

Henry C. Smith LANDS & LOANS

$40,000 Private Money to loan, Annual Interest, Optional payments, Choice farms in this and adjoining counties, cheap homes in the West and South. Exchanges made.

FARGO.

Grant Freck was a Rulo caller Tuesday.

John Wiseman was in Rulo shopping Thursday.

John Nolte was in Rulo on business Thursday.

Barney Voegle threshed his small grain Monday.

John Wolf sold a load of fine peaches in Rulo Monday.

C. J. Thomas and son attended the Vastine sale Tuesday.

Mary Santo of Fort Hazel was quite sick the first of the week.

Ed Frederick delivered his surplus corn at Preston this week.

Clarence Schatz spent Sunday with his mother at Corning Mo.

Ralph Arnold and C. M. Kern were in Rulo on business Monday.

W. J. Hellman of Arago Center was here on business on Monday.

Charley Popkins of the Charley Santo farm was in Rulo Tuesday.

Jacob Bauman of Columbus, Ohio is visiting at the home of his nephews.

Gust Tuback bought the old Fred Ernst farm recently paying $6800 for it.

J. H. Rector is building a new house on his farm near Fort Hazel school house.

Anton Smith hauled a four horse load of Heacock's flour to this burg Tuesday.

C. C. Bletcher, John Fritcher and F. E. Nitzche were in Rulo the first of the week.

Ren Whithead, Walter Baker and Wm. Bauman were here on business Wednesday.

J. C. Wallraff marketed some fine peaches at Rulo and Preston Monday and Tuesday.

E. J. Lecky Mr. Jondrow, A. F. Randolph, Melvin Randolph were in Rulo Tuesday.

Mrs. Gusta Wright of Craig, Mo., is visiting at the home of her father Fred Nissen this week.

Ben Gatz from near Falls City attended the camp meeting in Rulo, Sunday evening.

Julius Wallraff and family visited with Wm. Fischer who lives near Falls City Sunday.

Wm. Nissen, Eustace Pfrunder and H. R. Fischer transacted business at Rulo on Monday.

John R. Krusor and Geo. Secrist of Craig, Mo., were in Rulo on business the first of the week.

John Weinelt and daughter Edna and Mary Kaiser are visiting friends at Bala, Kansas this week.

August Deckinger lost a valuable horse which became over heated while raking hay Thursday.

John Santo and Wm. Wiseman with their families visited friends and relatives Saturday and Sunday.

Anthony Bauman, G. A. Schmidt, and J. E. Randall, transacted business here the first of the week.

C. H. Wiltse, Elmer Arnold and Johnnie Frederick of Sunny valley hauled corn to Preston Saturday.

Fred C. Fisher recently returned from a trip to Sheridan County, Neb., where he went to look at western land.

Jacob Wist has returned from a weeks visit with his nephew, Gust Wallraff, who now lives near Chicago, Ill.

Martin Kanaly, George E. Taylor, Peter Neidecker, Coony and Balda Dannecker transacted business in Rulo recently.

John R. Krusor, Henry and John P. Kloeppel, John Herschberger and H. G. Dorste, made a trip to South Dakota Tuesday to look at Dakota land.

Mrs. Gertrude Kabrich and family of Atchison, Kansas are visiting at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. George E. Taylor of Bean Creek near Rulo.

Wm. Threlkeld returned Saturday from a trip through western Kansas where he went to look at land. He prefers to purchase land in Richardson county in preference to western Kansas.

SALEM

Grandma Thistle is reported sick.

Clyde Ramel was up from Falls City Tuesday.

Tom Morris of Stella spent Sunday in Salem.

Mrs. George Foraker is reported seriously ill.

Geo. Hansell is reported on the sick list this week.

Will Uhlig, wife and small son spent Sunday in Salem.

Lucy Slater left last Tuesday for Sycamore Springs.

Celia Peirson visited over Sunday with Iva Meredith.

The interior of Ranger's hall is being newly painted.

Frank Combs is visiting relatives in this vicinity this week.

Ruth Moore and Nola McCool drove to the county seat Tuesday.

Rev. Garberson and wife spent Monday afternoon at Ralph Moore's.

Mrs. Chas. McCool and Zula spent Wednesday at the Auburn chautauqua.

Josh Lord and family of Falls City were Sunday visitors at Chas. McCool.

Mrs. Anderson returned Saturday from her trip to Kansas City and St. Joe.

