

LOCAL LORE

Eat Sowles' candy.

Stella Schock is home from Stella.

Nelle Weaver was down from Verdon Friday.

Ernest Werner was a Humboldt visitor Sunday.

FOR RENT:—Two steam heated rooms over the state bank.

Elta Boose is home from the University for the holidays.

Sweet cider by the barrel, keg or gallon at Heck's feed store.

Ray Miller and wife spent Sunday with her parents at Humboldt.

Guy Crook is home from the University for a two week's vacation.

F. W. Samuelson was up from Kansas City the fore part of this week.

Ada Judy and Norma Gentry left the last of the week for St. Joseph.

Jesse Whetstone and wife went to Washington, Kansas to spend their Christmas.

Ray Gould and wife of Omaha spent Christmas with P. S. Heacock and family.

Stanley Crook was here from Lincoln in order to spend Sunday with his family here.

George Dietsch and family of Hastings are spending the week with relatives at this place.

Mabel Greenwald who is teaching in the public schools at La Mars, Iowa is home on a visit.

Anthony Nezladek came down from Havelock Saturday evening and from here went to Hiawatha.

Gus Ruegge left Monday afternoon for Hastings, where he will spend several days with friends.

Ernest Obenland left Sunday morning for a two weeks visit at his home at Clay Center, Kansas.

Will Cade and wife of Osborne, Kansas are visiting at the home of Wm. Cade and wife in this city.

W. W. Chinnock and family of Wymore were the guests of Geo. Prater and family during the week.

Mable Lyford came down from Lincoln the last of the week and will spend two weeks at her home here.

Hayden Prater and wife of St. Joseph spent several days the first of the week with the home folks in this city.

Ross Foster came down from Alliance, Nebraska to spend the holidays with his parents, Benj. Foster and wife.

Alice Cleaver left Monday morning for Chicago where she delivered her recent paintings of various Indian studies.

Harry and Clarence Burchard came down from Omaha to spend Christmas with their parents, Dr. Burchard and wife in this city.

George Grinstead who has charge of the Gilligan dredge boat which is working below Napier, spent the holidays in this city.

George Martin and family of Nebraska City were the guests of his sister, Mrs. J. G. Crook, and other relatives here during the week.

Herman Koehler who lives near Fargo was a business visitor in this city the past Saturday, and while in town was a pleasant caller at this office.

BORN:—To Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Walker, at 401 Glen Avenue, Council Bluffs, Iowa on December 16th, a daughter. Mrs. Walker was formerly Miss Alice Hutchings of Falls City, and now residing at Council Bluffs, Iowa.

O. W. DeWald, of the Trenton Register, arrived in this city last Friday morning for a few days visit with his mother, Mrs. Sue E. DeWald, and other relatives. On Friday he went to Auburn and spent the day with his sister, Mrs. J. A. Conner.

Jacob Greenwald is home from the University.

Una Snidow is home from Stella for the holidays.

Charlie Carr was here from Stella the past Tuesday.

Ed Stock spent the holidays with his parents at this place.

Asa Crook came down from Omaha to spend Christmas here.

Fern Fowler of St. Joseph is the guest of friends at this place.

Paul Greenwald was up from Kansas City during the week.

The Misses Werner spent Tuesday evening with Preston friends.

Fred Shock was here from Nebraska City the first of the week.

Cap Savlors was down from Verdon the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Will Sloane and small son Neal were down from Verdon Tuesday.

Maggie McMahan and Fred Mosiman drove to Preston Tuesday evening.

Jesse Berry was among the Hiawatha people that spent Christmas in this city.

Ira Johnston came down from Lincoln and spent Christmas with his mother in this city.

Walter Boyle of Omaha spent several days of this week with Dr. J. C. Yutzy and wife.

Fred Sebold is visiting at the home of his parents in the north western part of this state.

Pearl VanDeventer came up from Hiawatha to spend Christmas with Falls City friends.

Mrs. E. R. Brandt of Reynolds Nebraska is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Robert McMahan.

Jesse Nicholson came down from Verdon and spent a portion of this week at his home here.

Homer Yoder, wife and two children of St. Joseph are the guests of his parents in this city.

Orra Ross, of the Auburn Herald force, spent Sunday with John Ross and family in this city.

Maud Wark of Maderia, Iowa is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. John W. Crook east of this city.

M. D. Lum and wife came down from Verdon Saturday and remained until after Christmas.

Laura Scholl is spending her holiday vacation from the Peru Normal at her home near this city.

