$5.00 SEWING MACHINES

Offered by Mail Order Houses are small, low arm machines to be run by hand. For the use of any American woman, they are not worth the money asked.

This No. 100 Ball Bearing Bartlett is the finest sewing machine you ever saw and it does not cost any more money than many cheap plain varnished machines offered by agents.

The head is of a pleasing design and beautifully finished in colors. The mechanism is made on an entirely new and positive principle so that all kinds of cloth from the thinnest to the thickest can be easily sewed. Hardened tool steel is used throughout so that it will practically wear forever.

All the bright exposed parts are heavily nickel plated over copper, the most durable finish known. The nickel is given a high mirror finish. The Bartlett makes the celebrated lock stitch which absolutely cannot become unraveled and will never give away. It has positive takeup, disc tension, capped needle bar, automatic tension release, four motion feed and automatic bobbin winder.

The woodwork is of a striking new design with rolled veneer edges which make it look like a piece of parlor furniture. The wood is the finest quarter sawed oak and the finish is hand rubbed. Just like is used on a $500 piano. The drawers are completely enclosed and are long and roomy. The stand has full foot steel ball bearings which make it run like a watch. It has an automatic belt winder and oil cups to prevent soiling the carpet. Free Nickel Plated Steel Attachments as follows:

Free furnished with each machine: ruffler, tucker, binder, braider, foot stirring side plate, four assorted buttons, quilter, foot hammer and feller. Needles, screw driver, oil can, bobbins, etc., are included. Don't buy a machine until you see this No. 100 Bartlett—you will save money and get the finest machine made.

A Glimpse of Carlyle

One day Carlyle suddenly stopped at a street crossing and, stooping, picked up something out of the mud, even at the risk of being knocked down and run over by passing vehicles. With his bare hand he gently rubbed the mud from it. He then took it to the pavement and laid it down on a clean spot on the curbstone. "That" said the old man in a tone of tenderness he rarely used, "is only a crust of bread. Yet I was taught by my mother never to waste anything—above all, bread, more precious than gold. I am sure that the little sparrow or a hungry dog will get nourishment from this bit of bread."

Mistaken In The Man.

All "funny" stories are old before the women get to telling them, and here is an elderly one that the women are telling over the refreshment tables at parties, says the Troy Chief: It is rather "risque." A bride had the misfortune to have a boil on her leg. She was modest as a violet and would not let anyone look at it, not even her husband. But finally the boil pained her and she made such a fuss over it that her husband insisted upon calling a doctor. The bride said she had noticed the doctor going by the house with his case of surgical instruments and told her husband to watch for him. Finally a man carrying a little black case came down the street and the husband rushed out and said: "Won't you come in and look at my wife's leg?" "Certainly," replied the man with the little black case. He went in, looked at the boil and said: "That is pretty bad. You ought to call a doctor." The bridegroom said: "For heaven's sake what are you?" "Me?" said the man with the little black case, "O, I am a piano tuner."

WORTH WHILE

Choose your companions from the best, those that will help you grow strong and wise.

Carelessness is the great sin of most people.

Why is it most of us believe good nature is cultivated and ill nature is natural?

When a young man asks a girl to give up dancing and quit using face powder, that settles it. She thinks he means business.

There is only one way to meet impoliteness. Ignore it.

Lots of men pray for things they wouldn't be willing to work for.

A mother told us the other day that she had learned to play flinch and bunco this winter in order to amuse her children at home in the evenings, and keep them off the street. A few more mothers might do well to learn to play.

If a man doesn't acquire a little sense with age, he cheats himself.

If there were fewer men with pet vices, there would be fewer women with pet dogs.

We wonder that it never occurs to a drunkard that he could attract a lot of favorable attention by remaining sober. Every man in town would congratulate him, and speak well of him, and help him in every way possible.

One of the brightest jewels in the crown of the teachings of the great moralists in all ages is unquestionably the doctrine that sins are of three kinds, in thought in word, and in deed. But of the deed is that for which we are most fully responsible.

Dr. Fast Heard From.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 30, '06. To the Honorable J. M. Barrett, Mayor, and the Members of City Council, Falls City, Nebr. Gentlemen and Friends:

As per promise, I will now endeavor to inform you as to my movements.

We left Falls City on November 1st, and went direct to my old home at Roanoke, Indiana, remaining there one week. We have spent a day or a part of a day at each of the following places: Ft. Wayne, Ind., Toledo, Findley, Tiffin, New Washington, Mansfield, Ashland and Columbus, Ohio, also Pittsburg, Pa., and Baltimore, Md., and this a. m. arrived in the great capitol of the United States. Today we visited the White House, the interior of which is most splendid; also the treasury building and the departments of state and war; and last, today, the national zoological gardens, these are grand beyond description.

We expect to spend tomorrow and Sunday seeing other places of interest in and around this city and on Monday will look in upon the U. S. senate and house of representatives which will convene on that day. And on Tuesday will go to New York and on December 8th sail on the "Koenigin Louise" for Gibraltar.

Hope to have this communication reach your august body by the regular monthly meeting night and if possible will report again for January '07 meeting.

My addresses all during January will be as below. With best wishes for the prosperity of our little city and kindest regards to each of you, I remain,

Yours truly,

W. S. FAST.
