

THE FALLS CITY TRIBUNE.

Falls City Boys Attend.

The boys from this city that attended the Grey Hound coursing meet at Friend, Neb., last week enjoyed a very successful trip and had a good live time. Among them were John Oswald, Thomas Frank, Robert Rule and George Holt. Thomas Frank being the only one that got a piece of money. His winning dog, Fighting Fire proved better than any one dog he has ever taken to the coursing. Out of eighty-one dogs entered in that one. Fighting Fire won fourth place in the $1500.00 stake, which is an excellent showing. There were two other entries of Falls City racers, Miss Chappie and Queen of the Hills. Oswald was taking photos on the ground floor as usual, and secured some very good views of the winners and best dogs.

Friend is a very pretty place, the surrounding country being extremely level and an ideal place for a meet as the course of the hounds can be followed easily with the eye. The races began on Tuesday and ended Saturday with an average attendance varying from five to eight thousand. The next meet will be held near Kearney and a large attendance is expected as these meets are exceedingly popular.

The boys returned Saturday having realized a very pleasant time and are backed up with an invitation to "come again when cherries are ripe."

Ferd Friedly's Sale.

Ferd Friedly's sale of Poland Chinas will be held in this city, Saturday, October 27th at the Metz Sale Pavilion.

Mr. Friedly is one of the best judges of swine in this part of the state as his experience with thorough-breds for the past fifteen years has placed him in touch with all the leading breeders of this class.

This is his thirteenth annual sale and is by far the best offering ever presented the public.

His herd has always been headed by the best that money could purchase. Such grand-sires as Friedly's Mischief of Mischief Maker cannot fail to appeal to the best breeders of the land, he being a perfect type of the Poland-China hog. His half brother Meddler is the World's Champion.

This is but an index of the good thing in store for you at this sale. If you are a breeder do not fail to attend, a look means a purchase.

If you are a farmer improve your stock by placing one of Friedly's youngsters at the head of your herd, you will never regret the act.

Everything goes without reserve. Procure a catalogue before the sale and make your choice of individuals.

Remember the date Saturday, October 27, rain or shine.

Delegates Named.

Governor John H. Mickey has appointed the thirty-six delegates to represent the state of Nebraska at the seventeenth annual session of the Trans-Mississippi Commercial congress, which will meet in Kansas City the 20, 21, 22 and 23 of November. Among the list, we notice the name of our prominent citizen, V. G. Lyford, who has been thus honored by the Governor, and we know of no one who could more ably act as a conscientious representative of public interests.

District Court.

District court convened in adjourned session Monday afternoon with Judge Kelligar on the bench. The first jury case to be tried was the case of Amelia Rieger against the heirs of Henry Rieger deceased. The court took the case from the jury and decided it in favor of the plaintiff. The case will be appealed to the supreme court. The case of John Berry of Humboldt against Charles Nims for $2,000 damages alleged to have sustained in a fight which occurred in Humboldt in May, resulted in a verdict of $5.00 for the plaintiff. Gottlieb Schutz had the title to his land quitted in him by a decree of the court handed down Tuesday.

The motion for a new trial in the Bliholder case was sustained for the reason that the jury while deliberating on the matter got hold of a statute in the jury room and determined that the court was wrong in the instructions and proceeded to make a little law of its own. The attorney for Bliholder offered to have him plead guilty to assault and battery but the county attorney refused to accept the plea and will put the defendant on trial again as soon as possible. Court adjourned until Monday, the jury being discharged for the term. The Bode matter will come up on the motion for a new trial as soon as Judge Raper can be in attendance.

Rev. Haskins To Preach.

Rev. E. E. Haskins, formerly pastor here, preaches the closing sermon at the Brethren Conference, in this city, next Thursday evening. It goes without saying that there will be a good audience to hear him.

Old Folks Day.

The German Evangelical church will observe Old Folks Day next Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. This is a service for every one although in particular for the old folks.

Sunday School will be held at 9:30 o'clock a. m. Evening service at 7:15.

REV. M. MANSHARDT.

A Days Outing.

A hack load of our charming school marm took advantage of the glorious autumn weather, last Saturday and drove to Fargo, starting early in the morning and remaining all day. They crossed the river on the flat boat, went nutting and enjoyed a big spread at dinner. Those of the party were: Misses Mohler, Gehling, Beck, Schock, Lugenbill, Boose, Grinstead, Pittock, Davies, Mr. Tobie, and Prof. Spencer and wife.

At The Gehling.

Yon Yonson, the attraction at the Gehling last Tuesday evening, gave general satisfaction and was a good play. The characters have been selected with special care and with an eye to their individual parts. Yon Yonson, the big Swede, while seemingly slow in grasping the phrases of our language had a fund of humor which was at once catchy and interesting. The mid-winter scene of the Minnesota Lumber camp was one of the features.

The Lumbermen's quartette was one of the best that has been in this city and received repeated encores. Each singer was an artist.

The larger orchestra deserves special mention as their music was excellent.

District Conference.

