Shorthand, Typewriting and Penmanship

Opens Monday, September 3, 1906

ANNOUNCEMENT.

We have collected a great many testimonials from our former students who are now holding excellent positions and drawing large salaries and these we had intended to have published in the form of a catalogue. Finding the cost would be too great unless we increased our tuition charges, we have abandoned this idea, and shall publish but a few of the great number of recommendations that have been so kindly furnished by our former students.

Remember that we own our building, do our own teaching and owe no man a cent. This explains why our tuition is lower than that of similar institutions. Did you ever think, my dear students, that the fine fine catalogues sent out by some of our large colleges, the rent for great buildings which they occupy, the interest on several hundred dollars invested in fine school furniture and the high salaries drawn by their teachers, all are paid by you?

Select Your Own Studies.

The most of schools place all students in the same class at the time they enter school, and they are all dumped out together at the end of three or four years by what is known as the grinding process, and during all this time the student has been pursuing studies that he knew would be of no practical use to him, but what is he to do? He must know a few branches and in order to get them he must go through the grinding process. Attend our school a few months, no difference whether you wish to prepare yourself for business a stenographer, a farmer or that of the teaching profession, and by the time the other fellow who is attending the grinding school has completed his course, you will have made back your school money and be comfortably located in business.

Come and Do Likewise.

Our graduates are now filling positions as clerk, book-keeper, teachers, bank cashiers and stenographers, at salaries ranging from $35 per month to $1,200 per year. You can do the same by attending our school from six to eight months.

Postmaster Falls City, Nebr.

This is to certify that my son, daughter and several of my near relatives have attended the Falls City Business College. I have visited the school on several occasions and believe Professor G. M. Barrett to be an excellent instructor and the training in all departments of this institution very thorough.

Very sincerely,

G. J. CROOK.

Book-keeper, St. Joseph, Mo.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:— It gives me great pleasure to recommend the Falls City Business College to any person desirous of a thorough and successful education. I am now holding a fine position as book-keeper for Crider Bros. Com. Co., of this city and I consider that my success is entirely due to the training I received under Professor Barrett while attending the F. C. B. C. I do not hesitate to recommend this school to anyone wishing to secure the "best." Wishing the Old School continued success,

I am very truly,

CHESTER S. POWER.

ST. JOSEPH, MO., JULY 28, '06
 PROF. G. M. BARRETT, Falls City, Nebraska.

Dear Friend and Teacher:— Your most welcome letter received this morning and it was indeed a pleasure to hear from you again. Yes, I am still with Crider Bros., and will finish my fourth year with them in about six weeks. I have a nice position and good hours, beginning about 8 a. m. and completing my day's work at about 4 p. m. I get $1,500 this year which is very good pay for a young fellow like me.

I certainly do not hesitate to recommend you and your school to anyone who may be interested in securing a business education, and as I have a good knowledge of the work done by other schools, I unhesitatingly place the Falls City Business College second to none. Wishing you continued success I am Yours respectfully,
 CHESTER S. POWER.

Avoid Danger.

Every time we read about the crime disease and poverty in the large cities it is a cause of thankfulness that we are unable to get into a big town. The simple life is the real thing and the simpler the better for most of us.—Falls City Journal.

Father, mother, did you ever stop to think of the danger in sending your sons and daughters to the large cities? Your son or daughter goes to college for one of two purposes to spend your hard earned money having a good time, or to acquire knowledge that will be worth a fortune to them as they grow older. If you keep them in a small city and a small school, they are properly cared for, and the dangers of the large city removed.

First National Bank, Falls City, Neb.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:— This is to certify that we personally know the Falls City Business College to be a good school and that Professor Barrett will do all for his pupils that can be done, not only in school but after completing their course of study. We now have employed in this bank two of his graduates and can cheerfully say that they are in every way worthy and qualified.

JOHN W. HOLT, President,
 J. H. MOREHEAD, Cashier,
 Mr. Baker, one of the young men referred to above, is now book-keeper and assistant cashier in the Richardson County Bank.

Stenographer and Typewriter.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:— I graduated from the Short-hand Typewriting department of the Falls City Business College six years ago and accepted a position in a real estate office and worked there for ten months, and since that time I have been employed in a lawyer's office and like my work very much.

Any girl willing to work cannot do better than learn stenography, and I find great pleasure in recommending the Falls City Business College to any young person wishing to learn shorthand or take a thorough and up-to-date course in business training.
 GRACE KACHELRIES.

A Good Showing.

Herbert Hedges was one of a large class to take the civil service examination at Kansas City some weeks ago. Last week he received a report of his standing. The average percentage made on his papers was 84, which is a very good showing. Not more than half of those taking the examination would get through. This puts him in line for an appointment as railway mail clerk if he desires to take it.—Falls City Journal.

