Republican Senatorial Convention.

The republicans of the first senatorial district of Nebraska, are hereby called to meet in convention at the Park hotel in the city of Humboldt, Nebraska, on Tuesday, August 28, 1906, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for state senator for the first senatorial district of Nebraska, to be voted for at the next general election to be held in the state of Nebraska, November 6, 1906, and for the transaction of such other business as may come before said convention.

The basis of representation of the counties composing said first senatorial district in said convention shall be the vote cast for Hon. Chas. B. Letton for supreme judge at the general election held November 7, 1905, giving one delegate for each 100 votes or major fraction thereof so cast for said Hon. Chas. B. Letton and one delegate at large from each county composing said first senatorial district.

Said representation entitles each county to the following representation in said convention:
Richardson.....19 Pawnee.....14
It is recommended that no proxies be allowed and that the delegates present from each county cast the entire vote of their county in the convention.

Committeeman from Pawnee county.
JOHN W. POWELL,
Committeeman from Richardson Co.

Frank Bily, a Bohemian farmer living seven miles southeast of Pawnee City was killed Friday morning while driving along the road near his farm. A nephew was driving the team. Both men were standing in the wagon. Mr. Bily holding a shot gun by the muzzle. The wheels of the wagon struck a stone, discharging the gun under the armpit of Mr. Bily, killing him instantly. He was the uncle of the boy, Charles Bily, who was accidentally killed last Sunday. Mr. Bily leaves a widow and five children. Dr. Collins, coroner upon ascertaining the facts, decided it was not necessary to hold an inquest.

You Will Prosper in the Great Southwest

In Oklahoma, Indian Territory and Texas are vast areas of unimproved land—land not now yielding the crops of which it is capable. The same conditions apply to the towns. Few lines of business are adequately represented. There are openings of all sorts—for mills and factories, for small stores, for banks, newspaper and lumber yards. You have only to get on the ground to prove this. To enable you to do so the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railway offer

Rates Cheaper Than Ever

Feb. 6th and 20th

March 6th and 20th

On above dates most lines will sell both one-way and round trip tickets at exceptionally low rates. If your nearest railroad agent cannot give you the rates, write me for particulars.

The Great Paper of the Great West

The Kansas City Star

Everywhere recognized as the strongest and most reliable newspaper in the most prosperous region of the United States.

Wherein It Leads.

Its Unexcelled News Service embraces the continuous report of the Associated Press, with dispatches every hour; the general and special service of the New York Herald; the Hearst transcontinental leased wire service and special correspondence from THE STAR's own representatives in Washington, D. C.; Jefferson City, Mo.; Topeka, Ks., and Guthrie, Ok., in addition to the large list of news that comes daily from several hundred other alert representatives.

Its Market Reports and Comments have an authoritative value that causes them to be telegraphed to all parts of the United States the moment THE STAR comes from the press. No western man even indirectly interested in the value of food products, stocks and securities can afford to be without THE STAR's daily record of prices and conditions.

Its Special Features include The Chaperson's column, in which are answered questions pertaining to beauty aids and social customs and affairs, a department for inquirers on other subjects and a wide range of miscellaneous articles throwing side lights upon the world's most interesting people and events—these in addition to a vigorous editorial page, absolutely independent politically, and a Sunday issue that is full of live special matter and human interest.
