

LOCAL LORE.

Eat Sowles' candy.

Grace Sears has been very ill for the past few days.

J. J. Noah left Saturday for his home at St. Joseph.

F. L. Blakeney was here from Nims City last Friday.

James Mooney came up from Rulo the last of the week.

Sweet cider by the barrel, keg or gallon at Heck's feed store.

Lula Haller, of Grand Island, is the guest of her cousin, Freda Senner.

Examinations are now the interesting subjects in subjects the school rooms.

Florence Wylie returned Sunday to her studies at the state Normal at Peru.

John W. Crook was on the St. Joseph market with a load of fine cattle last Tuesday.

Sol Marts and wife are visiting at the home of G. N. Cambin and wife, near Severance, Kansas.

Allan D. May, wife and son Edgar Wylie, of Salem, spent Sunday with relatives in this city.

Mrs. Joe Coupe of Effingham, Kansas spent a portion of the past week with friends at this place.

Peter Bacakos, proprietor of the Candy kitchen, returned Friday from a business trip to St. Joseph.

Belle Jones who has been visiting with her sister, Mae, in this city, returned Sunday to Seneca, Kansas.

Sheriff Fenton left us a New Year's greeting the first of the week, the same being a dollar on subscription.

Henry Flett of Salem, Mo., who has been visiting with Bert Egan and family left Sunday for his home.

Mr. Harris and wife were here from Shubert last Thursday evening, the play at the Gehling being the attraction.

Master Albert Tanner who has been visiting with his grandmother in this city returned Sunday to his home at Humboldt.

Lawrence Livingood, of Sabetha Kansas was among the new pupils enrolled at the Business College last Monday morning.

Does Falls City need a sewerage system? Foolish question, isn't it, when we stop to consider the net work of cess pools all over the city.

Misses Maud Graham and Floy Grinstead spent a few days the latter part of the past week the guest of Mrs. Esburne Wheeler at Stella.

Mildred Holland who has been spending her two weeks vacation from her studies at the University, at her home here, returned Sunday afternoon to Lincoln.

Rev. W. T. Cline left Monday afternoon for South Auburn where he will assist Rev. C. L. Meyers in the conducting of a series of revival meetings at that place.

Dr. Wilson, of Humboldt, has sold his practise to Dr. Waggoner of Dawson, and the former will locate in our midst as soon as he can find a suitable office and residence.

Louie H. Wallace, of the manufacturing department of the Baldwin Candy Factory at Omaha, who has been visiting various friends in this city, returned Saturday afternoon to Omaha.

Where is the place that was prepared for the "knocker?" They must have scattered wonderfully, every town has them now. Let us look on the bright side anyway, "knock is a boost."

It was amusing to see Col. Marion trying to sell a sleigh and string of bells last Saturday to a crowd standing around in their shirt sleeves. Some one bought them thinking they might come handy next June.

Chas. Zoellers of Preston was a Falls City visitor the past Friday.

Mrs. C. B. Elliott left Wednesday for Dawson where she has a case.

Do not miss "A Struggle for Gold"—Gehling Theatre, January 11th.

Joseph Glasser of Humboldt was a business visitor in this city Tuesday.

W. H. Putnam made a business trip to Geneva Tuesday evening.

Clyde Lum was among the Verdon people in this city last Saturday.

Levi R. Cheney was down with Stella and spent Sunday with Falls City friends.

Louise Rule spent Saturday and Sunday the guest of friends at Reserve, Kansas.

C. S. Lawrence, of Hamlin, Kansas was a business visitor in this city the past Saturday.

Guy Crook and Quimby Hossack returned the first of the week to their studies at the State University.

Edna DeWald returned Sunday from a weeks visit with her sister, Mrs. Samuel Stewart, at Reserve, Kansas.

Mabel Greenwald returned the last of the week to her duties as teacher in the public school at La Mars, Iowa.

Prices for "A Struggle for Gold." 25c for children, 35c for general admission and 50c for the best reserved seats.

Hazel Gravatt who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ray Miller, for a few days, returned Sunday to her home at Humboldt.

Hattie L. Bruce, of Kaw City, Oklahoma remembered the Tribune with a new years greeting of a dollar on subscription and has our thanks for the same.

Those who enjoy a good comedy-drama of western life will be pleased with "A Struggle for Gold" which will be the next attraction at the Gehling Theatre.

