It now looks as though Harry K. Thaw would reach the asylum instead of the chair.

Bert Baker, Will Uhiig and John Crook were elected by overwhelming majorities.

City election and the next day it rained. Now for the upbuilding and betterment of Falls City.

It is Mayor Barrett by 87 majority. Surely this is an endorsement of good government and an economic administration.

We wonder if the News still feels quite certain that Barrett will do for mayor. It is a peculiar trait of some people to always howl harmony but must be consulted at all times as regards the material used in the erection of a palace to live in.

The Building & Loan association that was recently organized in this city will be a great factor in Falls City's growth. With this organization at hand there is no occasion for renters in the town, all may secure a home and pay for the same just as you would pay rent—only you get the deed some day.

The Indianapolis News has an interesting article on the resuscitation of some canal projects that were exploited long ago. The canal fever preceded the railroad fever many years, and after having given way to the latter, is now becoming active again as a means of supplying additional and cheaper transportation. The fact that some of the canal projects of seventy or eighty years ago are now being revived rather tends to show that they have intrinsic merit.

Among the projects brought before congress during the early years of the internal improvement craze were for a canal from Chesapeake Bay to Lake Ontario; a canal from the Illinois river to Lake Michigan; a canal from Lake Champlain to Lake Ontario; from Lake Erie to the Wabash and Ohio rivers; from Lake Michigan to the Wabash river; from Lake Michigan to the Mississippi river; from Toledo, Ohio, to Lafayette, Indiana; from Wabash river to Missouri river; from Chicago to the Gulf of Mexico; from the Atlantic to the Pacific ocean; from Lake Michigan to the Atlantic ocean, and many others. All of these projects originated before the era of railroad building began, and they represented the intense desire of the people for better means of transportation and the freight rates, which were then excessively high. Congress made large land grants to some of them, and no doubt they would have been completed but for the ushering in of the railroad era, which soon occupied public attention to the exclusion of everything else. Now that the transportation business of the country has outgrown the capacity of the railroads to handle it and freight charges are higher than they should be, canal projects are again coming to the front, including some of those that were in favor two or three generations ago. The days of public land grants for internal improvements are passed, but there are indications that pressure will soon be brought to bear on congress for appropriations for canals.

WHY NOT?

About eight years ago a certain lady, not many miles from here, set about laying aside a part of the money she could spare from the sale of butter, eggs, chickens, garden stuff, etc., and deposited it in the

Falls City State Bank

The interest and accumulations were added every six months, a new interest bearing certificate of deposit issued and a few days ago when the certificate was renewed the amount exceeded $1,000.00. Why not try this plan?

When Kansas City tries to suppress a play it certainly must have reached the limit. The city heads tried to prevent the production of "Mrs. Warren's Profession" at the Willis-Wood but the federal court issued an injunction against the police and a crowded house was the result.

A couple of young farmers came to town Saturday last and after partaking freely of the fighting proclivities that are usually disbursed over the bar, happened to think of a few differences that needed their immediate attention. They proceeded to the alley to settle them and before they had fully convinced the other that he was the best man, Marshal Marts appeared upon the scene and took a hand which won out and touched the offenders of the law for $6.80 each. When you come to town to settle your differences it costs money.

County Board Meets.

The board of Supervisors are in regular session this week and are cleaning up business at a rapid rate. Nearly $8,000 has been expended for the payment of outstanding indebtedness with a few claims yet to hear from. This would be an opportune time for the board to note that the public nuisance is still in existence just west of the jail and to note the fact that much smaller and less able counties have long since placed toilet privileges throughout their court houses. It may be that we are to close to Missouri to be up-to-date.

"The Village Parson" one of the biggest successes on tour this season, will be offered at The Gehling Monday night April 8th. It is in four acts, is replete with genuine heart interest and clever comedy, and is said to be interpreted by an evenly balanced and exceptionally artistic company. A special scenic outfit is carried and the production as a whole has won untainted praise wherever it has been seen.

In addition to our regular large stock of Jewelry we have secured a number of Easter specialties.
