A QUESTION.

We want to know of our esteemed friend the enemy, if the Tribune told the truth when it charged the collection of nearly $900 for printing under a bid of $186. Will you please give us an answer as we have a few other matters we want to clear up as soon as we have settled this question.

NEEDED LEGISLATION.

Nebraska pays her judges less than any other state in the union. The reason for this is that the salaries are fixed by the constitution in an early day when money had a far greater purchasing power than it has now, and when the work was a great deal lighter than at present. We cannot increase the miserably small salary given to our judges unless the constitution be amended, but we can remedy the condition in part by legislation on the question of expenses. Next year no judge will receive railroad transportation. This is as it should be, but it will materially increase their expenses. This year the judges in this district have been engaged in their work away from home nearly nine months of the twelve. Their expenses have necessarily been a very large part of their salaries. A law should be enacted giving to these hard worked and poorly paid officials all of their expenses for travel and maintenance while away from home. It is only common justice to do this and it will be a small member indeed who would oppose the passage of such legislation.

If your neighbor does not take The Tribune will you not lend him your paper that he may know what we are giving fifty-two times a year for a dollar. A word from a subscriber is worth everything to a paper. Will you say the word?

The Journal says that it has fought the Gilligan company long before C. F. Reavis was its attorney. This is true. Its fight commenced when John Gilligan went out through this and Pawnee county and assisted in making Father run about 500 votes behind his ticket when he was a candidate for State Senator. It didn't increase their love for the company however, when Reavis was selected as its attorney.

An appeal in the Bode case after the defendant has confessed his guilt to Geo. W. Holland, P. H. Jussen, Warren Hutchings, John W. Holt, T. J. Gist and many others, and after he has gone on the witness stand and under oath stated that he had used more than ten thousand dollars of the city and school money in his own private affairs, is either an attempt to defeat the criminal laws of this state or an attempt to hold the county up for an additional attorneys fee and maybe both.

Richardson County should be empowered to assess and tax the Rulo bridge. It is situated in Richardson County and is Richardson County property. The railroads may say that it is unfair to let the state board assess railroad property in one county and not in another. We have no objection to the railroad proper being assessed by the state board, but the Rulo bridge is not properly a part of the railroad. The maximum passenger tariff in this state is three cents per mile. You pay 25 cents every time you ride across the Rulo bridge. If the bridge is not a part of the railroad when passengers buy tickets it is not a part of the railroad when the assessor comes around.

GOES EASILY

Society News.

The Woman's club met Tuesday with Mrs. Fred Farrington for the study of Rubinstein. Owing to the various demands of the pre-holiday week, the attendance, though fair, was smaller than usual, and the program was shortened by the omission of several numbers. The members present were rewarded, however, by the discussion of the composers work and by the following selections, given with noteworthy taste and intelligence: Piano—Barcarolle in F minor, Ethel Cade. Violin—Melody in F, Verdi Saga. Vocal—"Thou'rt like unto a Flower," Anita Wilson.

The attention of members is called to the change of date of the next meeting, January 8th instead of January 1st. Mrs. John Powell will be hostess and the program will be devoted to study of Italy.

The Shakespeare club met at the home of Mrs. Isham Reavis on Tuesday with a good attendance. The trial scenes of the "Merchant of Venice", conceded by critics to be the climax of the play, proved to be a very interesting lesson. Club will meet with Mrs. Robert Rule Jan. 2nd.

Reprint, News Herald: "There is at least one effectual, safe, and reliable Cough Cure—Dr. Shoop's—that we regard as suitable, even for the youngest child. For years, Dr. Shoop bitterly opposed the use of opiates or narcotics in medicine, offering $10 per drop to any one finding Opium, Chloroform, or any other poisonous or narcotic ingredient in Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And the challenge is as yet unanswered. Here is one manufacturing physician, who welcomed with much satisfaction, the new Government Pure Food and Drug Law. The public can now protest itself at all times, by insisting on having Dr. Shoop's when a cough remedy is needed." Sold by all dealers.

Burglars Get Busy.

Monday evening some uninvited guest entered the residence of Reuben Horrocks and ransacked everything. A watch belonging to Mr. Horrocks, which he had possessed for thirty-five years and some small change was taken. The watch was very valuable to Mr. Horrocks as a keepsake.

The Tribune is under great obligations to Earl Lemmon for kindness in relation to the Farmer's Institute. It isn't often that we must call on our friends for assistance, but we know of no one more willing to help or more competent to perform than Mr. Lemmon.

Removal Notice!

I have moved my office over Cleveland's store, where I am pleased to see anyone wanting Insurance.

The Mutual Insurance

Movement started in Richardson county twenty years ago, has kept millions of Nebraska dollars from going east. Too much is still going to Hartford, New York and Europe. No one in this city or county can show any good reason why he should send another dollar out of the state for insurance.

THE RICHARDSON COUNTY MUTUAL

Has one and a half million on its books and is continually growing. It is free from debt and has money on hand. Call and see me.
