opposite court house.

For farm loans at lowest rates and best options, see Rieger & Sebald, opposite court house.

Mrs. W. J. and Susie Cunningham of Rulo were guests at the National the first of the week.

Mrs. Allie Watson and son, Otto spent Sunday with Frank Bennett and family near Humboldt.

Charles Humphrey and wife of Verdon spent Sunday with her parents, Geo. Abbott, and wife of this city.

Mrs. Sarah Marberger of Humboldt was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Geo. Schmelzel the first of the week.

We will furnish our readers with the Daily Kansas City Star and The Tribune one year for $5.20, the price of the Star alone, begin at once.

Geo. J. Schmidt of Rulo called at these quarters on Saturday and when he went away he carried with him a receipt for a year's subscription to The Tribune.

Uncle Sam Beutler of Speiser precinct was a business visitor to this city Saturday. We acknowledge a pleasant call and the renewal of his faith in The Tribune.

April showers have been few and far between thus far. As there has been no hot days and few high winds, vegetation has not suffered for want of moisture.

Mrs. Sue DeWald is making extensive improvements on her residence property on North Lane street. New porches and a different coat of paint make the house look almost new.

It is a duty you owe to your family to insure your home in a conflagration-proof company. Your fire policy may some time stand between you and poverty. See Rieger & Sebald. Opposite court house.

Fred Schock spent Sunday with his parents here.

Charlie Rickards spent Sunday at Seneca, Kansas.

Mike Clancy was down from Dawson Saturday.

Thomas Hall was down from Verdon on Monday.

Chas. Feicht of Nims City was a Monday visitor here.

Will Wylie of Nebraska City was down here on Monday.

Mrs. Barbara Dilts is visiting with a sister in Des Moines, Ia.

Herman Koehler of Rulo was a business visitor here last Thursday.

G. A. Alexander of Table Rock was here on business Monday.

John Ross and wife spent Sunday with their son, O. R. Ross at Auburn.

Walter Baker, foreman at the Bilby ranch, was in the city on Tuesday.

L. P. Alexander of Horton, Kan., was a Sunday visitor in our city.

The public schools of this city held Arbor day exercises Friday afternoon.

Rev. W. C. Brewer was a very welcome caller at this office last Thursday.

Mrs. A. Thompson of Morrill, Kan., spent Monday with Falls City friends.

I. E. Smith, attorney from Humboldt spent Saturday with Falls City people.

Osborne Red Seal flour at Hermes' Feed Store.—CADE. O. P. HECK.

Chas. Heilman on route 3 has thanks for another bright new dollar last Tuesday.

1,000 copies of popular sheet music at 12½ cents per copy at Roberts, the Jeweler.

John Putnam was transacting business affairs in Fortescue the latter part of last week.

Mrs. V. E. Emerson and daughter, Marie, of Dawson were the guests of friends here Saturday.

Mrs. I. Lyons, sr., returned from Rulo the last of the week after a brief visit with her mother.

E. V. King last Friday added his name to the roll of honor otherwise known as The Tribune subscription list of readers.

S. P. Gist of Salem was transacting business affairs in this city last Monday and visiting his son, T. J. Gist and family.

We have the only company writing standard hail insurance on growing crops. Rieger & Sebald, opposite court house.

Mrs. Rose O'Rourke was called to this city from Omaha Wednesday by the critical condition of her brother, James McFarland.

Little Clara Gehling was quite ill for several days the past week but is now much improved and we hope will soon fully recover.

Nellie Edwards returned Monday from Pawnee City where she was called the latter part of last week by the severe illness of her mother.

The late news from the San Francisco fire again emphasizes the importance of good people insuring their homes in a conflagration-proof company. Rieger & Sebald, opposite court house.

Fred Bruhn and wife were down from Salem last Monday and gave this office a pleasant call, it being just one year to the day since they paid their last subscription. They have our thanks and an invitation to come again.

W. W. Chinnock, lineman for the C. B. & O., with headquarters in this city for a number of years, has been transferred to Wymore. We are sorry to lose this amiable gentleman and his estimable family, but our loss will be a decided gain for Wymore people.

