

Died.

BOYLE
1825-1907

Eugene Boyle was born in Edenborough, Scotland, February 8th, 1825, and came to America when he was twenty years of age. He was married in New York to Julia Hefferman. They lived in Chicago for some time and from there went to Muscatine, Ia., where they lived until 1857, when Mr. Boyle moved his family to a farm in Otoe county, Nebraska. They remained there until 1865, when they moved to Salem, in this county, where he lived until 1893.

To Eugene Boyle and his wife were born ten children, seven of whom are living. Mrs. Boyle preceded her husband a good many years, having died in 1876. The oldest and the youngest children died in infancy while Mrs. George Strong died in this city eleven years ago.

Since 1893 Mr. Boyle made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Marvin, the last few years having been spent in Oklahoma City. He has been in failing health for two years past though his last illness was of short duration. He had been ailing for some two weeks when on Sunday, June 10th, he was taken seriously ill and the end came Tuesday June 12th.

The body was brought on from Oklahoma City that the interment might be made in the family lot in Steele's cemetery, where the remains were taken directly from the train and the services conducted by Rev. Neide of St. Thomas Episcopal church.

In the years of his long residence in this city and county Mr. Boyle made many sincere, life-long friends who deeply regret his death. He was a kind and loving father, a true, loyal friend and to those who mourn him is extended the sympathy of scores of friends.

Those of his family who were here to attend the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marvin and Mrs. J. A. Johnston, Oklahoma City; John Boyle, wife and son, Ross, of Mitchell, Neb.; Charlie Boyle and wife, Sabetha, Kans.; Eugene Boyle, Salem, Neb.; and S. B. Heyser, Omaha.

Of the children unable to attend were Mrs. Sam Heyser, of Omaha and Miss Anna Boyle, Oklahoma City.

NEITZEL
1834-1907

August Neitzel, sr., was born in Frazfeldt, Germany, October 7, 1834, and died in Falls City, June 12, 1907, aged 72 years, 7 months and 25 days. He came to the United States with his parents in 1848 when fourteen years of age. They lived in Milwaukee, Wis., for one year and from there went to Manitowac, one hundred miles north of Wisconsin. In 1856 Mr. Neitzel was married to Miss Susan Miller and to them eight children were born three of whom are deceased. Four sons and one daughter are living. They are August Neitzel jr., of this city, Mrs. Henry Farmer, William A. and Carl N., of Concordia, Kans., and Henry of British Columbia.

In June 1861 Mr. Neitzel brought his family to Richardson county but later moved to Concordia, Kansas, where he lived until about ten years ago when he re-located in this county.

He is well known throughout this community and has borne the good will and confidence of all who knew him, enjoying the esteem and respect of all his neighbors and friends at all times. Most of his life he has been a farmer and in this he was very successful.

For many months he has been in very poor health and recently he had a fall which proved very serious and from that time he failed rapidly until on Saturday last death released him from his suffering and he passed on to join the wife and children who have preceded him. Mrs. Neitzel's death occurred in 1902.

Besides the children named those of his immediate family who live to mourn his death are the following brothers and sisters: William, of Concordia, Kas., John, of Preston, Neb., August, of Wisconsin, Mary, of Denver, and Lena whose address is unknown.

Mr. Neitzel was brought up in Germany in the Lutheran church. The funeral services were held Friday, June 14, 1907, at 10 o'clock a. m. from the residence of August Neitzel, jr. in the presence of a large assembly of friends and were conducted by Rev. W. T. Cline, Ph. D. of the M. E. church, interment was made in Steele's cemetery. To the family and relatives who mourn for his death is extended sincere sympathy of the entire community.

PECK.

Noah Peck died at the home of his father-in-law, John Yocam, Sunday, June 16, 1907 at 3 p. m. of the hemorrhage of the stomach after an illness of a little more than a week. He has been a sufferer from stomach trouble for years but a week before his death when he came to town he seemed in as good health and spirits as usual but in the afternoon at the sale he was seized by a violent hemorrhage and in his weakened condition was removed to the home of Mr. Yocam where he continued to fail until death claimed him Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Peck has been for a great many years a well known and honored resident of this community. He was a farmer and stock-raiser and lived on a fine farm northeast of this city. He has been particularly successful in his undertakings though in many cases hampered by his ill health. Since early manhood he has been an earnest and consistent member of the German Baptist Brethren church.

He was charitable, honest and just in his dealings with his friends and neighbors, ever striving for the right and the up-building of the community in which he lived. He was held in the esteem of all who knew and had dealings with him.

In his home he was a kind and loving husband, an affectionate, indulgent parent. In his death his family and friends lose a dear one, a counselor and friend whose place cannot be filled.

Noah Peck was born in Summerset county, Pa., April 26, 1848 and at the time of his death was 59 years, 1 month and 26 days old. He came to Richardson county in 1871. He was married Dec. 15, 1878 to Mary E. Patton who died Dec. 26, 1895, to them seven children were born. They are E. C. Peck and C. E. Peck of Morrill, Kans.; H. E. Peck, Daisy and Sadie of Falls City. On April 7, 1895 Mr. Peck and Clara J. Hutchison were married and to them two children were born: Clarence S., and Ethel V.

