

THE FALLS CITY TRIBUNE.

Vol. IV

FALLS CITY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, JANUARY 18, 1907.

Whole No. 158

Obituary.

Mrs. Ann E. R. Reavis was born in Beardstown, Illinois March 1, 1835 and died at Guthrie, Oklahoma January 9, 1907, aged 71 years, 10 months and 8 days.

In 1852 she was united in marriage to Mr. Daniel Reavis, a brother of Judge Reavis and Mrs. Roy of our city. They resided for some years in Illinois. In 1860 they came to Falls City, where the husband Mr. Daniel Reavis engaged in business till his death in 1872.

Nine children were born to them—all are deceased but two sons, viz: Mr. Daniel Reavis of Kansas City, Mo., and Mr. Logan Reavis of Redding, California.

Mrs. Reavis located in Guthrie in 1890 and resided there until death. She was converted and united with the M. E. church at the early age of 14 years and lived a faithful life.

She was a member of the W. C. T. U., the W. R. C. and the Eastern Star.

The funeral services were held from the M. E. church at Falls City, Nebr., Saturday, January 12, 1907, and in charge of Rev. W. T. Cline, Ph. D.

The interment took place in the Steele cemetery.

Nina Mary Kern was born in Rulo, Neb., June 15, 1887. Died January 11, 1907 at Kansas City, Mo., age 19 years, 6 months and 26 days.

Nina was a graduate of the Rulo High School, and has always lived in Rulo, with the exception of few years of her early childhood, and for the past year has been residing with her aunt in Kansas City. She leaves a mother and two sisters, Edith and Melva and many other relatives to mourn her sad death, among whom are the aged grandparents who removed to California little over a year ago, and what sad hearts it will make when the news reaches them, for Nina was their especial pride, and pet. Besides relatives she leaves a host of loving friends, for to know her was to love her, she was kind and gracious to all, be they rich or poor, large or small.

The funeral was held in Rulo, at the M. E. church on Sunday at 2:30 o'clock conducted by Rev. Maize, and seldom, if ever before has such a large crowd gathered in Rulo to pay the last tribute of respect to a departed one, the church was packed to the doors, the vestibule crowded and a great crowd gathered on the sidewalk and waited patiently in a piercing wind, through the services to pay their last respects to her and show their sympathy for her loved ones.

The beautiful white casket was completely hidden under floral offerings of loving friends several beautiful sheaves were sent by friends in Kansas City, and many lovely tributes were given by her friends in the home of her childhood. The Bachelor Girls Club brought an anchor on which was outlined in pink, "Nina." The royal neighbors a beautiful wreath, The Degree of Home a floral pillow on which a snow white dove seemed to have just alighted. Flowers in her hands, flowers in her hair, flowers all around the loved form in the casket, and literally buried in flowers, Nina was laid to rest.

The six pallbearers were young men, most all of whom were her schoolmates.

May the Lord of peace comfort the hearts of the sorrowing relatives.

Reported Killed.

Wednesday's press dispatches announces the probable death of Bishop Hamilton of the Methodist church in Kingston, Jamaica, earthquake. Bishop Hamilton will be remembered by many of our people as he presided over the conference held in this city about a year ago. The Bishop undermined his health by over work following the earthquake in San Francisco, his home, and had gone to Kingston to recuperate. The Tribune hopes that the report of his death may prove incorrect.

Completely Surprised.

A number of friends planned a very effective surprise on Mrs. Della Noah last Saturday evening. Without thinking of any scheme she accompanied two of the neighbor women up town and upon her return found about forty of her friends in possession of the house. Dancing was one of the many pleasures of the evening, the guests remaining until the early morning hours.

A Good Showing.

We received the annual report of the Nebraska State Library Commission the first of this week, and the Falls City library has an excellent showing. We stand sixth in circulation and thirteenth in volume which shows that the people of this community are of a literary turn and appreciate the benefits of a good library. This report included the libraries of Omaha, Lincoln and all the larger cities of the state and this community is to be congratulated on their good showing.

