

THE FALLS CITY TRIBUNE.

Vol. IV

FALLS CITY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, APRIL 19, 1907.

Whole No. 169

People you Know.

George F. Hinton was here the latter part of the past week on a visit to his brother, John Hinton, for many years a resident of this city. This is only about the third time that John has seen his brother in forty years. At the age of five years Mr. Hinton sent his brother George from New York to a sister living in California, where he resided until a young man, when he went to Wyoming gaining great influence there in the business world.

The other brother, Will Hinton, of Omaha, has charge of a gang of workmen on the C. B. & Q. working now at Rulo, and last Friday he came up from that place and the three brothers took dinner together, this being their first reunion for many, many years.

The following clipping taken from the March 28th issue of the Tribune, Cheyenne, Wyoming, has this to say of Mr. Hinton:

Hon. George F. Hinton, Lawmaker, Business man and Miner.

Every member of the House of the Ninth Legislature will recognize Geo. F. Hinton, for they all remember him as sitting on the safety valve of the session. Although it was his first term as a member of the legislature he early showed himself to be a man of unusual discernment, judgment and carefulness, applying the same tests to legislation as he would to a business proposition. Being an experienced miner, he knows enough not to approve a thing because it "looks good" but with impersonal scrutiny could be seen treating every bill as though it were a bit of shiny ore, not to be passed upon until it stood the application of the acid of common sense.

Although born in Pennsylvania Mr. Hinton came to Wyoming from California where his parents moved when he was an infant. In 1881 the young man struck out for himself and came to Wyoming settling at Encampment where he has since resided. He has extensive mining interests there and while he has taken little interest in politics, his nomination for the legislature was an expression of the high regard in which he is held by his associates.

Mr. Hinton is a prominent Mason and has lectured before a number of lodges throughout the state.

Mr. and Mrs. Hinton remained in Cheyenne some time after the close of the legislature and have made many friends in the capitol city, both in business and social circles.

Modern Methods.

We are just in receipt of a prospectus of the Nebraska Business University, the new business training school secured for Nebraska City by the Commercial Club of that city. It differs materially from any business college literature which we have previously read and contains the most positive proof of superiority ever offered by a school. Pres. Toland does not believe in bragging, he simply states facts, and the facts are so convincing that he will undoubtedly open his school with a full attendance, as nearly one hundred students are already secured. Those interested should secure a copy and learn what constitutes a modern business school. It will be sent free by addressing Nebraska Business University, Nebraska City, Nebr.

R. Reasoner was among the Shubert visitors in this city Friday last.

Cecil, Ruth and Agnes Kanaly of Rulo spent Saturday with friends in this city.

The Man From Missouri.

Through the courtesy of the Nebraska City News we are the recipient of the latest advertising literature of the Nebraska Business University. President Toland is not only a liberal advertiser, but he is also past master of the art of preparing convincing advertisements. The Man from Missouri is the clearest case of "Show me" ever offered by a school. It is good reading from "kiver to kiver" and like all advertising issued by the Toland schools is free from the bragging unreasonable claim and promises for which most business college literature is noted. It will pay any one to send for it and can be secured free of cost from the Nebraska Business University, Nebraska City, Nebr.

The Falls City Fishing Club.

A permanent organization consisting of citizens and business men of Falls City was formed last Saturday evening for the purpose of enforcing the State Game and Fish laws, and to vigorously prosecute any and all persons for illegal fishing in this county. The club will be known as The Falls City Fishing Club with the following officers which were elected: F. A. Keller, president; F. E. Farington, secretary; L. P. Wirth, treasurer; executive committee to be the president, secretary, Aaron Loucks, Gus Neitzel and Ward Knight.

The club when complete will consist of about 100 members, and vigorous steps will be taken to clear the Nemaha river to its mouth of violators of the fishing laws, and any person engaged in this unlawful business who wishes to escape the full benefit of the law will do well to stop at once.

David Berry received his commission from Deputy Game Warden Hungar, who came down from Lincoln to be present at the meeting, making two local game wardens for this county, who will receive the support of the club.

The state game warden in company with the local game warden, Mr. David Berry, and a club representative made their first trip down the Nemaha river on Monday to destroy seines, nets, traps, etc., and to arrest violators of the laws.

There is no question but what if the laws were enforced that there would be excellent fishing along the entire Nemaha river and its branches, and everyone who enjoys good fishing is earnestly requested to join the club and to assist in the work.