The District Conference of the Brethren Church, meets in this city next week. The first session will be Tuesday afternoon and the closing session will be Thursday evening. People will be here from a few adjoining states and several workers from the east. There will be varied exercises each evening, followed with a sermon by Rev. Eason of Kansas Tuesday night, Rev. Watson of Beaver City Wednesday night and Rev. Haskins Thursday night. There will be forenoon and afternoon sessions Wednesday and Thursday which members and friends of the church should not miss. People from a distance will be entertained cheerfully.

This conference is quite an important event and the general public is invited to all the sessions, especially the three evening preaching services.

Rally Day.

The members of the Presbyterian Sabbath School observed Rally Day last Sunday morning at the usual hour. The church was profusely decorated with beautiful, many colored autumn leaves and special flags, of the cross design, for the occasion. A large number were in attendance and the special offering showed a very generous nature to predominate among the members.

Purchases Two Farms.

Mr. Francis Shaffer has been entertaining his brother Henry, of Somerset Pennsylvania, the last few weeks. He was accompanied by his daughter Mrs. Ankney, also Mr. Ankney and son, and Cora Shaffer. They started home Monday evening.

While here Mr. Shaffer bought a farm north of town from Jacob Schaible, also one east of town, from W. H. Crook. There is a possibility that these people may, in time, come here to stay.

Horse Sale.

Falls City can't have a horse show but it can have good horse sales to beat the band. The Margrave horse sale held here Wednesday was very successful. Teams bringing as high as $335. This sale was advertised exclusively in The Tribune and a good crowd was in attendance. Of course The Margrave Company has the stuff, but it is an excellent idea to tell the people about what you have when you want to secure a good buying crowd. The horses, mares and mules offered by this company in this sale and which they have in abundance at the ranch are among the best animals in the country. Good horses are about the most valuable asset a farmer can own as is indicated by the prices paid at this sale.

Meet In Caucus.

Pursuant to call the republicans of East and West Muddy met at McGeachie's hall at Shubert and transacted the business for which they were called. Elmer Ray was elected chairman and J. F. Shubert secretary of the caucus. J. G. Ciphers was elected a candidate for township treasurer and John B. Stotts for township Clerk. The following gentlemen were elected for Supervisors of road districts 1, 2, 3, and 4, Wm. Jinkins, John Curtis, W. J. Vandeventer and J. H. Lewis. There being no further business the meeting was adjourned.

Mrs. O. J. McNall and daughter Eva, returned Tuesday from a weeks visit with friends at Fairfax, Missouri.

Society News.

Master Roy Parchen celebrated his sixth birthday anniversary on Monday evening and invited about twenty of his little friends to spend the evening with him. From four until six o'clock the little ones enjoyed the sports of childhood, and then bounteous refreshments were served. Master Roy was presented with many tokens of remembrance.

The meeting of the Woman's club, held Tuesday at the home of Miss Schoenheit, was attended by twenty-seven members and several guests, and bore out the promise of interest and pleasure in the year's work evident at the first meeting. After a short business session the program opened with a discussion of classical and romantic music led by Mrs. Simon Davies with a reading on the former and by Mrs. George Jennings with a paper on the latter. Musical numbers continuing the study of Schumann were then given as follows:

Vocal duet, "Were I a Birdling," Mrs. W. T. Fenton and Anita Wilson.

Piano, Flower Piece, Gertrude Lyford.

Vocal, The Lotos Flower, Helen Martin.

Two violins, Laendliches Lied, and Knight Rupert, from "Album for the Young," Anita Wilson and Verda Sage.

At the next meeting of the club, November 6th, at the home of Mrs. Emma Spencer, the literature department will give a program continuing the study of France.

Hazel Prater was very pleasantly surprised last Saturday evening by a number of her schoolmates and friends. They went to her home, about thirty in number, and took her unawares, and a more jolly and pleasant crowd you never saw. The evening was most pleasantly spent, one of the most interesting features being a mock wedding. The principals were: Hazel Prater, bride; Marguerite Rowley, bride's maid; Audrey Marion, flower girl; Roland Spence, groom; Max Herling, best man. Mabel Potet presided at the piano and rendered the wedding march, while Roy Nicholson officiated as the clergyman. An elegant course wedding luncheon was served and the occasion celebrated properly. Miss Hazel was presented with a beautiful gold bracelet.

Mrs. A. E. Gantt entertained the young ladies whist club on Thursday evening, complimentary to Miss Daisy Gantt, the day being her birthday. It was in the nature of a surprise party, and was one of the most pleasant social events of this season. Mrs. Gantt is a royal entertainer and was ably assisted by Miss Gantt. Refreshments were among the many pleasant features of the evening.

Married.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Brinegar, in Arago Precinct, at 4:00 o'clock, October 17th, 1906, in the presence of numerous invited guests, Elder T. A. Lindenmeyer spoke the mystic words which united in the holy bonds of wedlock, Mr. Charles Nitzsche and Mima Freeman both of Rulo, Nebr. After the wedding ceremony and congratulations, the guests were seated around two well laden tables and served with a sumptuous wedding dinner. They will reside on a farm in Arago precinct.

