

LOCAL LORE.

Eat Sowles' candy.

D. W. Reid left Sunday for Superior.

Holly and Mistletoe. Simanton & Pence.

Thomas Ryan was down from Dawson on Monday.

J. J. Morris made a business trip to Humboldt Monday.

Joseph Nedrow, of Verdon, is now a reader of the Tribune.

G. W. Conser was over from Hiawatha one day the past week.

Reba and Guy Eversole returned the first of the week to Peru.

Mrs. Bessie Brinegar, of Rulo was a Falls City visitor Saturday.

Harry Pence made a business trip to Humboldt Tuesday afternoon.

We are headquarters for Christmas decorations—Simanton & Pence.

P. S. Heacock made a business trip to Kansas City the first of this week.

Asa Crook left the first of the week for a few days visit with friends at Omaha.

Just received a special line of toys prices from 5 to 25 cents. Shields' Variety store.

Mrs. Robert Johnson and child returned Saturday afternoon to their home at Superior.

Mrs. Sarah P. Jennings sent us down financial greetings from Salem the past Saturday.

Wm. Strecker on route five has our thanks for financial favors during the past week.

Sam Stewart and wife, of Reserve spent Sunday at the home of James DeWald and wife in this city.

Sam Ross came down from Lincoln and spent several days of the past week with friends at this place.

Willard Sears came down from Pawnee City and spent a few days the past week at his home in this city.

Mildred Holland returned to Lincoln Sunday afternoon having spent her Thanksgiving vacation at her home here.

Mrs. D. H. Sears of Reserve, Kansas spent a few days the first of this week with her sister, Mrs. Hammond Willard.

Mrs. Amos Gantt was called to Humboldt again this week, by the continued illness of her father, Rev. Unland.

Ray Gould and wife of Omaha were the guests of her parents, P. S. Heacock and wife, the latter part of the past week.

H. G. Dorste, of Rulo, was a business visitor in this city last Saturday and while here made the Tribune force a call.

Charles Cornell after spending a few days of the past week with his parents in this city returned Friday to his position at Sterling.

J. R. Shelly was up from Preston in a business way last Friday and while in town did not forget to give this office a pleasant call.

Mrs. H. Kammerer, of West Virginia, arrived the first of this week for a visit at the home of parents, John Mosiman, sr., and wife.

Mrs. J. A. Conner and son, Raymond, returned Sunday to their home at Auburn after spending several days with her mother Mrs. Sue DeWald of this city.

Mrs. Katie Bauman and two little girls arrived Monday noon from Colfax, Washington for a visit with her parents, John Mosiman, sr., and wife of this city.

W. C. McDermott and wife left Wednesday for Oklahoma where they will spend the winter. They went on account of Mrs. McDermott's poor health hoping that a winter spent in a warmer climate would be of benefit to her.

Green Wreathing at Simanton & Pence's.

Holiday goods of all kinds at Shield's Variety store.

Clara Tanner returned Friday from a brief visit with friends at Lincoln.

W. A. Albright of Dawson spent Saturday with Falls City relatives.

Con Horan remembered the Tribune with a call, on Tuesday afternoon.

Quimby Hossack returned to his studies at the Lincoln university Sunday.

Fancy Chinaware of the highest grade, for Christmas presents, at Shields' Variety store.

Will Boyd came down from Salem Friday to attend the funeral of E. K. Kentner.

Mr. Marion of Hiawatha spent Thanksgiving with his son, Col. Chas. Marion, of this city.

May Bradley of Humboldt was the guest of Geo. Albright and family several days this week.

Mrs. William Cade returned the last of the week from a visit with relatives at Nebraska City.

John Towle, wife and two daughters, of Omaha spent Thanksgiving with his parents here.

Grace Miner returned Sunday to Lincoln after a few days visit at the home of Dr. Miner and wife.

Rudolph Porock while down from Humboldt Saturday last, was a pleasant caller at these quarters.

Jennie Prater and Carroll Prior returned Sunday afternoon from a three days' visit with friends at St. Joseph.

Stella Shock, who is teaching school near Stella spent Thanksgiving vacation with her mother in this city.

Rev. Henry Benton Smith of Lincoln had charge of the funeral services of E. K. Kentner on last Friday afternoon.

Una Snidow returned to Stella Sunday after spending several days with her mother, Mrs. Hattie Snidow, in this city.

Fred Cleveland and wife of Nebraska City, were the guests of George Cleveland and wife, the latter part of the week.

Guy Crook returned to Lincoln the fore part of the week and resumed his studies at the university, after a week's vacation.

Nellie Edwards returned Friday afternoon to her home at Pawnee City, after a few days spent with Falls City friends.

Florence Wylie came down from Peru the last of the week and spent several days with her mother, Mrs. Katherine Wylie, at this place.

Mrs. Frank Norris and baby returned to their home at Lincoln Saturday afternoon after a brief visit with her parents, A. Gantt and wife.

Chas. Riechers and wife of Horton, Kansas, spent several days the past week visiting with his brother, George Riechers and family in this city.