Everybody enjoys to go fishing, so let everyone help in this matter, and any person knowing of anyone having seines, nets, fish traps, trout lines over five books, using dynamite, selling fish, or violating the laws in any manner should turn in the names of the offenders to any officer of the club, and immediate action will be taken.

LATER—As a result of the first trip down the Nemaha river the game warden found and destroyed twenty-six traps, which was very gratifying to the club.

A High Time.

W. S. Frost, the manager of the premium stamp business in this city, evidently forgot the nature of his business the past week and imbibed too freely of moist goods, whereupon his conduct subsequently being such that Manager Spence was forced to eject him from his temporary quarters at the National. The company is an excellent one and we are sorry that their representative so far forgot his business as to indulge in such conduct.

Small Wreck.

There was a small wreck on the C. B. & Q. near Dawson Saturday evening. Passenger number 16 was late and trying to make up time. A west bound freight was taking the siding in order to allow the passenger to pass as it does not stop at that station. The freight was not quick enough in getting on the track as the other train crashed into the caboose splintering it. No other damage was sustained by either train.

Oliver Revival.

East Liverpool, Ohio, is experiencing a wonderful religious awakening under the leadership of F. E. Oliver. Nearly four hundred converts resulted from the meetings last Sunday.

Falls City will have this great man here in a similar campaign beginning May 12th. Get ready for it. It will be a great day for the county seat of Richardson county. Thousands of people from the surrounding country and towns are expected to attend these meetings. Now advertise Falls City.

Lost a Mule.

In some matters G. W. Stumbo of this city has been unfortunate for some time. Last June he was among those who went to Wyoming and hardly returned in time to spend Christmas at his home. Immediately upon his return Mr. Stumbo purchased a span of large jet-black mules, their age being limited at thirty-five years. Last Friday night one mule quietly passed away of old age. Mr. Stumbo congratulates himself on the fact that the loss was not exceedingly great as he has been successful in securing a contract of having the hide tanned for half.

Team And Wagon Stolen.

A team of horses and a lumber wagon belonging to Ross Goolsby were stolen by, as yet, unknown parties, on Sunday evening who did the same so successfully that no trace of them can be found. The team was a good one and the wagon was almost new. The thieves were evidently well acquainted with the premises as they even broke the lock off of the wood shed where the endgate to the wagon was kept; they believed in taking everything. Tuesday afternoon it was thought that a trace of the thieves had been found between Padonia and Hiawatha but it proved to be a false trail.

Quite an Honor.

At the meeting of the adjourned session of the state legislature at Lincoln this spring, John L. Cleaver, of this city, who was the book-keeper for the senate, was bestowed with quite an honor in the adopting of the following of which he has a copy.

Mr. Epperson offered the following motion: I move that the thanks of the senate be tendered to John L. Cleaver, for the able and efficient manner that he has kept the books and records in his charge during the session.

CHAS. H. EPPERSON.

Which was agreed to. I hereby certify that the above and foregoing is a true and correct copy of a motion which was adopted by the senate, April 4, 1907.

B. A. GOULDING,
Secretary of Senate.

District Court.

The Miles case is still grinding and will probably be on trial until sometime next week. Harbaugh and Snow who furnished the sensation at the last trial have been on the stand again and told their story of false witnesses and attempted perjury. An effort was made to prevent this testimony in as much as the Supreme court had paid no attention to it, but Judge Raper let it in as he desired to hear the whole of the case. Mr. Harbaugh on cross examination said that he was in charge of the Miles ranch of some five or six thousand acres at a salary of $100.00 per month and half the profits. He stated that when he took charge he had never farmed and knew the difference between a Jersey and Holstein cow but that was the extent of his knowledge. Joseph Miles has been on the stand since Tuesday and is being cross examined rigidly by Mr. Webster. The case is exciting but little interest and is playing to empty seats. It is expected, however, that the arguments will draw a full house as Atwood, Mahoney and Webster are numbered among the finest speakers in the west.

A Royal Slave.

A Royal Slave at the Gehling Wednesday evening was undoubtedly the best attraction at that theatre this season. The play in itself is an excellent one while the company was about the best that can be secured. The Indian hero of the play is a very strong character and in his role was perfection. The specialties were of the highest order and everybody was satisfied. Here's hoping that we will have another of the same order in the near future.

School Board Meets.

The school board met in regular session Monday night with Layford, Lichty, Mathers and Mrs. Foster present. The meeting was given to choosing teachers for the ensuing year. The full faculty was not chosen, however.

