

THE FALLS CITY TRIBUNE.

Vol. III

FALLS CITY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1906.

Whole No. 151

Broke Collar Bone.

J. M. Davis, of Rulo, sustained a broken collar bone Saturday in a peculiar manner. He entered a hog pen which contained a ferocious boar. As soon as the boar saw him he made a dash at him. The old man threw himself backward over the low fence and broke his collar bone, to escape the tusks of the boar. Mr. Davis is doing nicely under the physician's care.

Got Ten Years.

George Adams, son of Rev. Adams formerly pastor of the Methodist church of this city was sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary at Seattle, Washington, last week for embezzling nearly one hundred thousand dollars from the United States mint where he was employed. The dispatches say that Mr. Adams had grown so expensive in his tastes that he spent fully $200 per month with his tailor alone. Mr. Adams is well remembered here and his many friends will learn of his conduct and sentence with great regret.

Memorial Services.

The local order of the Elks will hold their Memorial services at the Gehling opera house next Sunday afternoon, December 2nd, at 3 o'clock. The committee on the services consisted of five of the members, and they arranged one of the best of fitting exercises, consisting of the usual ceremonies, by the Lodge Officers, music by male quartette and two eulogies. Local and out side talent has been secured and the services promise to be very impressive and interesting. The order of service is as follows:

Opening Ceremonies.....Lodge Officers
Music.....Male Quartette
General Eulogy.....Bro. E. C. Page
Music.....Male Quartette
Eulogy.....Bro. C. F. Reavis
Music.....Male Quartette
Closing Ceremonies.....Lodge Officers
Benediction.....Bro. Rev. H. B. Smith

The local order of Elks, Lodge Number 963, was organized in this city on the twentieth of May, 1905. A number of our citizens by untiring work secured the requisite number, for the charter and the Elk Club became one of the permanent institutions of Falls City. Their membership now numbers between one hundred and ten, and one hundred and fifteen, and at their meeting last Friday evening there were seventeen new applications presented. Their club rooms are the most elegantly furnished rooms in the city, being five in number and consisting of a card parlor, billiard room, reading room, music room and smoking room. They keep open club parlors for the members and all out-of-town visiting Elks. The piano receives much attention, while the cosy and luxurious chairs and divans are very inviting. The club meets in general assembly every Friday night while their social functions are among the most enjoyable and elaborate of any local functions. Friday night their annual ball will be given and over two hundred guests will be present. And the following Sunday will be their Memorial services at the Gehling theatre, at 3 o'clock p. m. Here's continued success to Elks' Lodge Number 963!

Bob Kanaly is adding new cases and otherwise improving the appearance of his cigar store this week.

John Tinker and family of Omaha spent Thanksgiving with her parents in this city.

New Quarters.

The firm of Cleaver & Sebold are preparing to move their headquarters from their present location over the Wanner drug store to the room just east of Dr. Lawrence's office, over Wahl & Parthen store.

The Gilligan Bridge Company will occupy the entire floor which will thus be vacated by Cleaver & Sebold.

Masquerade Dance.

The members of the K. & L. of S. council No. 1312, enjoyed a masquerade dance at their lodge rooms on Tuesday evening of this week. The costumes were quite pretty and original and a merry evening was spent by the members.

Merit Lauded.

The following clipping was taken from the November 19th issue of the Sante Fe New Mexican paper, which is published at Sante Fe, New Mexico, and gives a well merited sketch of the local artist, Miss Alice Cleaver. Miss Cleaver's success has been followed with pleasure by her many friends in this city who wish for her a continuance of her former triumphs in her art.

Mrs. J. L. Cleaver and daughter, Miss Alice Cleaver, of Falls City, Nebraska, are guests at the Luchenbach home, 397 Palace Avenue, being on their way home from a trip to California. Miss Cleaver is gaining renown as an artist, a faithful depicter of life among the Pueblo Indians. She spent five weeks this fall at Isleta in painting a number of pictures for the Santa Fe Railway Company and also some time at Acoma. One of Miss Cleaver's pictures, occupies a conspicuous place on the walls of the new hotel El Tovar at the Grand Canon, Arizona.

Did It Ever Occur to You.

Did it ever occur to you that we had more than one thousand readers that are more than one year in arrears to The Tribune. Did it ever occur to you that it cost more than fifty dollars a week to send the papers to these homes every Friday? One dollar is certainly within the reach of all, if not, as this is so close to Thanksgiving and we are thankful that we are alive, come in and tell us about it and we will receipt you for the past year and send it next season to give you an opportunity to catch up in your finances. We want no one who desires the Tribune to be without it whether he can pay it or not, but we would like to have you call at least once a year get acquainted and take a receipt. It makes our books look so much better you know.

On the other hand we know that there are numerous friends of this paper who simply neglect to attend to the matter. The other day one of these friends called and after an apology for seeming neglect on his part, insisted on paying nearly two years in advance. This is the other extreme for should the entire family call some day and do likewise, we might feel like humming the tune: "I'll be back in a minute, but I've got to go now." If you think we have earned the dollar the past year and have one to spare, we can write you the prettiest receipt you ever looked at. It's all up to you.

