

Worth While.

There will be fifty-three Sundays in this year, an occurrence that will not happen again for 110 years. While the clock is ticking your life away don't be so foolish as to sit down and count the ticks. Many a good man is ruined by his fool friends. Riches have wings, but they always fly alone. We often mistake stubbornness for backbone. Anybody can run a business—in the ground. A Kansas editor stepped into the store of a man who did not advertise and was surprised to find him busy. The storekeeper had the itch and a Waterbury watch, and when he was not scratching himself he was winding the watch. Every time a man goes to church with his wife, he wonders how it is that the preacher is privileged to scold her, and he isn't. People always enjoy it when they hear of a man with an overabundance of mouth, getting licked for shooting it off too freely. In order to make home as pleasant as possible, parents should be careful to always treat daughter as they would treat a visiting girl. These are the times when if a girl of five misses her gay hair ribbon, like as not, she will find it run through her grandmother's corset cover. It is not necessary "to be brilliant" to get a good job. Be industrious, honest and pay strict attention to business, and you will pass "brilliant" men on the road to the top. Women do not understand the male nature as they find it in their husbands, but they seem to have a very sympathetic understanding of it as they find it in their sons. No very worthy person ever takes delight in gossip. If a man gets in trouble, why not be sorry because of his misfortune? You would be sorry for a dog in trouble; why rejoice when a man gets in trouble. "Married life is a constant struggle," says the Manayunk Philosopher. "The wife struggles to keep up appearances and the husband struggles to keep down expenses." He who would gather honey must bear the sting of bees. When you make de jail too nice you better strenkin de hopen. A sensible housekeeper begins to sweep her stairs from the top. An honest man does not make himself a dog for the sake of a bone. It is good to be a priest at Easter, child in Lent, peasant at Christmas, and fool in harvest time. The trouble with lots of men who say they are willing to die for their country is that they don't. Man's inhumanity to man is often the result of indigestion. Hard work offers small odds, but is generally a sure winner. Genius is a 100-to-1 shot. Too many bills are apt to make a man feel bilious. Joy cometh in the morning—unless you've been making a night of it. It's a mistake to marry too young, but it's a mistake that isn't repeated. A woman is never quite happy with a man who refuses to argue with her. Many an unsuccessful man would rather preserve his dignity than hustle. It is better to have too little confidence in yourself than too much in others. We are told that love levels all things, but often it seems like an uphill fight.

To indulge in the things we can't afford is the average man's pleasure. Life is like a game of cards, in which a good deal depends upon a good deal. The fellow who is always under a cloud reminds me of nothing so much as a borrowed umbrella. Why should Pollard receive from the government treasury $1900.00 which he never earned? We cannot believe he did this because he is a church member and an HONEST FARMER. If he received and accepted this money he ought not try to excuse himself that he followed an established precedent. No matter what the precedent is, it is wrong. Mr. Burkett says he opposed this allowance of unearned salary when he was a member of the committee on salaries in the house. This is what Mr. Pollard ought to have done and what we believe he would do. It is not enough to say that a precedent was followed. Senator Burton violated a plain statutory law, but we doubt if this law makes the wrong any more reprehensible. Mr. Pollard was not elected till in July, therefore was not entitled to the salary for March, April, May and June, the $1900 in question. In this age when public sentiment is roused against graft, and when corruption in public office is looked upon with such disfavor, Mr. Pollard should not have done wrong knowingly, simply to follow a precedent. We sincerely hope that before the Auburn convention convenes, this matter will be cleared up as it would be disastrous to both Mr. Pollard and the party if this charge is proven to be true should he be renominated. CHINESE TOMB COMPLETED

Bones of Dead Men Dug Up, Polished and Put in Jars—Hold Peculiar Rites. The new tomb of the Soon-on-Tong association in the Firemen's cemetery at New Orleans, La., is complete. The finishing touches have been put to it, the members of the association have assembled within it and blessed it, and incidentally five large earthen jars, representing as many departed Chinamen, have been deposited there. Of course, the jars do not contain whole Chinamen. Each vessel is only a trifle over a foot in height and about eight inches in diameter. Consequently no accommodation for a real live Chinaman is afforded. What used to be a Chinaman is contained in each of the jars, which closely resembles a large preserve jar. The five vessels containing the bones of the five Chinamen were placed in the tomb the other day. On that day the members of the Soon-on-Tong association assembled, and, after salaaming, praying and singing for half an hour, during which they also managed to consume a large quantity of incense and sacred colored paper, dedicated the new tomb and deposited the remains of five departed brethren. Few persons would believe the jars represent coffins, but they do in a sense. The five Chinamen whose remains are contained in these vessels have been dead for years. Recently their remains were disinterred, the shrouds in which they were buried were burned and the bones were taken out and placed in the jars. Before being placed in the jars, however, the bones were heated over a fire until very dry, and were then scraped and sand-papered until as smooth as knife-blades. Next they were placed in jars. After that the vessels were sealed up and labeled, and recently they were placed in the new tomb. The services held at the tomb were not seen by outsiders. When a stranger approached the ceremonies were stopped and the Chinamen stood stolidly by awaiting the departure of the trespasser. The Soon-on-Tongers were busy holding court in memory of their departed brethren, and wanted no interruption on the part of outsiders. The new tomb is of brick, covered with plaster, and its facade resembles somewhat a Chinese laundry ticket. Forty ordinary vaults for coffins and eight vaults for the jars are contained in it. There are also two fireplaces. One of these, the larger, is used to burn the clothes and effects of deceased Chinamen, and the other is for incense and the sacred colored paper. It is a large affair, and said to be unlike any tomb in the United States. When a member of the association dies the casket containing him will be placed in one of the coffin vaults. After he has lain there a number of years his remains will be disinterred, his bones will be polished and then he'll be bottled up and labeled and placed in one of the jars. Conditions in San Domingo. The city of San Domingo seems to be in a bad way as a result of the general conditions. Congressman Ransdell, of Louisiana, who recently returned from a visit to the island, says there is hardly a trace of business in the place. Most of the houses are vacant and few people are seen in the streets. Everywhere are ruins, and especially impressive the ruins of fine business blocks. A very large brewery built about 15 years ago has been abandoned and is rapidly falling into decay. Intelligent people told the senator that the real population of the republic of Santo Domingo, with its 18,000 square miles, is 200,000 and not, as usually stated, 600,000. "It is one of the fairest spots on the universe," Mr. Ransdell asserts, "but political, social and commercial conditions are frightful." The Easier Way. Never argue with a man who disagrees with you. Congratulate yourself because of your superior wisdom and let it go at that. —Chicago Daily News. Progressive. Bessie—But is he a fellow who gets ahead easily? Cheap Farm Land.