The following is the list of teachers elected Monday night: Harlan street—Kindergarten, Sue Gehling, salary $52.50; 1st grade, Myrtle Pittcock, $40.

Central school—Kindergarten, Minnie McDonald, $55; 1st grade, Grace Saylor, $45; 2nd grade, Myrtle Bowers, $45; 3d grade, Edna Brown, $40.

High school—3rd and 4th, Floy Grinstead, $44; 5th and 6th, Clara Gagnon, $45; 7th and 8th, Miss Lugenbill, $60.

The board then adjourned to meet Monday, April 22nd.

Mrs. John Gilligan went to Humboldt Saturday returning on Monday.

Mr. Wozab and Mr. Svanda of the west end were local visitors Thursday.

Mrs. Guy Spencer of Omaha came down Monday to visit Mr. Spencers people.

Claud Roy and Thomas Nelson returned Monday evening from Farragut, Iowa. They are here on a two weeks painting job.

Miss Louis Spencer, librarian, is getting ready a large supply of bird pictures for distribution among school children.

A baby boy arrived at the home of Prof. E. G. Spencer on Wednesday morning, April 17th, hence the wonderful smile with which the professor greets his friends. Both the mother and baby are doing nicely. Dr. W. H. Boose was the attending physician.

Married.

A telegram received Monday by Lillian Oswald conveyed the information that her brother, Fred Oswald, and Miss Nelle McMahon were married Sunday, April 14th, at Cheyenne, Wyoming, and were then on their way to Basin, Wyoming, where he has been employed for several months past.

The bride was raised on a farm a few miles east of this city, later coming to this city. She is one of the most charming of young ladies, her disposition being so pleasant as to win firm and true friends.

The groom has lived in this city since childhood and is a young man of excellent habits, possessing those qualities which constitute the making of a gentleman. He is a plumber by trade.

Mr. and Mrs. Oswald will probably make their home at Basin, and in their new home they have the best wishes of their large number of friends at this place.

The home of Eli Bowers and wife was the scene of a very pretty wedding Tuesday evening, when their daughter, Miss Adaline, was united in marriage to Fred P. Smith, of Omaha.

At 7 o'clock the ceremony was performed by Rev. Teeter, of the Brethen church, in the presence of the near relatives of the bride and groom and a few intimate friends.

The bride looked charming in a very handsome gown of white silk mull over silk. She carried a large bouquet of bride's roses. The groom looked his best in the conventional black.

After the congratulations and best wishes of the assembled friends were received by the happy pair, the guests adjourned to the dining room where an elaborate wedding supper was served.

Many beautiful and useful gifts were presented to the bride.

Mrs. Smith has grown to womanhood in Falls City and is highly esteemed by a large circle of friends. Mr. Smith is a Richardson county young man but for some time has been in the meat market business in Omaha.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Smith will return to Omaha where they will make their home.

A host of friends join with The Tribune in extending their good wishes.

A very pretty and quiet wedding occurred at the home of Albert Bertram Wednesday at 3 p. m., when their daughter, Miss Amelia, was married to Albert Brecht.

The ceremony which was performed by Rev. Gerethawhol was witnessed only by the immediate families of the bride and groom and was followed by an elegant wedding supper.

Miss Bertram was born and raised here and was a young lady of pleasing address having a large circle of friends. Mr. Brecht, the eldest son of Chas. Brecht and wife, is an industrious and prosperous young farmer. He and his bride will begin their married life on the Ryan farm east of town which he has rented.

That their lives may be prosperous and happy is the wish of their many friends.

Joseph Glasser, H. F. Guile, I. E. Smith, Wm. Tjaden and Silas Chaffin of Humboldt were among the visitors in this city the fore part of the week.

The Tournament whist club held meetings at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. George Jennings since our last issue. The usual spirited contest resulted in each instance with Bert Reavis and Mrs. John Powell getting the best scores.

The Needle Club of the Evangelical Church met with Miss Louise Deuchler, Tuesday evening. The ladies accomplished a good deal in spite of the fact that they were busier with the pleasures of the evening. Miss Deuchler served very palatable refreshments consisting of sandwiches, cake, ice cream and coffee. The club meets next Tuesday evening with Mrs. Wm. Deuchler.

The Woman's Club met Tuesday afternoon with Miss Banks. Leaders of departments were elected as follows: Literature, Mrs. A. Keller; Music, Miss Sallie Schoenheit. After a discussion of the life and works of Johannes Brahms, the following program from the works of that composer was given:
