

BACK TO HOME

Back to the farm! That's where you get good coffee. None of that "fresh roasted loose by the pound" store stuff from nobody knows where, full of dust, atmosphere and soiled hands, but the real old, genuine egg and sugar coated Arbuckles' ARIOSA Coffee, which the folks keep in the original package and grind in the kitchen.

That's Coffee!
Complies with all requirements of the National Pure Food Law. Guarantee No. 2040, filed at Washington.

Committing Suicide.

The editor was traveling recently on a sleeping car. In the berth above him was a man whose nervous restlessness he had occasion to note more than once during the night. He had not met this fellow-traveler before retiring, and so found himself wondering what could be the matter. The mystery was explained the next morning. The guest of the high perch was the first passenger out of bed. Awakened by his descent, the editor decided to get up too. Upon entering the dressing room he met his neighbor of the night for the first time. He was surprised to discover, in the first place, that he was quite a young man. But though he was, his face wore a haggard expression that made him appear almost old, and his trembling hands, hacking cough, and nervous manner betokened a state of extreme physical debility. The editor's silent comment was: "That young man will be in his grave in a short while." Meanwhile, the porter having brought his suit case, the young fellow drew forth a bottle of whisky and, having courteously offered to share the contents with his fellow-passenger, proceeded to drink a quantity of the liquid poison that to the unsophisticated editor was quite amazing. He then opened a case of cigarettes and began to smoke. After a half hour's vigorous puffing he took another drink and then proceeded to smoke again.

Reaching his destination at length the editor left the train; but all through the day that weary, haggard face, on which the prophecy of early death was so clearly written, haunted him. How sad, how pitiful it all seemed! The young man had evidently been brought up amid gentle surroundings. His speech and manner were those of a cultivated gentleman. And yet he was actually destroying himself, both soul and body, by the use of these poisons; for that is precisely what they are and the youth who uses them is just as certainly committing suicide as is the man who takes strychnine or arsenic. The only difference is that the latter poisons kill at once, while the former often stretch out the dying process through years of misery. Why will young men be foolish? Why do boys sometimes imagine that it is manly to do what the filthiest and most ignorant street gamins can do? The manly things in conduct are the things that make for real manhood, and real manhood at its best means a sound mind in a sound body. Good healthy sport in the open air is manly; so is hard honest work. But vices that weaken both body and mind are unmanly and wicked.—Selected.

Back In '65.

Forty two years ago the eighteenth day of March was a memorable day for Dr. J. C. Yutzky of this city. It was then that the great Civil war was waging and the country was so surely divided. The doctor was then living but a few miles from the Maryland line and enlisted in the army of the Blue. He was captured in one of the battles and together with many others was put in the southern prison. On the twentysecond day of February Dr. Yutzky was liberated from prison and with other paroled prisoners was taken home via the Atlantic ocean, arriving at his home on the eighteenth day March, 1865. He was weak from sickness and the lack of the necessities of life and for many weeks his recovery was doubtful. Many other of the civil war boys remember the year of '62.

Coughs and colds contracted at this season of the year should have immediate attention. Bees Laxative Cough Syrup, contains Honey and Tar and is unequalled for hoarseness, croup and coughs. Pleasant to take; mothers endorse it; children like to take it. Contains no opiates. Moves the bowels. Sold by A. G. Wanner.

Test Proves Quality.

Col. Marion has just closed one of the greatest and most successful spring seasons of any since he has been in the autioneering business selling since January 1st up to March 16th, about one hundred and thirty five thousand dollars worth of stock and never in the history of this county has material sold for such high prices as they are selling today. During this time he sold a team of mares for six hundred and two dollars and a half, sold a milk cow for seventy two dollars, a pair of mules for four hundred and seventy dollars, a brood sow for two hundred and twenty dollars, and chickens as high as eight dollars and a quarter per dozen. We would like to hear from the other autioneers from these parts and see if this record can be beaten. Col. Marion has had few equals in crying sales and his services are greatly in demand. The prices here quoted certainly show the prosperity of the country and also the high grade of the material.

