

Henry C. Smith LANDS & LOANS

$40,000 Private Money to loan, Annual Interest, Optional payments, Choice farms in this and adjoining counties, cheap homes in the West and South. Exchanges made.

VERDON.

H. J. Kiel was a state fair visitor this week.

Guy Mosher of Falls City was a Verdon visitor Sunday.

Ralph Miller attended the fair at Lincoln last week.

Robert Goolsby and wife were Falls City visitors Friday.

Mrs. Orlando Veal attended the fair at Lincoln last week.

Sherm Byrely was a business visitor Tuesday at Dawson.

Bruce Nedrow and wife were Lincoln visitors last week.

Mrs. Roy Watkins went to Auburn Sunday to visit relatives.

Walter Veach and wife attended the fair at Lincoln last week.

Tom Hall was a business visitor to the county seat Saturday.

John Hasenyager was a state fair visitor at Lincoln last week.

John Hall was a visitor at the state fair at Lincoln last Tuesday.

Chas. Ocamb was a business visitor to St. Joe the first of the week.

Dr. Kent of Falls City was a professional visitor here Wednesday.

Mrs. M. J. Kelley went to Kansas City Sunday on a visit to relatives.

Martha King of Peru is visiting Mrs. Walter Veach the last of this week.

Marle Pastaneau returned the last of the week from her visit at Nebraska City.

N. B. Judd of Dawson was a business visitor here the middle of the week.

Mrs. Ed Griffith went to Kansas City Saturday. She will be absent about a week.

Edna Parsons left for Peru Saturday where she will attend the normal this winter.

Nora Kelley left Sunday for Kansas City on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Tangney.

Rev. W. C. Brewer and son, Wilbur, of Strausville were Verdon visitors on Saturday.

Rev. Holderman of Lincoln preached at the Evangelical church Sunday morning.

Rev. Jacob Schafer visited with Rev. Brewer at Maple Grove the latter part of last week.

Mr. Williamson arrived overland from Baker, Kan., and joined his family here.

Blanche Jenkins returned Sunday to her home at Omaha after spending the summer here.

Orlando Veal and wife visited at the home of Mrs. Belle Cornell, west of town, last Sunday.

James Hanley and daughter, Mary, attended the funeral of Tom Burke at Dawson last Thursday.

A. D. Goolsby and wife were entertained Sunday by W. H. Moran and wife at the Transit house.

The Misses Schroeder of Bertrand, Nebr., visited their friend, Gertrude Lum, the first of the week.

Fred Gibson bought the dray line of W. V. Goolsby last week. He put on an extra team and wagon.

Leroy Judd and wife of Dawson visited with their daughter, Florence, in this city Sunday afternoon.

George Abbott came up from the county capitol Friday and visited his daughter, Mrs. C. G. Humphrey.

Mrs. Gurney Griffith and son, Heath, returned Saturday from a pleasant visit with relatives at Wymore.

Mrs. W. V. Goolsby and children returned home Friday from St. Joseph after visiting her mother at that place.

Eleanor Reese assisted in the store of Ocamb & Stach last week during the absence of Mr. Ocamb at St. Joe.

Byran Tangney returned to his home at Kansas City after spending the summer with relatives east of town.

Mrs. Nancy Bellar and daughter, Mabel, arrived from Auburn the first of the week and will spend the winter in Verdon.

Mr. Crouch and daughter, Mabel, went to Lincoln Tuesday. Mabel remained and will attend school there this winter.

Olga Pastaneau returned to her home at Nebraska City the first of the week after spending a couple of weeks with her sister, Mrs. John Leefer.

The Kid nine of Salem played against the Verdon nine at this place Saturday, the game resulting in a score of 15 to 5 in favor of Verdon.

John Hall left Saturday night for Illinois to attend the funeral of his aunt. He was joined at Falls City by his brother, Tom, who will accompany him.

Geo. Hall came up from the county seat Sunday and spent the day with his mother, Mrs. Julia C. Hall.

Mary Hanley left Tuesday morning for Peru where she will attend the normal the coming winter.

Roy Watson returned to Bethany on Monday to resume his studies at the Cotner university.

Rev. R. E. Hunt returned to Lincoln Monday to resume his studies.

Charley Wilson of Shubert spent Sunday in this city.

SALEM

C. B. Snyder went to Lincoln Tuesday.

Roy Turner was a Lincoln passenger Tuesday.

O. A. Jenning is reported better this week.

Sam Bayne drove up from Falls City Wednesday.

Joe Windell went to Lincoln to attend the fair.

Cass Moore was a passenger to Lake Side Tuesday.

Ed May and wife were St. Joseph visitors last week.

Mrs. E. E. Scott drove up from Falls City Wednesday.

Ray Sandrock was over from Morrill Sunday evening.

Ed May and Ira McCool were Falls City visitors Sunday.

