

Henry C. Smith LANDS & LOANS

$40,000 Private Money to loan, Annual Interest, Optional payments, Choice farms in this and adjoining counties, cheap homes in the West and South. Exchanges made.

HUMBOLDT

Fred Hummel is serving on the federal jury at Omaha this week.

Mrs. Sarah Marburger was the guest of George Schmelzel and family in Falls City the first of the week.

Mrs. Fred Fisher returned Friday from a visit with her mother at Whiting, Kansas.

Mabel Buerstetta of Tecumseh spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Humboldt.

H. F. Guile was a business visitor in Lincoln several days this week.

Golda Turner and Mae Bradley returned home the last of the week from a visit with Dawson friends.

Ed Rist returned Tuesday from northwestern Canada where he has been looking after the interest of his claim for several months.

Jessie Lydick is now employed as clerk in the novelty store of Bantz & Norton.

Dr. A. E. Wolfe of Falls City was a guest at the home of Ed Norton Sunday evening.

D. B. Colhapp of Tecumseh visited several days the forepart of the week with his son, E. C. Colhapp and family.

Arthur Unland returned the last of the week from Peacock, Canada, where he has been employed on his claim the past summer.

Mrs. E. C. Colhapp and son Segrist, returned Friday from a visit with friends at Tecumseh.

Eyangelist Whiston commenced revival meetings at the Christian church Tuesday evening.

Protracted meetings are now in progress at the German M. E. church.

Ena Cooper, who has been taking a course in China painting at St. Joseph for the past several months has returned to her home in this city.

George Seabury of Chicago was a guest of O. A. Cooper and family Sunday.

L. C. Mann has purchased the property of J. T. Norton in the south part of town, and he and his family will occupy it in the near future.

J. H. Berry sold his dairy farm of 84 acres to Col. M. W. Harding for the consideration of $8,800. Mr. Berry and family expect to locate at Seattle, Washington and will leave for that place next week.

C. E. Nims sold his stock farm of 110 acres to H. H. Kuper last week, paying $110 per acre for the land. Possession will be given the first of March.

Andrew J. Edwards a veteran of the civil war and for many years a resident of Humboldt, died at his home in the north part of town Thursday evening, November 15, after a lingering illness. Funeral was held from the home Saturday morning and interment made in the cemetery west of town.

SALEM

A. A. McCool and daughter Nola went to Omaha Tuesday.

Eugene Meredith and Lettie Stewart visited in Falls City Thursday.

H. E. Stouffer returned to Falls City Wednesday.

Vera Minnick returned to her home in Nemaha City Thursday.

Mrs. Meredith and Mrs. Jones drove to Falls City Saturday.

Artie Smith of Verdon visited Saturday and Sunday with Ruth Moore.

Rubie Stouffer spent Monday night with Daisy Stewart.

Vera Lord and Mrs. Uhlig drove up from Falls City Wednesday.

Mrs. Allan May and little son were passengers to Falls City Tuesday.

Mrs. Roy Daggett and little son visited Saturday and Sunday at Guy Daggett's in Dawson.

Rev. R. Neumarker and Dr. A. Keller of Falls City were in town Wednesday.

Mrs. Nora Cobell of DeWitt is visiting at A. B. Cochran's.

Ira McCool returned from Wyoming Thursday.

Bob Rule of Falls City was a Salem visitor Wednesday.

Sadie Jones was a guest of Iva Meredith Sunday.

Ruth Moore left Monday for Highland, Kansas for an extended visit.

Will Gregory and wife drove to Falls City Friday.

Cass Moore returned home Saturday.

Roy Daggett drove to Dawson Sunday.

VERDON

The Corn Bros. returned to their homes at Salem last week after completing the new addition to the barn here.

The Misses Shaffers of Shubert were visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Eliza Goolsby spent Tuesday with Mrs. Elvira Hull.

J. H. Hall has built new steps at the opera house. The steps are as wide again as they were, and the house can be emptied in half the time it took before.

Wm. Boatman and wife have moved into their home in the north part of town, recently purchased of Mrs. Thomas.

H. J. Keel and family spent Sunday with Merritt Lum and wife.

Mr. Lillie Wilkinson and daughters spent Sunday with Mrs. Elvira Hull.

Mrs. Brewer and son of Maple Grove visited with Miss Amret Hart the last of the week.

Wm. Boatman and Mrs. Allenbaugh of Falls City were married here Thursday by W. H. Mark, Justice of the Peace.

