

Henry C. Smith LANDS & LOANS

$40,000 Private Money to loan, Annual Interest, Optional payments, Choice farms in this and adjoining counties, cheap homes in the West and South. Exchanges made.

HUMBOLDT.

Lenn Mann transacted business in Omaha this week.

Gertrude Bantz was a visitor in Kansas City last week.

O. J. Hall was a visitor in Omaha the last of the week.

Ralph Philpot was visiting at Arapahoe the first of the week.

Humboldt has made arrangements for a lecture course this winter.

Mrs. W. S. Power has returned from a visit with Kansas City friends.

F. W. Hummel has returned from a business trip to Streator, Illinois.

C. Lionberger attended a stock sale near Hiawatha, Kansas, Thursday.

A brick walk is being laid from the B. & M. depot several blocks north.

Geo. Segrist and wife of Lincoln are visiting Humboldt relatives this week.

Material is being hauled for the laying of cement walks through the park.

John Graham and family left Wednesday for their future home at Denver.

Ed Lynch is carrying his arm in a sling the result of an accident last week.

Walter Legg and family attended the Auburn horse show the last of the week.

Mrs. H. P. Marble and daughter, Zora, were Omaha visitors the last of the week.

Mrs. F. W. Garver returned Saturday from a visit with her daughter, in Kansas City.

Mason Shurtleff and wife came in from McCook, Friday for a visit with relatives in this vicinity.

Chester Power and family of St. Joseph were visiting relatives in Humboldt several days this week.

Lulu Byram, assistant principal of the Humboldt schools, went down to Kansas City Monday morning to consult an oculist.

Mrs. Laura Campbell returned Monday from Kansas City where she had been visiting friends and attending the Priests of Pallas parade.

Col. M. W. Harding returned Sunday from Colorado Springs where he had been visiting with his wife and son Brooks for several days.

A game of basket ball between Humboldt and Seneca was played in the opera house Friday evening. The score being 30 to 6 in favor of the home team.

The local ladies missionary society of the Methodist church drove over to Table Rock Wednesday morning and visited with the society at that place, returning home in the evening.

John Brockman and family are making preparations to move to this city in the near future and will occupy the property which they recently purchased of Mrs. Emma Wilson on Central avenue.

The St. Joseph Commercial club made the Humboldt business men a thirty-five minute visit Monday morning. The club numbered about seventy-five and were accompanied by their own band. They left on a special train at 11:05 for Table Rock.

Katherine Hudson, who has been employed as teacher in the Pawnee City schools, has been compelled on account of sickness to resign her position. Olive Petrashek of this city was elected to fill the vacancy and commenced her new duties Friday.

Irvin McKinney, the seven year old son of Mrs. G. W. Ward living a short distance north of town, who suffered injuries Wednesday last, by having his limb wrenched completely off at the knee joint, by getting it caught in the spokes of a wheel, while attempting to catch a ride, is reported to still be in a critical condition, but the doctors have not yet given up hope for his recovery.

OHIO

Tom Omara returned home from Kansas City, Sunday.

George Macomber was a visitor at O. A. Burk's Sunday.

Ralph Rhoades was a guest of his brother Wm. in Salem Sunday.

Mrs. Omara visited in Rulo Sunday with her daughter Mrs. Arthur Darveau.

Mable Shouse is assisting Mrs. F. S. Lichty with her house work for a few weeks.

John Wiltse and family of Falls City spent Sunday with Mrs. Wiltse's mother.

Frank Peck came down from Peru Saturday for a short visit with the home folks.

Mrs. Eph. Peck visited with her daughter Mrs. W. K. Knight, Monday.

N. B. Burnworth, wife and little boys were guests of F. S. Lichty and wife, Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Kaufman returned to her home in Falls City after a weeks visit with friends.

Perry Shaffer, wife and daughter returned home from Council Bluffs, Iowa last Saturday.

Frances Stump wife and two children were guests of the former's sister Mrs. P. E. Shaffer.

Mrs. Geo. Shouse and daughter Grace and Mrs. Howard visited at Francis Stump's Monday.

Lloyd Peck of Reserve, Kansas attended the love feast and visited with his mother Saturday night.

Bertha Brim returned to her home near Hamlin, Kansas after spending two weeks with her sister.

Ed Kimmel who got his leg broken last June is now able to be brought to his home. He is now walking with crutches.

Elder Gish of Beatrice was present at the communion services at the German Baptist Brethren church, Saturday evening.

Rev. J. J. Yoder of Conway, Kans., closed a two weeks series of meetings at the German Baptist Brethren church Sunday evening.

