New Railroad.

The Kansas City, Topeka and Lincoln papers are publishing items relative to Falls City-Topeka road by the way of Sycamore Springs that was more or less agitated in the past. These papers predict very confidently that the road is soon to be built and that its terminus will be Falls City. So stop knocking and get to hoping. We may get it.

Good Ice Insured us.

Louis Plege has given up his lease on the Culp lakes and is building an ice house in the upper part of this city. He has made arrangements to cut good commercial ice from Pony Creek and also proposes to keep artificial ice for those who desire it. Mr. Plege gave his patrons splendid service the past season, going to a great deal of labor and expense in order to supply his customers, and it is now due him that his friends patronize him this coming season. His ice next season will be of excellent quality and Mr. Plege will endeavor to please his patrons in every manner.

"Thorns and Orange Blossoms."

The splendid dramatizations by Lem B. Parker of Bertha M. Clay's delightfully interesting book, "Thorns and Orange Blossoms," is drawing full houses all over. The play-like the novel, is full of true to nature interest that delights the feminine heart and the large proportion of women in the audience watch the delineation of the plot in which true love culminates in marriage, is then turned to misery by a designing one, but in the final act triumphs. The drama will be presented by a strong and unusually well balanced cast. We will have "Thorns and Orange Blossoms" at the Gehling next Wednesday evening Dec. 26th.

The sovereign officers of the W. O. W. have awarded the contract of erecting monuments at the graves of Frank Davisson Frank Brenizer to Gus Neitzel of this city.

1,000 pounds candy, 400 pounds, English walnuts and a good supply of Filberts, Almonds, Hickory nuts, Niggertoes—these goods Harlow can make you lower prices than anyone. Call and get prices.

J. M. Culp received a letter from his father this week, and it stated that he was hale and hearty. The old gentleman, Michael Culp, of near Youngstown, Ohio, is now ninety-four years old and as a Christmas gift sent each of his children twenty-five dollars.

Frank Edgecomb and wife of Geneva were here a few days this week and attended the farmers institute, the former delivering an address at one of the sessions. Mr. Edgecomb was a former owner of the Journal but is now the owner of the Geneva Signal and manager of the Nebraska Farmer.

Hog Cholera.

A number of the farmers are experiencing difficulty with the dread disease hog cholera. The infection has only been noticed for a couple of weeks but it seems to have become prevalent all over the county. The most drastic measures are being taken to stop the progress of the pestilence but with small success so far.

From the arguments, if such they may be called, now being made by the Martins against the bridge company, we may soon expect them to take up Bill McCray's crusade in favor of the catalogue houses and to favor the purchase of all supplies on Chicago's lake shore.

Christmas At The Churches.

Extensive arrangements have been made at the various churches for their Christmas Sunday school program and they all promise to be very interesting. At the Presbyterian church a cantata and fireplace will be found on Monday evening. The Christian church will enjoy a Tree and a mixed program the same evening. The Methodist church will also have a mixed program and tree. Those of the Evangelical church on Monday evening will enjoy an elaborate program and a nice tree. The Catholic church will have their entertainment Sunday at the Convent. The Baptist Sunday school will render a program Monday evening and also have a tree. The Brethern school will also give appropriate exercises Christmas eve.

The children of the Episcopal church will enjoy a tree at the National Hotel parlors early Monday evening. An impressive twelve o'clock service will be conducted by Rev. Dean. of Wyomere, at midnight at the church Monday.

Just an illustration of what saneness and good judgment will accomplish under trying circumstances, have you heard anything about the Cuban trouble lately? Governor Magoon is evidently putting things in good order again or we would be reading more about it.

To Shubert, Stalder and Jones: Your work is cut out for you in getting a law passed giving us the right to assess and tax the Rulo bridge. This measure will be fought by the railroad to the limit and it will take the utmost watchfulness and good judgment to get it through. If you succeed you have justified every man who voted for you and will have earned the gratitude of the entire county.
