

Henry C. Smith LANDS & LOANS

FOR SALE—320 acres about 4 miles of Salem, upland. All fenced, new house 4 rooms, well and windmill, 150 acres cultivated, 20 acres meadow, 8 acres timber, balance pasture $40 per acre. Small payment down balance 10 years time 5 per cent. A bargain.

110 to 120 acres near Salem, bottom land. Good terms. Might rent for 1907. Handy to p. stand town.

160 acres 2 miles of Falls City. 160 acres 2 1/2 miles of Stella. 160 acres Nuckolls Co., Neb. About 50 acres winter wheat, $40 per acre. 80 acres Brown county, Kas., 7 miles southeast of Hiawatha. Will take small house in Falls City as part pay. Good terms. 200 acres 3 miles Falls City, good, fair house. 160 acres Johnson county, good terms.

HUMBOLDT.

The G. A. R. are arranging for a program Decoration day.

A. D. Gise and wife were making friends in Humboldt a visit Sunday.

Iva Dennis of Omaha was the guest of her friend, Mrs. Gilbert Earley this week.

L. H. Howe accompanied a consignment of cattle to Kansas City the fore part of the week.

W. J. Bean and wife left Thursday last for their future home at Rapid City, South Dakota.

E. L. Crane, O. L. Bantz and Frank Krasny have had their business houses repainted this week.

Elmer Rousek had an operation performed this week for localized tuberculosis. In one of the Omaha hospitals.

Mrs. Carry Harvey of Plymouth, Neb., attended the funeral of her father, Rev. Fred Unland, in this city Tuesday.

Mrs. E. A. Litchfield and baby returned Friday to her home in this city after a month's visit at her old home at Ashland.

S. E. Davis, formerly of Wilbur, Neb., now fills the position of agent at the depot, made vacant by the resignation of L. Howell.

H. D. Philpot returned Monday from St. Joseph where he had gone for the purpose of having a cancerous growth removed from under his arm.

Quite a number from this place went over to Auburn Saturday to attend the Southeastern Nebraska athletic meet. Humboldt ranked fifth in the contest.

Mrs. Will Skalak and little daughter, who had been visiting relatives in this vicinity, returned the middle of the week to their home at Rosalia, Kas.

Mrs. Grace Hunter and little son, who had been visiting at the home of F. M. Williamson and wife, left Monday for their home at Utica, this state.

E. C. Rosling of Firth is now employed as night operator at the depot, Frankie Johnson having been promoted to a day position in Atchison, Kansas.

Calvin Thompson and family, who had been visiting at the home of the former's parents, J. J. Thompson and wife, returned Thursday to their home at Guernsey, Wyo.

Fred Arnold was in Lincoln the last of the week taking an examination from the state pharmacy board. He has received word that he passed the test successfully.

Mrs. R. J. Hnzda of Table Rock made her parents, W. A. Velts and wife, a short visit the last of the week. From here she went to Hiawatha, Kan., and will spend several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Howard Jones.

S. M. Philpot and wife left Monday for Columbus, Ohio, where the former went as a delegate from this state to the national Presbyterian, which convened in that city this week. They expect to visit points of interest in the east before returning home.

E. E. Brown, who has been in poor health for the past three months, suffering from spinal meningitis, died on Thursday, March 9, 1907, at his home northwest of town. The deceased was a native of Canada, aged 39 years, and is survived by a wife and five children. Interment was made in the Dawson cemetery.

The second and third grades of the city school were dismissed Monday and Tuesday, so that the rooms might be fumigated, as a precaution against the spread of diphtheria, several new cases having made their appearance recently, three members of the family of James Thompson being stricken with the disease last Saturday, and the residence was placed in quarantine that evening.

The Humboldt schools close a week from today. The juniors' reception to the seniors was held at the home of C. L. Hummel last evening. Rev. L. R. Smith will preach the baccalaureate sermon in the Presbyterian church on Sunday night. The commencement exercises will be held in the opera house Friday evening, May 24 and the eighth grade exercises the following night in the high school assembly room. Miss Estella Williamson will entertain the alumni at the home of her parents, F. M. Williamson and wife, on Monday evening.