Society News.

Mrs. Oscar Maddox was hostess to a number of her lady friends at a Kensington on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Maddox is a very entertaining hostess and made the event one of pleasure.

The members of the Kaffee Klatch club were the guests of Maud Graham on Tuesday afternoon. Miss Graham's social entertainments are always of a very original character and this one was one of the most pleasant. The young ladies were given the material to work buttonholes, the one making the best ones being Katherine Heacock, while Nelle Snyder received the consolation prize. Refreshments added to the many pleasures of the afternoon.

A number of her friends were entertained at whist on Tuesday evening by Miss Grace Maddox. After several hours spent at this pleasant past-time elegant refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Maddox gave a whist party to a number of friends on Thursday evening and it was one of the most pleasing of this seasons social events. Both are royal entertainers and the evening passed very quickly for the guests.

Mrs. Catherine Wylie entertained on Wednesday in honor of her guest, Mrs. Maple of Chicago. When the ladies had assembled "Uncle" Bart Metz drove up with a four horse bobsled and all were invited to take a sleigh ride. This feature of the entertainment was particularly enjoyable as it was the first sleighing of the season.

Upon returning to Mrs. Wylie's pleasant home the guests were served with a three course luncheon. After spending the remainder of the afternoon with their needles, the ladies returned to their several homes, voting their hostess a delightful entertainer. Those present were, Mesdames Metz, Musselman, Resterer, Neal, Sandusky, Holland, Wilson, Jennings, Wanner, and Mrs. Maple of Chicago.

The meeting of the Woman's Club, held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. James Powell was well attended in spite of the unfavorable weather. The Liszt program provided by the Music department opened with the study of Liszt as man and artist, led by Mrs. John Oswald, after which the following musical numbers were given:

Piano, Neapolitan Song, Miss Schoenheit
Vocal, Wanderer's Night Song, Mrs. Breithaupt
Piano, At the Spring, Miss Banks
Vocal, Loreley, Mrs. Charles Banks

Preparations for the Benefit undertaken by the club for the High School Band are progressing rapidly, and the entertainment will be given in about two weeks.

The young ladies of the Evangelical Association met at the home of Miss Hilgenfeld on Tuesday evening of this week to re-organize their E. A. Needle club. After the usual amount of fancy work and a social time was spent an elegant two course luncheon was served. The next meeting will be held at the home of H. L. Landott next Tuesday evening Miss Oberst as hostess.

The members of the W. C. T. U. enjoyed a very pleasant session at the home of Mrs. W. A. Greerwald on Wednesday afternoon.

A whist party given by Mrs. George Holt on Wednesday afternoon was one of the pleasant social events of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Gist entertained about thirty of their friends on Thursday evening. An original and novel guessing contest was the program of the evening. Pictures cut from magazines and newspapers represented names of towns and people, the guests were required to write the names upon the paper provided. Bells little and big formed the predominating feature in decorations and prizes. E. H. Towle captured the prize for the best guesser and C. F. Reavis for locating hidden bells. Refreshments closed a very pleasant evening.

About fifty ladies braved the inclement weather last Friday afternoon in response to the invitation to a Kensington issued by Mrs. J. C. Yutzy and Mrs. D. D. Reavis at the home of the latter. In addition to fancy work and gossip, the guests took part in a poetical "Book Romance," a literary contest which was much enjoyed. Original telegrams were also written and read causing much amusement. Miss Anna Shaffer was awarded the prize, a dozen carnations for the best telegram. Splendid refreshments were served. Mrs. Basil Boyle of St. Louis was the guest of honor.

The Shakespeare club met with Mrs. Ned Towle on Tuesday afternoon and went through the first scene of Macbeth. The majority of the members were present and enjoyed the interesting session.

A number of her friends were entertained last Friday evening by Maud Graham the same being a fancy dress party. It was a very elaborate society event and one of much pleasure.

