

Henry C. Smith LANDS & LOANS

FOR SALE—320 acres about 4 miles of Salem, upland. All fenced, new house 4 rooms, well and windmill, 150 acres cultivated, 20 acres meadow, 8 acres timber, balance pasture $40 per acre. Small payment down balance 10 years time 5 per cent. A bargain.

110 to 120 acres near Salem, bottom land. Good terms. Might rent for 1907. Handy to depot and town.

160 acres 2 miles of Falls City. 160 acres 2 1/2 miles of Stella. 160 acres Nuckolls Co., Neb. About 50 acres winter wheat, $40 per acre. 80 acres Brown county, Kas., 7 miles southeast of Hiawatha. Will take small house in Falls City as part pay. Good terms. 200 acres 3 miles Falls City, good, fair house. 160 acres Johnson county, good terms.

HUMBOLDT.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ab May Friday, March 1st.

Dr. A. E. Wolfe of Falls City was a Sunday visitor in Humboldt.

Dr. A. L. Brillhart spent Sunday with his parents near Tecumseh.

The quarantine sign was removed from the residence of Walter Legg on Tuesday.

Hugh Leatherman and Mark Williamson spent Sunday with Tecumseh friends.

Mrs. Norman C. Bulls of Kansas City was visiting relatives in Humboldt the past week.

Mrs. Frank Roy and baby were guests of Mrs. Roy Bain in Table Rock a part of this week.

Mrs. Minnie Unkefer was seriously ill the last of the week, but is now considerably improved.

The Canada party expect to leave about the middle of this month for their claims in the northwest.

Mrs. Mary Hlavaty moved her household effects to Lincoln this week where she will reside in the future.

Pool Grinstead and wife of Wathena, Kansas, visited at the home of R. L. Hoff and family the first of the week.

Mrs. Frank Porter was called to Dawson the last of the week by the death of her mother, Mrs. Alf Page.

Miss Birdie Fergus has accepted a position as book-keeper in the general merchandise store of Boyd & Lyford.

Rev. McClane a returned missionary from China gave an interesting talk at the Methodist church Sunday evening.

Mrs. Grace McMurray and son, Cooper, returned Friday from a several weeks visit with Mrs. Geo. Seabury in Chicago.

John Hartzell a number of years ago a resident of the Pleasant View settlement north of town, died recently at his home in Auburn.

Russell Brockman, who is attending the state agricultural school in Lincoln spent several days the past week with his parents in this city.

L. J. Segrist resigned as councilman from the second ward at a recent meeting of the city council. Jas. Kozel was appointed to fill the vacancy.

L. S. Hackett recently purchased the building lots of L. Howell in the north part of Humboldt and will erect a residence thereon the coming summer.

J. L. Segrist and E. C. Colhapp have traded their residence properties in the south part of town, and both families are now located in their new homes.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Beard, residing north of town, died Thursday last of pneumonia fever. Burial was made in the Bratton cemetery Friday.

Sam Turner left Monday for Morefield, Nebraska, where he will visit with his sister, Mrs. Ray Linn, and from there will go to Colorado to look for a location.

The R. O. Porak feed store on the south side of the square was badly damaged by fire Tuesday afternoon. It is thought the fire started by ashes from a pipe falling in some hay.

Oscar Leech and Harry Avery, who have been taking the short course in the state agricultural farm, completed their course last week and have returned to their homes north of town.

The twentieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Williams was celebrated at their home north of town Wednesday. The guests presented them with a set of Haviland china dishes.

Miss Hope Abbott resumed her duties in the school room Monday after a month's absence. Mrs. Borst, who had been teaching in her place, returned Tuesday to her home in Omaha.

Chas. Wedner and wife returned Friday from Hebron, Nebraska, where they have been spending the winter with their daughter, Mrs. Owen Bradley. They will occupy the cottage recently vacated by Jos. Wedner and family.

Harry Philpot, who has been employed the past winter with a surveying party in Wyoming and Montana, arrived in the city the middle of the week for a visit with his parents. He is compelled to take a lay off on account of a broken hand, which he received by falling from a wagon.

Miss Nellie Gandy, who has been teaching the Cottage school north of town the past winter, received a message that her mother, Mrs. W. O. Gandy, a former resident of Humboldt, was dangerously ill at her home at Peacock, Canada. Miss Gandy left Monday afternoon for the bedside of her mother.

