The convention of the Church of Christ of district number one was held at Verdon, April 2, 3 and 4th. This district comprises Richardson, Pawnee, Johnson and Nemaha counties, has about twenty churches and a membership of 25,000. The convention was the largest of its kind ever held. There being over ninety delegates from outside the city. It was very enthusiastic and pronounced the best ever held in district No. 1. Reports showed that the churches were generally enthusiastic and aggressive. There were sessions devoted to church work, Bible school, C. E., C. W. B. M. and Education. Some of the addresses that attracted attention were Convention Sermon by G. W. Welner, of Pawnee

City. Mr. Welner is a preacher of no mean ability. Another address by L. C. Coryell, of Auburn, on Business in Christianity and Christianity in Business was full of practical thoughts. L. Pettit's sermon on "The Nebraska Boy" was pronounced one of the best things of the entire convention. The Bible School session was exceptionally strong and practical. The address of A. J. Hollingsworth caused the admirers of Cotner University to rejoice in his enthusiasm for that worthy institution, pictures of college campus faculty and Cotner yells were in evidence. Much special music of high order was furnished by the Verdon church and the convention voted that Verdon was a royal entertainer. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, G. W. Welner; Vice President, Ray E. Hunt; Secretary and Treasurer, F. L. Pettit; C. E. Superintendent A. W. Rethemeyer; B. E. # IRRIGATED LAND!

Bargains in Real Estate in the great Arkansas Valley, the home of Alfalfa, the Sugar Beet and the famous Rocky Ford Cantaloupe. In 1906 Bent county, Colorado, shipped 750,000 pounds of wool and fattened 137,000 head of sheep at an average profit of $1 per head. Nearly five hundred acres of cantaloupes and melons were grown, that will average from one year to another about $75 an acre net, some growers realizing $300 per acre.

Hundreds of acres of sugar beets brought a net profit of $80 and in extreme cases over $200. Alfalfa produces an average of 3 1-4 tons per season, wheat from thirty-five to fifty-five bushels, and oats fifty to eighty. Can you afford to pay $100 per acre for land that under proper treatment, will produce its purchase price in one year? Come and see for yourself. Government authorities settled Las Animas as the location for the only Naval Sanitarium in the United States, because of the climate. Can you take a tip from Uncle Sam?

SOME OF OUR BARGAINS!