This is house cleaning time.

For Red Seal in 500 lots, inquire of Cade.

Geo. N. Hastings was down from Auburn on Tuesday.

T. L. Hall went to St. Joe Wednesday on business.

Roberts, the Jeweler sells 20 foot fish poles for 10 cents.

Ray Pixley was up from Hiawatha on Tuesday evening.

A. A. Tanner was down from Humboldt Wednesday evening.

J. H. Hall of Verdon was in the city Wednesday on business.

Aren't you glad you are not a married man these house cleaning days.

Mrs. Frank Camblin and children spent Wednesday with her daughter in Stella.

Mrs. Ed Fisher is still quite sick at the home of her sister, Mrs. Maude Wigton.

Dowty Watson of Reserve, Ks., was the guest of Falls City friends last Saturday.

Jason Timerman of Stella was looking after business affairs in this city on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Priest of El Paso, Texas, are visiting with her parents, A. Messler and wife.

Lottie Culp, Zetta Camblin, Harry Foehtlinger and Keith McMillan spent Sunday in Barada.

D. W. Griffith of Verdon has our thanks for a renewal of faith in The Tribune's future, this week.

T. Wells of Council Bluffs, Ia., J. M. Fairbanks and F. L. Blakeney of Nims City were here Thursday.

Every tree and shrub is in bud or flower. Who wouldn't live in the country during the spring season anyway?

Fred Danks of Verdon adds his name to the growing list of The Tribune this week, for which he has our thanks.

Edward Hodapp closed a successful term of school near Salem the past week and returned to his home near Humboldt.

Elmer Frank of Washington D. C. has been visiting his father, M. A. Frank and family. Elmer is on his way west to inspect a mine of his, where he says there are millions in it.

Jos. Leppek has resigned his clerkship with J. C. Tanner and with his family will return to Humboldt next week. He will have charge of the manufacture of a patent auto tire that was recently invented by parties in that town.

The agricultural hall at the Salem fair grounds was destroyed by fire Tuesday night. Many of our citizens watched the reflection of the blaze on the sky and wondered whether or not it was a hay stack or the village that was being visited by a fire with a high wind to fan the flames.

Cecil Kanaly was up from Rulo Friday.

Scott Sailor came down from Verdon Wednesday.

S. H. Chism was a business visitor here on Wednesday.

W. C. Tucker of DuBois was among the Wednesday visitors here.

John Wiltse and wife spent Wednesday with his brother in Rulo.

C. B. Snyder remembered the Tribune on Wednesday of this week.

D. W. Sowles spent a portion of this week with his son Hal in St. Joe.

R. E. Grinstead of Salem was a pleasant caller at these quarters Wednesday.

Ray Stewart of Hiawatha was the guest of friends here Tuesday evening.

M. Aldrich was visiting with his brother, Vern Aldrich the first of the week.

Mrs. Ada Wells went to White Cloud on Tuesday to attend the wedding of a niece.

Charles Brainard of Albert Lee Minn., visited his uncle C. W. Farrington and family Friday.

Maud Rist and Mrs. J. Pickrell of Pawnee City are in the city the guests of Rev. Lindenmeyer and wife.

Fred Smith and wife were down from Salem on Wednesday, she being a delegate to the K. L. of S. convention held in the city.

Rev. R. R. Teeter, of Waterloo, Iowa will speak at the Brethren church in this city Wednesday evening. All are invited to hear him.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will give a ten cent tea Thursday evening, May 3rd from 5 to 9 o'clock at the residence of Wm. Wilson.

The ladies auxiliary of the Cemetery association will meet at the home of W. S. Korner at 2:30 o'clock next Tuesday afternoon, May 1st.

The spraying exhibition given in John Gilligans orchard on Tuesday and Wednesday proved interesting to a number of farmers and fruit growers, many traveling from some distance to watch it.