Rev. Fred Unland, a well known resident of Humboldt, died at his home in the south part of town at 11 o'clock Sunday night, from Bright's disease, which has confined him to his home for the past six months. The deceased was born at Hanover, Germany, 76 years ago, coming to this country with his parents when fourteen years of age, locating on a farm in Illinois. Thirty-three years ago he came to Nebraska and during that time has held various pastorates in the state, and for a number of years was pastor of the German M. E. church of this city. Besides his wife he is survived by nine children: Mrs. W. J. Davis and Ben Unland, of Humboldt; Mrs. Carry Harvey, of Plymouth; Mrs. J. H. Steinhmeyer, of Clatonia; Ed Unland, of Lincoln; Mrs. Amos Gant, of Falls City; Lew Unland, of Sterling, Ill.; R. S. Unland of Maryville, Kansas; and John Unland, Canada. The funeral was held from the German M. E. church at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Burial was made in the Humboldt cemetery.

RULO.

Dosha Boerner has the measles.

Morgan Sinder is on the sick list.

Clara Miller is sick with the measles this week.

Dr. Henderson was a St. Joe visitor last Friday.

Mr. Plum was on the sick list a few days this week.

Wm. True and family spent Sunday in the country.

Mr. Huffnel has been on the sick list for several days.

Mrs. Bessie Brinniger's two children have the measles.

Mr. Winterbottom is putting a new roof on his house.

W. B. Hinton of Omaha was a Rulo visitor Monday.

Fannie Seigler has been on the sick list for some time.

Eather Dunn is just recovering from an attack of measles.

Ruth Kanaly of Falls City spent Sunday with home folks.

Another installment of winter commenced Monday night.

Mrs. J. Leblank made a business trip to the county seat Monday.

Rev. Schaefer preached at the Holiness church last Sunday.

M. H. Edgecomb was a county seat visitor the first of the week.

Tom Cronin drove dray for Mox Gesser the fore part of this week.

Ed Mathers went to Table Rock last week to work in the coal sheds.

L. E. Plum went to York the latter part of last week to visit relatives.

Henry Brinniger attended the funeral of Mrs. Veogle at Fargo last Friday.

John Kanaly and daughter, Ruth, drove to the county seat Monday morning.

Two of conductor Hopkins' children were very sick with the measles last week.

Mrs. Nichols' mother and sister of Stella are visiting with her this week.

Mary and Ruth Anderson of Kansas, are spending this week with Rulo relatives.

Norm Commode's two youngest children have just recovered from the measles.

Edith Kern spent several days last week visiting friends in Falls City and Humboldt.

Miss Prove of Dakota visited with Vesta Van Vaulkinburg several days this week.

Mrs. Reiger of Preston visited with her aunt, Mrs. Belpier, Thursday of last week.

Herman Boehmah has opened a shoe repair shop in the south room of Frank Brown's old store building.

Mr. Crook of Falls City was in our city testing the supply of vinegar which the merchants have on hand.

Mrs. Theo. Anderson and daughter, Pearl, spent a few days with Kansas friends, the last of the week just past.

Mr. Easley is quite ill at this writing. He has been very feeble for some time, and is suffering from old age and general decline.

Mox Gesser departed for Omaha Monday afternoon to attend the Grand Lodge session of the A. O. U. W. held at that place Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Ed Bush returned from Preston Monday to work on the bridge. Mr. Bush was unable to work last week on account of getting some foreign substance in his eyes, which made them very painful.

On Tuesday evening at five o'clock, Mrs. Abe Liberty, died suddenly at her home in Rulo. The deceased leaves a husband, several small children and an infant only a few hours old. The hearts of the entire community go out in sympathy to the bereaved family, in this great sorrow which has come to them.

Word was received here Monday that Ray Hart who is at work on a farm near Hiawatha, had gotten kicked by a horse. He was driving the horse to a cart, when it became frightened and started to run, Ray held on to the horse and received a kick over the eye. It took six stitches to close the wound; the message stated that he was getting along nicely and would be able to be about in a few days.

On Wednesday evening of last week while Alice and Alta Gilbert and Gertrude Kanaly were out horse back riding, Gertrude's saddle turned throwing her off. She fell on the right side of her face, and although able to mount and ride home, she could not remember anything that occurred. The doctor was called and pronounced the case nothing serious, saying, that the loss of memory was caused from the shock. Miss Gertrude has improved steadily and at the present writing is almost recovered.

