A Good Man.

A noted Atchison man who is said to dislike his kin hurried to see his father-in-law in a neighboring town as soon as he learned that he was unfortunate and sick—and the man and his wife have separated, too! So there is really no father-in-law tie. This Atchison man is all right and is one of the worst misjudged and misunderstood men we know. He comes nearer doing the right, many things, in spite of all the talk against himself in his cynical way, than any man we know. We've about decided that he talks against good things to hide the many good things he does.—Hiawatha World.

The above incident occurred in Falls City a few weeks ago. Not only did the Atchison man hurry to the bedside of his father-in-law, but he gave orders to provide everything necessary for the old gentleman's comfort at his expenses. He returned to Falls City after death had claimed his relative and the same quiet, unassuming generosity was displayed. Some men talk good. Ed Howe does good, and there is a wide difference between talking and doing.

Cabbage Salad.

Cut a sugar-loaf cabbage fine on a slaw cutter and put in a cool place until ready to serve. Make a dressing of one cup of vinegar, two eggs, beaten up with two teaspoonsfuls of sugar, a piece of butter half the size of an egg, a teaspoonful of mustard and a little black pepper. Pour the vinegar in a dish and set in a kettle of boiling water, then add the ingredients, stirring until they are as thick as cream. When the dressing is cold, pour it over the cabbage.

In the treatment of piles it becomes necessary to have the remedy put up in such a form that it can be applied to the parts affected. Manzan Pile remedy is encased in a collapsible tube with nozzle attached. It cannot help but reach the spot. Relieves blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles. Fifty cents with nozzle guaranteed. Try it. Sold by A. G. Wanner.

Cream Puff.

Put four tablespoonfuls of butter and a cup of water together in a saucepan and place over a slow fire. Have already measured one cup of flour and, as soon as the water and butter reach the boiling point, add the flour all at once and stir vigorously. When thoroughly mixed remove from the fire and add four unbeaten eggs beating the mixture between the times that each egg is added. Drop by the spoonfuls on buttered pans, having a space of one and one-half inches between each puff. Bake in a slow oven for half an hour. When done and cool cut a slit in the side of each puff and fill with sweetened whipped cream. Use to a cup of cream four tablespoonfuls of vanilla. This recipe makes eight puffs.

A Great View.

Four Brown county towns can be seen from a spot on the Rock Island in the very southern part of Brown county. Just after the Rock Island train leaves Pierce Junction, that lovely city, the towns of Everest and Willis and the high points of Horton can be seen at the same time. From a high point of ground in the northeastern part of Brown county, Reserve and Padonia can be seen, as well as Falls City, Neb. Some even go so far as to say they can also see Hiawatha from the same spot.—Horton Headlight.

Every one knows that spring is the season of the year when the system needs cleansing. Rings Little Liver Pills are highly recommended. Try them. Sold by A. G. Wanner.

Festivities at Rulo.

On Monday evening of last week, at about half past eight o'clock, about twenty young people met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Gilbert to celebrate the sixteenth anniversary of the birth of Alice and Alta Gilbert.

The girls were at singing school and on returning home at the close of the session they found a full house, which was at first a little more than they had bargained for. However they soon became their usual selves and were ideal hostesses for the evening. An elegant midnight supper was served, consisting of oysters and a great many other delicacies. The girls were the recipients of kind remembrances from their young friends. The evening was pronounced full of good times by the guests and at a late hour—or rather an early hour in the morning—wishing Alice and Alta many more happy birthdays (and surprises) they bid each other a reluctant good night and returned to their homes.