Kate Shause and Grace Nedrow and Ralph Miller and Otto Ruegge accompanied by Frank Stump and wife drove out east of Barada for an outing Sunday. They took their luncheon and spent the day in picnic style.

The love feast and communion services held at the German Baptist church Saturday evening was very well attended. Those from a distance were John Brim and family from near Hamlin, Kans., and Quincy Reed and Alice Maxey of Peru, Mrs. Himes and Mrs. Bridge and Mrs. Snyder and daughter and Rev. Woodie of Auburn Neb.

SALEM

Mrs. Will Uhlig visited in town Tuesday.

Geo. Hansell drove to Falls City Tuesday.

W. C. McCool was a passenger to Omaha Tuesday.

Will Richards returned from North Dakota Tuesday.

Bertha Spurgin spent Saturday and Sunday in Salem.

Ora Snyder returned Tuesday from his trip to Denver.

Mrs. W. Wertz is suffering from an attack of neuralgia.

M. A. Graves moved in to the Stafford house last week.

Frank Fryberger of Humboldt was in town Wednesday.

Lora McCool of Dawson is visiting Zula McCool of Salem.

W. B. Boyd purchased a fine new team at Niara City Tuesday.

Clarence Smith and wife of Falls City were in town Tuesday.

Mrs. Barrows returned to her home in Oklahoma City Saturday.

Mrs. Ern Wickem and Maggie Lesley drove to Falls City Tuesday.

Myrtle Mendenhall and Alora Fisher drove to Falls City Wednesday.

C. A. Cook and Dr. Day attended the Dr. Fast sale in Falls City Tuesday.

John Anderson returned Tuesday from his trip to Fremont and Omaha.

The St. Joseph Commercial club passed through Salem Monday morning.

Will Uhlig, wife and little son visited over Sunday with Allan May and wife.

Cecil Sheely returned to Peru Thursday after a short visit here with her parents.

Mesdames R. R. Rule and E. E. Scott drove up from Falls City Wednesday.

Frank Rantsma returned to Lincoln Wednesday to continue his school studies.

C. G. McCool, wife and little son left Tuesday for an extended visit at Fort Smith, Ark.

Shelt Harris entertained a large crowd at his home near Salem on Friday evening. All enjoyed a good time.

Jim Whitney, wife and little daughter, Dr. Furnish, wife and little daughter of Hiawatha Kansas are visiting in town this week.

Geo. Hicks arrived from Warren Illinois Wednesday for a visit with their daughters Mrs. O. A. Jennings and Mrs. Samuel Baker.

Mrs. Allan May entertained the Married Ladies Kensington Club of Falls City Thursday afternoon. About twenty were present.

Myrtle Grimes and Adam Shafer were married on Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents near Salem. The bride and groom left at once for their home on the groom's farm near Forest City Mo.

Mrs. Will Veach entertained the L. L. S. Club on Thursday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in work and amusements. Mrs. Geo. Kreps won the prize in the guessing contest. Dainty refreshments were served.

VERDON.

Adam Gebhard spent Saturday at Stella.

W. D. Corn was a Dawson visitor on Sunday.

Verna Wilkinson was a Stella visitor Saturday.

Lou Godfrinon of Falls City was in town Sunday.

Nelle Weaver visited friends at Stella Saturday.

John Walker of Shubert was in town Sunday evening.

Horace Clements of Stella was in town Sunday evening.

Charley Weaver and wife were Stella visitors Saturday.

Bertha Nedrow visited at Maple Grove Sunday afternoon.

F. W. Robb went to Omaha Wednesday returning the next day.

Rose Mark and Amret Hart were visitors at Maple Grove Sunday.

John Hasenyager and Joe Bauer were Stella visitors Saturday.

Mr. Boyd of Salem was a business visitor here the first of the week.

W. E. Goolsby and wife attended the Ak-sar-ben at Omaha last week.

Dave Davies and wife of Falls City were business visitors here Tuesday.

Rev. Melroe came down from Havelock Tuesday for a visit with friends.

Mrs. C. Friley and children returned home Monday from her visit at Cappa.

Mrs. J. A. Benedict went to Falls City Thursday on a visit to her daughter.

John Williamson and wife were business visitors Thursday at the county seat.

Pearl Clements of Stella visited her friend, Edna Wolfe, the latter part of the week.

Guy Houston and Guy Mosier of Falls City spent Sunday afternoon at this place.

John Leefer and wife returned Saturday from a visit at Berlin and Nebraska City.

Mrs. Leonard arrived Tuesday from Wakefield on a visit to her daughter Ada Leonard.

J. W. Stump and wife went to Omaha Tuesday to attend the Ak-sar-ben festivities.

Loren Corn went to Bethany Monday where he will attend Cotner university this year.