Last Friday night being the regular meeting night of the Degree of Honor lodge, the members decided to turn the meeting into a social time in honor of Miss Vesta Van Vaulkinburg, who expects to change her name and residence in the near future. Each member invited one guest. An original poem was read by Melya Kera which was received with applause. Music on the phonograph was one of the pleasing features of the evening. Games were indulged in, one especially laughable game was provided, in which each one was given a card with the name of some animal written on it, also a stick of gum and two tooth picks, with which to fashion the animal named on the card. Mrs. Vastine received the prize for the best animal (an elephant) and Mrs. Cunningham the consolation prize. A luncheon consisting of sandwiches, salads, ice-cream, cake and coffee was served, after which Miss Vesta in a neat speech thanked those present for the pleasant surprise after which, as the hour was late, all repaired to their homes. Sickness in some of the families kept some away who would like to have been present.

SALEM

Clyde Ramel of Falls City spent Sunday in our city.

W. Wertz came last week from Alma for a short visit.

Mrs. E. E. Scott drove up from Falls City Wednesday.

Dr. Everett Scott drove up from the county capitol Monday.

Mrs. Bud Rose entertained the L. S. C. club last Thursday.

Cass Moore, wife and son, Paul, visited in Hamilton Sunday.

Will Ogden returned home from St. Joe the first of the week.

Dr. and Mrs. Day drove to the county seat Tuesday afternoon.

J. T. Shrimpton and wife were county seat visitors Wednesday.

M. L. McDowell drove to Verdon on Tuesday to transact business.

Mac Mobley went to St. Joe Sunday to attend his sister's funeral.

Mrs. O. A. Jennings spent Sunday in Falls City, the guest of friends.

Sam Kennedy and family visited at the home of Ed Davis Sunday.

Grandpa Bates of Table Rock visited in Salem several days of last week.

Eugene Meredith and Ray Lilydell were Falls City visitors Sunday eve.

Ira McCool and Joe Windel drove to the county seat Wednesday evening.

W. Abbey and brother drove up from the county seat one day this week.

Mrs. Charlie McCool and son, William, returned home from Hiawatha, Sunday.

Ed May and wife drove to Falls City Wednesday evening to attend the band concert.

Ruth Moore visited several days in the country last week at the home of Roe Moore.

Mrs. P. E. Stayer and daughter, Lena, were guests at the home of S. B. Huffnel Monday.

Roy Pifer and wife of St. Joseph arrived last week for a visit with friends and relatives here.

Mr. Satterwhite, wife and daughter of Falls City visited Sunday at the home of Ed Davis.

Hazel Barrett and Luverne Lesley, accompanied by Frank Ranger drove to Dawson Sunday.

Mrs. J. A. Tynor went to Falls City Wednesday to attend the inter-county W. C. T. U. convention.

Dr. J. A. Waggoner came down from Humboldt Thursday for a visit with his son, Dr. U. R. Waggoner.

Lloyd Kinsey entertained the members of the senior class of the high school at supper Wednesday.

John S. Abbey of Jamestown, Kas., was in town last week visiting at the home of Mesdames P. E. Stayer and S. P. Jennings.

Hattie Mobley entertained a number of friends on Friday evening. Various games were played, after which refreshments were served.

Mrs. Josephine Moore of Portsmouth, Ohio, arrived Saturday for an extended visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mac Mobley.

Mrs. Joe Lord was tendered a surprise in honor of her birthday which occurred last Monday. The company of friends spent a delightful day.

Henry C. Smith and Misses Maude Graham, Sarah Hutchins and Carrie Slocum of Falls City made a trip to Salem in an automobile Monday evening.

Dr. U. R. Waggoner has sold his property and practice to Dr. J. W. Greene and will remove somewhere in western Nebraska or Colorado. This comes as somewhat of a surprise, the doctor having given up a large and lucrative practice in order that he might move to a climate more suited to his wife's health. Dr. Greene comes to us well recommended as a graduate of the University of Buffalo, N. Y., and also the University at Louisville, Ky., and served as house physician and surgeon at the Louisville city hospital. For the past six years he has practiced at Plattsmouth and Manley; Neb. Dr. Waggoner endorses Dr. Greene to his former patrons and they need have no hesitancy in taking up where he has left off.

BARADA.

Ike World of Corning, Mo., was in town Monday.

Mrs. J. C. Shafer has been quite ill with neuralgia.

Miss Lizzie Michaelis is visiting relatives in St. Joseph.

R. J. Dunn and wife were county seat visitors on Friday.

D. F. Bodle is being assisted in corn planting by Elmer Rowell.

Mrs. Robert Thompson of Falls City was a business caller on Monday.