As Others View it.

Hon. Cass Jones received the following complimentary letter from Prof. Crabtree, president of the Nebraska state normal school at Peru:

Peru, Neb., Oct. 4, '06.

Hon. Cass Jones, Rulo, Neb.

My dear friend:—I am glad to see that you have been honored by the republicans of Richardson county with a nomination for the state legislature. Your previous record ought to secure your election. You have always stood for the right and for the best. I do not know who your opponents are, but I know of your excellent work in the legislature and write to extend congratulations on your nomination and to express the hope that you might be re-elected.

Very cordially yours,

J. W. CRABTREE.

Association Meets.

The members of the Richardson county Medical Association met in session in this city on Tuesday of this week. Session opened at the Odd Fellow's hall at 4:30 o'clock and the remainder of the afternoon was spent with several minor details, after which they adjourned to the National hotel, where an elegant 6 o'clock banquet, such as Proprietor Spence knows how to serve, was partaken of by the members.

At 7:30 o'clock they again met at the Odd Fellows hall and spent the remainder of the evening in a profitable and interesting manner.

Three excellent papers were read by Drs. Wilson, of Humboldt, Montgomery of Stella and Waggoner of Dawson. Numerous spirited discussions were held on each, and they were all thoroughly enjoyed. At 10 o'clock a luncheon was served after which the Association adjourned until next January.

Stole The Mules.

Unknown parties helped themselves to a span of mules that were hitched to the rack around the court house and drove off with them. This occurred about 5:30 Wednesday evening the owner Fred Reschke discovering the theft. A search was started at once.

Prof. Richardson was making a drive to Barada the same evening and on the road there he passed a team of mules driven by two men, but not knowing of the theft, thought nothing of it. However when he returned he found the team standing in the road, about a mile and a half this side of Barada. He took them to a near-by farm house and left them there. The team was restored to their owner Thursday morning, but nothing has been learned concerning the identity of the thieves.

J. H. McCarty and wife, of Carthage, Indiana, are visiting with her brother, S. H. Harvey, and other relatives in this city.

Dr. W. E. Shook and Dr. J. M. Willis of Shubert attended the meeting of the Medical Association, held in this city this week.

George Boone and wife and Hal Sowles returned Sunday to their home in St. Joseph after two weeks spent in the city the guests of the latter's parents, D. W. Sowles and wife. They returned via the auto route.

Never Ask Advice.

When you have a cough or cold don't ask what is good for it and get some medicine with little or no merit and perhaps dangerous. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar, the greatest throat and lung remedy it cures coughs and colds quickly.

E. T. Lambert returned Thursday to his home at Stella.

Dr. Waggoner was down from Dawson during the week.

F. A. Oliver was among the Stella people here Tuesday.

I. E. Smith of Humboldt was a business visitor here Tuesday.

Mrs. Edwards of Stella is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. John Oswald.

Jas. M. Robison and M' Lichty were here from Morrill, Kansas Monday.

Dr. E. P. Clapper returned to his home at Verdon Wednesday evening.

W. H. Strunk and N. B. Judd were among the Dawson people here Wednesday.

Hon. Cass Jones of Rulo was a pleasant caller at these quarters yesterday morning.

George Hansell of Salem was circulating among Falls City friends yesterday.

Will Jay, representing the State Journal, was a pleasant caller at these quarters Wednesday.

Rev. T. A. Lindenmeyer, was called to Elk Creek Saturday to preach the funeral sermon of Thomas McClure, one of the pioneer settlers of Johnson county. Mr. Lindenmeyer returned Lord's day evening.

Abe Yoder is displaying a large bunch of violets which he gathered on the banks of Walnut creek last Sunday. They are large and of a beautiful color. The woods in October contain many treasures.

Dr. E. C. Wittwer, president of our county medical association, came down from Humboldt Monday to attend a meeting of that body in this city Tuesday. He was a pleasant caller at this office, being an old friend of the manager.

It was amusing to watch the lawyers and jurors when Judge Kelligar adjourned court. For several weeks the term has been in session and the lawyers have been wind jamming and worrying about their cases, while the jurors have sat silent in the hard chairs being compelled to listen to the dryst of matters. When the Judge said "court will now adjourn, the jury is now excused for the term," everybody scattered like a lot of school boys out for a vacation. Court time is a strenuous time for some people, and every body is usually very glad when it is over.

Bill McCray was in town on Wednesday to see what could be done towards getting the county in a few more law suits. William was trying to buy lumber with which to build bridges. The wholesale men when they learned that the county had contracted all bridges for the year refused to sell to the county for the reason that the county had no right to buy and they would therefore be unable to collect their money. The lumbermen wanted McCray to buy the lumber personally and let him file his bill with the county. To this William refused. He is willing enough to play even at the expense of the county, but he isn't looking for a law suit of his own. Charlie Zoellers is working manfully to keep the county out of trouble, but McCray and Stalder, the other two members of the committee, are seemingly trying their best to get the county into a law suit.
