

Everybody Bad in Louisville!

An evangelist asked the postmaster of Louisville to send him the names of unsaved people of that town. The postmaster sent him the city directory so as to give everybody a chance.

The reverse is true of our lands at Deerfield and Granada. You could almost shut your eyes and not get a bad piece.

We know that if you once see our country you will not be satisfied until you have secured some of it. It is the most fascinating country you ever saw. We never had anyone say that they did not like it. Come on the next excursion and see for yourself. Remember the date, June 19th.

In Oklahoma, Indian Territory and Texas are vast areas of unimproved land—land not now yielding the crops of which it is capable. The same conditions apply to the towns. BINDER TWINE THATS MADE AT HOME

Other things being equal, you would rather not buy twine produced in foreign lands and controlled by a merciless trust. Here's the twine situation today: The only binder twine that is the product of American farms and the only twine not controlled by the trust is

American Hemp Mixed Twine

This twine is made in every ball.
Read Before Using

AMERICAN HEMP MIXED TWINE is warranted to work on any Wheat or Corn Binder using twine. It runs 50 feet longer to the point than standard, therefore a ball of 50 pounds will bind fully one thousand more bundles than a ball of 50 pounds of the best standard any farmer ever used. MIXED TWINE is moist proof, water or moisture will not rot it; it is absolutely free from lumps or snags, and is therefore very much STRONGER than standard twine. Farmers who have never used MIXED TWINE should make the following test: Before starting your binder at the beginning of harvest, put in a ball of standard or seal FIRST, use it up, then COUNT the number of bundles that are bound and unbundled. Then put in the first ball of MIXED TWINE, use it up and count the number of bundles as before. The result will surprise you. Any farmer making this test after FIRST using a ball of standard or seal, will afterwards use only AMERICAN HEMP MIXED TWINE.

It is stronger, smoother, longer and binds more bundles than any other twine you ever saw. And that is not all: Grasshoppers and crickets do not eat it and dampness does not rot it. Because of the extra length you can bind a thousand more sheaves with every 50 lb. bale. That's worth considering. No matter what kind of a binder you have, it works all right. Never slip the knotter, fewer unbound sheaves. Fully guaranteed—cost no more than seal or standard. It's the coming twine for all grain and corn binding. We're prepared to supply everybody's wants this season. Come in and give us your order, so we can figure on the size of our shipments. We want to have enough stock on hand to supply all demands. Over one million pounds used in Nebraska for the harvest of 1905. Not a single complaint; not a ball returned.
