The Tribune has been running an advertisement offering $500 to some one for a name to be given a new beer. We know several citizens who have been offering nearly that sum for a bottle of old beer within the last week.

Poor old Montgomery Ward. The little Tribune seems to have stirred them up for fair. The expenses incurred by them in their efforts to answer us can hardly be less than $1000. It is only a question of time before those who have been deluded in buying of them will know them for what they really are.

Any farmer that would ask and receive free telephone exchange with Falls City, get the local merchants to subscribe money to assist in the construction of the line into Falls City and then send to a mail order house for his merchandise is possessed of a soul so small that Gabriel will hardly hesitate to awaken him when the last morning comes.

The woman who is really particular about the clothes her boy wears naturally turns toward this store, because the merchandise found here is distinctive and pleasing, broad in variety, correct in price and best quality for the price.

HARGRAVE &amp; HARGRAVE

An extraordinary selection for boys 7 to 17 years of age.

Double-breasted jacket and pants suits, produced by the leading makers of Boys' Clothes, side and sleeve seams have double outlets, taped and tripled sewed, pants lined throughout. The Norfolks never were made in a more varied and pleasing manner, single and double-breasted, tailored as mentioned before. Only best fabrics are used. Prices $3.50 to $8.

They have individuality and they impart individuality. They are made on right lines, and, therefore, look right. Clothing of character—that is our aim in every boy's garment we sell. Parents and the boys themselves approve it and our success attests it.

Children's Suits: Every new conception that has the merits of style and quality is represented in our exhibit. We have made it a point to offer a great many exquisite novelties at especially low and attractive prices, $2 to $6.
