Carpets!

Are higher for spring but we have been able to place our orders where the advance is the least we know of.

Our carpet catalogue for spring will be ready about February 15th. Do not purchase until you get it.

This branch of our business was so good last fall that we are making greater preparations than ever to get all carpet sales in this county for spring.

Don't buy until you see our lines.

A Rare Bargain

One hundred and sixty acres 4 1/2 miles to Pawnee, 70 acres pasture, timber and water, improvements fair, a good farm, price $12,000; $1,000 cash, and $11,000 on 10 years time, 5 per cent interest.

W. W. CORNELL,
56-41 Pawnee City, Neb.

The protest by property owners against the drainage district will be heard by Judge Raper at Salem beginning February 1st. The law makes it necessary to hear these cases within the district which accounts for not holding the hearing in Falls City. Salem will take on quite a metropolitan air and will make a noise like a county seat even though that hope was blasted years and years ago.

A rosy cheeked little boy drifted into the Tribune this morning holding a Tribune coupon in his hand. He was too small or too cold to write his name but he was patriotic all right. "For the high school," he said, as he deposited his vote, and after waiting a moment, to see if anything else was necessary he pulled down his cap, put on his mittens and went out to "hop" a bob sled.

Philip Schlater, who has been the efficient typo at the Union office for some time, left this week for Falls City, Nebraska, where he goes to seek fame and fortune in his chosen profession. He is a fine young fellow, full of pluck and push and we wish him mighty well.—Lawrenceburg (Tennessee) Democrat.

In this issue the notice of an increase in the capital stock of the Vinegar factory is given. This enterprise has been a phenomenal success and the men who instituted it are entitled to the congratulations and best wishes of our people.

Mrs. Orra Ross and two children came down from Auburn the first of the week for a visit with John Ross and wife. Orra Ross came down on Tuesday evening and all returned to their home at Auburn, on Wednesday morning.

W. E. Dorrington writes from Washington that he and Mrs. Dorrington are enjoying the best of health. Mr. D. says at the present rate of increase he will weigh about three hundred when he returns next summer.

We saw a man use a horse whip on a little child for riding on the runners of his sled. The child fell crying into the snow and the man laughed as one who does a cute thing. If there isn't a hell there ought to be.

James Hossack who has been working at Hartington, Nebr., for some time was home the first part of this week on a brief visit. From here he will go to Canton, South Dakota.

Harve Heaston on route two was a pleasant caller at this office Wednesday morning and had his name placed on The Tribune mailing list.

Bill McCray folded his tent and departed as soon as Joe Glasser beat him for chairman. William is certainly a rotten poor loser.

Cut out the library vote in this issue and cast it for your favorite. Every little bit helps.

C. F. Reavis was before the Hiawatha court Monday and Tuesday of this week.

R. E. Grinstead of Salem spent several days here the fore part of this week.

H. A. Dorste, of Goffs, Kansas is a reader of The Tribune for the year 1907.

WANTED: By a prominent monthly magazine, with large, high-class circulation, local representative to look after renewals and increase subscription list in Humboldt and vicinity, on a salary basis, with a continuing interest from year to year in the business created. Experience desirable, but not essential. Good opportunity for the right person. Address Publisher, box 59, Station O, New York.

We feel that in as much as we were the first to suggest his name for the place, that we are entitled to congratulate Norris Brown on his election as United States Senator. Mr. Brown is one of the men God made, and his service to the state in the great position to which he has been chosen will be as distinctive and meritorious as has been his service in the past.

The longer we live, the more thoroughly we become convinced that it is unwise to judge from the appearance of a man, his mental or moral status.

Mrs. Lydia Plater is quite ill at her home in this city.

Mrs. A. E. Jaquet is the guest of relatives at Horton, Kansas.

Mrs. Earl Frakes is very ill at the home of her uncle, Wm. McPherson in the eastern part of this city.

G. H. Trefzer while down from Salem the latter part of the past week was a welcome visitor at these quarters.

A Falls City mother is taking care of a family of five small children all of whom have the whooping cough. She needs your sympathy.

Samuel Bayne while remembering his friends, called at these quarters the last of the week and contributed to our subscription finance.

The merry ring of the sleigh bells can be heard at all hours of the day and night. The sleighing is perfect and the weather all that could be desired.

Brethren Church Announcement.

Elder E. M. Yoder will preach at the morning service. At the evening services Rev. Tetter will preach one of his characteristic sermons on the unique subject, "Half-Baked Folks." The public is cordially invited.

Once again we hear the jingle of the sleigh bells and wonder how it happened.

Whooping cough is keeping many scholars out of school and many parents walking the floor at night.

Every dollar paid to The Tribune for subscription, job work and advertising entitles you to votes on the library.

The liveryman, Cupid and the weather bureau have formed an alliance that is "playing Ned" with the pocket books of the young men.

Judge Wilhite was called to Auburn last Friday on account of the death of a relative. The funeral took place Sunday, interment being at Peru.

The Library contest is going to be a good deal of a horse race. The Odd Fellows and Elks seem to have the start but keep your eyes on the contest, the local schools and the library.

Does advertising pay? The library contest was advertised in The Tribune one week before the votes published this week were counted. Read the list of votes cast and see how wide a circulation one issue of The Tribune gives.
