READ THE TRIBUNE

NOW AND THEN.

The manufacturing enterprises of Falls City are doing the largest volume of business in their history. The mill has been working overtime for several weeks and is still behind with its orders. It is a question of a short time before the wheels will be turning night and day. All that a business requires to succeed is to deliver the goods, and the product of the Heacock mill needs nothing more than a trial to make a permanent customer. The Leyda cigar factory is likewise working overtime. A dozen employees keep at their benches long into the night and are still unable to supply the demand. Mr. Leyda received a standing order from Kansas City for ten thousand Single Binder cigars monthly a short time ago. He needs more competent men and fears that unless he secures them he may have to cancel the Kansas City order. If all Falls City would buy its cigars and flour at home how these institutions would boom.

We are to celebrate July 4th. Not in an ordinary, stereotyped way, but in an up to the minute, something doing way. The committees to solicit funds are meeting with splendid success and the Falls City spirit seems to have taken hold of things in general. Our friends can depend upon it that the real celebration will take place right here and that every effort will be made to show you the best time of your lives.

The determination of the city administration to clear up the sidewalk question is generally commended. Falls City has about the worst sidewalks ever and they are constantly getting worse. The walks from the Missouri Pacific up Chase street are the limit and the remarks of pedestrians traveling thereover have kept the recording angel busy for the past six months. This condition is to be changed, however. New walks are to be laid wherever necessary and old ones are to be repaired. The town will look better and the inhabitants will use less profanity when these things are done.

If every public servant would be as faithful to his constituency as John Hinton has been to Falls City there would be more confidence reposed in public officials. A number of men were recounting the many things Mr. Hinton has done for his people and the list is formidable. Not only has he made the public park a thing of beauty but he has constantly labored to improve it. The installation of closets in the court house, the building of a band stand in the yard and the hundred and one things that we take for granted are the result of hard and persistent work on the part of Mr. Hinton. He it was who insisted on Falls City receiving her rights from the road fund and who finally succeeded in getting an appropriation to build a stone bridge. It has been his chiefest pleasure to care for the poor and unfortunate and many are they who have been helped by him in that spirit of pure charity that aids but does not wound. Falls City has never had a truer friend than John Hinton.

Falls City township has the right idea on the road question. After each rain the drags are started and the highways put in good condition. As a result of this intelligent treatment the roads of this township are a joy forever. The road from Judge Gagnon's house down across the bottom is as hard and smooth as pavement and shows wonderful improvement over its former condition. It would pay the officials of the various road districts to investigate the Falls City township method and learn by ocular demonstration just what a little intelligent industry applied in a proper and timely way will do for a country road.

A Correction.

In regard to the mention of the W. O. W. held at their hall last Monday night, June 3rd, I wish to say (wishing to rectify the mistake made) while the W. O. W. were in session the ladies of the Woodman circle met at Shield's variety store, with all the good and sweet stuff in the way of eatables and when the W. O. W. in regular session was about to come to a close a member of the circle and also of the W. O. W. gave the word and the outer door of the ante room was opened and the circle gathered there until the session was brought to a close and the woodmen had laid down their axes ready to start for home, then the inner doors were thrown open and the circle ladies, with full baskets and cheerful hearts, rushed in and surprised the woodman with their long faces and tired bodies after their hard day's work. But when they saw those smiling faces and those full baskets there went up a cheer that raised the roof and the woodman wanted to partake of the good stuff there and then but the ladies of the circle would not have it that way; they came there to hear Gov. H. E. Lemmon who had just got back from the National council held by the W. O. W. and by the Woodman circle at Norfolk, Va., and they made him tell all he knew. Then they all partook of the bountiful supply of the goody goodies the ladies had brought in their baskets as a free will offering to the Woodmen of the World.

Poll. Tax $2.50 For 1907.

The County Clerk is just in receipt of a communication from the Attorney General, which seems to be in direct conflict with all other official information that he has been able to get. The opinion of the Attorney General reads in part as follows and probably settles the matter of the amount and manner of paying the poll tax for the year 1907. "In passing this act the legislature repealed the former statute on the subject, and the new law will require each inhabitant of a road district who is subject to the payment of a poll tax to pay $2.50 in cash at the same time as the tax upon personal property is payable, in 1907. The new act does not contain an emergency clause, and therefore will not go into effect until July, after the assessor has made the assessment roll for 1907, but the new law reducing the poll tax to $2.50 and making it payable in cash will become operative before the tax lists of 1907 are made up by the County Clerk and delivered to the county treasurer, and before the personal taxes become due.

After an extended examination of the question presented my opinion is that it will be the duty of the county clerk to enter on the tax list for 1907 the statutory poll tax of $2.50 against each inhabitant of a road district who is subject to the payment of such tax. In my judgement no $3. labor tax for 1907 authorized by the old law can legally be collected, and an attempt to pay such tax in labor before the new law goes into effect will not defeat the statutory poll tax of $2.50, payment of which is directed by the new statute "at the same time as the tax upon personal property is payable," in 1907.

W. T. THOMPSON, Atty Gen.
