

LOCAL LORE.

Eat Sowles' candy.

Mason fruit jars at Heck's feed store. 85-3t.

Mrs. A. Graham has been quite ill during the week.

Will Boyd came down from Salem last Monday.

J. W. Shaffer was over from Hiawatha last Friday.

P. G. Bacakos was on the sick list several days this week.

Chas. McCool was down from Salem Monday of this week.

W. H. Putnam and wife spent Sunday with friends in Barada.

Hazel White returned Friday from a short visit to Hiawatha friends.

Misses Grace Hoppe and Verna Story visited friends in Preston last Sunday.

Prof. Tobie and wife spent last Sunday with the professor's parents in Hiawatha.

Mrs. Orville Schoenheit and son returned Friday from a visit to Kansas City friends.

Quite a number were over from Hiawatha last Thursday evening to hear the band concert.

Mrs. L. E. Plumb of Rulo came up Saturday for a few days visit with relatives in our city.

Minnie Wolff assisted at the Candy Kitchen this week in the absence of her sister, Rosa.

Mrs. John W. Powell and Miss May Maddox went to Auburn Monday to hear the Innes Band.

Miss Rosa Wolff was absent from her duties in the Candy Kitchen this week owing to serious illness.

Mrs. Ward of Tecumseh came down to attend the funeral of Harry Grinstead, returning to her home Saturday night.

J. R. Whitaker came home Tuesday night after three weeks spent in Kansas City and several Kansas towns looking after business interests.

Mrs. Caffery stopped off between trains last Saturday to meet friends on her way from Kearney, Neb., to her home in Mound City, Mo.

John Wilson made a business trip to Rulo Saturday and from there went to Mound City to spend Sunday with his family who are visiting there.

Among those who came over from Hiawatha Thursday evening to hear the band concert were Cliff Hayer, Karl Phipps, Tom Baker and Blaine Robison.

Misses Grace and Anna Everett of Bonner Springs, Kans., who have been visiting the Misses Greenwald left Thursday for Plattsmouth to visit friends.

We have been enjoying a delightful change in the weather this week. So far there has been a fine breeze and clear cool days, a merciful change from the intense heat of last week.

Among those who were camping at Missouri Lakes last week who returned Friday were Mrs. Dave Davies and children, Misses Mattie Schock, Lillian Oswald, Elta Boose, Mable and Carrie Greenwald and their friends, Misses Grace and Anna Everett of Bonner Springs, Kans.

Mrs. W. H. Kerr went to Omaha Friday called there by the serious illness of her daughter Mrs. Bruno Hansen who is seriously ill and it is feared an operation for appendicitis will be necessary. Mrs. Kerr was met here by Mrs. Dr. L. C. Kerr from Kansas City who is nursing Mrs. Hansen.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lichty and daughter, Marie left Wednesday for Ashland, Ohio to visit their son A. H. Lichty. They will stop on their way east in Zion City for a few days with relatives and on their return will visit Winona Lake, Ind., to attend the Brethern assembly and visit relatives.

Ray Meyers is in Chicago visiting friends and relatives.

P. O. Avery was down from Humboldt the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Heck went to Rulo Wednesday to attend the picnic.

Jim Gillispie of Reserve made his customary visit to Falls City Sunday.

Mrs. J. R. Pickett returned on Thursday from a visit to Lincoln and Sterling.

Frank Martin came down from Council Bluffs to spend Sunday with his parents.

Roy and Ruth Bohrer are visiting their grand parents west of Salem this week.

Miss Ethel Bohrer is visiting friends in Auburn this week and attending chautauqua.

Mrs. Jake Tanner and daughter, Helen, are visiting relatives in Arapahoe this week.

Pauline, the little daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Harnack was very sick the last of last week.

Mrs. T. L. Himmelmreich is entertaining her friend, Mrs. Sawyer, of Wheaton, Ill., this week.

Dr. and Mrs. Wolfe returned Friday from a pleasant visit of a few days with Humboldt friends.

