

LOCAL LORE.

Eat Sowles' candy.
 About time for hens to set.
 Soon be house cleaning time.
 Dr. M. L. Wilson—office over State Bank.
 By all means let the city buy the park.
 The time for band concerts will soon be here.
 Edwin Falloon was a Lincoln editor the first of the week.
 Isham Reavis was before the supreme court in Lincoln on Tuesday.
 Ducks has been the piece de resistance on many loral tables this week.
 Bert Reavis transacted business in Paola, Kansas, several days this week.
 W. A. Greenwald was a business visitor in Humboldt Tuesday afternoon.
 Ed Nolte received his insurance on the cottage destroyed by fire a few weeks ago.
 Speaking of spring, the New York national ball team beat Los Angeles 5 to 3 on Monday.
 Mrs. E. H. Towle has been quite sick this week, but is recovering nicely at this writing.
 "Ding bust it," complained a lawyer today, "court always convenes just as the ducks get in."
 With a park, a chautauqua and band concerts in sight for Falls City this summer we wonder what has happened.
 Dr. Waggener of Humboldt was down Monday in consultation with Dr. Burchard at the bedside of George Gilligan.
 V. G. Lyford returned from New York Monday after a three weeks visit to the eastern market in quest of bargains for his large trade.
 Tommy Hargrave is still confined to his room. The little fellow is having a hard time of it, having been kept in for a month.
 Judges Raper and Kelligar are both holding court here this week. Judge Raper came down to try The Tribune's case against the county.
 The Tribune is especially proud of its correspondence. We have the best corps of correspondence in the county and their weekly visits make The Tribune distinctly a county paper.
 George Gilligan has been seriously ill with appendicitis for the past week. His condition remains unchanged at this writing. Dr. Burchard is attending him and hopes that the inflammation will soon subside.
 Just take a look in Reavis and Abbey's windows and see the fine assortment of pianos display. It always pays to buy at home, and this is especially true of pianos in as much as the general public know so little of the value of such instruments.
 Among the many who have killed ducks in large numbers this week are Fred Keller, Peter Fredrick, Fred Farington, Aaron Loucks, George Holt and others too numerous to mention. Peter Frederick seems to hold the record with 42 to his credit in an afternoon.
 A baked potato about the size of a paw paw with a lump of yellow butter melted in the center thereof, a broiled chop, a little lettuce as a salad, a good cup of coffee and a Colorado Maduro and you may tell your troubles to Louis Plege for we don't want to be bothered.
 The old days of dancing in the county to the music of an organ and a fiddle have gone by. These days the dancing is done to the music of the finest bands and orchestras reproduced by the phonograph. The younger generation has a great many advantages that the old ones were not given.

Which case are you interested in?
 Keep your lawn clean this summer.
 Is it to be a three cornered fight this year?
 Chas. Loree is among the grip victims this week.
 Mrs. Ira Houtz was here from Verdon Saturday last.

 Wm. Mohler returned Friday from Plattsburg, Missouri where he was called by the death of his mother.
 George Jones came down from Humboldt last Friday for a brief visit before going to Canada for the summer.
 The sports will get no more notices in this paper until a couple of canvas backs are left with the editor.
 Mrs. H. C. Foster and daughter came up Sunday from Kansas City and are visiting at the home of Henry Lapp.
 A beautiful loving cup won by Will Veach at the Kansas City shoot last week is displayed in Wirth & Winterbottom's window. Will killed 98 out of 100 birds.
 E. Hoselton was up from Preston Monday making preparations for his large public sale to be conducted at his home near Preston on the fourteenth of this month.
 Ike Lyons Jr., who is on the pacific coast in the interest of the Gilligan company writes that he attended a bull fight in Mexico a week ago Sunday. He says its about as exciting as ping pong.
 Did you ever see a crowd drink from a loving cup? We saw a bunch of male and female sports doing this stunt in a Kansas City hotel one night this week. It looked like they were all spitting in it.
 Ed Howe gives his celebrated illustrated lecture on his trip around the world, in Hiawatha this week. Why can't Falls City have this lecture? We have more right to Mr. Howe than Hiawatha.
 James S. Bennett has moved from his former location east of this city to a farm six miles southwest of here. The first of the week he moved his herd of fine white hogs to their new quarters, there being seventeen of them. Two of the coming two year olds weighed thirteen hundred and sixty-two while the May pigs averaged two hundred and ninety pounds.