Everything But—

"Just look, dear. Don't you think I am a real automobile girl? What of my automobile veil?"
"It is beautiful."
"And this automobile coat. Isn't it becoming to my figure?"
"Wonderfully."
"And the automobile cap. Did you ever see anything set so fetching?"
"Never."
"And even my hair is in a beautiful automobile trousle. Isn't it grand?"
"Indeed it is, dear, but—but—where is your automobile?"
"Oh, I haven't a machine yet, but after I save up 10,000 baking powder labels and 20,000 soap wrappers, and all the cigarette coupons the young men give me, I'll get one in no time. It won't take over ten years at the longest."

The Deadly Tongue.

The second most deadly instrument of destruction is the dynamite gun. The gun merely kills bodies; The tongue kills reputation and oftentimes ruins characters. Each gun works alone; each loaded tongue has a hundred accomplices. The havoc of the gun is visible at once. The full evil of the tongue lives through all the years; even the eye of Omniscience might grow tired in tracing it to its finality. The crimes of the tongue are words of unkindness, of anger of malice, of envy, of bitterness, of harsh criticism, gossip, lying and scandal. Theft and murder are awful crimes, yet in any single year the aggregate sorrow, pain and suffering they cause in a nation is microscopic when compared with the sorrows that come from the crimes of the tongue.—William George Jordan.

Season of 1907

Fritz Will make the coming season, beginning April 1st, as follows:

From Saturday evening until Monday evening at my farm three miles south of Barada, the balance of the time at my barn in Barada. Fritz is a coach horse and is so well known here that he needs no description.

Nick Will make the season at the same place on the same dates as Fritz. Nick is a five-year-old coal black Mammoth Jack, with white points, very well proportioned and has proven to be an excellent breeder and sure foal getter. You will make no mistake in breeding to Nick if you are looking for a rangy, well built mule.

Tom Will make the season at the same place and on the same date as above described. Tom is a Black Percheron Horse five years old, weighing 1700 pounds and is well proportioned, with plenty of bone. Come and see these animals before breeding elsewhere.

TERMS: $10.00 to insure a colt to stand and suck. When mares are sold, traded or leave the vicinity, service money becomes due and payable. Care will be taken to prevent accidents but will not be responsible should any occur.

Why you Should not Kill Birds.

Because our laws forbid it.
Because they are of no use when dead.
Because nobody has a right to take the life of any animal except for food or self protection.
Because they are harmless and have a right to live.
Because it is cowardly to kill them when they trust us, and gather about us to cheer us with their song.
Because they act as a police force in keeping things in nature balanced.
Because they are objects of study and no other animal could take their place.
Because in their instincts, migrations, nest building, food habits and distribution they symbolize the perfection of the Divine school of life.
Because it is estimated by the best authorities we have, that during the stay of the birds in Nebraska each season they destroy more than three million bushels of noxious worms and insects. Think of the consequences if the birds were all exterminated.

The Nebraska Law.

It shall be unlawful for any person in the state of Nebraska to kill, injure or harm any robin, lark, thrush, bluebird, kingbird, wren, jay, swallow, oriole, woodpecker, yellowhammer, cuckoo, yellowbird, bobolink, or other bird or birds of like nature that promote agriculture or horticulture by feeding on noxious worms and insects, or that are attractive in appearance or cheerful in song. Provided, that hawks and owls may be killed on one's own premises. It shall be unlawful for any person to destroy nests and eggs or carry away the eggs or young of any of the birds described in this section. Provided, that schools, colleges and universities may, when authorized so to do by the game and fish commissioner, take or kill for educational or scientific purposes, not to exceed twenty-five (25) in number of any one species or kind of birds protected by this section. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be fined five dollars ($5.00) for each bird killed, injured, or harmed, and a like sum for each nest taken or destroyed.