Mrs. C. B. Elliott wishes to thank the members of the Fire company and those who so kindly assisted her since the loss of her possessions in the recent fire at her home.

Mrs. George Stumbo and daughter, Jennie Pearl, returned Sunday afternoon to their home at Lincoln after visiting with her parents, Samuel Prater and wife for a few weeks.

Will Hossack returned the latter part of the past week from Canton, S. D., where he has been foreman in Lincoln County, Dakota for the John Towle Bridge Co., of Omaha. He will enjoy a two months vacation which he will spend with his parents in this city.

There were seven new pupils enrolled at the business college Monday morning when they again took up their work after a two weeks vacation. These in addition to the large number of students enrolled the first of the term, make an unusually large attendance.

Sheriff Fenton was in Omaha the latter part of last week in attendance to his brother Emmet, who is dangerously ill with abscess of the liver. An operation was performed by Drs. Allison and Wagner which bids fair to restore Mr. Fenton to health. At this writing his condition is favorable and great hopes are entertained for his recovery.

The dangers and privations humanity will endure for gold will be clearly demonstrated at the Gehling Theatre Friday night January 11, by the Comedry Company in the western melodrama "A Struggle for Gold."

Enterprise company you will see a number of high grade specialties as well as 1000 feet of beautiful special scenery. The prices 25, 35 and 50 cents.

Henry Smith and wife were here from Salem Saturday.

John Oswald made a business trip to Dawson on Saturday afternoon.

S. P. Gist and wife of Salem spent Sunday with W. A. Greenwald and family.

H. G. Forest of Richardson Co., Neb., was at the yards yesterday with a carload of hogs.

Margaret Mooney of Rulo was the guest of Susie Gehling the latter part of last week.

Frank Simons and wife of Rulo were the guests of A. Doerner and wife Friday last.

Jud Carpenter of Rulo saw Adorable Fritzie at the Gehling on Thursday evening of last week.

Edna Spencer left Monday morning for Omaha where she will spend the next two months in an art school.

Walter Veach and wife were down from Verdon to attend the attraction at the Gehling last Thursday evening.

Mrs. Will Hurst and baby, of Padonia, Kansas spent a portion of this week with her parents, Benj. Poteet and wife of this city.

Will Cade and wife returned Monday afternoon to their home at Osborne Kansas after spending a few weeks at the home of his parents, Wm. Cade and wife.

George Sears and wife who have been visiting with relatives here for the past two weeks returned Sunday evening to their home at Bertrand, Nebraska.

Under the pure food law the ingredients of all products must be "blown in the battle" This probably marks the end of our old friend "circus lemonade."

The ice men are beginning to wonder what all this kind of weather means. There may be an opportunity offered yet to harvest two crops before planting corn.

The "wicked stood on slippery places" Sunday and Monday. The saints did not venture out to any marked degree, which accounts for the light attendance at the various churches in this city.

Mrs. S. R. Gist and son, Preston, of Humboldt visited a few days the latter part of last week with W. A. Greenward and wife S. R. Gist came down Saturday to attend the annual meeting of the State Bank Officials, and remained over Sunday.

A dozen or more of the bloods about town are planning for a novel outing about the first of June. They expect to spend a week or two with Jess Whetstone on his new farm in Kansas and give him a few lessons in up-to-date farming. They will go prepared for a Kansas drought.

The sleet of Sunday produced some high and lofty tumbling on Stone street walks. One Miss did her stunt in the most improved style. "Mama said I should wear my rubbers" she said gathering her flying skirt about her. "There seems plenty of them here," replied her escort looking at the crowd.

Dr. Wilson was down from Humboldt Monday making preparations to locate in our midst. He has rented offices in the State Bank Block which are now in the hands of painters and decorators and will be put in first class condition for his profession. The Doctor has built up a lucrative practice in our neighboring city and his numerous friends are sorry to see this change, but he is at that age and experience when he feels that a larger field was due him, thus the change. The people will find Dr. Wilson and his estimable wife most pleasant and substantial citizens and The Tribune extends to them a hearty welcome.

H. H. Birch was up from Willis, Kansas the past Sunday.

F. J. Chesley is now a member of the family of Tribune readers.

Born—the first day of January, to Fred Bahr and wife, a son.

Joe Morris of Stella is visiting at the home of his parents in this city.

Mrs. Jule Schmitt and children are visiting with her parents at Savannah, Missouri.