Mr. Herbert Hedges, the young man referred to in the above article was one of the first students enrolled at the Falls City Business College, and since completing his course of study has been deputy postmaster for several years. His younger brother, known as little Ralph is now book-keeper in Kansas City making his $100 per month and his other two brothers that attended our college are now in the western part of the state, one in a bank and the other looking after a large ranch. Mr. Charles Hedges the father of these four boys formerly lived south of this city and is recognized by every one as being a good farmer and shrewd business man. When a man with such a reputation as this, sends four of his sons through our college and they step into good paying positions we surely have many reasons to feel complimented at the work we are doing.

Book-keeper and Cashier.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:— This is to certify that I graduated from the Falls City Business College nearly two years ago and have had the position of bookkeeper and cashier in one of the largest stores in Southeastern Nebraska ever since completing my course.

I enjoy my work very much, finding it both pleasant and profitable. Realizing that my college training fitted me for this position, I take great pleasure in recommending this well established school to any young person in search of a thorough business training. My brother graduated from the business department at the same time I did, and he is now holding a good position in this city.
 GRACE GRAY.

SAVE FIFTEEN DOLLARS.

All students enrolling at the College on Monday, September 7, 1906, for seven consecutive months and paying cash or giving note bearing 8 per cent interest, will be furnished all books and blanks free of charge. Remember that it will be much to your interest to take advantage of this proposition as it will save you fifteen dollars. This offer holds good for the one day only.

Parents, do you not think it is a duty you owe to your sons and daughters, to give them a good education? It will cost you but fifty dollars. Many of the young students who have graduated from our college are now making more money in one month than it will cost you to send them to this institution and allow them to complete our course of study.

Stenographer, Falls City, Nebraska.

This is to certify that I have completed a course in both the business and short hand departments of the Falls City Business College, of which Professor G. M. Barrett is principal. For the past three years I have been employed by the John Gilligan Company, one of the largest Bridge companies doing business in the United States. I find my work very pleasant and shall always feel very grateful for the favors and kindness shown me by this institution. Wishing the college continued success, I remain
 Yours truly, I. N. LYON, Jr.

Bank of Salem, Salem, Nebr.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:— Having attended the Falls City Business College for a few weeks, I feel no hesitancy in recommending this school to all. The methods employed are certainly very beneficial to those wishing business training. Professor Barrett is certainly a competent teacher and a gentleman in every particular.

R. B. HUSTON.

Book-keeper and Assistant Cashier.

Shorthand and Typewriting.

Never before in the history of the world has the lightning pen of the stenographer been appreciated as it is at the present. The demand for good shorthand writers for general office work is far in excess of anything heretofore known. At no time in the past have competent stenographers so readily secured good paying positions as now. All positions of this kind will be found pleasant and profitable, and better adapted to ladies than almost anything else they can do in a business way. Young men and women have only to master shorthand to make it a source of profit to themselves and an easy stepping stone from a lower to a higher position.

CHICAGO, ILL., July 30, 1906.
 TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:—

This is to certify that I attended the Falls City Business College, taking the Shorthand and Typewriting course. I am now holding a good and responsible position and cannot speak too highly of the school. The method of teaching is thorough and I earnestly recommend the institution to anyone wishing to obtain a start in the business world.

Very respectfully,

SOPHIA C. RIEGER.

BACKWARD STUDENTS.

Many young men and young women who have neglected their earlier education are too backward to mingle with the children of the public school. To this class we have to say that in our college there is nothing to embarrass you, as we give you private instructions until you can enter classes without feeling the least embarrassment. If you are thinking of attending school, write to any first class Business College and get their terms and you will find that we can give you the same course of study from $20 to $30 cheaper. Consumption Threatened.

C. UNGER, 211 Maple St., Champaign Ill., writes: "I was troubled with a hacking cough for years and I thought I had consumption. I tried a great many remedies and was under the care of physicians for several months. I used one bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. It cured me, and I have not been troubled since." For sale at McBride's Pharmacy.

Never before in the history of Nebraska has politics been of such vital interest to the masses as the contest now being waged in this state. The people are entitled to know the whole truth about all the men who are seeking office and about the principles that are being advocated. A paper having some personal or private interest in the outcome of such contests can rarely be relied upon to print the news from an absolutely unbiased standpoint. Has the thought occurred to you that The State Journal is the only Nebraska strike newspaper whose proprietor is not an office holder or office seeker? This may be some explanation of why The Journal is so especially interesting these days. Its attitude upon all absorbing topics of public interest is in behalf of the people and not for office-getting.

Men Past Sixty in Danger.

More than half of mankind over sixty years of age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders, usually enlargement of prostate gland. This is both painful and dangerous, and Foley's Kidney Cure should be taken at the first sign of danger, as it corrects irregularities and has cured many old men of this disease. Mr. Rodney Burnett, Rockport, Mo., writes: "I suffered with enlarged prostate gland and kidney trouble for years and after taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure I feel better than I have for twenty years although I am now 91 years old." For sale at McBride's Pharmacy.
