DUTCH DINNER FOR SUMMER.

Satisfactory Meal When the Temperature Is Soaring.

For a cold Dutch dinner for a hot summer night place upon a polished table a large lace centerpiece and under each plate place a dolly to match. In the middle of the table put a boat or shoe of Dresden china filled with blue corn flowers. Use glass candlesticks with white candles and blue and white Dresden shades, blue and white Dresden china, and cut glass, when it is needed. Use as little silver as possible in serving. The place cards are blue and white windmills with the name on the upright arm of paddle. A blue and silver fan, swung by white ribbons from the back of each lady's chair is a dainty and acceptable souvenir, while at each man's plate a dainty bunch of corn flowers for his buttonhole may be placed. If possible have the maids in blue dresses with white aprons and Dutch caps. Olives, salted nuts, bonbons, and so on, should be served in china wheelbarrows, boats and shoes. Above the table swing a large five-pointed star of ferns and depend from the center a crescent of corn flowers.

If a still greater transformation in the appearance of the room is desired, slip covers of blue and white Dresden silk may be used for the dining room chairs. These are cool looking and dainty, also allowable for the season. The menu suggestions always are flexible and may be changed according to the ideas of the hostess or to the possibilities of the market at this season.

A Curtain Effect.

A pretty way to arrange bedroom window curtains is this: The upper sash is hung with a dainty flowered muslin, and the lower with a filmy madras. Both are simple sash curtains and thus will be easily laundered. The colored curtain is protected from the light by the shade, which is usually drawn to the middle of the window. For this reason the colored curtain will not be liable to fade.

The colored curtain is much prettier if ruffled with white. This scheme gives a charming touch of color at the windows, but admits of the use of the sash curtain as a screen for the lower part of the window.

Handy Clothes Rack.

A good clothes rack is made of lumber one inch square, of oblong shape, the longest side being five feet and the shortest side three feet in length. One side is hinged to the wall at a convenient height and place. A small screw pulley wheel is screwed into the ceiling directly above the center of the frame. Attach a rope to the outside edge of the frame, passing it through the pulley above so as to raise or lower as you wish. Small ropes are fastened to the frame lengthwise, in parallel lines, nine inches apart. When not in use this can be drawn close to the wall.

A Hot Weather Dessert.

Pineapple Cream.—The foundation for this delicious dessert is a can of pineapple, or a pineapple large enough to fill a pint measure when shredded. Shred very fine and bring to a boil with half a pound of sugar, strain over half an ounce of gelatine which has been dissolved in just enough cold water to cover it. When cool, but not yet formed, stir in the beaten whites of three eggs and half a pint of whipped cream; pour into a mold and set on ice to cool. If you use the canned, shredded pineapple, which is almost like preserves, you will not need to add the sugar.

Making Eyelets.

There's a new way of making those troublesome eyelets discovered by a girl who is locally famous for inventing labor-saving ideas. It consists in running the eyelet around and then cutting it from end to end and buttonholing it, making the stitches as deep as those upon the usual buttonhole, but reversing the stitch so that the edge stitches back upon the material instead of around the open edge of the eyelet. It is about one-fifth as hard to do as the usual way, and the difference in length of time is even more marked.

Frozen Pineapple Souffle.

Pare and grate two pineapples. The pulp should measure one pint; add to this the juice of one lemon and a pint of sugar. Cover half a box of gelatin with half a cup of cold water and let stand half an hour; beat the yolks of six eggs until creamy; then add to the pineapple and mix well. Put gelatin over hot water; when it is dissolved add to pineapple; turn the mixture into the freezer; when it begins to thicken add one pint of whipped cream; pack in salt and ice and let stand about three hours.

Cocoon and Rice Pudding.

Cook half a cup of rice with three pints of milk and let it cook till very soft; then cool it. Beat together the yolks of five eggs and the whites of three, a cup of sugar and a cup of grated cocoon; if this last is desiccated; soften with a little milk and squeeze dry. Stir in the rice and bake in the oven till it is a custard. Make a meringue of the two whites of the eggs and put on top. Serve cold.

Keep Old Strainers.

Don't throw away your old coffee strainer. Hang it over the sink and use, when emptying tea or coffee pot, to catch the tea leaves or coffee grounds, which can be then emptied on to a paper and put in to garbage. A strainer about three or three and one-half inches in diameter is suitable for this purpose.

Edgar Allen Poe.

We see in our daily paper that it is proposed to celebrate the birthday of the poet, Edgar Allen Poe, who, "Chambers' Encyclopedia" declares to have been perhaps the finest and most original poetical genius in America. It reminds us of a story. A collector of autographs was anxious to obtain one of Poe's signatures and wrote Horace Greeley: "My Dear Sir: It occurs to me that in your wide correspondence you may have a signature of the late lamented Edgar A. Poe, and if you have one, and would kindly let me have it, I shall be greatly obliged"; to which Greeley replied: "My Dear Sir: I never had but one signature of the late lamented Edgar A. Poe; it is attached to one of his promissory notes which cost me twenty-five dollars, and I shall be glad to sell it to you at half price." Horace Greeley.

Japanese Jingo Editor.