Mrs. A. E. Watson is the guest of St. Joseph friends, leaving Tuesday for that city.

J. J. Morris remembered The Tribune with a pleasant call the latter part of last week.

Lawrence Shierborn of Humboldt attended the W. O. W. installation Monday evening.

James Hill had four carloads of extra fine cattle on the Kansas City market the fore part of this week.

100 bushels of good seed potatoes for sale. Guaranteed to be first class. Call at Powell's Grocery Store.

Levi Nedrow, who was taken seriously ill at his home in this city last Sunday, is reported to be improving.

Warren Hutchins while calling on friends the first of the year remembered this office in a financial manner.

The Kerkoff-Hillman dramatic company stopped at The National last Sunday while enroute for Hiawatha, Kansas.

Andy and Miss Ora Crook, of Salem were the guests of Charles Howard and John Crook and families, southeast of town, the past Sunday.

Mrs. Jennie Wentworth returned Monday to her home at Nortonville, Kansas after a two weeks visit with friends in this city.

Some of our subscribers remember us faithfully the first of each year, and among these was Rev. Bex who gave us his annual call last Friday.

Albert Hartman on route three was a pleasant caller at these quarters last Saturday and has our thanks for favors along the financial line.

John L. Cleaver is now in Lincoln, having received an appointment as book-keeper in the senate, a position he has held before with credit to himself and party.

Earl Goddard who has been spending a few weeks with his parents at Troy, Kansas returned the first of this week in order to resume his studies at the Business College.

Stephen Miles left Wednesday afternoon for Johnstown, Pa., in response to a telegram announcing the serious illness of his wife, who has been visiting at that place. The telegram stated that she was threatened with pneumonia.

Whitaker Bros. report the following important real estate transfers through their agency, viz: The fine farm of Samuel Hoffnel consisting of 280 acres to N. D. Auxier, consideration was $30,000; the modern home owned by Fred Beaulieu to William Stephens, consideration, $2,800. Mr. Stephens will occupy this his new home March 1st, retiring from the farm. The large two story dwelling of the late E. K. Kentner to Dr. and William Moran, consideration $2,025.00, which they will occupy as soon as some repairs are made. Also two fine, well improved farms in Dickinson county, Kansas, to Samuel Hoffnel, one of 320 acres, and one of 240 acres. William Hoffnel and his brother-in-law, Andrew Walker, will occupy these farms March 1, 1907. Also the home of Benjamin Linn to Christian Heiser and wife, consideration $550. Mr. and Mrs. Heiser will move in this property on or about March 1, 1907.

Our Fourth Year.

With this issue we commence on volume four, of The Falls City Tribune. We feel that our efforts to make The Tribune a good county paper, and a pleasant feature, have not been in vain. We have grown with each succeeding year and intend to still face toward the summit of the pathway. We appreciate your patronage in the past and hope by our methods to warrant a more extensive renewal of the same. While perhaps we have not been perfect in every detail it was not through our lack of effort and we thank our friends for their much appreciated kindnesses to us. The Tribune management and force will always be ready for your consideration.

John Dorrington returned Wednesday from Chicago.

Fred Oswald is home from Montana for a brief visit.

H. H. Pence has our thanks for subscription this week.

W. H. Wylie of Nebraska City was a business visitor here Monday.

Herman Weick jr., of Verdon is one of our new subscribers this week.

Mrs. David Davies and children spent Sunday with friends at Verdon.

Lewis C Edwards made a business trip to Humboldt Wednesday afternoon.

H. S. Moorehouse while up from Rulo Wednesday gave us a pleasant call.

G. W. Bartlett started the new year right by ordering this paper for one year.

Grace Gray returned Wednesday from a few days visit with Omaha friends.

A daughter arrived at the home of Wm. Fehr and wife on Saturday, January 5th.

E. D. Reiger while up from Preston Saturday was a pleasant caller at this office.

L. Hilgenfeld remembered this institution with favors on subscription last Tuesday.

August Mitchell of Wymore commences a years reading of the Tribune with this issue.

Francis Sheehan returned Monday to Omaha after a two weeks visit with relatives here.

Ruth Heacock returned Saturday from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Ray Gould at Omaha.

Don't forget to call at the Powell's Grocery Store for nice clean groceries of all kinds.

Among those from Stella in this city last Saturday were A. G. Timmerman and W. S. Helmick.