Ralph Moore and wife and Mrs. Sarah Smith drove to Sun Springs Sunday.

Paul and Ruth Moore and Iva Meredith drove out to Roe Moore's Monday evening.

Ferol Barker is spending a few days of this week with her sister, Mrs. G. B. Kreps.

Mrs. Guy Daggett and little daughter returned to their home in Dawson Wednesday.

Mesdames Katherine Wylie and Uhlig drove up from the county seat Wednesday.

May Thompson and Joe Brayman attended the band concert here Saturday evening.

Mrs. A. A. McCool left Wednesday morning for a visit with her sister at Holmes, Wyo.

Nellie Stewart went to Fillmore, Mo., last Wednesday for a short visit with relatives.

J. R. Campbell is assisting in the Russell & Dowall store in the absence of W. H. Davis.

Mrs. E. Pope arrived from Nemaha City last week for a visit at the home of Bert Emmerts.

The Philatne class went to Sun Springs Wednesday and had a most delightful outing.

Mesdames B. Adams and W. Rhoades and children left Tuesday morning for an extended visit in Beaver City.

Mrs. Wm. Gregory and daughter, Lucy, and Mary Mobley attended the chautauqua in Auburn Sunday.

The funeral of Dan Gentry was preached Saturday afternoon at the Christian church by Rev. R. Hunt.

Prof. A. H. Voegelme came up from Falls city the first of the week to arrange his school work for the coming year.

Myrtle Warfield Floss Brayman, and Mesdames Alex and Earl Jellison of Morrill attended band concert here Saturday evening.

Rev. Garberson and wife and members of the Baraca class returned Saturday from their trip to the Missouri lakes. All enjoyed a good time.

The infant son of R. B. Hunston and wife died Friday morning. The funeral was preached Saturday afternoon at the Gospel Union church by Rev. Garberson.

Ed May returned home Thursday from his trip to Kansas. He went there to look after his wheat crop but found that rain had greatly delayed threshing. In some places streams had overflowed and washouts occurred.

Postmaster Roberts received a letter Thursday that was mailed at Montreal, Canada, July 8 and addressed to Mrs. W. G. Bury at Salem, Mass. It could not be delivered there and had been forwarded to Salem in the following states: New Jersey, North Carolina, Virginia, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, New York, Indiana, Wisconsin and Michigan. Postmaster Roberts sent it on to Salem, Kan.

VERDON.

Joe Majors was an Auburn visitor Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Hoopes is on the sick list this week.

Geo. Hall was up from Falls City on Monday night.

John Leefer and wife went to Nebraska City Friday.

Clare Coleman and wife were Auburn visitors Friday.

Will Mowery, the Stella liveryman, was in town Tuesday.

Fleming Robb was a Falls City visitor Wednesday night.

Dr. Kent came up from the county seat Friday on business.

G. D. Knapp and wife took dinner with relatives at Salem Sunday.

Maud Clark went to Auburn Friday where she was a chautauqua visitor.

Mary and Meta Heineman attended the Auburn chautauqua Wednesday.

Mrs. Ed Wheatley came down from Lincoln Monday on a visit with friends.

Nellie Hossack of Falls City visited her sister, Mrs. Willie Sloan Saturday.

Mrs. James Hanley went to Omaha Monday, returning Wednesday night.

Mabel Auxier and Katie Crouch came home Saturday from Falls City.

Mrs. R. E. Bowman attended the chautauqua at Auburn last Wednesday.

Alfred Corn and family of Salem visited Mrs. Amanda Corn one day this week.

Will Hoppis and family of Burwell, Neb., are visiting Mrs. M. A. Clark this week.

Mesdames Sue Hayes and Clarence Crews of Shubert visited in town on Wednesday.

N. B. Judd, the horsebuyer of Dawson, was a business visitor here on Wednesday.

Mrs. Lizzie Steedman of Burwell, Neb., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. M. A. Clark.

Mrs. Sam Weddle and mother of Shubert visited Saturday with Mrs. Bert Ballard.

Mrs. Mattie Whitney accompanied by Tom Quiggle were Falls City visitors Monday.

Pearl Clements of Stella visited Edna Wolfe Monday, returning home Tuesday night.

Mamie Byrely returned home from Stella Saturday where she has been visiting friends.

Mrs. Newt Cox came in from Elk Creek Friday on a visit to her mother, Mrs. Mary Hoopes.