The government of Japan summoned the newspaper proprietors and editors of Tokio before the home department recently and officially advised them to abstain from publishing inflammatory matter dealing with the American question.

The Daily Mainichi published at Osaka with a claimed circulation of 250,000, published an article on the reported attack of a Japanese flower gardener at Berkeley, Cal. Some boys had thrown a few stones at a greenhouse belonging to a Japanese. Yet this trifling incident aroused the editor of the big Japanese paper to say editorially:

"The outrage demonstrates the impotency of the California authorities to protect our compatriots. Now is no time to rest assured on the stereotyped diplomatic assurance from the Washington government. Only two weeks after a positive declaration to take preventive measures to safeguard Japanese rights comes the Berkeley outrage. * * * * *

High School Building Damaged.

The damage done by lightning to the High School building last week by the storm was not nearly so great as was at first expected. The lightning struck the cupola and a good many shingles were torn off and slight damage to the interior woodwork of the cupola. The entire damage is estimated at about $40.

The Only Fear.

BY ROY FARRELL GREENE.
Have you a something of moment planned,
Of work, or barter, or sale?
And do you now like a craven stand
Deterred by the fear you'll fail?
Then may this message of mine ring clear,
And prompt you your wings by test:
The only failure a man should fear
Is failure to do his best!

Members of Kilties Band.

Two members of the Kilties band where young men whose mother is well known to many Falls City people. They are Charles and Rudolph Hiller. Mrs. Hiller, nee Maggie Rhine, lived here many years ago, making her home with her brother's wife, Mrs. Sarah P. Rhine. Charles Hiller was here with his mother about twenty-four years ago, a little lad in kilts, scarcely more than three years old.

Although a man grown he returns in kilts. The younger brother made his first visit to this city with the famous band. These boys come from a family of natural musicians on their father's side and since wee boys have been identified with prominent musical organizations. When eighteen years of age Charlie Hiller was director of an orchestra in Oskaloosa, Ia., that was so highly appreciated as to be called upon to play in Minneapolis, Milwaukee, Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago and many other prominent cities. They are both thorough musicians and will undoubtedly make their mark in the musical world.

You Find What you Look for.

Whoever would be happy must make up his mind to see only the good in others, to hunt for the beautiful things in their characters and to ignore the ugly things; to look for harmony and to avoid discord.

To hold the loving thought, as a mother does toward her children, develops the better side. The delicate flower of manhood or womanhood will not blossom in the foggy, chilly atmosphere of hatred, of jealous envy, and condemnation. It must have the warm sun of love, of praise, of appreciation, of encouragement, to call out its beauty and to produce the perfect flower.

Never allow yourself to condemn or form a habit of criticizing others. No matter what they do, hold toward them perpetually the kindly thought, the love thought. Determine to see only that which is good and sweet and wholesome and lovely in them. Try to see the man or woman that God intended, not the warped, twisted and deformed one which a vicious life may have made; and you will generally find what you are looking for.

You will never find the straight by looking for the crooked, or holding the crooked thought in the mind. If you are constantly criticizing or finding fault, instead of praising or appreciating, you will ruin your power of seeing the beautiful and the true, just as a habitual liar loses the power to tell the truth.

If you habitually hold the deformed thought, the ironical, the skeptical, the pessimistic, the depreciative thought, you will ruin your ability to see or appreciate merit, or what is good and true.

Good Cheer vs. Drugs.

There is no drug which can compete with cheerfulness. A jolly whole-hearted sunny physician is worth more than all the remedies in an apothecary shop. A writer known for his cheerful sayings received a letter from a lady, stating that one of his humorous poems had saved her life.

Dr. A. J. Sanderson says: "The power of cheerfulness to do good like a medicine is not an artificial stimulus of the tissues, to be followed by reaction and greater waste, as is the case with many drugs; but the effect of cheerfulness is an actual life-giving influence throughout a normal channel, the results of which reach every part of the system. It brightens the eye, makes ruddy the countenance, brings elasticity to the step, and promotes all the inner force by which life is sustained. The blood circulates more freely, the oxygen comes to its home in the tissues, health is promoted and disease is banished."

President Lincoln's Kindness.

Three tiny kittens were crawling about the tent at the time. The mother had died, and the little wanderers were expressing their grief by mewling piteously. Mr. Lincoln picked them up, took them on his lap, stroked their soft fur and murmured: "Poor little creatures, you'll be taken good care of," and turning to Bowers, said: "Colonel, I hope you will see that these little motherless waifs are given plenty of milk and treated kindly." Bowers replied: "I will see, Mr. President, that they are taken in charge by the cook of our mess, and are well cared for." Several times during his stay Mr. Lincoln was found fondling these kittens. He would wipe their eyes tenderly with his handkerchief, stroke their smooth coats, and listen to them purring their gratitude to him. It was a curious sight at an army headquarters, upon the eve of a great military crisis in the nation's history, to see the hand which had affixed the signature to the Emancipation Proclamation, and had signed the commissions of all the heroic men who served the cause of the Union, from the general-in-chief to the lowest lieutenant, tenderly caressing three stray kittens. It well illustrated the kindness of the man's disposition, and showed the childlike simplicity which was mingled with the grandeur of his nature.—Our Dumb Animals.
