More Spraying.

Congressman Pollard has made arrangements with the Agricultural Department to continue the demonstration work in spraying fruit trees in this district that was begun last year. Samples of sprayed and unsprayed fruit were shown at the State Fair last fall which clearly proved the value of this work. The following orchardists will cooperate with the Department in the several counties:

Michael Meliza, Verdon.
Albert Steak, Burchard.
Horace Shafer, South Auburn.
Ira E. Atkinson, Havelock.
Nelson Overton, Nebraska City.
Experiments will also be carried on in the development of an improved variety of corn and also in developing a variety of both wheat and oats that will give a better yield and be rust resistant. Still other experiments will be made with forage crops, emmer and winter barley. The former is said to be similar to alfalfa. The following parties will co-operate with the Department in these cereal experiments:

Frederick Scholl, Falls City.
E. E. Willis, Waverly.
E. G. Jury, Tecumseh.
EMMER, SPRING AND WINTER.
John Gonzales, Elmwood.
J. M. Armstrong, Auburn.

Market Letter.

Kansas City Stock Yards, March 25, 1907. Last week closed with heavy beef steers dull, and 15 to 20 cents lower for the week, medium weights 5 to 15 lower, while steers under 1250 pounds remained steady and in strong demand. Cows, heifers and butcher stuff generally sold stronger toward the close of the week, stockers and feeders not much changed. The supply is 13,000 head today, market steady on heifers, calves and the best country grades, other cattle 5 to 10 lower. Hot weather is responsible for the slump in demand for heavy steers, and a break of 1 to 3 cents per pound in hide values last week and declining markets for fat and other by-products were other bad features. Apparently there remains a large percentage of fed cattle yet to be marketed in the near future, and little prospects is held out for any gain in prices at present. Receipts for March so far show a substantial increase over same period last March, although March last year held the record for that month in cattle receipts here. Choice steers are extremely scarce today, bulk of sales going at $4.75 to $5.25, with prime steers worth $5.75 to $6.25. Spring like weather always shifts the demand to lighter cuts of beef, favoring heifers and yearling most. Cows sell at $2.75 to $4.50, heifers $3.75 to $5.25, yearlings last week up to $5.40. Veal calves sell at $6.00 to $7.00, heavy calves $3.50 to $4.50, bulls $3.25 to $4.25, stockers $3.75 to $4.90, feeders $4.60 to $5.20.

Although hog prices are going down rapidly, and regularly, and the run is liberal, there does not seem to be any panic among shippers to get in before the bottom is reached. The quality averages as good as could be desired any time. Conservative traders look for a check in the decline when $6.00 is reached, and not much before that time. Run is 9000 today, market 10 lower, late sales sometimes worse than that, top $6.15, bulk of sales $6.05 to $6.15. Heavy hogs are now 2 1/2 to 5 cents below medium and light weights.

Run of sheep and lambs is 13,000 today, market steady. The market declined 10 to 20 cents last week, due mainly to mean markets elsewhere, as the supply was moderate here, at 37,000. Top lambs today sold at $7.80, other sales at $7.65, against $7.75 to $7.85 last Monday. Wethers are worth $5.60 to $6.00, yearlings $6.15 to $6.70, ewes $5.35 to $5.60.

One Like Her.

A large touring automobile containing a man and his wife in a narrow road met a hay wagon fully loaded. The woman declared that the farmer must back out, but her husband contended that she was unreasonable.

"But you can't back the automobile so far," she said, "and I don't intend to move for anybody. He should have seen us."

The husband pointed out that this was impossible owing to a abrupt turn in the road.

"I don't care," she insisted, "I won't move if we have to stay here all night."

The man in the automobile was starting to argue the matter when the farmer, who had been sitting quietly on the hay, interrupted.

"Never mind, sir," he exclaimed, "I'll try to back out. I've got one just like her at home."—Philadelphia Ledger.

ministers as having been collected on their respective fields of labor.