Mrs. Wolfe and daughter, Edna, spent Sunday afternoon visiting with friends near Stella.

Mr. Daugherty and three daughters and the Rev. Spicer of Dawson were Maple Grove visitors Sunday.

A. D. Goolsby and wife and Edith Shoemaker attended the Missionary rally at Maple Grove Sunday.

Mrs. Orlando Veal entertained at supper Sunday evening, Marie Fastaneau, Mary and Eleanor Reese.

Florence Judd, Ada Leonard and Mrs. Leonard spent Sunday with Leroy Judd and wife at Dawson.

Rev. Schafer, Rev. Garris and Rudolph Fisher attended the Missionary rally at Maple Grove Sunday.

Mrs. Lera Veal, Marie Fastaneau, Mary and Eleanor Reese visited at the home of Mrs. Clyde Harden Sunday.

Mrs. Cora Houck returned to her home at Reese, Kans., after a pleasant visit with her brother, Frank Daugherty.

Mrs. John Williamson and daughter, Bertha, left Monday for Kansas City where they will make their future home.

Revival meetings begun at the Evangelical church Sunday evening. Rev. Garris of Cottage is assisting Rev. Schafer.

Mrs. Hattie Dodder returned Friday to her home at Kansas City, after a visit with her parents, Charles Henderson and wife.

RULO

Mrs. Cutler is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Joseph McDougald is on the sick list.

Essie Marsh was a Falls City visitor Saturday.

Grandma Morkum is very sick at this writing.

Apple picking is on in full blast and there is a large crop.

Less Leeds returned home from Omaha Friday night.

Several Ruloites went to Preston Sunday to see the ball game.

J. W. Gustafson of Wymore was here on company business Tuesday.

Wm. Inks and family of Falls City visited in Rulo Saturday and Sunday.

W. B. Hinton of Omaha was a business visitor here Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. John Inks of Salem, visited her daughter, Mrs. Emma Wallace Sunday.

Mr. Tweed the banana man of St. Joseph was a business visitor in this city Friday.

Mrs. Alice Lillow of Union Town, Pennsylvania, is visiting with her mother Susan Boles.

Mrs. Boles and daughter left Wednesday morning for Missouri to visit the former's brother.

Prof. A. D. Larabee and wife of Preston were visiting relatives in Rulo Saturday and Sunday.

Rob. Kanaly drove to Falls City with a wagon load of apples Tuesday, for the vinegar factory.

Mrs. Rolly Harrison, and little daughter, of St. Joseph arrived in Rulo Sunday for a visit with relatives.

Road districts No 1 and 2 are each the owner of a White City Kansas road grader, of which they are justly proud.

Coonrad Coonsinger's horse became frightened last Friday opposite Geo. Pliny's place, and in attempting to jump he was thrown out falling on his left arm and breaking it.

Ella Carpenter, has remodeled her dwelling house, and moved her stock of millinery goods from her other room further down town into her home place, making the work much better for her.

Mrs. Hearn died at her home in Rulo Oct. 3rd, at 4:30 a. m. The deceased was an old resident having lived here many years. Funeral services were held at residence Thursday. Mrs. Hearn has been sick a long time, and Mr. Hearn is unable at this time to leave home, having a cancer on his face, which is incurable.

Ted Majurus was driving two miles west of here Friday when his team became frightened and started to run. He tried to turn them away from the track but could not. The team turned to cross the track just in time for the train to strike and kill one of the horses. The other horse was uninjured and went to picking grass when turned loose.

STELLA.

Clifford Young and wife have gone to Alliance where he has a position.

Mrs. Earnest Bright left last week for an extended visit with relatives in Illinois.

Mary Dempsey has gone to York where she will attend a Catholic academy.

Messrs. Hansen, Fankell, Haskins, Cain and Baldwin spent Sunday in Humboldt.

Mrs. Jacob Swihart is spending the week with her children in Jewell county, Kansas.

Abe Moore and family have moved from a Clark farm west of town to a farm near Salem.

Addie Clark left last week for St. Joe where she has a position in a tailoring establishment.

Fred Stringfield and wife from Ft. Crook has been spending the week with relatives at this place.

Mrs. Ed Hammond has been quite sick this week. Her mother from Falls City has been staying with her.

Willis Stine and mother left Monday for an extended visit with the latter's brother at Coweta, I. T.

Addie Fankell is expected home this week from Columbus, Ohio, where she has been spending the summer.

Scip Stringfield has secured a position as a clerk in Lord's store at Shubert, and commenced work Monday morning.

John Brockman and wife are mov-

You Cannot Afford to Miss This!

