

NOW AND THEN.

The chautauqua soon to be held in Falls City will present the most attractive program as well as the largest and most diversified list of entertainment ever before given in Southeastern Nebraska. The opportunity of hearing such speakers as Gov. Cummins of Iowa does not often come to our people, and no doubt a great crowd will assemble to hear this talented gentleman. The Kilties band played at the world's fair at St. Louis and was considered next to Sousa's band by those who were in attendance. This band plays in the largest auditoriums in Chicago, Cincinnati and New York and has a reputation extending from ocean to ocean. Not to hear it during the Falls City engagement is to miss a wonderful opportunity.

It is to the credit of Falls City that one hears practically no opposition to the bonds. It seems that everybody has taken hold in the right spirit and is determined to see that Falls City goes ahead. To defeat any one of the three bond propositions is to do the wrong thing at the very time when so much is dependent upon the doing of the right thing. Our people are just emerging from a despondent condition that has been present several years. Through the influence of a few tireless men things began to look up and the discouraged citizen began to take notice. A commercial club meeting was a rousing success the citizens subscribed stock generously and cheerfully. An excellent chautauqua program was arranged. A celebration for the 4th was agreed upon. A band was organized and put on a firm financial foundation through the determination of a growing Falls City spirit. To listen to the man who has caught hold of the shirt tail of progress and is holding his head off crying "whoa," to permit a few men, a very few men, to discourage and retard our progress by defeating any one of the three bond propositions is to commit civic suicide. To vote against the bond propositions is to do more to kill Falls City than any other one thing imaginable. This is the psychological moment,—seize it and do your part.

Did you ever stop to think what a fine lot of young men have gone out of Falls City to take their place in the world of larger affairs and how they have made good? We lose track of them until they return for a short visit to talk of things that were and to wander about the old places and view familiar scenes. It would be impossible to speak of all of them, for though I once knew them, the years that separate are so many and I have forgotten. But there are many whose names I recall and whose success has reached me across the distance. Chas. Newcomer, just a farmer boy, by his unaided effort and without a dollar save what he earned by manual labor, educated himself in our greatest universities and spent years in Europe pursuing his studies. Today he is at the head of the faculty of Columbia university. Scip Dundy was the greatest amusement manager in the world and accomplished what all men in his life considered impossible when he built the New York Hippodrome. George Ewalt, now visiting his mother in this city, went to Galveston, Texas, and is now the principle officer and largest stock holder in the Galveston electric light company and owns half of the largest and most exclusive hotel in the south. Jno. W. Towle of Omaha is the head push of one of the largest contracting and wholesale lumber companies in the west which he formed and built up himself. And so we might go on enumerating "our boys" who have quietly gone away from us and entered upon larger duties and responsibilities with success. The boys at home are also doing well, but of this success we know. We have followed their struggles and have rejoiced in their triumphs. But we lose sight of such men as Chas. Abbey, manager of the Washington Post; Dr. Davis, the most eminent surgeon in Omaha, and the host of young men who lived with or near us, but who are of us no longer save in the memory of other days.

Ursuline Convent Exercises.

The closing exercises of Ursuline Convent Hall were held on the evening of Friday June 14th the graduates being Helen A. Murphy, Nellie V. Coupe and May J. Gagnon.

The large assembly room at the convent was filled to overflowing with an appreciative audience and the exercises were such as to confer great credit upon the Sisters in charge of the school. The essays and orations by the graduates showed earnest thought and careful preparations. They were well delivered.

Several very pretty drills and songs by the day pupils of the various grades were given and were very entertaining.

The music throughout was exceptionally good; the opening selection, "Fest March," with Grace DeMers and Nellie Coupe at first piano, May Gagnon and Helen Kanaly at second, was particularly well executed. It would be difficult to select the best numbers as each selection was so well rendered.

Arthur V. Coupe, of New York who is visiting her sang two songs and his fine voice made these two numbers particularly pleasing.

A drama illustrating the life of St. Angeline, the founder of the Ursuline order, was given in splendid style by young ladies of the school. The story and the example as shown by the play are beautiful and several parts were illustrated by beautiful tableaux which were very effective.

In presenting the diplomas Father Bex made a short but very appropriate address to the graduates.

The program was a good one and well rendered giving great pleasure to those who attended and doing honor to the Sisters who drilled and prepared for it.

A number of the Sisters left on Saturday for the retreat at York, Neb., where they will rest during the summer.

Miss Burling Weds June 15.

Miss Frances Burling, who for several years has been instructor of English at the high school, and who during her Sioux City residence has been prominently identified with the literary clubs, is to be married in Des Moines June 12 to Stephen E. Davies, state agent in Nebraska for Maynard, Merrill & Co.

The ceremony will be performed at the home of the bride's brother, Rev. J. P. Burling, pastor of the Greenwood Avenue church, Des Moines.

Mr. Davies and his bride will divide the summer months between Kansas City, St. Joseph and Langdon, Mo., and about October 1st will go to housekeeping in Lincoln, Neb.