Southwest Offers Best Opportunities For Securing Homes. Many farmers in the Northern and Eastern states are selling their high priced lands and locating in the Southwest. Many who have been unable to own their homes in the older country are buying lands in the new country. Unusual opportunities exist along the lines of the Missouri Pacific-Iron Mountain Route. The rich, alluvial, delta lands and river bottom lands of Southeast Missouri, Eastern Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas, capable of producing 60 bushels of corn, a bale of cotton, 4 to 6 tons of alfalfa 150 bushels of potatoes, and other grains, vegetables and hay crops, can be bought for $7.50 to $15.00 per acre. When cleared and slightly improved will rent for $4.00 to $6.00 per acre cash. Uplands more rolling, lighter soil, adapted to fruit growing—peaches, pears, plums grapes, berries—also melons, tomatoes and other vegetables, can be bought for $5.00 to $10.00 per acre in unimproved state. Many places with small clearings and some improvements can be bought very cheap. This is a fine stock country. No long winter feeding. Free range, pure water, mild climate. A healthy, growing country with a great future. Write for map and descriptive literature on Missouri, Arkansas, Louisiana Texas, Kansas or Indian Territory. Very cheap rates on first and third Tuesdays of each month. Address, TOM HUGHES, T. P. A., Omaha, Neb., or H. C. TOWNSEND, G. P. & T. A., St. Louis, Mo. Two Bottles Cured Him. The republicans of the state of Nebraska are hereby called to meet in convention at the Auditorium in the city of Lincoln, on Wednesday, August 22, 1906, at two o'clock in the afternoon, for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the following offices, viz: One United States Senator, One Governor, One Lieutenant Governor, Three Railway Commissioners, One Secretary of State, One Auditor of Public Accounts, One Treasurer, One Superintendent of Public Instruction, One Attorney General, One Commissioner of Public Lands and Buildings. And for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before it. The said convention shall be made up of delegates chosen by the republicans of the respective counties of the state, apportioned one delegate at large for each county and one for each one hundred twenty-five votes or major fraction thereof cast at the last election for Hon. Chas. B. Letton, republican nominee for judge of the supreme court. Said apportionment entitles Richardson county to a representation of 16 delegates in said convention. It is also recommended that the delegates to said convention be instructed to vote for or against the endorsement of the constitutional amendment relating to the creation of a State Board of Railway Commissioners, to the end that the action thus taken may determine the attitude of the party relative to said amendment and may be made a part of the ballot. It is further recommended that no proxies be allowed and that the delegates present from each of the respective counties be authorized to cast the full vote of their delegation. The various odd numbered senatorial districts are also notified that they will at the same time by their delegates choose members to represent them on the state committee for a term of two years. It is important that the uniform credential blanks which will be furnished by the state committee to each county chairman be used for furnishing credentials of the delegates to said convention, and that the name of each delegate, his postoffice address, and precinct in which he resides, be plainly written thereon. Credentials should be prepared immediately after adjournment of the different county conventions, duly certified by their officers, and forwarded at once, to State Headquarters at Lincoln. By order of the state committee: WM. P. WARNER, Chairman, A. B. ALLEN, Secretary Dated at Lincoln, Neb., May 5, 1906.

It Costs Nothing To find out for a certainty whether or not your heart is affected. One person in four has a weak heart; it may be you. If so, you should know it now, and save serious consequences. If you have short breath, fluttering, palpitation, hungry spells, hot flushes; if you cannot lie on left side; if you have fainting or smothering spells, pain around heart, in side and arms, your heart is weak, and perhaps diseased. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure will relieve you. Try a bottle, and see how quickly your condition will improve. "About a year ago I wrote to the Miles Medical Co., asking advice, as I was suffering with heart trouble, and had been for two years. I had pain in my heart, back and left side, and had not been able to draw a deep breath for two years. Any little exertion would cause palpitation, and I could not lie on my left side without suffering. They advised me to try Dr. Miles Heart Cure and Nerve, which I did with the result that I am in better health than I ever was before, having gained 14 pounds since I commenced taking it. I took about thirteen bottles of the two medicines, and haven't been bothered with my heart since." MRS. LILLIE THOMAS, Upper Sandusky, Ohio.