J. C. Wileman marketed a couple of loads of hogs in Shubert last week.

Mrs. Charles Martin entertained Mr. and Miss Kilma at dinner on Sunday.

Morehead and son last week fenced their lots on Main street in the Bank block.

R. S. Abbot's baby has been quite ill but is somewhat better at present writing.

Mesdames Lela Mitchell and Nellie Peters were shopping in Falls City one day last week.

Mrs. Earl Marsh and children of Shubert were Barada visitors on Wednesday of last week.

J. W. Goff is having some clearing done on his land; John Lee of Humboldt, is doing the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Cabany of Bancroft, Neb., are visiting Leroy Palmer and wife and other friends here.

J. F. Kilgus has moved into the Morehead property recently vacated by the family of John Markt.

Austin DeLong left Saturday for Summerville, Kansas where he will visit with friends and relatives.

Walter Vaolaningham and wife from near Falls City were entertained at the home of Sam Cain on Sunday.

J. H. Morehead of Falls City was in this vicinity a few days last week, looking after his agricultural interests.

Jimmie Stephenson and wife spent Sunday in Falls City the guests of Mrs. Stephenson's parents, T. J. Oliver and wife.

The wind played havoc with Dan Wamsley's buggy shed on Sunday, carrying off the roof and tearing it to pieces.

Nie Williamson came in from Shubert Thursday night with a shining brand new buggy—left side is for rent he says.

H. H. Woodring and wife visited Sunday with Mrs. Charles Schulenberg in Shubert. They were accompanied by Miss Priscilla.

While busy at the sewing machine on Monday Dora Cox accidentally run the machine needle through the nail and flesh of her fore finger.

Samuel Edger and T. C. Roe were up from Falls City Tuesday and Wednesday of last week papering Mr. Edger's cottage on Church street.

R. S. Abbot and wife have been enjoying a visit from their daughter, Mrs. O. W. Gorrell, of Belleville, Kansas. She returned home Saturday.

The Baraga Canning Company will have, when completed the largest field of tomatoes ever planted in Richardson county. They now have a forty acre field planted and expect to set out an adjoining forty of tomatoe plants.

R. M. Williamson departed Sunday for the Pacific Coast hoping to benefit his health and at the same time to visit relatives. He has a son and family living in Sacramento, Cal., and a brother in that section whom he has not seen for forty-seven years.

On Sunday May 5th, Walter Orr and Lida Kelly were united in marriage by Judge Gagnon in Falls City. On Monday evening a dance was given in honor of the event at the home of Wm. Kelly, the bride's father. A very pleasant time is reported. We extend best wishes for a happy life.

A Woman's Home Missionary Society was organized by the women of this vicinity on Monday. They began with sixteen members but expect to double that number very soon. Much interest was manifested in the organization. They will hold business meetings on the first Thursday of each month. On Thursday they met with Mrs. Sarah Williamson, each lady bringing with her some article of sewing which she donated to the society when finished.

VERDON

Mrs. Ode Saylor's drove to Shubert Monday.

George Randall was down from Auburn Thursday.

Dave Billips and family were Salem visitors Saturday.

N. B. Judd of Dawson was here on business Thursday.

Bruce Nedrow and wife were Shubert visitors Sunday.

Mrs. W. D. Corn and Ada drove to Falls City Thursday.

Dave Clark and Mr. Harding drove to Stella Wednesday last.

Wm. Mowery of Stella was in town a short time Monday afternoon.

Rev. J. T. Rowan spent Sunday at the home of B. Fisher and wife.

Miss Arvilla Burns of Chicago, Ill., was in town Tuesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Dowell of Salem visited her sister, Mrs. G. D. Knapp, Wednesday.

Loren Corn made a business trip to Dawson, Salem and Falls City Saturday.

Bert Griffith of Denver, Colo., spent last week here visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Young of Dawson visited with J. W. Stump and family last Sunday.

Mesdames Robertson and Hall attended the convention at Falls City last week.

Mrs. McHenry and daughter are visiting relatives at Coffeaville, Kas., this week.

Mrs. Lizzie Hankins and children of Lincoln spent Sunday with her aunt, Mrs. Elvira Hull.

A. M. Palmer and wife of Barada spent Sunday here, the guest of his sister, Mrs. Hull.

Ada Corn returned to her home at Salem Saturday after spending the week with relatives.

Mrs. John Loeffers and daughter spent the last of the week at Nebraska City visiting relatives.

