Some of the womans clubs could be of great service to the city and surrounding country by presenting a petition to the board of supervisors asking that seats be put in the court house yard. Last Saturday the town was full of tired country women, many with little babies, who had no place to sit down and rest. The Hiawatha square is fitted out in this way and every Saturday the seats are filled with ladies from the country resting until their husbands have finished their business. Will somebody take this up?

Mrs. John L. Cleaver made a trip to the Sycamore Springs on Monday, returning with a goodly supply of those famed mineral waters. As the same was for the use of John L. we presume it contains "youth renewing" qualities, which no doubt accounts for his spryness.

Now here is a good one and they say it is true. When the committee was soliciting for funds to defray the expenses of the Hiawatha band it approached one of the richest men in Falls City for a contribution. He replied, "I would give you a quarter but I will not be in town Saturday night." Now what do you think of that?

Harlow has more groceries piled up in his two buildings than any three houses in the county. These goods have been bought right and are going to be sold right. We fear no competition, local or catalogue. Come to Harlow's and get full value for your produce and cash.

The delegates to the democratic convention were having a good deal of fun out of the way they sat down on the Davises and John Morehead in their efforts to beat James for county attorney. The bosses seem to have been pretty effectually busted.