Mrs. Tobie and her sister-in-law, Miss Tobie, visited friends in Verdon a few days this week.

Roy Heacock and Dow Whitaker went to Humboldt Tuesday to the base ball tournament.

A. N. McFaden, who came from Oklahoma with the body of Harry Grinstead returned to his home Monday.

We are happy to announce Mrs. Jesse Morton among the new subscribers to this family necessity this week.

Miss Catheryne McMahn is among the faithfuls who testified their approval of this family necessity this week.

J. R. Cain, jr., is another of the friends of this family necessity that have renewed their faith during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Resterer and daughter, Helen were called to St. Joe Saturday by the death of Mr. Resterer's sister Mrs. Boone.

Mr. Wroth Yancey of Lexington, Ky., is the guest of Miss Floy Grinstead at the home of her sister Mrs. Gilligan this week.

C. F. Weick of Route 3 was an agreeable caller at our office one day last week. He came in to show his approval of this great family necessity.

George Grinstead came over from Maitland, Mo., to attend the funeral of his brother, Harry, and spent a few days with his father and sisters.

Mrs. John Smith and son Gerald, left Wednesday night for their home in Texas after spending the summer at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller.

F. W. Samuelson took time enough from business while in the city the first of the week to make us a friendly call and renew his faith with our family necessity.

Sheriff Fenton and wife went to Humboldt last Saturday to attend the funeral of Harry Grinstead and returned to Dawson where they spent Sunday with relatives.

Frank Phipps of Hiawatha was in town Monday between trains. He was on his way to Humboldt where he will play with the Humboldt band during the ball tournament.

Miss Anita Wilson, who went to Cleveland with her uncle's family a few weeks ago to visit, has decided to remain until Christmas and study music. She is a splendid violinist and in Cleveland has the advantage of exceptionally good teachers. We wish her both success and pleasure.

Satisfied?

Well I Should Say So!

Try our Ice Cream and Ices, Nut Sundaes and Sodas, and you will be satisfied.

"The Taste Tells" SOWLES

The fall term of Toland's Business University begins Tuesday, Sept. 10. Special terms to students enrolling now. Positions guaranteed all who excel. Send for catalogue. It is free. Address The Toland School, Nebraska City, Neb. 83-4t.

Jake Heim was a visitor from Dawson to our city Monday.

Chas. Guenzenhauser was a Humboldt visitor to our city on Monday.

Ernest Fergus was among the number down from Humboldt on Monday.

Karl Rauch of near Stella was a pleasant caller at our office on Monday of this week.

Miss Marguerite Horricks is assisting County Clerk Hutchings during the absence of Miss Cain.

Mrs. Sedelmayer came up from Kansas City Friday night for a visit with her many friends in this city.

Miss Edna Horricks is filling the position of cashier at Cleveland's department store during Mrs. Cleveland's absence in Canada.

Ethel Parchen went to Reserve Kans., Thursday for a two weeks visit with the family of T. C. Gillispie and her cousin Miss Kase.

Herman Beachy, Ralph Lewis and Jean Cain were among the Falls City people who took in the chautauqua at St. Joe last Sunday.

Miss Josephine Gehling is at home after six weeks spent with her mother at Excelsior Springs. Mrs. Gehling is much improved in health.

Among the Falls City people who are camping at the Missouri lakes this week is one jolly party composed of Mrs. Fred Cain, Miss Meeker Cain, Miss Mary Paxton, Bob Neitzel and Max Werner.

EVERYTHING COOL REFRESHING

When you are thirsty you will find NUT SUNDAES, CRUSHED FRUIT SODAS—ALL SUMMER DRINKS—Everything in Fresh fruits and handmade Candies.

Electric fans for your comfort.

Yours to Please,
P. G. Bacakos.

Mrs. I. B. Loucks was called to eastern Ohio last Sunday by the death of her father, Grandfather Culp who was 94 years and 8 months old. Mrs. Loucks is a sister of our former townsman, Joseph Culp, now of Hooper, Col. The Tribune wishes to extend sympathy to these and other members of the family.