Quimby Hossack who is attending the state university is enjoying his two weeks vacation at his home here.

John Mosiman and wife attended the Christmas exercises at the German Church at Preston Tuesday evening.

Ingram Cain who has a position at Stella spent Tuesday with his parents, J. R. Cain and wife, of this city.

J. J. Turner was here from Humboldt Tuesday evening for brief visit with his daughter, Mrs. Geo. Albright.

Beulah Greenwald who is teaching school near Shubert is spending the week with her mother in this city.

Mrs. Clarence Peabody of St. Joseph spent several days this week with her parents, S. H. Prater and wife at this place.

Fred Cleveland, Sr., and wife were down from their home at Nebraska City and spent Tuesday afternoon with George Cleveland and wife.

Wahl & Parchen have the thanks of The Tribune management for a Christmas gift of one of the finest neckties of their holiday stock. Their holiday stock was especially fine and their trade was heavy all during the month. They have built up a large trade and well merit the patronage they have been accorded, as their methods and stock justify the same.

L. J. Segrist was here from Humboldt Friday last.

John S. Stull was here from Auburn the past Friday.

Hear Elmer Ward Cole on the evening of January 3, 1907.

Frank Gosset and wife were up from Horton, Kas., the first of this week.

George Martin who has been out west came home for the holidays.

Dr. E. A. Litchfield was here from Humboldt last Friday evening.

Dowty Watson was up from Reserve the past Saturday afternoon.

J. McMahan was with the Humboldt people here the past Friday.

Reba and Guy Eversole are home from Peru on a two weeks vacation.

Dr. Hannah Moran was on the sick list during the week, but is now improving.

George Noah and family spent Christmas with her mother, Mrs. Benedict at Verdon.

Ernest Bode came in from Hebron in order to spend Christmas at his home at this place.

Stephen Prior, wife and baby of near Barada spent Tuesday with relatives in this city.

Dr. J. R. Morris came down Humboldt Friday evening and went the Elk initiation route.

Nelson Schaffer and family, of Shubert, spent Christmas with her parents, Stephen Prior and wife, in this city.

Ray Palmer and wife of Columbus Kansas are visiting with his parents Wm. Palmer and wife of this city.

Willard Sears who has a position at Pawnee City spent several days the fore part of this week at his home in this city.

Clyde Ramel who is attending the Spaulding Business College at Kansas City is spending the week with his parents here.

Mrs. Allie Watson of the Tribune force was absent from the composing room a day or so this week on account of sickness.

Rev. T. A. Lindenmeyer went to his home near Sioux City, Iowa Monday evening where he attended their family reunion on Tuesday.

Will Schmelzel and wife, who have been at Hastings at his headquarters for the past few weeks, are spending this week with their parents here.

John Fellers who had been spending Christmas at his home at Humboldt stopped in this city while en route for Talmage, where he has an excellent position.

Sam H. Rogers, foreman of the Belleville Kansas Freeman was a pleasant caller at these quarters Wednesday afternoon. He was accompanied by his father-in-law, R. W. Allen, of Salem with whom he is visiting.

Rev. Elmer Ward Cole will deliver his popular lecture entitled "The Fight of Life," at the First Christian church on the evening of January 3, 1907. Admission, reserved seats 35 cents; all others 25 cents.

There will be a congregational meeting and a roll call of the membership of the church on the evening of December 31, 1906, beginning promptly at 7:30. Reports of the church treasurer, clerk, minister and the various societies of the church for the year 1906, will be given at that time. There will be a program consisting of addresses, recitations and music, after which refreshments will be served. Every member of the congregation is earnestly requested to be present or send the minister on a postal card a passage of scripture to be read in response to his or her name at roll call. Each member is also requested to bring some sandwiches and cake for the lunch.

Florence Wylie is home from Peru.

John Young and wife spent Christmas in Horton.

Mrs. Bollman came up from Kansas City for the holidays.

James Bascom spent Sunday with his parents in Pawnee City.

Gertrude Mohler was here from Lincoln several days of this week.

Winnie Perry spent a portion of this week with Omaha friends.

May and Belle Jones spent Christmas with friends at Napier.

Ferd Friedley and wife of Verdon were Monday visitors in this city.

L. C. Edwards spent Christmas day with his mother at Humboldt.

Wm. Deckinger while up from Preston made this office a pleasant call.

Hugh O'Grady was here from Dawson the past Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Wentworth of Nortonville, Kansas, is the guest of old friends here.

Ollie Jones of Lincoln spent a portion of the week with her parents here.

