

NEW STORE

The H. M. JENNE

We Have all Kinds and Styles of Up-to-Date Footwear

SHOE STORE

LOCATED TWO DOORS NORTH POST OFFICE
FALLS CITY, NEBRASKA.

Goods Marked in Plain Figures. Come in and see us, we will try to Please You.

THE H. M. JENNE SHOE STORE.

NEW STORE

LOCAL LORE.

Eat Sowles' candy.

Chas. Davis spent Sunday at chautauqua.

H. P. Rieger of Preston was in town Saturday.

John W. White was a Salem visitor Tuesday evening.

G. A. Freiburghouse has our thanks for favors this week.

E. E. Ewing of Verdon was in the city on business on Saturday.

Mrs. E. F. Sharts spent Tuesday afternoon at the chautauqua.

Anna Jenkins of Rulo attended the McNamara funeral Monday.

Sol Russell of Rulo was transacting business affairs here Monday.

Maud Graham and Henry C. Smith were chautauqua visitors last Sunday.

Dowty Watson of Reserve was the guest of friends in this city last Sunday.

Al Kroh and wife of Verdon were Falls City visitors the latter part of last week.

Mrs. J. A. Benedict of Verdon spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. George Noah.

Dr. Parsell has moved his household effects and located in Pawnee City, Neb.

Jessie Berry and George Hall drove up to the chautauqua on Sunday afternoon.

Jennie Stump of Verdon was the guest of Ethel Parchen on Monday of this week.

W. H. McWain of Rulo was a pleasant caller at this office while in the city Saturday.

Mayme Waldron of Topeka, Kansas, is visiting with her friend, Eithia Houck.

Art Wilson, the famous ball player of Humboldt spent Monday with friends here.

Julia Frauenfelder of Verdon spent a portion of this week with her cousin, Ethel Parchen.

Mabel Greenwald is soon to leave for LeMars, Iowa, where she is to teach in the public schools.

Arnold Schuetz and father of Humboldt were pleasant callers at this office while in the city on Tuesday.

F. G. Foster of this county had a carload of nice cows and heifers on the Kansas City market the first of the week.

James H. Cornell and wife returned Monday evening from a visit with their daughter, Mrs. Nelle Tinker, at Omaha.

Paul Weaver, who has been spending some time at Seattle, Wash., and other western points, returned to this city Monday.

Prof. Crocker and family expect to leave about the 15th inst. for Pawnee City where the professor will teach in the public schools.

Jacob Mack, Martin Werner, Rev. Geradewohl and wife left the first of the week on a trip to Germany. They expect to be gone three months.

Chas. F. Kreckler and wife, Dottie Sage, Mrs. Oliver, Iva Kent, John Baptist and Rev. T. Lindenmeyer are attending the state convention of the churches of Christ of Nebraska at Bethany camp grounds about eight miles out of Lincoln which holds forth July 29th to August 5th inclusive.

Edward Poteet went to Salem Sunday.

R. A. Clark came down from Stella Friday.

Geo. Holt is enjoying the Colorado climate in Denver.

Dick Baker returned from Salem Sunday afternoon.

Maud Davis was among the Salem visitors Sunday.

Judge Raper was transacting legal affairs here Saturday.

Dr. Reneker was a Friday passenger for Denver, Colorado.

Rill Houston is quite ill, being threatened with typhoid fever.

John Gilligan left Saturday on a business trip to Seattle, Wash.

Mrs. J. B. Varner and daughter, Marion, spent Tuesday at Salem.

Levi Cheney, one of Stella's business men, was in this city on Tuesday.

Joe Morris of Humboldt was among the Monday visitors in this city.

Judge Reavis was called to Atchison in a business way on Monday morning.

Esborne Wheeler was down from Stella and spent Sunday with relatives here.

Leo McKiever came from Chicago to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. McNamara.

Fred Miller came down from Lincoln and spent Sunday with his family in this city.

Hammond Willard of Reserve, Kansas, was a business visitor in this city the past Friday.

Herman Richardson of Verdon was a Falls City visitor Saturday and gave us a call while in town.

Little Opal Foehlinger of McCook is visiting with her grandparents, James Goldman and wife.

Mrs. W. G. Lytle and daughter, Hazel, of Atchison are the guests of Geo. S. Albright and family.

Anna and Mabel Poteet and Mrs. Harry Crooks were among the chautauqua visitors the past Sunday.

Rev. W. T. Cline and family left Tuesday afternoon for Lincoln where they will attend the assembly.

