

Some Neglected History.

A great many of the voters of this state will recollect when their attention is called to it, that Judge Reese has had his vindication at the hands of the republican party, in this state. The studied effort of those antagonizing Judge Sedgwick, to keep this fact of Judge Reese's nomination and defeat, ten years after the Hastings convention, out of sight and out of mind, simply illustrates their unfairness and their desire to mislead the public.

At the state convention held in Hastings in 1889 Judge Reese was refused a renomination. This fact stirred the state from one end to the other and from that time there was a great wave of public sympathy for Judge Reese and bitterness toward those who deprived him of his renomination. There were many active and influential republicans who kept this sentiment for Judge Reese and against those who deprived him of a renomination alive and burning, and these republicans insisted so strenuously that Judge Reese be given a vindication at the hands of the party, and an opportunity to vindicate himself, that this vindication was brought about ten years later. At the republican state convention in Omaha in 1899 a judge of the supreme court was to be nominated and the friends of Judge Reese felt and believed that the time had come for his vindication. When the convention took a ballot, M. B. Reese, S. H. Sedgwick, S. P. Davidson, E. C. Calkins and Lorenzo Crouse were candidates and balloted for. Judge Reese led all the list and immediately the supporters of Judge Sedgwick in that convention moved to make his nomination unanimous.

So ten years after his turning down at Hastings Judge Reese was made with great enthusiasm, the republican candidate for judge of the supreme court again. The condition of affairs in republican state politics at this time was this: In the election one year previous in 1898 Judge M. L. Hayward of Nebraska City, the republican candidate for governor, came within 2,721 votes of being elected and the republican party carried the legislature of the state. This legislature later elected Mr. Hayward, U. S. senator. The republican party was back in power in many places and the opposition was rapidly being overcome. So when Judge Reese was nominated in 1899 the feeling was universal that he would prove so strong that his election would be certain and that the party and himself would be vindicated.

In the campaign that followed there was a unanimity of support on the part of republicans that added to the feeling that Judge Reese would be surely elected. The fact was, however, that on the official vote of that year Silas A. Holcomb defeated Judge Reese by a majority of 15,107 votes, while the fusion candidate for regent on the same ticket with Holcomb, only carried the state by 1,791 votes. To those who recall that campaign the reason for Judge Reese's defeat is remembered. He was nominated and announced before the people as a candidate who could not be criticized and yet in no campaign in recent years has there been a candidate that was more strongly criticized than he was. The opposition papers developed the fact through the publication of fac similes of warrants, that a member of his family had drawn a salary as stenographer of the court and the charge was made and never denied that no service was rendered for this compensation. It was a charge that cut wide and deep; that discouraged republicans, and was made use of all over this state by the opposite party. Further the record of the vote of that year discloses that in some of the strongest agricultural counties, Judge Reese made his poorest showing; that in some of these counties his vote was greatly reduced through the fact, which was an issue in the campaign, that years before as a railroad attorney, farmers held much bitterness against him from cases that were tried against their interests.

This is all a part of the unsavory political history of less than ten years ago in this state. It is remarkable, to say the least, that the supporters of Judge Reese today seek to cover and keep from sight this record when the republican party vindicated him, and when he himself failed to secure a vindication at the hands of the voters of this state in 1899. From the nearly complete republican success in this state in 1898, when Judge Hayward came so near an election as governor, and the republicans secured the legislature, the republican party took a long step backward, when Judge Reese was defeated by over 15,000 votes in 1899. In the year 1900 the republicans again commenced their return to power by carrying the state and electing a governor who was not more popular in his own party than Judge Reese was the year before.

In 1901 Judge Sedgwick was nominated for judge of the supreme court and he was elected by a majority of 12,659, a vote when compared with Holcomb's majority gives a difference of 27,766 votes in the two years from the Reese campaign in 1899 to the Sedgwick campaign in 1901.

Women's Need of Sleep.

Women need far more sleep than the average man. Many men can get along with four or five hours sleep, arise and are perfectly refreshed. Not so with the average woman. She needs at the very least seven hours of good uninterrupted sleep, and if she is a nervous, high-strung woman she needs at least ten. Just as soon as you begin to steel the hours that you should be sleeping, you will age with about twice the rapidity that you would were you giving the allotted time to rest that your physical being craves. Sleep reduces fever, it relieves pain, it helps nutrition, it courts beauty—the loss of it leaves you a wreck that nothing can repair.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my book on either Dyspepsia, the Heart or the Kidneys. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart and Kidneys are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak stomach nerves—the inside nerves—mean stomach weakness, always. And the heart, and kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample and free book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative is sold by all dealers.

A Definition of Success.

How have the hypothetical scientists and the exponents of unbelief benefited themselves or humanity at large by sowing the seeds of doubt broadcast in the world? The real scientists do not fall in this category for they are believers in the real sense of the word: they know too much they have seen many mysterious manifestations of the divine creative power. Now, those who have disposed of the Bible and all evidences of inspiration, have written a great many books and some of them have won what the world at large lightly calls fame. According to the ordinary measures that are applied in such cases, they have been extremely successful, but real success means the benefit of humanity in some form or other. If no such benefit can be shown as the result of their labors, their success is not equal to that achieved by the direst poverty and the deepest ignorance.

