Harriman has joined the Belamy Storer, Walker, Stevens, et. al., brigade. Next.

"What's the matter with Falls City" published on another page of this issue may interest you as it seeks to answer the universal question.

The record made in the last legislature by Frank Shubert, Cass Jones and Albert Stadler is above reproach. The party is proud of them and their labor.

The uneasy and complaining "Jack" is in the land and many of the elusive little members of the snipe tribe are finding their way to the local breakfast tables.

Fred Herbster has invented what he calls "The brain storm cocktail" which we commend to our prohibition friends. The receipt is as follows: Take a large glass and fill it with shaved ice and let it thaw.

Speaking of the Harriman-Roosevelt controversy reminds one of the statement recently made by a distinguished senator to the effect "That it is too bad that so many of the president's friends turn out to be such dam liars."

Every local railroad attorney in Falls City has had his pass called in this week. If you want a real good time just go to the depot some time and see them buy a railroad ticket. If you can't go get on top of your house and see the smoke.

The Tribune lost its local editor last week, the space filler was down south, the devil had the measles and we had to get the city ballots out on time. Result—newspaper. It doesn't occur often so we expect your indulgence in this instance.

Speaking of "Hands across the sea," "The lion and the lamb," the peace conference at the Hague, the Treaty of Portsmouth and kindred subjects remind us that the local editor of The Tribune married the head pressman of the Journal last week. Now will you be good.

Belle Bolejack of Dawson one of the brightest little ladies in the county has been chosen to represent the Nebraska state Normal in the debate against Kansas Earl Cline of Falls City has been chosen by the same institution to represent this state against Missouri. Thus is it proved that we raise something down here besides bumper crops and fine stock.

The Ohio date line will occupy the public press over time when Roosevelt, Taft and Foraker get busy this summer and fall. You may say what you please about Foraker but you must admit that he is the only opponent of the President in the Senate who has the nerve to fight in the open. We don't want him nominated for President but we have a good deal of admiration of "Fire alarm Joe" concealed on or about our person just the same.

Harrison says Roosevelt asked him to raise money for the last national campaign. Roosevelt says he asked him to raise money for the state campaign in New York, and there you are. From the published correspondence it seems that Roosevelt is telling the truth and Harriman is lying. But as a republican and as an ardent admirer of the President we would have preferred to have the President refrain from asking Harriman for money for any campaign.

WHY NOT?

About eight years ago a certain lady, not many miles from here, set about laying aside a part of the money she could spare from the sale of butter, eggs, chickens, garden stuff, etc., and deposited it in the

Falls City State Bank

The interest and accumulations were added every six months, a new interest bearing certificate of deposit issued and a few days ago when the certificate was renewed the amount exceeded $1,000.00. Why not try this plan?

Buy your stamps at home; buy your cigar at home; buy your beer at home; buy your flour at home. Keep your money at home with your home merchants. Live and let live and see how Falls City goes ahead in the next twelve months.

The legislature has adjourned. The World Herald says "It is the best legislature the state has ever had," which is certainly high praise for a republican body coming from the source it does. All the pledges of the republican platform have been kept to the letter. Nor is that all; the pledges of the democratic platform have been kept as well. There is no question that some mistakes have been made, but there is this about it, whatever mistakes have been made are in favor of the people and against corporate interest. In the next campaign there will be no occasion for any republican to apologize for the acts of this body, neither will any explanations be asked or required.

The water service men placed an extra spout on the south side of the east water tank, this week, so the Atchison freight can get water on arriving without having to run out on the main line.

The Bachelor club girls gave a dance at the opera house on last Monday night, which was greatly enjoyed by all so fortunate as to be present. A large crowd and good order was the order of the evening. St. Joseph talent furnished the music. Supper was served at Frank Van Valkenburg's restaurant.

The bazar given by the ladies of the M. E. church Tuesday was very successful. The ladies cleared over $50, but still have a number of articles to sell. Both dinner and supper were served, and a large crowd of hungry people fed. The proceeds will go to help swell the fund for the new church which they wish to erect.

Among the improvement made at the Union House this week is a corner entrance in the south east corner which adds a good deal to the convenience and appearance of the office. The work of improving the building generally is well under way.

The Clegg property now occupied by Fred Keller is being treated to a coat of paint and otherwise improved.