James Patterson and sisters Frances and Doctie, left the middle of the week for Grand Junction, Colorado, where they will visit with a brother during the summer, and later leave for southern California, where they expect to remain. Their brother, Henry left Friday with a shipment of stock, for the above place.

Mrs. Frank Shalak, a highly respected Bohemian lady died very suddenly at her home southwest of Humboldt, at an early hour Wednesday morning. The deceased was a native of Bohemia and was in her forty seventh year when death occurred. The remains were interred in the Blecha cemetery.

Mrs. Ernest Harding, who has been a sufferer of tuberculosis for eight months past, died Sunday morning at her home on Long Branch street, aged forty-seven years. The deceased is survived by a husband and two daughters, Lulu and Hazel. The funeral services were held at the Christian church at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Bert Wilson. Burial was made in the cemetery west of town.

ORIO

Edith Peck is among the sick at this writing.

Della Knisely was a guest at Eph Peck's Sunday.

John Nolte and wife spent Sunday with Ed Zorn's.

Clem stump returned home from Lincoln last Thursday.

Wm. Neimeyer was a guest of his brother, Henry Sunday.

H. A. Burk and family were guests of the former's parents.

John Gerit commenced working for John Rieschick March 1st.

Dan Unkefer left for his home in Kansas the first of the week.

Mrs. Clay Peck was a guest of her sister last Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Geo. Sturm's visited last Wednesday with Mrs. Allie Dowty.

John Pappenhagen was a guest of Wm. Huetener Monday night.

Mrs. Geo. Johnston and children returned home from Stella Friday.

P. E. Shaffer and wife visited with Geo. Shouse and family Sunday.

Mrs. Geo. Pritchard was a guest of Mrs. N. Peck Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Dave Houtz of Verdon spent last Thursday at Frank Houtz and wife.

Mrs. Earl Shaffer and baby arrived here last Thursday from Council Bluffs Iowa.

Mrs. Joe Cully and Mrs. O. B. Pritchard spent last Thursday at Wallace Cully's.

Earl Shaffer and family spent Sunday at the county seat with his grandfather.

Wm. McGowen of Barada commenced working for Cleon Peck last week.

Ida Zentner will assist Mrs. Frank Uhlig with her household duties this summer.

Noah Peck and wife were guests of Henry Neimeyer and wife Sunday afternoon.

Rev. Brewer and wife were guests of Geo. Sturns and wife in Straussville last Friday.

Chas. and Lloyd Shouse were guests of Wm. Hutchison and Clarence Peck one day this week.

Mrs. C. P. Stump of Straussville was entertained at the home of her parents a part of last week.

Edna and Vera Shaffer and Kate Shouse were guests of Geo. Pritchard's Sunday afternoon.

Otto Huetener's moved Thursday on the farm recently vacated by J. W. Dodds and family.

Mrs. Ed Sailors and daughter of Howe were guests of Frank Houtz and wife Saturday night.

E. A. Maust of Falls City was a guest of his sister, Mrs. Geo. Peck last Tuesday afternoon.

Harry and Norman sailor left for Waterloo, Iowa, after spending almost a year in this locality.

Elmer O'mara had the misfortune to cut his hand quite badly on a wire fence at school last Friday.

Lloyd Peck and family from near Reserve were visiting the former's mother one day last week.

Wm. Bartlett went to Rulo last Saturday to attend the funeral of J. W. Hosford, which was the next afternoon.

The subject for debate at the silver Creek literary next Saturday night is "Resolved, That Congress is justified in passing a two cent rate law."

VERDON

Mrs. Clyde Harden went to Stella Friday.

Mrs. Frank Clark went to Falls City Saturday.

Katie Meliza was a Stella visitor on Saturday.

Dr. Houston of Falls City was in town Tuesday.

Joe Bruno went to Falls City last week to remain.

Mrs. Humphrey came home from Falls City Tuesday.

W. A. Moran made a business trip to Kansas City Sunday.

Mrs. Jim Ayers came home from the county seat Friday.

Mrs. Mike Meliza was a county seat visitor last Friday.

L. A. Kinsey came down from University Place Tuesday.

Mrs. Everling was a Rulo visitor the latter part of the week.

Geo. Lum was a county seat visitor the latter part of the week.

Fred Gibson made a business trip to the county seat Tuesday.

Clarence Clark came up from Kansas City the middle of the week.

Mrs. Ira Houtz went to Falls City Saturday for a few days visit.

Frank Dietrich and wife were business visitors to Falls City Friday.