Mrs. Elvira Hull returned home, Saturday from a pleasant visit with her son at Liberty.

Florence Judd spent Sunday at her home in Dawson.

The Curtis Dramatic Company played a return engagement at Hall's opera house, Friday and Saturday nights.

The Ladies of the Christian church will give a general dinner and oyster supper at the Parson's building, on Thanksgiving day.

B. F. Veach and wife were Omaha visitors last Tuesday.

Edith Bowman returned to her home at Lincoln, last Wednesday, after spending several weeks here visiting relatives.

Margaret Ryan spent several days at Hiawatha last week.

Ira Ballard visited his son, Bert Ballard, one day last week.

Miss Shier and Mrs. Spively of Dawson were business visitors here, last Friday.

Mrs. Mesdames Bowman and Lange spent last Friday in Falls City.

Mr. Nicholson was a Falls City visitor, last Thursday.

Martha King of Peru was interviewing old friends here the latter part of the week.

STELLA

L. G. Fankell has been carrying the mail on route one this week, while the carrier, Fred Gilbert is taking a vacation.

Talma, M. J. Clancy's imported Percheron stallion died at the Clancy farm last Thursday morning from the colic. The horse was insured against accident only so his loss will be a total one.

The Trail Club met at the home of Harve Hogrefe Tuesday evening. The first prizes were won by Mrs. Ralph Clark and Dr. James.

Mrs. Sue Julian of Falls City has been the guest of relatives and friends here part of the past week.

Ambrose Weller, manager of a lumber yard at West Point, spent Sunday with his parents here.

Mrs. M. Gergen of El Reno, Oklahoma, arrived here last Thursday for an extended visit with her parents south of town.

A number of the W. R. C. of this place went to Shubert last Friday afternoon and visited the lodge at that place.

Guy Vader left last week for Jewell county, Kansas, where he will spend the winter with his brothers.

Nettie Wheeler has been the guest of friends at Hoever for the past two weeks.

David Helmick is home from a short trip to Glenville, where he went to look at a farm, with the view of buying it for a son-in-law.

A program followed by a basket supper, will be given at the Bourke school Wednesday evening.

Two brothers by the name of Garrison, Dry, cracked and colorless lips mean feverishness, and are as well ill appearing. To have beautiful, pink, velvet like lips, apply at bedtime a coating of Dr. Shoop's Green Salve. It will soften and heal any skin ailment.

The O'Brien restaurant on the east side of Main street has been closed and the stock shipped elsewhere.

Allie Davis, a teacher in the school at Tekama, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of her parents north of town.

Jeff Robb has been here from Lincoln this week, making some improvements on his farm west of town.

OHIO

Wm. Cook and wife were visitors at N. B. Burnworths, Monday.

Geo. Pritchard and family were guests of Chas. Whitmer and wife south west of Salem Sunday.

Mrs. Brewer spent a few days in Verdon the guest of her sister Mrs. Emmet Hart.

Frank Houtz and wife spent Sunday with their daughter Mrs. Everett Hagging.

Mrs. Sol Marts of Falls City was a guest of her daughter Mrs. N. B. Burnworth, Monday.

Mrs. Geo. Peck and daughter Edith spent Sunday at Noah Peck's.

Mrs. Geo. Pritchard was a Falls City visitor, the guest of Mrs. Chas. Whetstone.

Chas. Stamp and wife visited with Wm. Bartlett and wife, Sunday.

Cleon Peck was a guest at Henry Gerdes at Barada Sunday.

Louis Blake was a visitor of Chas. Shouse Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. A. McCann spent the latter part of last week with her daughter Mrs. H. A. Burk.

Mabel Shouse accompanied Chas. Wise and family to Colorado Springs, Colo., last Friday.

Ina Johnston visited her friend Sarah Cook, Sunday.

Anson Kinsley and wife were guests at John Brim's near Hamlin, Kansas, Sunday.

Mrs. Noah Peck and Mrs. Eph Peck and Ida Burk were guests at Herbert Burk's last Friday afternoon.

Francis Stump and family spent Sunday with Geo. Shouse and family Sunday.

Martin Nolte and family and Wm. Huettner and family were guests of John Nolte and family Sunday.

A select few of the young folks were pleasantly entertained at Wes Nedrow's Sunday.

Frank Zorn and family of Salem spent Sunday with Ed Zorn and family.

Born to Herbert Burk and wife a son Nov. 14, 1906.