The O. H. Maddox Bankrupt Stock of

GROCERIES AND QUEENSWARE

Has been purchased by John W. Powell, who has already opened up the store and will continue the business. MISS MAY MADDOX will have charge.

In this stock is a large amount of fine Queensware which will be sold at much less than cost as it is desired to close out the line. Prices will be made which cannot be resisted. Come in and see what a little money will do in this line.

While we are going to reduce and close out the Queensware, it is our aim to build up the Grocery Business and will keep a nice, fresh stock of

FINE GROCERIES

All orders will be appreciated and will be given prompt attention. Phone 141.

JOHN W. POWELL

Ladies' Cloaks! DO YOU NEED ONE?

We have them in all the latest Check and Plaids, Dark Novelties, Browns, Castors, Grays, Blues and Blacks.

WE BOUGHT THEM RIGHT

Because our buyer through years of experience, had learned where to get the best values for the money.

WE SELL THEM RIGHT

Because we believe in giving you the best value we can for your money.

It will pay you to see our line before buying.

FRED E. SCHMITT FALLS CITY, NEB.

ing to Humboldt this week. Mr. Brockman's sale Monday netted him about $1,900.

A cement crossing has been made near the livery barn. If this crossing proves satisfactory twelve more will be put in by the town.

Elsie Curtis who lives north of town, won two first prizes on cakes exhibited at Auburn last week. The prizes amounted to five dollars.

Frank Henderson, a resident of this vicinity in an early day, but now of Mankato, Kansas, has been here since Sunday visiting his brother, J. H. Henderson.

Legal Notice.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF RICHARDSON COUNTY, NEBRASKA.

Joseph Williams, Ella Gagnon, Frederick Williams, Marion K. Funk, and Joseph E. Mead, a minor, by his next friend, Edward Mead, Plaintiffs, vs.

Joseph H. Miles, Amanda Amos, Mary Jones, Miss Biles, John W. Holt, John I. Dessler, J. K. Biles, Stephen B. Miles, Jr., Joseph T. Miles, Nora Harrison, John J. Williams, W. J. Jones, Thomas Amos, Ella Page, Florence Frey, Laura Hedrick, Emma Taylor, the unknown heirs of Alice Brooks, Samuel A. Miles, Defendants.

To non-resident defendants, J. K. Biles, Nora Harrison, W. J. Jones, Thomas Amos, Florence Frey, Laura Hedrick, Emma Taylor, John Brooks, Harry Brooks, Lattimore Brooks, Alice Brooks: You and each of you are hereby notified that in the above entitled cause pending in the district court in and for Richardson county, state of Nebraska, the said court has made a conditional order of revivor, that the said cause as to Joseph Williams be revived in the name of Belle Williams, administratrix of the estate of Joseph Williams, deceased, and Belle Williams, his widow, and Helen Williams, and Viola Williams, minors, and only heirs of the deceased plaintiff, Joseph Williams, by Belle Williams, their next friend and guardian.

The said court further ordered and decreed that said conditional order of revivor be served upon the absent defendants by publication in The Falls City Tribune, a newspaper published at Falls City in Richardson county, Nebraska, for the period of thirty days, commencing on Friday, the 28th of September, 1906, requiring said defendants to show cause why said action on the part of Joseph Williams, deceased, should not be revived in the name of his representatives, successors and heirs aforesaid, on or before the 12th day of November, 1906.

You are, therefore, required to show cause, on or before the 12th day of November, 1906, why said cause as to Joseph Williams, plaintiff, should not stand revived in the name of his representatives, successors and heirs aforesaid, as in said condition order provided.

Dated September 27, 1906. 42
JOHN L. WEBSTER,
JOHN A. ATWOOD,
L. J. RINGOLSKY,
REAVIL & REAVIS,
Attorneys for Plaintiffs.

Real Estate Transfers.

W B Schmucker and wf to I B Whitaker wd lots 1, 2, and n¹ of lot 3; also fr part lots 19, 20, 21, 22 blk 121 falls City $6,000.

W D Easley and wf to Roanoke Lumber Co wd lots 26, 57, e 20 ft lots 34, 36 blk 120 Salem $1,000.

Henry Shaw, jr., and wf to John Weber wd e¹ of sec of sec 31-3-16, containing 80 acres Richardson county $5200.

Henry Sippley and wf to Leroy Judd wd lots 1, 2, blk 36 Helm's add to Dawson $325.

Richardson county Neb. to W. P. Shildneck qcd lt 5 blk 96 lots 5, 6, blk 106 lts 6, 7 blk, lts 7, 8, blk 108 lt 8 blk 109 Salem $6.