Early Morning Blaze.

The Burlington depot in this city was completely destroyed by fire shortly after four o'clock this (Friday) morning, the blaze supposedly originated from live coals thrown on the roof by a passing engine on No. 11. The fire was of the spectacular sort and was witnessed by the major portion of our people who were awakened by the mill whistle and the fire alarm. By the time the company reached the scene the fire had practically destroyed the depot, and the two streams from the hose were immediately turned on the Butterfield elevator across the tracks in an effort to save that structure which was already on fire in one or two places. Two lengths of hose burst under the pressure which caused some delay and for a time it looked like the elevator would go too. Fortunately there was no wind and when once the water started little difficulty was experienced in controlling the flames.

Passenger train No. 42 and a freight, both east bound, passed through while the structure was still ablaze, going through on the passing track.

Practically every thing contained in the building was destroyed, the fire being under such headway before discovered by Operator Rosling that he was simply able to notify headquarters, take the typewriter and escape. The mail from night trains 11 and 41 was stored in the depot and the greater portion of it was destroyed, that which was saved being in a badly damaged condition. Fortunately The Leader is printed a day late and therefore escaped a general destruction.

Those who took time to look at the reflection of the blaze against the trees and house tops of the city in the darkness were repaid by a view of the beautiful, which no artist's brush can reproduce. It is too early to know what steps the company will take toward rebuilding, and just what their plans will be no one knows at present. In the meantime it is quite probable that some box car will be pressed into duty as temporary quarters for the agent and his helpers.

Numerous records, the office furniture and equipment were totally destroyed but as the company records are all in duplicate no financial loss will result along this line. Much of the baggage and paraphernalia of the carnival performers was stored in the freight room awaiting shipment and was practically all consumed, together with several grips belonging to home citizens and their guests.—Humboldt Leader.

HEALTH FOR ALL WOMEN.

Why Lose the Buoyancy of Youth? Whether Young or Old—Every Woman May be Healthy.

To look well and feel well, you must be well. To do this, you must keep the mechanism of your body in perfect running order.

A woman's constitution is far more intricate and delicate—more easily injured and disarranged—than the mechanism of the finest watch. Yet no one would think of allowing a watch to get all out of order before repairing or cleaning it.

How many young ladies there are, who pay no attention to the first symptoms of diseased organs. Pains in the back, head, abdomen, right or left side, and sometimes in the hips and lower limbs. Tired and languid feeling in the morning; worn out or distracted nerves, leading to a cross and petulant disposition. Natural color fading from the cheek, the light and lustre from the eye, the once pleasant smile from the face—all these going or gone. What does it mean? Simply that some one or more of the delicate organs are not performing their work as they should.

Nature needs some assistance. These aches and pains—although slight at first—are danger signals, and you ought to heed their warnings before the trouble becomes chronic and disease gets a firm hold on your system.

A nerve- tonic and strength-builder—the best you can get—is what you need at such times. Zoa-Phora is just that; ladies—lots of them—who used it, say so. We know it is so because Zoa-Phora is made for women—all women—old and young, and has a successful record for thirty years. We want you to know this too by a thorough trial of Zoa-Phora in your own case. Whether you are slightly ailing from periodical sickness, or suffering from some form of womanly weakness in a more serious degree, Zoa-Phora will help you. Thousands similarly afflicted have been cured by its aid, why not you? The record of what Zoa-Phora has done for women is proof of its virtue. The Zoa-Phora Co., Kalamazoo, Mich., can send you books of testimonials containing the names of hundreds of women who are glad to recommend Zoa-Phora to their suffering sisters.

If the delicate organs are congested, relaxed, displaced, or in any way diseased, and do not perform their duties properly and regularly, Zoa-Phora will restore them to their normal activity. The vital force known only to a healthy woman will return and there will be joy in living.

Thousands of women—not hundreds—my sister, attest the fact of the restoration of their health by the use of Zoa-Phora. Ask some of your lady friends about Zoa-Phora. Better still, go to a reliable druggist and get a bottle, begin its use according to full and complete instruction in each package. You will receive Zoa-Phora from the druggist already prepared, compounded in just the right proportions, and put up in sealed, sterilized, one dollar bottles. Just ask for Zoa-Phora—no other explanation will be needed—and no mistake will be made.

In each package will be found a copy of "Dr. Pengelly's Advice to women," a medical book giving interesting and instructive information about all diseases of women, and the way to successfully treat them in the privacy of your own home. You need not tell your troubles to any one.

Hundreds of people yearly go through painful operations needlessly, because they never tried Man Zan Pile Remedy. It is put up in such a form that it can be applied right where the trouble lies. It relieves the pain and inflammation. It is for any form of piles. Price 50 cts. Sold by A. G. Wanner.