Mr. O'Brien, who has been visiting with Dick Coupe and family left Saturday morning for Effingham, Kans.

Mrs. P. S. Heacock and daughter, Elizabeth, returned from Kansas City the latter part of the past week.

Bert Brenizer returned to McCook, Saturday after a brief visit at the home of his parents, Frank Brenizer and wife.

Mrs. Benj. Slagel has recovered from her recent illness sufficiently to enable her to walk about at the home.

40,000 acres for sale, $6.00 to $12.00 an acre. Level Land Realty Company, Bird City, Cheyenne county, Kansas. Local agents wanted to bring us buyers.

Florence Boose left Tuesday for Haswell, Tennessee, where she will be occupied in the studies and labors of missionary work.

Mr. VanWinkle went to St. Joe last Friday where he purchased a large tent for the apple packing factory. Their other one was riddled by the severe storm last week.

Herman Minnick came up from Atchison Sunday.

Ruth Lewis is spending the week with Omaha friends.

John Helfenbein on route 5 remembered The Tribune Tuesday.

Mrs. Frances Heaston was a pleasant caller here during the week.

Mrs. Ella Priest left Sunday for a brief visit with friends at Omaha.

Mr. DeYoung of Lincoln was the guest of Elta Boose during the week.

Will Gibson and wife were down from Verdon on business last Saturday.

Elizabeth Miller and John Hutchings drove up to the chautauqua Saturday.

Mrs. Esborne Wheeler of Stella was visiting with friends in this city the last of the week.

Fred Gibson of Verdon and John Gibson of Delsarte, Texas, were in this city on business last Saturday.

E. C. Hatfield of Sabetha, Ks., remembered the weekly edition in a substantial manner the first of the week.

Barney Mullen of Stella was on the Kansas City market Monday with a car of choice heavy hogs, weighing 295 pounds that sold at $6.55.

C. J. Thomas and daughter, Sophia, were up from Rulo on Wednesday and while in this city were welcome visitors at this office.

Tuesday was Gov. Bob Taylor's day at the Salem chautauqua and nearly everybody in this city that could possibly take the day off, were in attendance.

Mrs. Wm. Griffin and children of Hebron, Neb., came down last Saturday for a visit with her parents, J. A. McCormick and wife, and other relatives here.

J. J. Burgner while up from Reserve last Saturday gave this office force a pleasant call. Mr. Burgner is a very successful farmer. His wheat crop averaged forty bushels to the acre which is a fine yield.

Mr. Farlow stopped in this city last Friday while on his way home to Rapids City, S. D., from Chicago where he had just marketed five carloads of sheep. He has an extensive sheep ranch and does a large business.

D. F. Harbaugh, the noted cattle feeder near Dawson, had on the Monday market at Kansas City, three carloads of dry lot steers that not only topped the market, but sold at the top price for the year, $6.20. They were the kind that Mr. Harbaugh always takes to market, and were well finished. They averaged around 1,450 pounds.

Among the Falls City people in attendance at the chautauqua last Sunday were: May Jones, Clarence Heck, Mary and Flora Albright, Willard Sears, Max Werner, Scott and Stanley Stump, Earl Cline, Stephen Miles and wife, Nelle Cain, Bessie Davis, Dr. E. Hayes, Ed Haner, Harvey Foehlinger, Sydney Lapp, George Jones, Keith McMillan, Carl Sedylmayr, Will Ramsey, Nellie Vance, George Grinstead and daughter, Floy, Mrs. John Gilligan, Dr. W. S. Fast and wife, Mrs. E. E. Scott, Miss Mowery, Albert Zimmer, Mrs. Wm. Cade and Laura Cade.

Mrs. John Oswald was a Salem visitor Tuesday.

James Mooney, Jr., was up from Rulo Wednesday.

Ernest Vincent was a Salem visitor Tuesday evening.

Stella Knickerbocker was a Salem visitor Thursday.

C. F. Pribbeno was among the Tuesday visitors here from Preston.

James Cronin returned to Rulo on the evening passenger Wednesday.

Edna Spencer returned the last of the week from a visit with Reserve friends.

H. C. Zoeller of Preston remembered The Tribune while in town Wednesday.

Mrs. Chas. Heineman and daughters have returned from a brief visit at Verdon.

Katie Schulenberg and Elizabeth Sanford went to Omaha Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. D. N. McCarthy and children will leave Monday for a month's visit at Denver.