Dave Ward and son of Shubert were Salem visitors Tuesday.

W. J. Morgan of Falls City was a Salem visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. Sarah Smith returned home from Lincoln Saturday.

W. B. Easley of Kansas City was in town on business last week.

John Copass and wife left this week for their new home in Greeley county.

Mrs. Joe Windell went to Peru Saturday to attend her son's wedding.

Guy Dodson of Auburn visited from Sunday until Tuesday with Salem friends.

Mrs. Kaup left Tuesday for her home in Oklahoma after visiting Salem relatives.

O. P. Windell wife and little daughter of St. Joseph are visiting Salem relatives and friends this week.

Zula McCool was a passenger to Peru Saturday to attend the marriage of Fred Windell and Cora Jack.

Miss Rachel Huston entertained about forty-five guests at the home of Doc Mullins Monday evening.

Mrs. Will Richards drove to Verdon where she took the train for Plattsmouth, where she will visit relatives and friends.

The marriage of Dessie Campbell to Wm. Neal occurred Tuesday at Ventura, Cal. Miss Dessie was raised in Salem and has many friends who will congratulate both she and her husband.

Cora M. Jack and Fred W. Windell were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. David Jack at Peru last Wednesday. The wedding was attended by about thirty-five guests. The bride is quite well known in Salem having visited here and had made many friends during those visits. The groom grew to manhood in Salem and has the confidence and respect of all.

Ina Billing and Ray Johnson were married in Falls City last Wednesday. The wedding of this young couple was a surprise to their Salem friends but all unite in extending congratulations. The bride was raised in Salem but has been making her home in Humboldt for sometime. This estimable young lady is the daughter of Frank Billings. The groom is the son of E. S. Johnson and is well respected by all. They intend to make Salem their home.

At the Front.

Will Veach left Monday for southern Kansas where he participated in a two days shoot at the Missouri-Kansas tournament, and we expect him to return with his usual laurels. Will has been breaking in a new gun which accounts for his not making quite as large an average as in the past season. This time he took his old standby with him and will give a leader record.

HUMBOLDT.

Mrs. L. C. Mann is seriously ill at her home in this city.

Margaret Rice spent Sunday with her parents in Tecumseh.

Mabel Carnes commenced work in the telephone office Monday.

John, the little son of Rev. Calvert and wife is suffering with an attack of typhoid fever.

Oakley James left the first of the week for Peru where he will attend school this year.

Sarah Edie left Thursday for Peru where she will attend the state normal the coming year.

Lulu Gandy has returned from Table Rock where she has been nursing a typhoid fever patient.

Lydia Crawford left Monday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Gus Wheeler at Sheridan, Wyoming.

Geo. Seabury of Chicago was visiting the fore part of the week at the home of O. A. Cooper.

Oliver Sarber formerly of this city and Stella Ladler of Beatrice were recently married at the bride's home.

Ray Miller, formerly night operator at the depot in this city, has been transferred to Falls City as day operator.

Mrs. Elmer Woods was summoned to this city the last of the week by the illness of her mother Mrs. L. C. Mann.

Bertha Dodge of the firm of Dodge & Smith was in the city the past week visiting friends and looking after business matters.

Dr. A. N. Reber and family left this week for their new home in Kansas City, where Mr. Reber has a position as government inspector.

Grace Shurtleff returned home Thursday from McCook, where she has been waiting upon her brother, who is suffering from a severe attack of typhoid fever.

Mrs. Chet Power and daughter, Louise, went up to Lincoln Sunday where the former will visit friends and the latter has made plans to attend Cotner university the coming year.

Prof. A. L. Moom who was recently elected principal of our schools, resigned his position last week, to accept a place in the industrial school at Kearney. R. R. Hill of Geneva was elected to fill the vacancy.

Lulu Thompson, a young colored girl about twenty-two years of age died at her home in the west part of the city Thursday afternoon. Funeral services were held from the family residence Friday, Rev. Calvert conducting the service.

C. M. Linn, while in Lincoln last week purchased an automobile and in company with Jos. Lepik had started for home with the machine and had gone but a short distance when it got beyond their control and ran against a tree, badly demolishing the auto and throwing the occupants to the ground, who luckily escaped with only a few bruises.

OHIO

Born to Aug. Zorn and wife Sept. 7, 1906 a son.

Wm. Hutchison was a visitor of Louis Blake, Sunday.

Mrs. Huettner entertained her sister Mrs. Ketterer Monday.

Jake Gibble and family were guests at Perry Shaffer's Sunday.

Bert Dodds visited with his sister Mary near Fargo, Sunday.

John Hutchison was in Falls City Sunday a guest of relatives.

John Reischick and family visited with a sister of Mr. Reischick, Sunday.

Christ Saylor and wife of Arizona were the guests of Eph Peck and wife last week.

