PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

The following proposed amendment to the constitution of the State of Nebraska, as hereinafter set forth in full, is submitted to the electors of the State of Nebraska, to be voted upon at the general election to be held Tuesday, November 6, A. D., 1906.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF NEBRASKA:

Section 1. That at the general election for State and Legislative officers to be held on the Tuesday, succeeding the first Monday in November, 1906, the following provision be proposed and submitted to the electors of the state as an amendment to the constitution.

Section 2. There shall be a State Railway Commission, consisting of three members, who shall be first elected at the general election in 1906, whose term of office, except those chosen at the first election under this provision, shall be six years, and whose compensation shall be fixed by the Legislature.

Of the three commissioners first elected, the one receiving the highest number of votes, shall hold his office for six years, the next highest four years, and the lowest two years. The powers and duties of such commission shall include the regulation of rates, service and general control of common carriers as the legislature may provide by law. But in the absence of specific legislation, the commission shall exercise the powers and perform the duties enumerated in this provision.

Section 3. That at said election in the year 1906, on the ballot of each elector voting thereat, there shall be printed or written the words: "For Constitution Amendment, with reference to State Railway Commission." And "Against Constitutional Amendment, With Reference to State Railway Commission." And if a majority of all votes cast at said election, shall be for such amendment, the same shall be deemed to be adopted.

I, A. Galusha, secretary of state of the state of Nebraska, do hereby certify that the foregoing proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Nebraska is a true and correct copy of the original enrolled and engrossed bill, as passed by the Twenty-ninth session of the legislature of the State of Nebraska, as appears from said original bill on file in this office, and that said proposed amendment is submitted to the qualified voters of the state of Nebraska for their adoption or rejection at the general election to be held on Tuesday the 6th day of November, A. D. 1906.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the great seal of the state of Nebraska.

Done at Lincoln this 24th day of July, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Six, of the Independence of the United States the One Hundred and Thirty-second, and of this state the Fortieth.

The vinegar factory is in full blast. Now for the next enterprise.

John Wiltse is making friends wherever he goes. His qualifications of the office are admitted by all and his ability and determination to make an able and fearless prosecutor are making him votes every day.

At the end of a hard days work, weary with labor, Edward Rosewater, in the full possession of his great faculties, started on the long, long journey. Can you think of a better way to die?

Save Your Pennies!

THE TRUSTS
Are Looking After the DOLLARS

If we looked after the PENNIES and small change as closely and persistently as the Trusts and Grifters look after our Dollars—the chances are many of us would succeed in accumulating a little for ourselves. A splendid way to do a little "accumulating" is by depositing a part of our earnings each week, in the bank. Small savings lead to prosperity.

The Tribune will soon commence a corking good serial story for the winters reading. We are searching the markets for a good one, the names of which will be announced in the near future.

The remarkable revelations of David Abbott in this paper are enough to make one stop and short and wonder if there are not philosophy. The subject matter of the article is startling and the style in which it is written is unusually clear and beautiful.

Government ownership of railroads is one of the many rocks upon which Mr. Bryan's Presidential ship will founder. Instead of becoming more conservative the Madison square speech shows the distinguished Nebraskan to be more radical than ever.

In another column will be found the articles of incorporation of the John Gilligan company. The business of this company has reached the stage there enlargement is required. The Tribune recounts the remarkable success of this concern with great pleasure.

The nomination of Brown and Sheldon furnished an unanswerable proof of the pure intentions of the republican party. These young men stand upon no uncertain platform. Their intentions have been proclaimed in many public gatherings and no one need be in doubt as to what they will do when elected.

The News says everything in the republican party is for those things for which men like Brown and Sheldon are fearlessly fighting. It is a new deal and a square one. The day when Brown and Sheldon were nominated was the day when special privileges were discarded by the party once and for all time.

Governor Mickey, who, as the executive of the state, tried to make a speech of welcome on Mr. Bryan's return, has probably learned a lesson. The ill-mannered and brutal reception he got from the crowd will probably caused him to hereafter side step these non-partisan demonstrations got up by our friends the democrats.

The republican party is the luckiest party on earth. All it has to do is to pursue the even tenor of its way and depend on the other fellow to make the mistakes. If Bryan loses caste in the next two years as he has in the past three weeks his name will not be brought before the democratic convention. If we ever knew a man who resembles the parrot, Bryan is it.

District attorney Jerome of New York must have read the issue of this paper that declared the future of the country depended more upon the character of the men in office than it did upon political platforms. In a speech made in Albany this week Mr. Jerome said: "What we want is men and not measures. We have little faith in new laws while there is not honesty and capacity enough in public servants to work the old."

Mr. Bryan is pleading with the nation to stand by the President by voting for democratic congressmen. The Peerless is nothing if not amusing.

In the death of Edward Rosewater Nebraska has lost one of its most distinctive and useful citizens. During all of his life he has been a man who has accomplished things. His zeal and efforts were untiring and the results of his labor have done much to advance the welfare of the state and its people. Nebraska could ill afford to lose such a citizen, and his death will be taken as a personal loss by those who have the best interest of the commonwealth at heart.