Among the relatives from out of town who came to attend the funeral of Harry Grinstead held from the home of his sister, Mrs. John Gilligan last Saturday were: Dr. and Mrs. Waggener and children, J. T. Waggener and Lillith, Humboldt; R. E. Grinstead, J. P. Grinstead, Miss Grace Harlan and Miss Lila Spurlock, Salem; George D. Grinstead and wife, Maitland, Mo.; Irvin Shirley and wife, Humboldt; Mrs. Emma Grinstead and daughter, Lincoln; and Mrs. LeRoy Judd, Dawson.

M. E. Ulmer of Dawson was in town Monday.

George Boyer made a business trip to Rulo Saturday.

Mrs. Bell Mulligan has been quite sick the past week.

Jake Snithen was down from Dawson Monday on business.

Ernest Fergus of Humboldt was a business visitor here Monday.

This is court week and there are a good many strangers in town.

Harry McConnell was a Humboldt visitor to Falls City on Monday.

George Smith of Dawson, made a business trip to our city Monday.

John Wilson our enterprising tailor, made a business trip to Rulo Saturday.

W. L. White returned Saturday morning from a business trip to Sterling, Neb.

Miss Bertha Simmons of Humboldt visited her aunt, Mrs. Milo Shields this week.

J. E. Leyda returned Saturday from a business trip to the Western part of the state.

Florence Parchen spent a few days this week with her aunt Mrs. Frauenfelder of Verdon.

Everett Higgins left Saturday evening for a visit with relatives at Wathena and Robinson, Kas.

Homer Fisher went to Auburn Saturday to remain over Sunday with his parents and attend chautauqua.

C. F. Reavis returned Saturday night from a business trip to the Margrave's ranch in Sheridan county.

Vern Ripley of the Journal force went to Shanandoah, Ia., Sunday for a short visit with his parents.

The genial editor of the Hiawatha World, Ewing Herbert, made his regular visit to Falls City last Sunday.

Dr. Hahn returned Sunday from Southern Kansas where he had been looking after land and other business matters.

Dr. Kerr returned from Omaha Sunday night, his daughter, Mrs. Hanson, being somewhat better and he felt less alarmed when leaving.

Misses Anna and Wilma Meyers went to Auburn last Thursday where they visited relatives and attended the opening of the chautauqua.

Barney Mullen was down from Stella Saturday. We were glad to receive a call from him and find he had unwavering faith in this family necessity.

J. L. Mendenhall of Beatrice was in town Monday to see if Agent Whitford was running the B. & M. Station to suit him. He found things all O. K.

Mrs. H. S. Zumbum and daughter, Pearl of Nelson, Neb., are visiting Mrs. John Stitzler. They are on their way home from a visit in Kansas City.

Mrs. Sue E. DeWald and little grandson, Otho Watson, went to Verdon Wednesday morning to attend the picnic and to visit Mrs. DeWald's daughter, Mrs. M. D. Lum.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Minshall and daughter returned to their home near Tryon, Okla., Saturday morning after a two weeks visit with Mrs. Minshall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Nedrow.

Miss Frances Morton returned to Silverton, Col., last Friday morning after a two weeks visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Morton, Miss Morton has charge of the library at Silverton.

Wm. Brandow was down from Humboldt Monday of this week. Mr. Brandow is a candidate for nomination for the office of assessor on the Republican ticket and is making a thorough canvass. If nominated he will make a good fight for election.

A GOOD SCHOOL

The Gund Brewing Co., LaCrosse, Wis., pays Toland Graduates $30,000 per Annum.
The Chicago & Northwestern Railway Co. pays Toland Graduates more than $30,000 per Annum.
The Swift Packing Co., South St. Paul, pays Toland Graduates more than $12,000 per Annum.
Railroads of other firms pay Toland Graduates from $3,000 to $10,000 per Annum.