Mrs. O. P. Veal and family spent Sunday with relatives at Auburn.

Gertrude Lum went to Forest City, Mo., Wednesday on a visit to relatives.

Verna Wilkinson went to Falls City Friday, returning home the next day.

Rev. W. C. Brewer and daughter of Maple Grove were in town last Wednesday.

Amret Hart returned home Thursday after spending about ten days at St. Joseph.

Mrs. Lucy Cornell went to Auburn Sunday to visit with her daughter, Mrs. McManus.

Mrs. Pearl Riley of Nebraska City spent Sunday with Mrs. Lillie Wilkinson in this city.

Dr. Houston of Nebraska City was in town the first of the week on professional business.

Chas. Henderson and wife went to Rulo Saturday to visit their son, Dr. Henderson and family.

Florence Judd went to Dawson on Friday and remained until Sunday visiting her parents, Leroy Judd and wife.

Mrs. Pearl Sloan and son went to Falls City Saturday and remained a few days the guest of her parents, John Hossack and wife.

SALEM

Mrs. Ed May was in Falls City Tuesday.

Cass Moore left for Long Island Sunday.

Tom Gaston, of Morrill, was in town Saturday.

Walt Billings was a Salem visitor Saturday.

Miss Douglass was a county seat visitor Saturday.

Dr. A. Keller, of Falls City, was in Salem Tuesday.

Fred Shock, of Nebraska City, visited in Salem Tuesday.

Cass Moore and wife drove to the county seat Monday.

Mrs. B. Shire, of Dawson, was a Salem visitor last week.

Mrs. Joe Urndell and Florence Jones drove to Falls City Saturday.

Mrs. Rile Spurgin, Morrill, Kansas, was a Salem visitor Monday.

Ella Spurlock returned home Tuesday from a visit at Falls City.

Mrs. Will Davis, of Auburn, came Sunday for a visit with Ora Davis.

Florence Saville came down from Humboldt Saturday for a visit over Sunday.

Nellie Stewart came over from Dawson Saturday for a visit over Sunday with friends.

Mabel Shire, of Dawson, visited Saturday and Sunday with Dr. Waggoner and wife.

The Salem Social club was entertained by Mrs. Harry Schrader Wednesday afternoon.

H. Beebe arrived Friday evening from Pawnee City for a visit with his daughter, Mrs. M. A. Graves.

Mrs. M. A. Graves entertained a number of ladies to dinner Tuesday in honor of her mother Mrs. H. Beebe.

Mrs. Dan Scott, of Morrill, Kansas, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. W. Boyd, returned to her home Tuesday.

A number of young people gave a farewell surprise party for Miss Lettie Stewart, who removed this week with her parents to Falls City. Refreshments were served and a good time was enjoyed by all.

PRESTON

E. Hoselton was a passenger to Falls City Monday.

Sadie Daeschner returned to Falls City Monday.

Edna Murphy returned home from Rulo Monday.

The harness maker has been kept busy this week.

J. B. Whipple was transacting business here Friday.

Edward Gilbert of Rulo was a Preston caller Friday.

W. C. Margrave was a county seat visitor Saturday.

B. C. Zoeller returned home from the west Tuesday.

Lawrence Whalen was a caller here one day this week.

Fanny Ziegler was a passenger to the county seat Saturday.

C. C. Shelly was a passenger to the county seat Saturday.

Mr. Glasscock and wife drove to the county seat Monday.

Mrs. Geo. Davis returned to her home in Rulo Monday.

Milt Zimmerman was transacting business here Monday.

Wm. Story and wife spent Saturday with relatives in this city.

Tom Cook was up from the ranch and visited here Sunday.

Dr. Henderson of Rulo was a caller here the first of the week.

Mr. Sweeney of Rulo was a business caller here Monday.

George Davis and wife of Rulo were visitors in this city Tuesday.

Dan Zimmerman of Fort Hazel was a business caller here Tuesday.

Mrs. H. P. Rieger and children drove to Falls City Tuesday.

H. J. Kloepfel of Fort Hazel was a business caller here Tuesday.

Born to John Molar and wife a baby boy on Wednesday, Feb. 27th.

Wm. Bush left for Witcox Monday to work with the fence gang.

Born to Edward Scheitle and wife a baby girl on Tuesday, Feb. 26.

E. Hazleton made a business trip to the Indian reservation Thursday.

J. S. Wilson of Margrave ranch was a business visitor here Saturday.

Dr. Houston of Falls City made a professional trip to Preston Monday.