W. E. Goolsby and wife and Mrs. Raper went to Auburn Wednesday to attend chautauqua.

Mrs. Dagler went to her home at Straussville Saturday after spending the summer in town.

Mrs. Grant Windle and daughter of Falls City visited Dave Griffith and wife one day this week.

Mrs. Del Noah and two children of Falls City visited her mother, Mrs. J. A. Benedict over Sunday.

Mrs. Mike Meliza and daughter, Katie, went to Auburn Wednesday returning home the next day.

Born to D. W. Griffith and wife on Monday August 20th, a daughter. All concerned are doing nicely.

Ruth Wheatley came down from Lincoln Saturday to visit Laura Heinzelman and other friends here.

Mrs. Mattie Whitney and Luther Pickett went to Auburn Sunday where they attended the chautauqua.

Mrs. W. S. Byrely and son, Rex, returned home Tuesday from Stella, where they have been visiting.

Miss Ryan went to Auburn Thursday returning Friday. While there she was the guest of Miss Fowler.

John Patterson and wife and Mrs. Randolph went to Auburn Wednesday where they attended the chautauqua.

Laura Heinzelman returned home Friday from Howe, where she has been visiting her aunt for the past two weeks.

Minnie Jones and Amelia Nusbaum returned home Saturday from Falls City where they were attending the institute.

Warren Douglas and daughters, Cora and Hazel, took their uncle to Salem, where he took the train for Elk Creek.

Mrs. John Strauss and daughter came up from Straussville Friday and remained until Tuesday. She was accompanied home by her mother, Mrs. M. A. Veach.

Dr. Gurney Griffith and F. W. Robb were Auburn visitors Thursday.

Ethel Kieler came down from Lincoln Saturday on a visit with relatives and friends.

Dr. Hutchison, the optician from Omaha, was a professional visitor here Thursday.

The Misses O'Brien and O'Donnell of Stella visited at the home of Frank Holderman the last of the week.

Amret Hart went to St. Joseph Saturday to buy her winter stock of millinery goods. She expects to be gone about two weeks.

A number of relatives of A. D. Goolsby completely surprised him Sunday, it being the occasion of his fifty-seventh birthday. An elegant lunch was served under the trees at noon. At four o'clock W. A. Moran made a neat little speech and presented Mr. Goolsby with an elegant rocker and several other useful presents. Those present from out of town were: D. D. Goolsby, wife and son, Falls City; Millard Goodloe, wife and daughters, Stella; Mr. and Mrs. McDermet and son, Salem.

STELLA.

Mrs. Jess Hays is the guest of relatives at Ames, Iowa.

Wauneta Williams of the Prairie Union neighborhood has a new piano.

Elmer Mason and family are spending the week with relatives at Paola, Kansas.

Mrs. Robert Furnas of Brownville has been the guest of Mrs. M. Hays the past week.

R. L. Coe has purchased Mrs. Raper's restaurant and has already taken possession.

Effie and Beulah Sarvis of Norton, Kansas are the guests of their uncle, Dan Sarvis and family.

Charley Vandever and family of Superior have been visiting relatives at this place this week.

Henry Sayers and wife were among those who attended the G. A. R. encampment at Minneapolis.

Henry Weller and W. H. Hogrefe attended the republican state convention in Lincoln this week.

Berthe Jones, who lives northeast of town, will teach the Walnut Grove school east of Shubert this fall.

Rev. Ogden and wife of Bethany are spending the week with the members of his congregation at this place.

A kensington was held at the home of Eunice Haskins last Friday afternoon, about twenty young ladies being in attendance.

A porch party was given at the home of Hazel Hogrefe Tuesday evening for Besse Jameson. About twenty young people were present.

L. F. Gilbert fell from the back of a chair Monday while hanging a picture at his room in the hotel, and broke both bones of his left arm.

Irve McDowell left for South Dakota Tuesday where he will run a threshing machine belonging to Ahern brothers, who formerly lived near Shubert.

Three good games of ball will be played here next week during the picnic. Douglass will play Stella the first two days and the Omaha Ramblers the last.

A daughter was born last week to Harper Winfrey and wife at Carroll. The little one's grandmother, Mrs. Will Vandever, has been at that place for some time.

James Hopper and wife left Tuesday for the Panhandle country of Texas with a view of buying land if suited with the country. A number from Shubert took the train here for the same place.

Mrs. D. A. Shufelt, aged about sixty died at her home south of town Monday from brights disease. Interment was made in the Prospect cemetery Tuesday afternoon. Deceased leaves a husband and daughter to mourn her loss.