New Millinery Store.

Mrs. H. C. Raker has opened a new millinery store in the building just south of the Chas. M. Wilson grocery store and will have her opening days today and tomorrow. The rooms have been remodelled and have an excellent appearance. Mrs. Raper has secured an entirely new stock of goods of the latest to be secured on the market and a call at her store will assure one of its merits.

A Seventy-five Thousand Dollar Deal.

The past week H. C. Smith of this city closed a deal with Fred Wittwer for a ranch containing 3100 acres near Cotswold, Nebr. With this ranch Mr. Wittwer becomes the owner of 500 head of hogs, 20 head of horses, and all necessary machinery for running the ranch. At the time the deal was closed there were more than 1000 tons of hay stacked upon the place, which was also included in the sale.

With Mr. Wittwer's nine sons and five daughters he is certainly in line for a successful management of this large tract. In an early day he walked to old Richardson county and by industry and frugal management has accumulated a large portion of this worlds goods, owning at this time over 1200 acres in this county. He has taken immediate possession of the new purchase and the family will look after the affairs of both places.

This is one of the largest land deals that has been consummated in this county for a number of years and Mr. Smith was busily engaged for nearly two days in making the transfer and examining titles.

MANY LADIES CAN AFFORD THE LITTLE LUXURIES OF DRESS BUT ARE REALLY TOO CARELESS TO GET THEM. A GOOD PAIR OF GLOVES NOT ONLY KEEPS THE FROST OFF OF YOUR FINGERS BUT HELP YOUR APPEARANCE. OLD GLOVES DETRACT FROM A STYLISH DRESS. A FRAYED NECKTIE, A WORNOUT COLLAR, OVERWORKED HANDKERCHIEFS, RIBBONS, LACES, HOSE, TAKE AWAY FROM THE GOOD IMPRESSION YOUR NICE CLOAK MAKES. MAY WE NOT CALL YOUR ATTENTION TO SOME OF THE LITTLE THINGS YOU NEED? MEN'S DRIVING GLOVES FOR 50C A PAIR MEN'S FALL NECKTIES FOR 50C EACH HARDKERCHIEFS FOR 25C EACH MEN'S HOSE FOR 10C, 15C AND 25C A PAIR DO YOU OVERLOOK THE SPICES IN YOUR PUDGING? Married.

The following notice from the Huntington, Indiana paper will be of interest to many people in this city as the bride is well known to Falls City folks, the family having only recently removed to Indiana. Miss Price was quite popular in our social circles being a general favorite with all her acquaintances and friends, and we join with them in wishing the young couple all happiness.

This evening August 25th, at Kokomo, Rev. J. Wise, formerly Evangelical pastor in this city, will officiate at the wedding of Pearl C. Chenoweth and Miss Lulu Price, young people from this city granted a marriage license today. Mr. Chenoweth is the son of Lander Chenoweth and is employed at the shoe factory. Miss Price is the daughter of W. O. Price. As Mr. and Mrs. Chenoweth they will return to this city this evening and make their home. Miss Erma Price, a sister of the bride, accompanied the couple on the trip and will visit at the Wise home a week.

Fire at Drug Store.

There was quite an exciting time at the Wanner drug store Monday morning, when a barrel of asphaltum exploded, caused by the ignition of the vapor. The force of the explosion blew Bert Parrish half way across the cellar and amongst a lot of boxes. Prompt action and the efficient use of a chemical fire extinguisher was the only thing that saved the building and its contents.

Owing to the large quantities of oils, turpentine, dry board boxes and other inflammable material in the building, a fire there would be disastrous to that entire business block. This again exemplifies the great necessity in Falls City for chemical fire extinguishers.

Rowland & Clifford will offer at the Gehling, Wednesday, Sept 19, an attraction which has the reputation of being the best Hebrew play on the American stage today. James Kyrle MacCurdy, starring in "The Old Clothes Man," a play from his own pen, makes the clothes vendor, Solomon Levi, a character study of great merit. All the buffoonery and ridicule are absent, and the old Hebrew is a touching and pathetic figure, whose ready humor and ability to see the bright side of the darkest situation win him the love and respect of all. The supporting company is strong, proper scenic effects are carried, and the play gives universal satisfaction.

The M. E. Kensington were entertained by the Misses Etta Riechers, Mabel Lyford, Emma Schaible and Mrs. W. A. Greenwald at the home of the former on Wednesday afternoon. With these ladies as hostesses, all the guests enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon. Refreshments were served. Next meeting to be held Sept. 26, by request, at Mrs. Jake Schaible's.

Mission Festival.

Horse Sales.

The Hoselton and Butterfield horse sales this week were well attended and the bidding very spirited. The stock brought good prices throughout. When two year old teams bring $225 as they did at these sales, it naturally incites the inquiry, why not raise horses instead of cattle?