H. J. Pritchard and wife entertained the former's brother George and family, Sunday.

Ida and Albert Burk are enjoying a visit with their grand parents in Rulo this week.

Mrs. Spangler of near Morrill, Kan., is spending the week with her parents and other relatives.

Frank Peck and Frances Knisely left Tuesday evening to take up their school work at Peru.

Lloyd Peck and little Wilbur of Reserve, Kansas, were visitors at the former's parents, Sunday.

Anson Knisely and wife entertained at dinner Sunday, Ralph Rhoades and Daisy Peck and Harvey and Sadie Peck.

Clarence Smith and wife of Falls City were out in this vicinity last week cleaning and repairing organs.

Geo. Johnston and wife entertained Mr. and Mrs. Ward of Jewell County, Kansas, and Chester Stump and family Sunday.

There will be a concert given at the Maple Grove church Friday evening by the Richardsons of Falls City, in view of getting up a music class in vocal music.

Mrs. Geo. Prichard and children and Mrs. O. A. Guhn of St. Anthony, Idaho, left Tuesday for Lawton, Indian Territory for a few weeks visit with their father.

Geo. Peck of Falls City came out to his son Cleon's home last week and while out a while took very sick. A doctor was called and he is getting some better now.

Mrs. A. D. Humbarger and son of Shawnee, Oklahoma and Mrs. J. O. Miller of Waterloo, Iowa are enjoying a visit with their parents Geo. Peck and wife and other relatives for a few weeks.

A number of the young folks gathered at the home of Kate Shouse Monday evening and spent the evening in playing various games. Those present has a good time. Refreshments were served.

Wallace Cully got his left leg broken last Saturday in a runaway. He was unconscious when help arrived to him. The buggy was badly broken and the harness too as one horse was stripped of its harness when caught. Dr. East was called to set the leg and Mr. Cully is doing as well as can be expected.

STELLA.

Sadie Joy of Peru was the guest of Stella Fankell a few days this week.

The Standard Bearers meet with Gertrude Shellenbarger this evening.

I. W. Harris has purchased the Ailer residence property which adjoins his own place.

Harry Haacker left for Lincoln this week where he will take a course in a business college.

Annie Kirk of Quincy, Ill., is visiting at the home of Ed Demsey, who lives west of town.

Beulah Greenwald of Falls City is teaching the school in the Prairie Union neighborhood.

Jennie Curry, a stenographer at Lincoln, has been visiting her sister at this place since Friday.

Nellie and Myra Davidson went to Peru this week where they will attend the normal this winter.

Mrs. Fred Gilbert and children left Wednesday morning for a three week's visit with relatives at Superior.

Charley Ogg, who has been living in the tenant house on Weller's farm, has moved to a farm south of Verdon.

Helen McComas has returned to her home at Brownville after spending the summer with her sister at this place.

Florence Smith has gone to Auburn where she will attend school and stay with her sister who lives at that place.

N. J. Rice, a former resident of Stella but now of Boulder, Colo., has been visiting friends at this place the past week.

John Lowe, proprietor of a business college at Minot, N. D., has been visiting at the home of his father here this week.

E. W. Jeffers, who has been conducting a shoe store here for the past two years, has packed his stock and moved it to Lincoln.

Dr. Montgomery and wife, Mrs. S. A. Montgomery and Maud attended the Allen-Swift wedding in Nebraska City last Thursday evening.

Ruben Harshbarger has traded a farm in Scott county, Kans., to Jap Kipling for his eighty acre farm northwest of town. Mr. Kipling will move to Kansas in the spring.

Sherm Colglazier, who lives east of town on the Shubert road, has purchased 160 acres of land from the Johnson ranch near Salem. He will rent the farm and continue to live where he is.

Sunday was Norman Smilies seventieth birthday, and in commemoration of the event a number of relatives and old soldiers were invited to spend the afternoon at his home. He was presented with a fine rocking chair.

Owen Chaney is home from a year's trip through the west. He is in San Francisco at the time of earthquake and escaped without injury, but lost all his clothes. He was for two days without a thing to eat

Alex Brisby, aged twenty-four years was killed last Sunday afternoon at this place by being thrown under a freight train. The young man had a sweetheart in Auburn who telephoned for him to come to see her. He received the message too late for the passenger train, and tried to board a through freight. He lost his hold on the box car and was thrown under the wheels. One leg was cut off at the body, the other foot at the ankle and one hand to the wrist. He died at eight o'clock that evening. The young man was born and raised at this place, his parents moving to Omaha about two years ago but he remained and has been working on a farm this summer. He was buried in the Prairie Union cemetery Monday afternoon.

RULO

Albert Burk, was a Lincoln visitor one day last week.

Mr. Hearn of Beatrice is visiting his father in this city.