Philip Schlater, formerly of the Lawrenceburg (Tennessee) Union, is now of The Tribune force.

Geo Jennings, wife and daughter, Nellie, returned the first of this week from a visit with Salem friends.

Mrs. M. Senner and daughter, Freda, returned Friday evening from a visit with friends and relatives at Grand Island.

Lettie Cain returned the first of the week to Billings, Montana after spending the past two weeks at her home in this city.

Will Fenton returned Wednesday evening from Omaha and reports the condition of his brother, Emmett, as much improved.

Mrs. Anna Harpster returned Saturday to her home at Beatrice after an extended visit with friends at Preston and in this city.

Guy Eversole is seriously ill, being threatened with pneumonia on account of which he was unable to return to his studies at Peru.

To close out all china and queensware we will sell at absolute wholesale prices. Call at the Powell Grocery Store while the sale is on.

Combination Sale of

Thoroughbred Shorthorn cattle and Berkshire brood sows, horses, mules and sheep.
On January 22nd, 1907, at my farm six miles northeast of Table Rock, nine miles southeast of Elk Creek, eight miles northwest of Humboldt and thirteen miles west of Stella; sale commencing at 12 o'clock sharp, we, the undersigned, will sell the following property:
Sixteen head of Shorthorn cattle consisting of 5 cows, 6 heifers and 5 bulls—4 of them coming yearlings.
Six high grade Shorthorn cows and heifers.
One mare coming 11 years old, safe in foal.
Six head of mules as follows:—4 coming 3 years old, 2 coming 2 years old.
Two colts, coming yearlings.
Ten head of Berkshire brood sows, all bred.
Fifteen head of good harness.
One set double work sheep, 1 corn planter and check row combined, 1 combined walking lister, 2 walking cultivators.
Terms of sale:—Cash or 8 months time, purchaser giving bankable note with interest at 7 per cent. Parties from a distance to bring reference.
Parties desiring catalogue or other information write W. A. Frank, Table Rock. Free lunch at noon. Cols. Leonard and Harding, auctioneers; Chas. J. Wood, clerk.
W. A. FRANK and A. C. KING.

Ran A Nail in His Foot.

James A. Hill ran a nail in his right foot about ten days ago and although the injury was a trifle painful at the time, it did not bother him in the least. However the first of this week, the wound commenced to be quite painful and Mr. Hill was compelled to use a cane for several days in order to enable him to get around comfortably.

Mrs. Dan Reavis Dead.

Word was received from Guthrie, Okla., Thursday announcing the death of Mrs. Dan Reavis formerly of Falls City. Mrs. Reavis was one of the early settlers of this city, having made Falls City her home from about 1857 until some twenty years ago. The body will be interred at Falls City, the time of its arrival not being definitely known at this time.

Found Dead in Bed.

Word was received yesterday morning of the death of Mrs. Ayers of Dawson. She had retired the previous evening in apparent good health but when they went to call her Thursday morning her lifeless form was found. No other particulars have been received at this date. She was well known in this city and her numerous friends will sincerely regret her demise.

50 choice light Brahma Cockerels. At $1 each if taken in January. Best birds go with first sales. J. O. SHROYER, Humboldt, Neb.

As the weather last Sunday was entirely too inclement for the men to risk being out in, and as the church was well filled with the lady members, Rev. Griffin reserved the sermon which he had prepared for men, and will deliver the same this coming Sabbath morning. Subject is "Buying Land, Buying Cattle and Marrying Women." A cordial invitation is extended to all, and special one is given to the men. We hope the weather is pleasant.

TAKE NOTICE

After having occupied the offices over the postoffice for over eleven years, I wish to notify my friends and patients that on and after January 4, 1907, my office and residence will be found one block west of the National Hotel, at the old Kentner property. Phone 102. DR. HANNAN C. MORAN.

A Rare Bargain.

One hundred and sixty acres 4 1/2 miles to Pawnee, 70 acres pasture, timber and water, improvements fair, a good farm, price $12,000; $1,000 cash, and $11,000 on 10 years time, 5 per cent interest.

W. W. CORNELL, 56-4t Pawnee City, Neb.

Basket Social.

The members of the Falls school, district No. 74, will give a basket social on Friday evening, January 15, at the Friday house, of which school Lottie Putnam is the teacher. A pleasant time is anticipated and everybody is cordially invited to attend.