Wm. Cade returned Sunday from a three months trip to Osborne, Kansas.

C. F. Reavis was called to Missouri in a professional way the first of the week.

Bruno Hansen and wife of Norfolk are the guests of her parents Dr. Kerr and wife.

George Sears and wife of Bertrand, Nebraska are visiting with relatives in this city.

Mrs. Mary Shaffer sent us greetings of a financial nature from Shubert the past Saturday.

Ella Miller came down from Omaha in order to spend Christmas with her parents at this place.

Walter Tanner who is employed at Arapahoe, Nebraska spent the week with his mother at this place.

Rev. E. Martin came up from Coweta, I. T. to spend the holidays with relatives in and near this city.

Jesse Spence who is traveling for a large wholesale house spent Christmas with his family at the National.

Mrs. George Stumbo and daughter, Jennie Pearl of Lincoln are visiting with Samuel Prater and family.

James McKiever was down from Nebraska City the first of this week for a brief visit at the home place.

F. W. Gardner was down from Verdon the latter part of the past week attending to affairs of a business nature.

Mrs. Maud Freeborn and children came down from Peru to spend a few days with her parents, John Jones and wife.

Walter Staver of Sioux City, Iowa spent a portion of last Friday in this city, leaving on the noon train for his home at Salem.

Josephine Gehling, who is teaching in the public schools at Leed, South Dakota, is spending her vacation with her mother here.

H. C. Zoeller was up from Preston in a business way the past Saturday afternoon and while here did not fail to call at this office.

Clennie and Orville Jones who have been working in Washington County, Kansas are spending this week with the home folks in this city.

Mildred Holland returned the latter part of the past week from Lincoln where she is a student at the University. She will remain during the holidays.

Congressmen Pollard and Kennedy are the only members of the Nebraska delegation who have returned to the State during the holiday recess.

HEARTS & MASKS

A MASTERPIECE OF MERRIMENT

By HAROLD MACGRATH
Author of "The Man on the Box," etc.

When Harold MacGrath wrote this most exhilarating story, he was in his gayest mood and full of the zest of life.

At every page the adventure turns an unexpected corner. It teems with breathless excitement, sparkling dialogue, fascinating, glittering atmosphere.

A Captivating Story that is all Mystery and Smiles

THE KIND OF A STORY YOU WILL NEVER WANT TO MISS A LINE OF

IT BEGINS IN THIS ISSUE

WELL SERVED

Roast meats means something more than being well roasted. The roast to begin with must be what we call

"PRIME ROASTS"

When you get that kind and the cook knows what to do with it you're sure of a roast to please the epicure.

You supply the cook and we will supply the "prime roasts." We've made it a study and don't make mistakes. We pay the highest prices for hides and furs. Phone 74.

Heiser & Mosiman.

Chas. M. Wilson

Wishes you a Happy New Year and asks you to see the Haviland & Co's. decorated Dinner Set at a SPECIAL PRICE

China Dinnerware, Glassware, Groceries and Flour always ready for you.

Special Holiday Prices on China Dinnerware this week and next.

Chas. M. Wilson

Public Sale.

The undersigned will sell at public sale on Wednesday, January 9th at 10 o'clock a. m., at the Jacob Schaible farm, 2 miles north and 1/2 mile west of this city, the following property: 9 head of horses and mules, consisting of one team of black horses 4 and 6 years old, weighing about 2650 pounds, one pair horses three years old, weighing about 2200 pounds, one mare seven years old in foal by Jack weighing 1300 pounds, one horse coming three years old weighing 1250 pounds, 49 head of cattle consisting of 12 cows, 16 head yearling steers, 7 head yearling heifers, 13 spring calves, one thoroughbred shorthorn bull; one stack of prairie hay, about 300 bushels of oats, 300 hedge posts, and also farm implements.

ENGELHARD DEUCHLER.

Barred Plymouth Rocks.

A few choice Barred Plymouth Rock cockerels for sale. Phone 121 R. 52-4t J. W. DODDS.

D. A. Walker and son were here from Stella Saturday.

THE GEHLING ONE NIGHT

Thursday, Jan. 3

Irma Opera Co.

Presents the Comic Opera

"The Adorable Fritzie"

With the talented young Prima Dona

Emma Abbott DeBold

In the title role. Classed as the greatest in Comic Opera.

QUAKER CITY QUARTETTE

A BEAUTY CHORUS—Pretty girls in gorgeous costumes, sweet singing and graceful dances.

Prices 75c, 50c and 35c.