C. E. Celey went to Highland Station Sunday night.

Harry Mann spent several days in Lincoln last week.

Charlie Vastine of St. Joe spent Sunday with home folks.

George Peabody was a state fair visitor Tuesday of last week.

Several couples attended the dance at Preston last Friday night.

J. A. Hinkle, and family spent Sunday with relatives in Missouri.

John Huss of Kansas was a Rulo visitor the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Maggie Jenkins came down from Falls City Tuesday morning.

Ves Bunker made a trip to Margraves ranch Thursday of last week.

John Kanaly and wife drove to Falls City Friday and spent the day there.

Ed Davis has moved into Alice Cunningham's house on Commercial street.

Claude Celey is back from his vacation and has resumed his duties at the depot.

Jeff Gilbert and Dan Simmons, went to Chanute, Kans., Friday of last week returning Tuesday.

Our ferryman was repairing his ferry landing on the Missouri side of the river last week.

Mrs. True who has been visiting her son Will for ten days returned Friday to her home in Union.

Henry Jackson has purchased the grocery stock from Jud Carpenter, to be used in his restaurant.

Mrs. John Larando returned Monday from Lewiston where she has been with her husband several days.

Verna Vastine departed for Pawnee City Saturday, where she will teach in the High school the coming year.

Work was commenced last week on the Baker building, which will be occupied by Grant Ocamb when finished.

Edith Hinkle departed Tuesday morning for Lexington, Mo., where she will attend school the coming year.

Mrs. Therodore Anderson, and daughters Bessie and Pearl spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Missouri.

Vanamburg's advertising car was side tracked in Rulo last Friday and the place now has a good supply of show bills.

Mrs. McVey and daughter, Ella Carpenter and Mary Mahan spent Sunday in Kansas the guests of Charlie Scott and family.

John Larando who is working on the Rock Island railroad at Lewiston had his right arm badly crushed last Saturday, and although still very painful is improving some.

Will Cunningham lost a valuable mare one day last week. It was just being driven home from work and dropped dead instantly. He had been offered $175 for said mare only ten days before.

Last Tuesday at 10:30 a pretty wedding took place at the church.

At The Gehling.

A Kansas Sunflower as presented by the Lockes Dramatic Company at the Gehling theatre last Wednesday evening was all that they claimed. A bright clean story rendered by a good company gave entire satisfaction. The three Lockes have enjoyed great success in their theatrical career. Tom Spence, Pianist received many encores.

Horses Became Frightened.

While on their way with the funeral procession of Wm. McK Maddox last Saturday a team driven by Will Campbell and a Mr. Henderson of Verdon became frightened by some one raising an umbrella just ahead of it. When the gentlemen saw that they could not control the team, they managed to turn them out to the side of the road. The horses ran into a ditch throwing the two gentlemen out and loosening the horses. The men were picked up but were not seriously injured. The buggy was a total wreck.

Notice of Administration.

In the matter of the estate of William McKendry Maddox, deceased.

In the county court of Richardson county, Nebraska.

Notice is hereby given to all parties interested, that Wesley H. Maddox, did on the 10th day of September, 1906, file in this court, a duly verified petition praying that he may be appointed administrator of the estate of William McKendry Maddox, deceased; and that on the 11th day of September, 1906, Mary J. Maddox, as the widow of said deceased, by C. F. Reavis her attorney, filed her duly verified petition, praying that the administration of the estate of said deceased be committed to John W. Holt and William Uhlig, as joint administrators of said estate. It is ordered that said petitions be heard by the court on the 4th day of October, 1906, at 10 o'clock a. m., in the county court room at Falls City, in said county, when and where all parties interested may appear and oppose the granting of the prayers of either or both of said petitions.

By order of the court dated September 11th, 1906.

JOHN GAUGON,
County Judge.

Notice for Bids.

Notice is hereby given to all persons desiring to bid for the building and construction of cement sidewalks in the city of Falls City, Nebraska, that they shall file with the city clerk of said city, on or before 12 o'clock (noon) on the 20th day of September, 1906, their sealed bids (estimates to be in writing) stating the least that they will build and construct sidewalks for per lineal foot, on the following described lots, situated in Falls City, Nebraska, to-wit:

On the east ends of lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, block 24, Steele's addition to Falls City, Nebraska.

On the west ends of lots 17, 18, 19, block 5, Steele's addition to Falls City, Nebraska.

On the west ends of lots 13, 14, 15, 16, block 5, also on the south side of lot 13, block 5, city of Falls City, Nebraska.

H. K. BAKER,
City Clerk.

Hall's Shoe Store!

Carries the Largest and most Complete line of Shoes and Hosiery in Richardson County and sells them to you for less money than the General Store.

We study the wants and needs of the feet and can give you better satisfaction than the merchant who studies the quality of butter and eggs.

Take your Produce—the same as cash.

SHOE STORE.