Beside the wife and above named children, Mr. Peck leaves a father 91 years old. His brother and sisters living are Ephraim Peck and Mrs. Knisely living near this city, Mrs. Anna Fribee, Summerset county, Pa.; Mrs. Sam Fisher, Fairbury, Nebr.; also his two stepsons, J. D. and W. M. Hutchison.

These besides many other relatives and hosts of friends are left to mourn him and to them we extend deepest sympathy.

After short services at the home the funeral services were held at the German Baptist church five miles north of this city and the burial took place in the Silver Creek cemetery. An immense congregation of friends from the town and vicinity in which Mr. Peck lived assembled to pay the last tribute of respect and esteem to their departed friend.

A Worthy Effort.

The special attention of our readers is called to the home patronage supplement which forms a part of this issue of the Daily Freeman Tribune. The supplement, consisting of four pages, is devoted to a powerful exposure of the mail order houses and their methods. It throws upon them the lime light in which they appear to their disadvantage and points out clearly the many reasons why the home merchants should receive the patronage of home people.

D. W. REID.

The matter in the supplement is of a highly interesting character and should be read and digested thoroughly by every citizen. On the back page of the supplement appear advertisements of 28 leading Webster City business houses. They agree to duplicate any price made by any mail order house and ask consumers for a square deal. They ask that before the purchaser gives his order to an out-of-town firm he gives them an opportunity to duplicate the commodity he intends to purchase. The supplement is copyrighted by D. W. Reid, of Falls City, Neb., who should be given due credit for the convincing argument he puts up on this most important issue, which is free from abuse and ridicule and he should be given the support of local merchants everywhere.—Webster City, (Ia.) Don't Worry.

It will come out all right. There has always been something wrong, but it is rarely the same thing next year that it was last year. As soon as one day's work is done, the dawn of the next appears, with a big day's work ahead. But every day's work brings its own reward, and no one is so happy as the man who is able to work. The miserable are they who are out of the stress of life. For instance, here are our industrial problems. Slavery was settled a dozen times before it was settled right. Every compromise narrowed the scope of the question, until it came down to a question of slaves or no slaves. We are going through exactly that kind of a stage in the settlement of the question. Harriman represent some side, Roosevelt represents the other side. Perhaps each is a little wrong, and each a little right. But the question will not be settled until it is settled right. But it will be settled. Don't worry about that. There are bigger questions beyond the horizon than the industrial problem, and when the contest of today is done other problems will rise. Always it is a fight; if the millennium were to come it wouldn't be here six weeks until the people would be too lazy to be worthy of it. It is the struggle that makes us fit to live. And now, young man, looking back over this history of your country for a generation, don't you think you should line up with the party that has settled all the big and little questions in the past fifty years, and settled them right? Don't you think it is worth while to trust the judgement of that party in this struggle, knowing that while it may be wrong in details, there are men in the party big enough and strong enough to straighten out the crooked places? A party is a temperament. The Republican party is the sanguine temperament of this nation. It sees the door and opens it, and isn't discouraged about the keyhole. It is the party of hope, the party with its face forward, and not the party of despair. Join it, young man, and stay joined. Fight inside the party, and make your private opinion public sentiment. But stay with the ship. It's a long walk back.—White.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my book on either Dyspepsia, the Heart or the Kidneys. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart and Kidneys are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak stomach nerves—the inside nerves—mean stomach weakness, always. And the heart, and kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample and free book. CHAPTER VII.

The consummate daring of it! Why the rascal ought to have been in command of an army. On the Board of Strategy he would have been incomparable!

There followed a tableau that I shall not soon forget. We all stared at the real Haggerty much after the fashion of Medusa's victims. Presently the tension relaxed, and we all sighed. I sighed because the thought of jail for the night in a dress-suit dwindled in perspective; the girl sighed for the same reason and one or two other things; the chief of the village police and his officers sighed because darkness had suddenly swooped down on them; and Hamilton sighed because there were no gems. Haggerty was the one among us who didn't sigh. He scowled blackly.

This big athlete looked like a detective, and the abrupt authority of his tones convinced me that he was. Haggerty was celebrated in the annals of police affairs; he had handled all sorts of criminals, from titled impostors down to petty thieves. He was not a man to trifle with, mentally or physically, and for this reason we were all shaking in our boots. He owned to a keen but brutal wit; to him there was no such thing as sex among criminals, and he had the tenacity of purpose that has given the bulldog considerable note in the pit. But it was quite plain that for once he had met his match.

"I don't see how you can blame me," mumbled the chief. "None of us was familiar with your looks, and he showed us his star of authority, and went to work in a business-like way—by George! and he has run away with my horse and carriage!"—starting from his chair.

"Never mind the horse. You'll find it safe at the railway station," snarled Haggerty. "Now, then, tell me everything that has happened, from beginning to end."

And the chief recounted the adventure briefly. Haggerty looked coldly at me and shrugged his broad shoulders. As for the girl, he never gave her so much as a single glance. He knew a gentleman without looking at her twice.