Chas. Zoeller was a business visitor to the county seat the first of the week.

Mr. Turner and wife of Kansas came to this city Wednesday where they will make their future home.

Several young people from Reserve were fishing at the Horse Shoe lake east of this city one day this week.

Edward Bush and Orville Meyers went to Rulo Sunday. The latter returned to his work on the fence gang.

A birthday party was given in honor of Johnnie Netzel Wednesday evening. There were not many present on account of the bad weather. A nice supper was served at 12 o'clock.

RULO.

G. D. Harris is on the sick list this week.

Emma Smith was on the sick list last week.

Ben Lunsford has moved from Missouri to Rulo.

Harvey Smith was a Falls visitor on last Thursday.

E. C. Walbridge was a business visitor here Monday.

Ed Davis made a business trip to St. Joseph last Friday.

Charlie McWain is working in the coal sheds this week.

Geo. E. Ward was on the sick list several days last week.

Mrs. J. A. McDonald returned from St. Joseph last Saturday.

John White has moved into his property in the south part of town.

A. F. Sherman of Table Rock was a Rulo visitor on Monday last.

John Kanaly shipped a car load of cattle to St. Joseph Tuesday night.

Maggie Cronin of Omaha is visiting home folks and other friends this week.

Steve Cunningham shipped a car load of hogs to St. Joseph Tuesday night.

The pile driver is doing work here at this time and will be kept busy for some time.

Charlie Miller moved last Wednesday to the property known as the old Whipple place.

Mr. and Mrs. Henderson of Verdon have been visiting with their son, Dr. Henderson, of this place.

Onie Graham, our genial ferryman, is happy again; the river is clear of ice and he can run his ferry boat.

Mr. Cely of Highland Station moved to Rulo last week. They occupy the house lately owned by George Phiney.

M. C. Bail, wife and son arrived here from Los Angeles, Cal., on Monday last. They left Rulo for White Cloud on the 4:40 train Monday evening.

Charles Caverzagie is critically ill at this time, a few days ago he washed one of his toes and blood poison has set in, and hopes are feared for his recovery.

Henry Belpier resigned as city clerk last Tuesday night. George E. Ward was appointed to fill the vacancy. Henry expects to leave for Colorado in the near future.

H. A. Scott commenced the work of unloading rock and making necessary repairs on the revetment works. The work commenced Monday morning, and employs quite a force of men.

John Martinosky had a sale last Saturday to dispose of his live stock, farming implements and other things too numerous to mention. John expects to leave in a few days for Oklahoma where he has purchased land.

James Hosford, who died on Wednesday, was buried Sunday. The funeral was held at the M. E. church. The church was full and a large crowd outside who could not gain an entrance to the church. Rev. Maze of Salem preached an impressive sermon, a sermon which all of the vast congregation might profit by. The Fraternal Order of Free Masons conducted the funeral according to the rites of their order, the lodge attending in a body, several members of the Falls City lodge assisting. The pall bearers were members of the lodge to which the deceased belonged. Beautiful flowers rested on the casket of him who slept so peacefully. Mr. Hosford was among the oldest settlers of this community, having settled here in 1860, and the familiar smiling face will be missed by all. He was a good citizen, a kind neighbor, a loving husband and father. He leaves a wife and five children; two sons are at home, one daughter resides in Denver, one in California. The daughter from California only arrived Saturday night, but the one son who resides in Colorado could not be present at the funeral. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community in this their saddest hour and may the Father of Fatherless comfort them in their sorrow.

John Martinosky had a sale last Saturday to dispose of his live stock, farming implements and other things too numerous to mention. John expects to leave in a few days for Oklahoma where he has purchased land.

James Hosford, who died on Wednesday, was buried Sunday. The funeral was held at the M. E. church. The church was full and a large crowd outside who could not gain an entrance to the church. Rev. Maze of Salem preached an impressive sermon, a sermon which all of the vast congregation might profit by. The Fraternal Order of Free Masons conducted the funeral according to the rites of their order, the lodge attending in a body, several members of the Falls City lodge assisting. The pall bearers were members of the lodge to which the deceased belonged. Beautiful flowers rested on the casket of him who slept so peacefully. Mr. Hosford was among the oldest settlers of this community, having settled here in 1860, and the familiar smiling face will be missed by all. He was a good citizen, a kind neighbor, a loving husband and father. He leaves a wife and five children; two sons are at home, one daughter resides in Denver, one in California. The daughter from California only arrived Saturday night, but the one son who resides in Colorado could not be present at the funeral. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community in this their saddest hour and may the Father of Fatherless comfort them in their sorrow.