Peter McFarland, of Belvidere, Neb., a brother of James McFarland, sr., was called to the bedside of his nephew, James McFarland, jr., on Thursday morning. This is his first visit here in eighteen years.

The illustrated Passion play and trip to the Holy lands as rendered by Rev. Holley on Monday and Tuesday evenings at the Gehling was well attended and is one of the finest, produced in that line. Rev. Holley was formerly a pastor of the First Christian church here and is an eloquent speaker and lecturer.

MAKING good promises, and making promises good, are two different expressions made up of the same words, but so constructed as to mean two entirely different things. Anybody can make good promises—it's harder to make promises good. And the only way to make good in the clothing business is to have the right kind of clothes at the right kind of prices. No amount of fine talk in the newspapers will overcome poor clothing or high prices in the store

Copyright 1906 B. Kuppenheimer & Co. Chicago

Come to the store to judge of our ability to satisfy you—if you can't be properly suited with these splendid

HARGRAVE & HARGRAVE

clothes, then nobody can satisfy you. A good suit for as little as $10

HAVE YOU SPRING FEVER?

Open May 4th for Business.

With everything turning green outdoors it is natural that you should have a desire for something to soothe that restless feeling. Perhaps you could find just what you want in O. Schoenheit's new place. If you are looking for a change in drinking places, you will find it in this establishment, for Mr. Schoenheit has fitted it with exquisite fixtures which were made especially for him by The Brunswick-Balke Collender Co. of Chicago. Highly polished woods, magnificent mirrors and artistic carving are features of the place. Briefly stated, it is the modern drinking place in every respect. Just such a place as is destined to become popular in Falls City, for the old time, ill kept saloon is fast losing the favor of the public. Mr. Schoenheit, in catering to the high class, patronage, is keeping abreast with the times.

New Music House.

A new music firm have secured a location here and will open up a store this week. It will be managed by the Prescott Music Co., the oldest house in the state of Nebraska. Their headquarters are at Lincoln where they enjoy an immense trade. A full and complete line of reliable pianos composes the stock of this enterprising firm. Read their ad on another page and see what they have to say of interest to you.

First Christian Church.

Services at the First Christian church, Lordsday, April 29th:
 9:45 a. m., Bible School.
 11:00 a. m. communion.
 11:30 p. m., morning sermon, "Workers Together With God."
 3:00 p. m. Junior Endeavor.
 7:00 p. m. Senior Y. P. S. C. E. meeting.
 8:00 p. m. Evening sermon, "What must I do to be Saved?"

All are cordially invited to attend these services. Strangers and visitors in the city are cordially welcomed.

T. A. LINDENMEYER, Minister.

WANTED—Twenty head of colts, to pasture. Call up phone 44F. 19-2t

---

DO YOU KNOW WHERE!

To buy the BEST Wall Paper
 To buy the PRETTIEST Wall Paper
 To buy the CHEAPEST Wall Paper
 To buy the best BARN Paints
 To buy the best BUGGY Paint
 To buy the best WAGON Paints
 To buy the best VARNISHES
 To buy the best of anything at the lowest price that good quality will permit, is at the

City Pharmacy.
Dr. McMillan, Prop.
 Falls City - - - Nebraska

---

M. E. Church.

The following services next Sabbath:

9:45 Sunday school.
 10:45 a. m., Preaching.
 3:00 p. m. Junior league.
 7 p. m. Epworth league.
 8 p. m., Preaching.
 You are invited to attend.
 W. T. CLINE, Pastor.

Marriage Record.

Harry J. Tolliver, Falls City ..... 21
 Marie Lindbl, Nebraska City ..... 22
 Rev. Cline, April 21, 1906
 Ruben P. Thomas, Frankfort, Kas. .... 25
 Blanche Stumbo, Craig, Mo. .... 26
 Judge Gagnon, April 25, 1906

---

Falls City, Nebraska

Dr. Geo. H. Parsell
 (Formerly of Omaha)

Homeopathic Physician, and Surgeon

(Also treats the Eye and Fits Glasses)

Office at Residence
 Telephone 88