Frank Messler and wife, who have been spending a few weeks with her parents, Dudley Gillespie and wife, left Saturday afternoon for their home at Fairbury.

Arthur Nitzsche sent us a dollar Tuesday last from Beaver City with the request that we send him this weekly, for a year, and he is now a full fledged member of the family of Tribune readers.

Among the Humboldt people that came down to attend the funeral of E. K. Kentner, in this city last Friday, were H. E. Boyd, A. D. Snow, A. H. Fellers, O. A. Cooper, Ed Dorland and wife, Jas. B. Davis and wife, Mrs. J. C. Segrist and Mrs. Gardner M.-Kee.

Christmas Bells—Simanton & Pence.

Lon Bryant is very ill at this writing.

Riley Wilson was down from Humboldt Monday.

Mr. McMillan of Hiawatha spent Friday in Falls City.

Prof. Larabee was up from Preston Saturday afternoon.

C. C. Curtis came down from Stella and spent Monday here.

Henry Pribbeno was up from Rulo in a business way Saturday last.

What is nicer than a good bunch of flowers for a sick friend?

Chas. Heineman and family spent Sunday with friends at Verdon.

T. C. Cunningham was among the Verdon people here the past Friday.

P. M. Kelley and G. C. Furnish of Hiawatha, spent Sunday in this city.

D. F. Harbaugh was down from the Miles ranch the past Friday.

W. S. McCallister came down with the Humboldt people last Friday.

D. VanValkenberg of Rulo spent Sunday with Falls City people.

F. W. Chase of Pawnee City, was a business visitor here the past Monday.

Samuel Hayes on route one was a pleasant caller at this office the past Friday.

Mathew Byrne was over from Sabetha in a business way the past Saturday.

G. A. Jorn while down from Verdon last Saturday remembered the Tribune.

Pat Clancy came down from Dawson Friday last and spent the day in this city.

G. D. Grinstead was over from Maitland, Mo., in a business way the last of the week.

J. W. Jellison returned Friday evening to his home at Salem after a brief visit at this place.

Mamie Gillespie who has been ill with a serious attack of the grippe is again able to be out of doors.

Mrs. Ethel Thompson came down from Humboldt last Friday to attend the funeral of E. K. Kentner.

Rue Gates returned Wednesday from Blue Rapids, Kansas where she has just completed her fall millinery season.

Jacob Hunker, jr., was called to Osborne county, Kansas the first of this week by the serious illness of an uncle.

R. E. Grinstead of Salem left Monday for Oklahoma City where he will attend the National drainage convention.

The Gilligan Bridge Company now occupy their new office rooms over the Wanner drug store. These make an elegant set of business rooms and the company will now have ample office space.

George Dilts this week moved to his new home near Altoona, Iowa. He will again take up rural life near that place, followed by the wishes of his friends for unlimited success in his new home.

Twenty-five per cent interest on your money with the comforts of a home of your own is within the reach of all, if you so desire it, and a Postal card to F. M. Nason, of Leoti, Kansas, will tell you all about it.

On last Lord's day morning, Bro. Grinstead and daughter, Miss Floy presented the congregation of the first Christian church, with a beautiful new individual communion set, in token of their love for the cause of Christ. The members of the congregation greatly appreciate their kindness.

E. J. Gebhard was here from Stella Friday.

Have you noticed Chas. Wilson's display window.

Mrs. T. P. Jones returned Monday from a visit with her sons at Omaha.

The poor of the city were remembered with a liberal donation last week.

F. A. Nims of Nims City was transacting business affairs in this city on Monday.

Wilma and Earl Cline returned Monday to their studies at the State Normal at Peru.

A. H. Roberts and family left the first of this week for their new home at Miami, Oklahoma.

Cleaver & Sebald are now installed in their new quarters over the Wahl & Parchen store.

Anderson Miller who has been seriously ill for the past several weeks is now on the way to recovery.

Thomas Palmer returned Monday from Hiawatha where he has been working on the Democrat for some time.

Carl Miller who has been on the sick list for the past week, has now resumed his duties at the post-office.

E. Rodstrom and wife left the first of the week for Hiawatha where they will continue in the stamp picture business.

Mrs. E. Lovell, of McCook, Nebraska was here visiting with Mrs. and Miss Brebeck, a few days the first of the week.

Mrs. Lucinda Smith returned the latter part of the past week from a visit with her daughter Mrs. Henry Rogers at Beatrice.

Frank Neitzel is spending the week in Omaha. Roy Jenkins is attending to his duties as Pacific Express agent during his absence.

Lillian Oliver spent several days of the past week with her parents in this city while enjoying a brief vacation from her studies at Peru.

Alfe Springer and family started from their former home at Morrill, the first of this week to their new home at Grand Junction, Iowa, but Mrs. Springer was taken suddenly ill Tuesday while here and were thus detained. Mr. Springer is a cousin to Mrs. Sue DeWald and Otho Wachtel of this city and spent several days with them, during their stay here.