Miss Loretta Carey, who will be graduated from the university of Wisconsin, at Madison, Wis., this year, will succeed Miss Burling at the high school.—Sioux City Journal.

$5.00 SEWING MACHINES

Mail Order Houses are small, low arm machines to be run by hand. For the use of any American woman, they are not worth the money asked. This No. 100 Ball Bearing Barlett is the finest sewing machine you ever saw and it does not cost any more money than many cheap plain finished machines offered by agents.

The head is of a pleasing design and beautifully finished in colors. The mechanism is made on an entirely new and positive principle so that all kinds of cloth from the thinnest to the thickest can be easily sewed. Hardened tool steel is used throughout so that it will practically wear forever. All the bright exposed parts are heavily nickel plated over copper, the most durable finish known. The nickel is given a high mirror finish. The Barlett makes the celebrated lock stitch which absolutely cannot become unraveled and will never give away. It has positive takeup, disc tension, capped needle bar, automatic tension release, four motion feed and automatic bobbin winder. The woodwork is of a striking new design with rolled veneer edges which make it look like a piece of parlor furniture. The wood is the finest quarter sawed oak and the finish is hand rubbed. The drawers are completely cut out and are long and roomy. The stand has full tool steel ball bearings which make it run like a watch. It has an automatic belt replacer and oil cups to prevent oiling the caper. Free Nickel Plated Steel Attachments as follows: a full set of cast machine needles, tucks, corders, braiders, foot stitching side plate, four assorted buttons, screw driver, oil can, bobbin, etc., are included. Don't buy a machine until you see this No. 100 Barlett—you will save money and get the finest machine made.

Laughter in Advertisements.

Curiously worded advertisements, which are funny without intent, are more common in the London papers, it would seem, than they are in New York publications. An English periodical offered a prize the other day for the best collection of such announcements and the following is the result.

"A lady wanted to sell piano, as she is going abroad in a strong iron frame." "Wanted, experienced nurse for bottled baby." "Furnished apartments suitable for gentleman with folding doors." "Wanted, a room by two gentlemen about thirty feet long and twenty feet broad." "Lost, a collie dog by a man on Saturday answering to Jim with a brass collar around his neck and a muzzle."

"Wanted, by a respectable girl, her passage to New York, to New York, will take care of children and a good sailor." "Mr. Brown, furrier begs to announce that he will make up gowns, capes, etc., for ladies out of their own skin." "A boy wanted who can open oysters with reference." "Bulldog for sale; will eat any thing; very fond of children." "Wanted, an organist and a boy to blow the same." "Wanted, a boy to be partly outside and partly behind the counter." "Wanted for the summer a cottage for a small family with good drainage." "Lost, near Highgate archway, an umbrella belonging to a gentleman with a bent rib and a bone handle." "Widow in comfortable circumstances wishes to marry to sons." "Wanted, good boys for punching." "To be disposed of, a mail phaeton, the property of a gentleman with movable head-piece as good as new."

The last is the copy of an inscription painted on a board which adorns a fence in Kent. "Notis: If any man's or woman's cows gets into these otes his or her tail will be cut off as the case may be."—New York World.

Stop That Cold

To check early colds or Grippe with "Preventics" means sure defeat for Pneumonia. To stop a cold with Preventics is safer than to let it run and be obliged to cure it afterwards. To be sure, Preventics will cure even a deeply seated cold, but taken early—at the sneeze stage—they break, or head off these early colds. That's surely better. That's why they are called Preventics. Preventics are little Candy Cold Cures. No Quinine, no physic, nothing sickening. Nice for the children—and thoroughly safe too. If you feel chilly, if you sneeze, if you ache all over, think of Preventics. Promptness may also save half your usual sickness. And don't forget your child, if there is feverishness, night or day. Herein probably lies Preventics' greatest efficiency. Sold in 5c boxes for the pocket, also in 25c boxes of 48 Preventics. Insist on your druggist giving you

Nervous Worn-Out

If you are in this condition, your nerve force is weak—the power is giving out, the organs of your body have "slowed up," and do their work imperfectly. This failure to do the work required, clogs the system and brings distress and disease. When the nerves are weak the heart is unable to force the life-giving blood through your veins; the stomach fails to digest food; the kidneys lack power to filter impurities from the blood, and the poisonous waste remains in the system to breed disease. Nerve energy must be restored. Dr. Miles' Nerve will do it, because it strengthens the nerves; it is a nerve medicine and tonic, that rebuilds the entire nervous system.

"Several years ago I was all broken down. I was nervous, worn-out, could not sleep, and was in constant pain. I doctored for months, and finally the doctor said he could do nothing for me. I began taking Dr. Miles' Nerve, and used altogether eight bottles, and I became strong and healthy, and now weigh 170 pounds."

E. C. CUNNINGHAM,
108 Ellsworth Ave., Allegheny, Pa.
Dr. Miles' Nerve is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.