A number of the younger folks enjoyed a mock wedding at the home of Louise Rule on Monday and enjoyed the affair to its fullest extent.

Joint Installation.

The M. W. of A. and the R. N. of A. orders held a public joint installation at the Wahl hall on Wednesday evening. The R. N. of A. held their installation first, which was followed by that of M. W. of A. The services were both impressive and very interesting. A short program followed the business session after which an elegant banquet was served in the dining hall.

Steals The Money.

Jno Pitman, son of Geo. Pitman, of this city, held up the cashier of the Her Grand hotel, at Omaha, last Thursday and secured seven hundred dollars. He ran about three blocks but was captured and four hundred dollars was returned to the owners. He had strewed the balance in the course of his flight thinking that his pursuers would stop and pick it up, thus giving him a chance to escape. In the meantime he fired several shots from his revolver to intimidate his followers.

Chicken Pie Supper, Jan., 22.

On next Tuesday evening, from 5 until 9, The Methodist ladies invite you to dine in their well-known church basement; there they will bring unto you a hot supper, quite fit for a king. The "piece de resistance," of course, chicken pie, But other good things are not going to be "shy." Such as cold slaw, potatoes and pies galore. And then when you've eaten, just pay at the door; One-fourth of a dollar for father and mother, But only fifteen for little sister and brother.

LOCAL LORE.

E. Dowty came up from Preston Saturday.

White for purity, red for valor and blue for justice.

R.W. Dagget of Salem spent Saturday at this place.

Ernest Werner has our thanks for financial favors this week.

E. Marmet was here in a business way from Dawson Saturday.

Many a popular actor finds himself struggling with hard lines.

A. W. Southard was one of our many pleasant callers during this week.

Any man who is dead in love with himself should be buried in oblivion.

Mayme Bacon, of Humboldt was the guest of Falls City friends this week.

"Have a good time, but don't make it your business," said a wise philosopher.

The girl with light hair is all ways afraid that people won't think it is natural.

An infant son arrived on January 10th at the home of T. T. Ross and wife, at Cuthbert, Georgia.

H. R. Pyle and wife were down from Nims City Monday and spent the day with friends at this place.

Wirth & Winterbottom remembered the financial part of our subscription list the latter part of the week just past.

In the strips and stars make the flag of our country to be cherished by all our hearts and upheld by all our hands.

J. L. Slocum, wife and daughter, Carrie, Mrs. Harry Jenne and George Slocum and wife, of Stella were Burlington passengers Wednesday for San Diego, Calif.

Joe Rickards was in town the first of this week for a brief visit with his father, Charlie Rickards. He is connected with several prominent theatrical institutions in New York and has enjoyed unlimited success.

George Grinstead came up from Maitland, Mo. the first of last week and will remain here for a days. The storm deterred them in their work of digging a large drainage ditch and no more can be done for a few days.

Samuel Wahl this week purchased a new shrinking machine for the store and will now be prepared to give his patrons the best of service along that line. Any and all kinds of material can be shrunk on this apparatus.

Our genial friend Bert Veach, who lives on route four, was in town Wednesday and while here did not forget to remember The Tribune. He carried away a good receipt which he received in exchange for subscription funds.

Mr. Bryan was asked to join the association of Spanish war veterans in Spokane, Wash., this week, but he declined. When told that President Roosevelt was a member he replied; "I am not traveling as much on my military record as he is." Well we should say not. Bryan wouldn't move a foot if he waited to travel on what he calls his military record.

The members of the M. E. Kensington society were the guests of Mrs. Geo. Hall on Wednesday afternoon. The weather was quite disappointing but this was all forgotten when the guests arrived at the home of their hostess. The afternoon was one of genuine pleasure. Refreshments were served.

The Margraves brothers were up from the Ranch the past Saturday.

Mrs. Weisenreder, of Broken Bow, is visiting with her son, John Morehead.