Mrs. Ada Wells returned Monday from a three weeks visit in Kansas. While gone she attended the wedding of her brother, M. A. Bright, of Irving, Kansas to Mrs. Ida Triplet, of Harrington, Kansas. The marriage occurred Thursday, November 22, at Marysville, Kansas. The groom formerly lived at this place and will be remembered by many of our citizens, all of whom wish the newly married couple the best of prosperity.

Thanksgiving Suggestions FOR THE TABLE

We have just received a full line of Tableware. We keep only the best in Plated Ware and Sterling Silver Fiat Ware. Is there not something that you need in the following suggestions for the table:

Vegetable Servers	Oyster Forks	Cream Ladles
Carving Sets	Gravy Ladles	Meat Forks
Berry Spoons	Pickle Spoons	Bouillon Spoon
Coffee Sets	Tea Spoons	Berry Set
Dessert Spoons	Table Spoons	Fish Sets
Sugar Tongs	Jelly Spoons	Pie Server
Orange Spoons		Nut Bowls

Many other things both useful and ornamental. Prices reasonable.

A. E. Jaquet

The "Old Reliable" Jeweler

Knock the knocker.

Mrs. John W. Holt has been on the sick list.

Ed May and wife were down from Salem Wednesday.

J. F. Walsh of Humboldt was a business visitor here Tuesday.

Mrs. Anna Rae of Sabetha visited W. W. Abbey and wife last week.

Dr. C. T. Burchard was the guest of his two sons in Omaha last Thursday.

John Martin and wife of Lincoln visited M. Giannini and family last week.

When in Falls City feed your horses with J. W. Parleir at the Union house barn. 51-2t.

William C. Margraves was transacting legal business in this city Wednesday.

David McCoy and wife of Hiawatha spent Thanksgiving with J. R. Cain and family.

Guy Briggie and Ethel Steits of Omaha visited Bert Reavis and wife on Thanksgiving.

Read Hearts and Masks to commence in this paper next week. It is a dandy good story.

Mrs. C. T. Burchard and daughter, Miss Helen, visited relatives in Atchison last Thursday.

It is time to think of playing Santa Claus. It may be a little expensive but it is worth all it costs.

Issac Minnick of Council Bluffs was the guests of relatives and old friends in Falls City on Thanksgiving.

Try taking the Tribune next year. You can't buy any better paper and you can save half a dollar in the bargain.

Mrs. Will Julian who has been visiting at the home of J. R. Cain for the past six weeks, left for Long Beach, Cal., on Wednesday.

Mrs. Augustus Crofford, on route one is now a reader of the Tribune, having added her dollar to our subscription fund, during the week.

Removal Notice!

I have moved my office over Cleveland's store, where I am pleased to see anyone wanting Insurance.

The Mutual Insurance

Movement started in Richardson county twenty years ago, has kept millions of Nebraska dollars from going east. Too much is still going to Hartford, New York and Europe. No one in this city or county can show any good reason why he should send another dollar out of the state for insurance.

THE RICHARDSON COUNTY MUTUAL

Has one and a half million on its books and is continually growing. It is free from debt and has money on hand. Call and see me.

Samuel Lichty,
The Mutual Insurance Man.

FOR RENT:—Two steam heated rooms over the state bank.

Sweet cider by the barrel, keg or gallon at Heck's feed store.

You will miss the best time of your life if you miss the Farmers Institute on the 18-19 and 20th of December.

The subscriber who fails to read Hearts and Masks is missing one of the many good things in the Tribune. It commences next week.

Miss Alice Cleaver has made a variety of inexpensive sketches illustrating different phases of Indian life. They are designed especially for Christmas gifts, and may be seen at Whites.

The C. W. B. M. program which was to have been held at the Christian church last Sunday evening was postponed on account of sickness, and other reasons, until next Sunday, December 9th. The sisters have prepared a good program and all are invited to attend to hear it.

T. A. LINDENMEYER, Pastor.

Burlington Holiday Rates.

Christmas and New Year holiday rates via the Burlington route.

To all points within 500 miles. Dates of sale Dec. 20th to 25th., inclusive also Dec. 30th, 31st, and Jan. 1st, 1907, tickets good to return Jan. 7th. This allows a visit of 18 days with your home folk during the holidays. Ask us for additional information regarding these rates.

E. G. WHITFORD, Agent.
52-4t.

YES XMAS IS COMING

While this is true, we have been busy selecting new novelties for the Holiday Season. Many of these goods have arrived and are at your disposal. We would be pleased to have you call early and pass upon our judgment in selecting this season's Holiday Stock.

City Pharmacy

Dr. McMILLAN, Prop.

Have you thought about your Christmas presents yet? Do you know it is less than three weeks until that holiday? It comes on Tuesday this year.

The Washington despatches announced the fact that Dr. East was presented to President Roosevelt by Congressman Pollard on Tuesday of this week.

A good word from a friend is worth a great deal to a newspaper. If your neighbor doesn't take the Tribune why not do us the favor of telling him what you think about it.

When the time comes to make New Years resolutions let this be number one: "I will help my town this year to the full extent of my ability." Concerted action on the part of our citizens would work wonders in twelve months.

REV. W. C. BREWER, Pastor.