D. M. Moran of Alliance, Neb., spent last Wednesday night with Noah Peck.

Mrs. J. W. Maust of Strausville entertained the German Baptist Aid society at her home in Strausville last Thursday.

STATE NORMAL NOTES

Professor Hewitt and Miss Ellenberger favored the student body with an instrumental duet, Tuesday morning in chapel.

Two new Oliver typewriters have been installed in the commercial department or trial.

The room known as the old chapel room has been fitted up for the classes in Music and Expression and is known as the Music and Expression hall.

The athletic association have under advisement the feasibility of flooding the athletic field for a skating rink for the enjoyment of the faculty and students.

The elective classes in Latin have organized a Latin club, the purpose of the club being to do more exhaustive investigation along the lines of Roman history, mythology, etc. The club elected officers and decided to meet every two weeks.

Resolutions were adopted by the faculty and students extending heartfelt sympathy to Mrs. Crawford in her late sorrow and bereavement over the death of her only sister, Mrs. Knowlton, of Atkinson, Neb. Mrs. Crawford returns to the Normal with her mother and niece who will make their home here.

When the tip of a dog's nose is cold and moist, that dog is not sick. A feverish dry nose means sickness with a dog. And so with the human lips. Dry, cracked and colorless lips mean feverishness, and are as well ill appearing. To have beautiful, pink, velvet like lips, apply at bedtime a coating of Dr. Shoop's Green Salve. It will soften and heal any skin ailment. Get a free, trial box, at our store, and be convinced. Large nickel capped glass jars, 25 cents. Sold and recommended by all dealers.

RULO

Chas. Ryan and family departed last week for an extended visit to Reno, Nevada.

Geo. Garrott of Kansas City is visiting friends here this week.

Theodore Majerus and bride left on the evening train for Leavenworth, Kas. Tuesday evening.

Rev. Sproll was a St. Joseph passenger Tuesday evening.

Will Winterbottom and family of Falls City were Rulo visitors Tuesday.

Frank and Henry Danarty of Biglow were Rulo visitors Friday.

Mr. Sandusky, with the Reiner-Baker grocery company, of Kansas City, was transacting business here on Thursday of last week.

Mrs. Henry Still of Wymore visited with Mrs. Clyde Adams one day last week.

Tom Winterbottom of White Cloud attended the Majerus-Winterbottom wedding.

Mrs. Pierce and two little daughters visited friends in St. Joe last week.

J. M. Martinoskey made a business trip to Omaha this week.

Dock Davis and Henry Belpier were business visitors at St. Joe Monday.

Henry Scott returned from Nebraska City Sunday where he has been for several weeks looking after the repairing of the riprap work there. Mr. Scott will superintend fifteen hundred feet of riprap along the river three miles south of Rulo this winter.

Some of our local sports have been enjoying the fine hunting made by the snow this week.

C. A. Thomas of St. Joe was a Rulo visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. J. M. Pope is visiting in Missouri this week.

Last Saturday night at 8 o'clock occurred the marriage of Ida Johnson to Harry Spioer, the marriage taking place at the residence of Charles Hall, Rev. Thomas Alkman officiating. The young people are well known in Rulo and their friends wish them happiness.

Floyd and Vearl True were Atchison visitors Saturday.

The teachers held their regular meeting at the schoolhouse Monday night.

Last Thursday night about twenty young people met at the home of Henry Smith and completely surprised Miss Emma. The evening was spent in social games and the guests all united in pronouncing it a delightful party. A dainty box lunch was served in which was concealed a lady's name, the gentleman being compelled to guess his partner, adding to the evening's amusement.

At the church of the Immaculate Conception Tuesday morning the marriage of Genevieve Winterbottom and Theodore Majerus was celebrated, Rev. Sproll officiating. Many friends witnessed the ceremony. Mamie Kanaly was bridesmaid while Henry Majerus acted as best man. The bride was gowned in light blue silk and the groom wore the conventional black. After the ceremony and nuptial mass the wedding breakfast was served to the relatives at the home of the bride's parents, John Winterbottom and wife. A large host of friends wish them much happiness.

Cecil and Mamie Canaly gave a linen shower at their home on Thursday evening for Yeva Winterbottom. About twenty friends were present.

Real Estate Transfers.

Geo D Kirk and wf to M J LeBlanc, wd lot 7 blk 23 Rulo. $20 00.

Wm L Ratekin to Mary Ratekin, q c d lots 4-5-6-11-12 13 blk 29 Rulo. $1 00.

C C Shelly and wf to A M Wilson wd ej of lots 97, 98, 99 blk 4 Preston. $500.