J. H. Richardson of Verdon remembered The Tribune in a financial way last Saturday.

Hazel Jellison left Tuesday for Bern, Kansas, where she will spend some time with friends there.

Mrs. George Prater and daughters, Chloe and Hazel, left Sunday for a visit with friends in St. Joseph.

Mr. Zimmerman of Nebraska City, who has been the guest of Alice Cleaver, returned Wednesday to his home.

Word was received in this city from Denver of the birth of a baby girl on Saturday, to Mr. and Mrs. Turman.

Florence Wylie is enjoying a week's vacation from her duties at the Cleveland store and is attending the chautauqua.

Fred Cleveland has purchased a dandy new automobile. He and Bart Messler came down from Nebraska City in it, Sunday.

John Ross is building a large porch onto the west side of his home, which is quite an addition in the way of neatness and comfort.

Nellie Hossack returned the latter part of last week from a visit with her sisters Mrs. Ephriam Witthee of Stella and Mrs. Will Sloane of Verdon.

Col. C. H. Marion returned Tuesday from Omaha, where he assisted in crying a horse sale that was held in that city. He left at once for Corning, where he had charge of a horse sale and reports a splendid average. The colonel is kept busy at home and abroad looking after his increasing sale dates.

Herman Koehler returned Friday from engineering a party of three or four to Baldwin county, Alabama. The party were all well pleased with the country there, voting it a fine place, and will probably locate soon in that locality. Mr. Koehler brought home some specimens of the wonderful fruit and cereal crop, among which are pears, apples, oranges, plums and oats. The fruit is extremely large and free from blemishes while the oats is about seven feet in height. Samples may be seen at this office.

JEWELRY JEWELRY!

Our stock of Jewelry is replete with suggestions with gifts for any and every occasion. Beauty Pins, Bracelets, Necklaces, Rings, plain, seal or gem-set, Brooches, Fobs, Watches, Scarf Pins, etc., any of which will please the recipient.

We keep only first-class Goods, that are of good quality and workmanship. Call on us and inspect our stock and see if you cannot find just what you wish here. We carry everything kept in a first-class Jewelry Store.

A. E. JAQUET
The "Old Reliable" Jeweler.

PIANOS BALDWIN BROS.

A full line of the Small Musical Instruments, Latest Sheet Music, Edison and Victor Records.

We also carry a large stock of

SEWING MACHINE SUPPLIES

Falls City Music Company

Opposite Court House

Fred Sebold made a business trip to Salem last Friday.

Mrs. Pearl Stout and children left Tuesday afternoon for Colorado.

Mrs. Ray DePutron of Lincoln is visiting at the home of Geo. Holland and wife.

May Jones is spending this week with Mrs. Maud Wausley at her country home.

Dr. Hannah Moran reports the arrival of a baby girl, on Thursday morning at the home of Martin Gehling.

Marion Vaughn Sr., came in from Bertrand, Nebr., the first of the week, for a weeks visit with his family in this city. He has been there for about a year.

C. S. DePass, an insurance agent tried to jump his board bill at the National hotel and was arrested Saturday evening, just as he was leaving the hotel, by Officer Marts. He gave bond for his appearance at the next term of court.

Ruth Knickerbocker swallowed a pin last Friday afternoon, and the same lodged about half way down her throat. Dr. Miner was summoned and removed the pin, which necessarily tore the throat a trifle. Two hours afterwards Ruth had almost recovered, aside from a soreness of the throat.

Rev. Hovvhaauness Muggur-deetch Cheeneegaozyaan, Constantinople, Turkey, who lectured at the Christian church last Sunday morning is one of the most forceful and convincing foreign orators we have ever heard. He is an Armenian and has in the space of nine years, mastered the English language and completed a full course in the ministry and also in the medical study.

James McKiever came down from Nebraska City to attend the funeral of his cousin, Mrs. Clara McNamara.

Nelle Armstrong of Macon, Mo., is the guest of Nelle Cain.

M. E. Church.

There will be no services at the M. E. church next Sunday, Aug. 5, on account of the chautauqua and the assembly.

W. T. CLINE, Pastor.

First Christian Church.

Services of the First Christian church, Lordsday, Aug. 5th: Prof. T. J. Oliver will preach at the morning service. As this will be the only Protestant service in town, all are invited to be present and hear him.

9:45 a. m., Bible School.
11:30 a. m., morning sermon.
7:00 p. m. Senior Y. P. S. C. E.
T. A. LINDENMEYER, Minister.