Bishop Horn from Cleveland, Ohio, took the chair Thursday morning and conducted the conference very ably throughout.

Rev. C. E. Platz of Holton, Kans., was elected P. E. to take the place of his brother, M. C. Platz. Sixty-nine ministers were present while four others could not attend on account of sickness in their families.

Rev. J. H. Lamb of Cleveland, Ohio, Rev. G. Johnson of Naperville, Ill., Rev. T. C. Meckel of Erie, Pa., and Rev. J. Wellner of Chicago, Ill., were present to represent the various interests of the church in the United States.

Mr. Frank Daeschner of Hiawatha, Kans., is elected lay delegate to general conference.

Sunday was the crowning day. Services began with a praise meeting led by Rev. H. Mattill, followed by a sermon by the bishop and after the sermon missionary subscriptions were taken by Rev. T. C. Meckel. The spirit of giving was upon the people and the commendable sum of $3,370.00 was raised for the mission treasurer of the Kansas conference. The collection for the bishop was $46.00. At night the bishop preached the ordination sermon, after which Revs. E. J. Feitz, E. F. Boehringer, J. Haber, W. Pittker and W. Russell were ordained elders.

The bishop read the following appointments for the preachers:

The Kansas annual conference of the Evangelical association held its forty-third session in the Zion church six miles west of Falls City, March 19-24.

SIGN LANGUAGE FOR AUTOS.

Speeding Motorists Saved Thousands of Dollars in Fines.

As the automobile tore down the road a man leaped from behind a hedge and hopped back and forth on one leg.

With a serious look the driver slowed down.

"The motor cops are timing us," he said. "I'd have been run in for fast speeding but for our friend there."

"Who is he, and why did he hop?"

"He is a servant of the club. It is his duty to patrol this road and to give automobilists warning if he finds they are being timed by motor cops. The warning must be given by signs, otherwise the warden would be run in for obstructing justice."

"Every club has different signs. For instance, in Connecticut you are warned by a man who throws his hat in the air and catches it. In California the warden makes circles in the air with both hands. In Massachusetts he shakes his fist at you."

"So it goes, and by these warnings automobilists are saved the payment of thousands and thousands of dollars in fines."

NOT HIS WHOLE INCOME.

Ethel—Jack says that when we are married he will give me all the money he earns.

Maud—Did he say anything about the money he doesn't earn?

WHEN LOVE IS YOUNG.

They had reached that stage of the engagement when there is usually more or less speculation as to the future on the part of the bride to be.

"It doesn't seem, Tom, dear, that we could ever speak a cross word to each other, does it, dearest?" she murmured from his coat lapel.

"Never, sweetheart!" declared Tom, stoutly.

"But, dear," she persisted, "if—mind I say if—if some morning the steak should be burned and the coffee cold, and you were tempted to be just a bit—just a teeny wee bit cross, what would you do?"

She looked up into his face anxiously, and he felt that his reply must be one that would fully reassure her. After a moment's thought he exclaimed, triumphantly: "I'd go down town and get my breakfast."—Puck.

NO MORE EXPERIMENTING.

After a year of mourning the widower was ready to go up against the matrimonial game once more.

"Dearest," he said, addressing the prospective No. 2, "are you sure you can be content with love in a cottage?"

"Yes, indeed," she answered, "I'll be contented as long as love lasts."

"Um—yes," said the man, whose experience had endowed him with some wisdom, "I guess we had better wait until I can afford a regular house."

REALISTIC.

Critick—Yes, D'Auber is home from his trip to the Rocky mountains. He put in most of his time making sketches of the mountain peaks. He showed me a lot of them.

Ascum—How were they? Natural?

Critick—Well, they're certainly rocky.

ALL HIS OWN.

"Yes," said Woodby, "this is my coat-of-arms."

"By the way," remarked Gaddie, "do you know that Sneerwell has been telling everybody that it's not really your coat-of-arms at all?"

"The idea! Why, I designed it myself."