Why Do These Firms Give the Toland Graduates the Preference?

Why do Toland Graduates succeed where others fail?
Send for our beautiful, free catalogue, and you will know.

ADDRESS TOLAND BUSINESS UNIVERSITY,
NEBRASKA CITY, NEBRASKA.
DO IT NOW.

Mrs. John Hossack was quite sick the latter part of last week.

John Gunzenhauser was down from Humboldt on business the first of the week.

Herold Lord visited relatives and friends at Salem for about a week recently.

Wallace Chaffin was over from Reserve to spend Sunday with Falls City friends.

Little Elizateth Barton was quite ill a few days the latter part of last week.

Dowty Watson of Reserve spent Sunday here with his sister Mrs. Jessie Sears.

Wilson Schock went to Hiawatha Monday where he takes treatment under Dr. Downing.

B. F. Morgan and wife spent Monday at Straussville at the home of their son, Ed. Morgan.

Tom Davis went to Hiawatha Monday where he is taking treatment at Dr. Downing's sanitarium.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fergus of Humboldt were guests of the family of Preston Fergus of this city over Sunday.

Henry G. Mehlman was down from Humboldt on business this week and while here made us a very friendly call.

Frank Landis, foreman of the Martins' jobbing office in Council Bluffs was at home to spend Sunday with his family.

F. W. Samuelson was down from Lincoln over Sunday to spend a few days with his wife and other relatives here.

Mrs. A. Powell visited relatives here the latter part of last week on her way from Sterling to her home in Sabetha, Kans.

Henry Barton and George Schmelzel went out in Holt Co., Thursday night to look at land. They returned Sunday night.

Mrs. John Gehling with her little daughter, Clara, left Monday for Milwaukee, Wis., for a month's visit with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Resterer went to St. Joe Saturday, called there by the death of Mr. Resterer's sister, Mrs. George Boone.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Morgan are happy over the arrival of a little daughter who came to make her home with them Sunday August 11th.

D. W. Sowles went to St. Joe Sunday to attend the funeral of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Boone which was held in that city Monday morning.

Scott Stump, Dow Whitaker and Walter McKeiver were among the number from this place who attended chautauqua at Auburn Monday.

Rev. W. T. Cline was called to Hiawatha Monday to conduct the funeral of Mrs. Stollsmith, the mother-in-law of Rev. J. W. Scott, pastor of the M. E. church in Hiawatha.

E. L. McFaden was over from Hiawatha last Friday in the interest of the Brown county Fair association and was a caller at our office. Mr. McFaden is an old time printer having worked at the trade as early as '63 and '64.

Seed Rye.

See P. B. Weaver. Phone office 86, home 176. 86-2t

Dressmaking

Wanted by the Misses Moody at their home six blocks east of the post office.

WANTED:—To open a private school, kindergarten, intermediate and college preparatory courses. Ten pupils required. Best references.

FLORENCE GUERRIER,
Atchison, Kans.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the good friends and neighbors, also the members of our lodge, K. & L. of S. No. 610, for their kindness and sympathy at the time of the death of our beloved wife and mother.

JAMES E. METTZ AND FAMILY.

Salem Interstate Chautauqua.

The thirteenth assembly of the Salem chautauqua will be held at the chautauqua grove August 24 to September 1. The management offers a program this year which cannot be surpassed in any Nebraska assembly. The chautauqua is a little late in the season but it will be just the time when most people can go and enjoy the outing.

PLATED

SILVER

that is

RELIABLE

Many people imagine that the plated silver of these commercial days is not lasting—that its made only to sell.

It is true there is much "stuff" of that description on the market, but it is not the kind we offer.

Our plated ware is excellent in quality and we guarantee it to stand years of constant use.

Our name is on every piece to stand behind the guarantee.

Knives

Forks

Spoons

at moderate cost, with the style and finish of solid silver.

A. E. JAQUET

"THE OLD RELIABLE"
JEWELER.