Catherine Ailer and husb to Isaac W Harris wd lots 3-4 blk 5 Clarks N add to Stella. $1200.

John T. Norton to Dell Norton wd s s of sub lot 9 in s w 1 of sec 3-2-13. Richardson county. $1 00.

J. M. Sweinforth and wf to Joseph and A Liberty, wd lots 4-5 blk 62 Rocleau and Bedard's add to Rulo $171.

William L Tjaden and wf to John H Berry wd 1 acre land off n side of s e 1 of sec 3-2-13 Humboldt twp. $100.

M A Hall to M J Le Blanc wd lots 7 blk 62 Rulo. $10.

Charles H Heineman and wf to The Leo Cider and Vinegar Company, wd lots 1-2-3-4-5-6 blk 164 Falls City. $1800.

Hall's Slaughter Shoe Sale

IS creating a great sensation. Many are taking advantage of the sale and laying in a supply of Foot Wear to last them for a while. The Sale is reducing the stock and converting it into cash and making Hall new customers. Here is where you get anything you want in Foot Wear, quality considered, CHEAPER than anywhere else.

HALL'S SHOE STORE

Hides, Furs and Tallow.

I will pay the highest market price for hides, furs and tallow. See me at Wachtel's harness shop 5t F. W. SCHROEDER.

Dr. Messler left the last of the week for California.

Nelle Weaver was down from Verdon yesterday afternoon.

George Stumbo returned Friday from Wyoming, where he has been working during the past summer.

William Margrave was up from the ranch yesterday and while in town was a pleasant caller at these quarters.

There was quite a rush of passengers at the Burlington station on Tuesday owing to it being the home-seekers excursion day.

Mrs. F. Brenizer was called to Morrill, the first of the week by the serious illness of her father, which was caused by his falling from a haymow.

Mr. Neal has resigned his position as night operator at the C. B. & O. station in this city, and Guy Miller, a brother of the day operator, has taken that place.

Mrs. Good who has been very ill for the past week is now a great deal better. Her daughter Mrs. John Noah, and husband, of Nebraska City came Wednesday.

James Henderson, formerly the freight agent at the C. B. & O. station here, left Saturday for Beatrice where he has another position, and B. H. Martin, of Odell, Neb., is now freight agent at this place.

Mrs. John L. Cleaver and her daughter, Alice, returned this week from a nine week's trip through Old Mexico, California and the southwest. Miss Alice went in the interest of her paintings on the Indian study, and by close application and work she secured excellent results, taking her sketches from the Indian in his home. Both of the ladies enjoyed the trip immensely.

Charged With Theft.

Lou Fulton, of Rulo was brought before Justice Fallstead, on Wednesday afternoon, charged with stealing a sum of money from T. Adams, also of Rulo. Fulton was bound over to the next meeting of the district court.

BEGGS' CHERRY COUGH SYRUP cures coughs and colds.

Revival Meeting.

Revival meetings were begun at the Brethren church last Sunday. The attendance has been large from the beginning. Christians from the various churches are manifesting a good interest, and great good is expected to result from these united efforts. A free hack runs to and from the meetings every night for the benefit of the southeast portion of the city. This service is appreciated and well patronized by residents of that section.

The meetings continue all next week.

Next week's subjects are: Sunday morning, "Church Member's Work," Sunday evening, "Ecce Homo," Monday evening, "Listen," Tuesday evening, "Seeking God."

Wednesday evening, "One Thing Needful."

Thursday at 10:30 a. m. Union Thanksgiving services. Sermon by Rev. Lindenmeyer.

Thursday evening, "The Sinner's Plea."

Friday evening, "The Sinner's Friend."

Saturday evening, "What Lack I Yet?"

Come, worship together and share in the blessing of devotion.

Slight Accident.

P. S. Heacock & Son suffered a slight break in the machinery at the mill on Wednesday of this week and consequently the mill was shut down for a few hours to make the necessary repairs. Everything is now running nicely.

Thirty-Fourth Anniversary.

The family of G. J. Crook and wife met at the old home place east of town, last Saturday afternoon, for a re-union in honor of their thirty-fourth wedding anniversary. Post-master Crook enjoyed a half holiday from his official duties and passed the same at the old place.

The gathering was one of those good old time ones, and afforded much pleasure and happiness to those of the family that were present.

Pneumonia Follows A Cold

but never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops the cough, heals and strengthens the lungs and prevents pneumonia. For sale by all druggists.