Mrs. Rowen Veal of Champion, Neb., arrived Tuesday for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Eliza Goolsby.

Mrs. McPherson and son came up from the county seat Thursday and visited with Mrs. W. A. Moran.

Mrs. Geo. Abbott of Falls City spent several days here last week visiting her daughter, Mrs. Humphrey.

Lou Parsons, Roy Dougherty, Wallace Arnold and Claude Saylor's were Stella visitors Wednesday night.

Mrs. Munford returned to her home at Salem Saturday after spending the winter with her son, Dave Billips.

Mrs. W. E. Goolsby returned home Tuesday after spending a few days in Omaha visiting her sister, Mrs. Raper.

Mrs. Skinner and son returned to their home at St. Joe Monday after a pleasant visit with her sister, Mrs. Ooamb.

Mrs. Drago left Saturday for her home at Tarkio, Mo., after spending a short time here visiting her son, Wm. Drago.

OHIO

Katie Weick visited at her home Sunday.

Loise Stump was a guest of Earl Shaffer Sunday.

Turman Kniseley was a guest of Wm. Hutchison Sunday.

Mrs. P. E. Shaffer spent last Friday at P. M. Shaffer's.

Mrs. H. A. Burk was a guest of Mrs. Noah Peck last Friday.

Clay Peck and wife spent Sunday with the former's parents.

Mrs. O. B. Pritchard spent Monday with Mrs. G. W. Pritchard.

George Shouse and family spent Sunday with F. M. Stump and family.

Goldie Cook is spending a few days at the home of her parents at Verdon.

Frances Shaffer of the county seat was out to his son, Frank, last Friday.

Ewd. Kimmel and family spent Sunday afternoon with Fred Eberhart and wife.

Elma Cook and Lola Sturms visited in Verdon Sunday the guests of Wm. Cook.

Chas. Steinbrink and wife were guests of F. S. Lichty and wife Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Christ Zorn spent a portion of last week with her daughter, Mrs. John Nolte.

Joe Pritchard and wife of Falls City spent last Wednesday with their son, G. W. Pritchard.

Cleon and Edith Peck entertained their cousins, Lloyd, Della and Nellie Kniseley Sunday.

Dr. Yutzy and wife of Falls City spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Frank Uhlig.

Samuel Kimmel and wife of Falls City spent Monday with their daughter, Mrs. H. J. Pritchard.

Thos. McDonald, agent for Watkins' Remedies, is going through this vicinity this week on his regular visits.

Claude Philippi and wife accompanied by Wm. Haldeeman and Edna Shaffer spent Sunday at Morrill, Kansas.

H. J. Pritchard and family and G. W. Pritchard and family spent Sunday at Verdon with Ed Auxler and family.

Mrs. G. W. Bartlett was over at Straussville the latter part of last week with her daughter Mrs. C. P. Stump.

Edna Shaffer went to Straussville Tuesday, to assist C. P. Stump in his store in preparing for the big sale Saturday.

Mrs. Geo. Pritchard went to Humboldt the fore part of last week to attend the funeral of her uncle, Mr. Brockman.

Frank Uhlig went to Excelsior Springs for the benefit of his health. Mr. Uhlig has been a sufferer of boils for the past few months.

F. M. Shaffer had a fine bunch of colts to get tangled up into somebarbed wire Thursday of last week cutting them some but not seriously.

We forgot to mention before the young people's meeting that was commenced at the German Baptist Brethren church a few weeks ago. Every body cordially invited. Meet at 7:30 p. m.

C. P. Stump and wife were poisoned the latter part of last week by chewing gum it is thought, for soon after they commenced to chew the gum they began to feel sick. The doctor thinks from all indications that there must have been some strichnine in the gum. Charles is about alright again but Mrs. Stump is quite sick yet at this writing.

Small Fire at Court House.

There was quite a little excitement around the Court House Monday. A plumber who was working on the second floor left the soldering pot burning and went down stairs; when he returned he found a lively little blaze, a lot of shavings having caught fire.

The fire was extinguished however before any serious damage was done.

Married.

At the home of William Lutz and wife in Falls City, Neb., on Tuesday at 11:30 a. m., May 14, their daughter Jeannette Lutz was united in marriage to Carl Klumb by Rev. W. T. Cline, in the presence of a few friends of the family. Dinner was served at 12 m. The bridal party left over the Missouri Pacific at 1:16 p. m. for Kansas City. Their home will be in this city.