RULO

Grandma Cutler is on the sick list.

H. H. Mann was a Lincoln visitor last week.

Several new telephones were put in last week.

C. J. Caverzagie visited at Fargo last Sunday.

Melva Kern will teach the Y school the coming year.

The things we want most? Rain and cooler weather.

Clarence Jondrow is reported very sick at this writing.

Essie Marsh is at home after an absence of several months.

Quite a crowd from Rulo attended the picnic at White Cloud.

Verna Vastine is spending her vacation with the home folks.

Mrs. Jack Labique of Kansas City is visiting her mother, Mrs. Boles.

The schoolhouse looks like a new pin in its fresh paint and new roof.

John Larabee who has been working at Lewiston is home for a few days.

Sam Randolph returned from Omaha Friday where he had been visiting a week.

HUMBOLDT.

Dick Turner was visiting relatives in Lincoln Sunday.

Clara Boss Pawnee City was visiting lone Norton Sunday.

Mrs. Albert Brunn was on the sick list the first of the week.

Ralph Philpot was a Lincoln visitor the fore part of the week.

Mrs. Ben Stramer was in St. Louis this week purchasing her fall millinery goods.

H. E. Boyd was called to coshocton, Ohio, by the serious illness of a brother.

Frank Hnzda of Irving, Kans., was visiting friends in the city the first of the week.

Mrs. Cora Boss and daughter, Leon, have returned from a visit with relatives in Illinois.

Lulu Hummel left Friday afternoon on an extended visit to relatives at Savannah, Illinois.

Mrs. Geo. Segrist arrived in this city from Lincoln the first of the week for a visit with friends.

Frank Mullen and bride, who were recently married in Chicago returned to this city Sunday.

Mrs. R. K. Davis and Mamie Bacon returned home Sunday from a week's visit in Kansas City.

Dr. W. F. Garver and P. O. Avery have returned from the G. A. R. encampment at Minneapolis.

John Campbell and family of Des Moines, Iowa, are visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Laura Campbell.

Ruby Idle left Friday for her home at Elmo, Mo., after spending several weeks with Humboldt friends.

Roy Arnold, who was seriously injured at the cooper & Linn mill last week is reported slightly improved.

Mrs. I. E. Smith is critically ill at her home in this city. A trained nurse has arrived from Lincoln to care for her.

H. V. Dorland is home from Fremont where he had been attending the Nebraska state firemen's tournament.

The Pleasant Hill farm of 148 acres owned by Henry H. Kuper was sold last week to James Hrdlitchka. consideration $11,800.

Prof. A. L. Moon and wife arrived from Arcadia, Thursday. Mr. Moon has accepted the principalship of our city schools the coming year.

The firm of Miller & Sons, druggists on the north side of the square, are making preparations to move their stock of goods to another locality.

Mrs. Frank Wilson, left the last of the week for Salt Lake City, having received word that her daughter, Mrs. Clara Wilson was seriously ill in that city.

Mrs. Joy Bullis McKie, formerly of this city, who has been with her husband for several months at Valparaiso, Chili, has not been heard of since the earthquake, and fear is ascertained for her safety.

SHUBERT.

Ray Harmon spent last week at Auburn.

Frank Bricker spent Sunday with Dwight Harman.

Minnie and Susie Hoover were Auburn visitors last Thursday.

Ed Shubert and wife and son spent Sunday in the country with Floyd Ball.

William Martin and Grace Benton were married in Missouri last Thursday.

Jessie Jones of Weeping water is visiting her friend Mrs. Lee Pond this week.

Miss Ashby left the first of the week after a months labor for the M. E. church.

Mr. Sapp and wife of Brownville come down Saturday evening to spend Sunday with their Rev. Sapp.

Mrs. Walter Lewis took the train Saturday at noon for St. Joseph to visit with her mother for a few weeks.

Charles Pond and wife returned from Iowa Tuesday evening where they were called by the serious illness of Mr. Pond's sister, she was dead when they reached there.

Quick relief for Asthma Sufferers.

Foley's Honey and Tar affords immediate relief to asthma sufferers in the worst stages and if taken in time will effect a cure. For sale at McBride's Pharmacy.

40,000 acres for sale, $6.00 to $12.00 an acre. Level Land Realty Company, Bird City, Cheyenne county, Kansas. Local agents wanted to bring us buyers.