District court again this week.
 Lettuce is now on the market in this city.
 Now what do you think of the ground hog.
 The Miles will case will be tried March 19.
 Will it be a license and no license fight again?
 The vinegar factory has its product on the market.
 The streets were crowded Saturday not withstanding the mud.
 The frost is out of the ground and its time to plant sweet peas.
 Dr. H. T. Hahn, veterinarian, made a professional trip to Nemaha Sunday and Monday.
 Mrs. Wm. Cade who has been on the sick list for the past week is now on the road to recovery.
 Judge Kelligar rode the goat at the Elks last Friday night in a most dignified and judicial way.
 Charlie Hofer returned to Kansas City the first of this week after a ten days visit with friends here.
 Mr. and Mrs. John W. Towle, of Omaha, who have been spending the winter in Havana, Cuba, will return within a few days.
 Why wouldn't it be a good idea to have the band give sacred concerts at the park each Sunday afternoon during the summer?
 Guy Huston has been absent from his duties at the Powell grocery store this week on account of being troubled with several very painful boils.
 William H. Crook and John Crook spent the first of the week at Holton, Kansas beginning on an eighty thousand dollar water works contract for the Gilligan Company.
 It would surprise you if you knew the number of phonographs there are in the country. The musical department at Reavis & Abbey's requires the constant attention of one man to run.
 John Dorrington left for Seattle, Washington, Sunday afternoon. He has accepted a position with a prominent lumber company in Washington and probably make his future home in the far west.
 Friday and Saturday were big days at the banks. March 1st is clearance day. Tenants making or renewing leases, deeds delivered, transfers made and the banker jumping seven ways for Sunday trying to keep up.
 Peter Frederick is reported to have killed so many ducks one day last week, that a report would result in game warden Berry getting busy. Not having seen the ducks and being from Missouri, we will reserve further comment.
 A. J. Weaver disposed of a tract of land in Tacoma, Washington, this week for forty thousand dollars that he and his brother Larry purchased for ten thousand about a year ago. I guess that isn't going some.
 Mrs. Young, of Springfield, Ill., who will be remembered as Miss Flora Savoye formerly one of the teachers in our schools, spent a few days last week visiting Mrs. Isham Reavis. Mrs. Young was en route home from California.
 Simon Davies returned from Chester, Nebraska, Thursday of last week. Mr. Davies, who is one of the best contractors in the state, has closed a large contract at the above place. Mr. and Mrs. Davies will leave in April and will probably spend the summer as the contract will require several months to complete.
 Mr. Funk, one of the most noted of American writers, has written a book antagonistic to spiritualistic phenomena. In it he gives the article by David Abbot recently published in The Tribune concerning the Ohio lady and her marvelous horn. The Kansas City Star of Sunday contained the article together with an excellent picture of Mr. Abbot.

 Philip Schlater had the misfortune to severely burn his arm with steam on Friday evening of last week, and was absent from his place in the composing room for several days on account of the injury.
 John W. White was up from his home near Topeka, Kansas, the latter part of the week attending to business affairs. Jack is pleased with his new location the land being well improved and of good location.
 Walter Price, of Valley Falls, Kansas, who has been residing in this city for the past year, left Monday for Los Angeles, California. Walter made a number of friends in this city all of whom are sorry of his departure.
 Daniel Unkefer, who came here about a year ago and since that time has resided in this city left the fore part of the week for his home at Valley Falls, Kansas. He is a mighty fine fellow and will be missed by Falls City folks.
 Tommy Frank was called to Kansas City Tuesday because of the serious illness of Tom McLane. Mr. Frank returned on Wednesday reporting Tom as some better, but far from well. Mr. McLane has been ill for several months.
 Lou Godfirnon who was kicked in the eye about two weeks ago by a horse went to Kansas City Tuesday to consult a specialist concerning the injury. If it is found necessary to remove the eye, Dr. Patterson, of Kansas City will perform the operation.
 We notice that a party of farmers of Sunny Valley, northeast of this city have purchased a fine imported stallion from Champlain Bros., of Clinton, Iowa, through their agent Samuel Surprise. The stallion is a beauty and weighs about 2,200 pounds. This is a very commendable purchase and will improve the farmer stock of horses.

Little boys have strange ideas of marriage.
 A party of hunters passed a south Chase street home Monday loaded with ducks. The head of the house, a six year old ran into the house with the inquiry. "Papa, can I buy a gun?" "Not on your life, solemnly replied the father." "Say, said the youngster "I'm going to get married some day, and the first thing I buy is going to be a gun."