Charley Gunzenhauser of Speiser precinct was a Falls City visitor Wednesday looking after business affairs.

Society News.

The members of the Presbyterian Kensington club of young ladies were entertained by the Misses Jennie Leister, Lillian Oswald and Grace Gray, at the home of Mrs. John Oswald, on Tuesday evening of this week. After the usual amount of needle work, music and refreshments filled the remainder of the evening. Those present at this most pleasant event were, Misses Susan Gehling, Elizabeth Miller, Amy Griffin, Carrie Greenwald, Edna Brown, Ethel Parthen, Elva Sears, Lena and Elizabeth Brecht, Eva McNall, Laura Naylor, Bessie Bohrer, Nellie and Florence Cleaver, Zetta Camblin, Clara Boose, Jennie Leister, Grace Gray, Lillian Oswald and Mrs. John Oswald.

The Ladies Aid society of the Baptist church met last Friday afternoon with Mrs. W. L. Sears, and spent a pleasant afternoon.

Ethel Cade was hostess to the dining room girls of the National hotel on Thursday afternoon. Two o'clock luncheon was served.

Mrs. Ned Towle entertained on Thursday and Friday afternoons, of last week in honor of Mrs. Tipton, of Albany, Mo. About twenty guests were present at each function and enjoyed an extremely pleasant time. Tempting refreshments were served.

Mrs. S. B. Miles entertained at a one o'clock tea last Saturday in honor of Miss Margaret Meyers, of Johnston, Pennsylvania. It was one of the most enjoyable and elaborate social events of the season. The decorations were beautiful and at each place at the table was an exquisite bouquet of violets. The guests were Mesdames Harry Jenne, Frank Schiabe, and Ray DePutrin, Misses Margaret Meyers, Sarah Hutchins, Nelle Snyder, Helen Martin, Carrie Sloum, Ethel Hutchings, Mable Lyford, Minnie Jussen, Maude Graham, Kate Heacock, Nelle Cain and Ronndville.

Mrs. Harry Jenne was hostess to the Kaffee Klatch club members on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Jenne is a charming hostess and the guests were indebted to her for an afternoon of genuine pleasure.

A very interesting session of Sorosis was held Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Jennie S. Ewalt, most of the members responding to roll call. "The novel during the first half of Victoria's reign," was ably and interestingly handled by Mrs. Falloon, she taking as her subject Dickens' works, quotations from different work illustrating idea. A discussion "What is a classic?" was participated in by most of those present. Mrs. Frank Shaible favored the club with some fine instrumental music. After a short social session, during which excellent refreshments were served the club adjourned to meet Dec. 12th with Mrs. Falloon.

Mrs. John Powell entertained a large party of her lady friends at whist on Tuesday afternoon. The time passed quickly in playing the absorbing game, at the close of which it was found Mrs. Will Holt had scored the highest number of points and Mrs. Norman Musselman the least. Each was presented a bunch of carnations. Elegant light refreshments were served. Mrs. Powell was assisted by Misses May and Grace Maddox and Mrs. James Powell.

The members of the Whist club met with Miss Morris on Tuesday evening of this week and spent a most delightful time. The delicious refreshments were among the many other pleasures.

The Misses Maddox will entertain a large number of friends at a whist party this afternoon. These young ladies are royal entertainers and a pleasant time is anticipated.

About thirty members of the Evangelical church called at the parsonage Tuesday evening and gave Rev. Manshardt a surprise in the nature of a pound party. The evening was a pleasant one and the kindness of his congregation was much appreciated by the pastor.

Bernice McNall entertained a number of his school friends from 5 to 4 o'clock Wednesday evening, in honor of his seventh birthday. It was a pleasant occasion for the little ones.

Married.

At the residence of Rev. E. L. Yoder in this city, on last Friday, November 23rd, occurred the marriage of Miss Ruth E. Hoover to Mr. Allen D. Meyers. The young couple are both of Brown County, Kansas and have many friends there.

Was Not Assessed.

Through an error of some one it appears that Uncle Geo. Grinstead was not assessed last spring and when he entered the office of the county treasurer the other day to pay his taxes the omission was discovered. This gentleman is not a tax dodger and as the county board was in session he laid the matter before them. They decided that the county clerk was the proper person to look after the matter at this stage of affairs.

Mr. Grinstead at once listed his worldly possessions with the official and proceeded to pay his share of the public debt. To add to Uncle George's burdens, the democratic officials gathered about him and congratulated him on a change in his politics, making the assertion that none but a good democrat would do an act of honor like that.

Uncle George drew the line on that sort of congratulation and is now thinking strongly of suing the court house push for slander.

Revival Meetings.

The special meetings now being held at the Brethren church continue to attract large audiences and the interest is unabated.

The free hack continues to convey the residents from the south part of the city to and from the meetings.

Any one wishing to attend the services is welcome to use the hack any evening. The meetings will continue next week. The following are subjects for next week's sermons.

Sunday morning, "Escape Impossible."