John Martinosky had a sale last Saturday to dispose of his live stock, farming implements and other things too numerous to mention. John expects to leave in a few days for Oklahoma where he has purchased land.

James Hosford, who died on Wednesday, was buried Sunday. The funeral was held at the M. E. church. The church was full and a large crowd outside who could not gain an entrance to the church. Rev. Maze of Salem preached an impressive sermon, a sermon which all of the vast congregation might profit by. The Fraternal Order of Free Masons conducted the funeral according to the rites of their order, the lodge attending in a body, several members of the Falls City lodge assisting. The pall bearers were members of the lodge to which the deceased belonged. Beautiful flowers rested on the casket of him who slept so peacefully. Mr. Hosford was among the oldest settlers of this community, having settled here in 1860, and the familiar smiling face will be missed by all. He was a good citizen, a kind neighbor, a loving husband and father. He leaves a wife and five children; two sons are at home, one daughter resides in Denver, one in California. The daughter from California only arrived Saturday night, but the one son who resides in Colorado could not be present at the funeral. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community in this their saddest hour and may the Father of Fatherless comfort them in their sorrow.

John Martinosky had a sale last Saturday to dispose of his live stock, farming implements and other things too numerous to mention. John expects to leave in a few days for Oklahoma where he has purchased land.

James Hosford, who died on Wednesday, was buried Sunday. The funeral was held at the M. E. church. The church was full and a large crowd outside who could not gain an entrance to the church. Rev. Maze of Salem preached an impressive sermon, a sermon which all of the vast congregation might profit by. The Fraternal Order of Free Masons conducted the funeral according to the rites of their order, the lodge attending in a body, several members of the Falls City lodge assisting. The pall bearers were members of the lodge to which the deceased belonged. Beautiful flowers rested on the casket of him who slept so peacefully. Mr. Hosford was among the oldest settlers of this community, having settled here in 1860, and the familiar smiling face will be missed by all. He was a good citizen, a kind neighbor, a loving husband and father. He leaves a wife and five children; two sons are at home, one daughter resides in Denver, one in California. The daughter from California only arrived Saturday night, but the one son who resides in Colorado could not be present at the funeral. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community in this their saddest hour and may the Father of Fatherless comfort them in their sorrow.

John Martinosky had a sale last Saturday to dispose of his live stock, farming implements and other things too numerous to mention. John expects to leave in a few days for Oklahoma where he has purchased land.

James Hosford, who died on Wednesday, was buried Sunday. The funeral was held at the M. E. church. The church was full and a large crowd outside who could not gain an entrance to the church. Rev. Maze of Salem preached an impressive sermon, a sermon which all of the vast congregation might profit by. The Fraternal Order of Free Masons conducted the funeral according to the rites of their order, the lodge attending in a body, several members of the Falls City lodge assisting. The pall bearers were members of the lodge to which the deceased belonged. Beautiful flowers rested on the casket of him who slept so peacefully. Mr. Hosford was among the oldest settlers of this community, having settled here in 1860, and the familiar smiling face will be missed by all. He was a good citizen, a kind neighbor, a loving husband and father. He leaves a wife and five children; two sons are at home, one daughter resides in Denver, one in California. The daughter from California only arrived Saturday night, but the one son who resides in Colorado could not be present at the funeral. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community in this their saddest hour and may the Father of Fatherless comfort them in their sorrow.

John Martinosky had a sale last Saturday to dispose of his live stock, farming implements and other things too numerous to mention. John expects to leave in a few days for Oklahoma where he has purchased land.

James Hosford, who died on Wednesday, was buried Sunday. The funeral was held at the M. E. church. The church was full and a large crowd outside who could not gain an entrance to the church. Rev. Maze of Salem preached an impressive sermon, a sermon which all of the vast congregation might profit by. The Fraternal Order of Free Masons conducted the funeral according to the rites of their order, the lodge attending in a body, several members of the Falls City lodge assisting. The pall bearers were members of the lodge to which the deceased belonged. Beautiful flowers rested on the casket of him who slept so peacefully. Mr. Hosford was among the oldest settlers of this community, having settled here in 1860, and the familiar smiling face will be missed by all. He was a good citizen, a kind neighbor, a loving