Sunday evening, "Excuses." Monday evening, "Who needs Salvation?"

Tuesday, "The New Covenant."

Wednesday, "Stubbornness." Thursday evening, "The combination."

Friday evening, "The Great Physician's Call."

Saturday evening, "What Think Ye of Christ?"

The public is cordially invited to any or all of these services.

E. K. Kentner Dead.

This community was startled last Wednesday morning by the announcement that E. K. Kentner had died at the Park Hotel, Humboldt, which he had recently leased.

Mr. Kentner has been in failing health the past year and his friends were apprehensive that the end was nearing. He began to improve somewhat and last spring moved from this city to Atchison, where he associated himself in business with his son Will. Here his health again failed and a month ago the family took charge of the Park Hotel in our neighboring city.

Mr. Kentner came to this county in an early day and settled at Humboldt where he was a member of the business circle for nearly twenty years. From there they moved to this city where they made their home until recently.

Elozor King Kentner was born at Youngtown, Ohio, July 14, 1847 and died at Humboldt, Nebraska, November 28, 1906, aged 59 years, 4 months and 14 days. Funeral services will be held at Falls City, on Friday afternoon, from the Episcopal church at 2 p. m.

The deceased is survived by his wife, a son, W. E. Kentner, of Humboldt, and a daughter, Mrs. Estella Dean of Kansas City, with whom the entire community sympathize in their sudden bereavement.

Supervisors Meet.

Pursuant to arrangements the county board of Supervisors met in the County Clerk's office the twentieth of this month and proceeded to affairs of official nature. There was not a quorum present at the morning session, so the board was instructed to meet at one o'clock that afternoon.

At the afternoon meeting the first thing considered were the various claims, to the amount of $2603.27 being allowed. This took up the most of the afternoon and board was again called to order the following morning. The election claims, which amounted to $557.25 were then allowed and warrants ordered for the same. A small tax affair was then considered after which one hundred dollars was voted to help on the Farmer's Institute to be held next month. Then the official bonds of the following were approved: D. E. Randolph, Walter Vandeventer, R. H. Hanna, J. W. Burns, L. M. Mourer, J. E. McFarland and George Fischer. Claims then allowed on general fund were $790.11 and on the bridge fund $3247.35.

The morning of the twenty-second was spent in committee work and the inspection of the county Poor Farm. Claims allowed on the bridge fund in the afternoon were to the amount of $1042.28. Several tax matters were settled after which the board adjourned to meet on the 2nd of January, 1907.

Died.

On Tuesday at 2 o'clock occurred the death of Minnie Miller, the five year old daughter of John Miller and wife. Funeral services were held at the home at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, interment being at Rulo.

See the balcony scene in Romeo and Juliet. Mr. Sanford Dodge and Miss Louise Marshall will present the great Shakespearean play at the Gehling Opera House Thursday evening, Dec. 6. They are supported by a large company.

Married.

A pretty church wedding occurred at Rulo yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Lutheran church when Rev. Koehler performed the marriage ceremony which united Clara Haeffele and Edward Hartmann. The bride and groom were supported by Minnie Haeffele and Emil Hartmann. About two hundred guests witnessed the ceremony, after which an elegant wedding supper was served at the home of Henry Haeffele who resides about four miles east of this city.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Haeffele and is one of Richardson county's charming young ladies.

The groom is the son of Fred Hartmann and wife who live near Rulo, and is a young man of ability and worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartmann will go to housekeeping at once on a farm near Rulo.

A pretty home wedding occurred at the home of Charles Martin and wife near Barada at 6:30 o'clock Wednesday eve when the marriage of their daughter, Alta Ruth, to Philip Markt of Oregon, Mo., was solemnized. Both the bride and groom have a large number of friends who wish them a life of continued happiness and success.

At The Gehling.

"We Are King," as presented at the Gehling Wednesday eve was a good attraction and had an excellent cast. The scenery was quite elaborate and the patrons were pleased with the production.

J. R. Cain was down from Stella yesterday.

Nelle Lewis of Hiawatha is the guest of May Gossett.

Will Sperry and Walter O'Neil were in St. Joseph several days this week.

Dr. A. E. Wolfe returned Wednesday evening from a two weeks trip through Iowa.

Walter Boyle came down from Omaha and spent Thanksgiving with Dr. Yutzky and wife.

Frank Gossett and wife came up from Horton to spend Thanksgiving with the home folks.

Mabel Lyford is at home from her studies at the University, for the Thanksgiving vacation.

Mrs. J. A. Benedict of Verdon, came down to spend Thursday with her daughter Mrs. George Noah.

Fritz Miller who has been employed by the express company at Billings, is visiting at the home place in this city.

Farmers should read the poultry notice in this issue as the prices there offered, exceed those being paid in other town, and will only last for a few days.

Arrangements have been made by the proper authorities to send John Fournier and Fred Nessen to the Old Soldiers' Home at Atchison. They are both old veterans.

Rev. Elza Martin has our thanks for a years advance subscription which he sends us from his home at Coweta, Okla. We were also glad to learn that his daughter, Miss Anna, is recovering.
