Some Wheat After All.

Did we hear something about the wheat crop of Kansas going to be a failure? We are under the impression that we heard some pessimistic, jaundiced individuals talking as if the crop would not be worth cutting, says the Mail and Breeze.

It is now estimated that the wheat crop of Kansas will total 72,000,000 bushels.

Of course, that isn't a great deal for Kansas. Ordinarily the total would be 100,000,000 bushels, but then 72,000,000 is considerable.

It is worth at present market prices more than $61,000,000, and that amounts to about $40 for each man, woman and child in the state.

It would load 72,000 cars putting 1,000 bushels in a car, which makes a mighty big carload.

It would make 4,320,000,000 loaves of bread bigger than the average baker's loaf.

If the great Santa Fe system were called on to pull the entire wheat crop out of the state at once, it would have to gather in all of its 50,000 freight cars, remodel them for hauling wheat and then it would have to borrow or steal 25,000 cars from other roads. Stretched in continuous line the cars necessary to hold this small crop of Kansas wheat would reach a distance of 720 miles, and when the engine was whistling for St. Louis the brakeman on the rear caboose would still be casting his eye over the sage-brush plains of Eastern Colorado. It would furnish three loaves of snow white bread for each man, woman and child of whatever nationality, color or tongue that inhabits the great round earth.

No, it isn't much of a crop—we admit that, but then it is more than one-tenth of all the wheat on all the vast American continent.

No, not so bad for an off year.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my book on either Dyspepsia, the Heart or the Kidneys. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart and Kidneys are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak stomach nerves—the inside nerves—mean stomach weakness, always. And the heart, and kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample and free book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative is sold by all dealers.

Some people make as much noise eating custard pudding and soup as others do masticating radishes. As for me, for the quiet ones. I hear enough noise all day on the street.

Good Price of Nemaha Co. Land.

At last the record has been broken for Nemaha county land and broken with a vengeance at that. During the past twenty years the price of land has climbed from $35 and $40 to $100 per acre, the last named figure being considered as high as it would go for years.

Within the past year small allotments have sold at $115 to $120 per acre, but the acreage was not large enough to cut any especial figure and the trades made being usually by some land owner desirous of filling out an even acreage or blocking out his farm.

But on Wednesday of this week a new schedule of values was established on Nemaha county land when D. Harms, jr., purchased of W. H. Ressler the home place of the latter located one mile west and five miles south of Auburn, consisting of 160 acres at the price of $135 per acre or $21,600. This property is said to be the finest farm in Nemaha county both in the lay of the land and improvements.

Another land transactions of large proportion occurred Monday of this week when August Lunsman purchased of Edward Harper 240 acres located two miles northeast of Johnson at the price of $100, or $24,000 for the tract.

On Tuesday D. Harms, sr., sold his place just west of this city, consisting of three 80-acre tracts to Fred Ailor. The consideration being $21,000 or $87.50 per acre.

On Wednesday William French sold his farm of 160 acres, located four miles northeast of Auburn to C Coulter, the consideration being $17,600 or a straight price of $110 per acre.

Just what has caused the sudden flurry in Nemaha real estate with such a pronounced "bullish" trend of prices is unknown. But the fact remains that the sun shines on no fairer farms nor better soil than is contained in "old Nemaha."—Auburn Herald.

Territorial Pioneers.

The old settlers' picnic, reception and banquet to be held in Lincoln, August 30th and 31st, promises to be a great rally of Pioneers. A large number of the "old timers" from all parts of the state have already written that they expect to attend.

The meeting is given under the auspices of the Territorial Pioneers association, but all old settlers are invited to attend, even though they were not in the state in territorial days, and sons and daughters of territorial pioneers are especially requested to be present. Such meetings are gratifying, for too much honor cannot be paid the pioneer. Great praise is given the soldiers who fought to save the state, but the pioneer fought to make a state worth saving.

Engineer Killed.

H. B. Smith an engineer on the Rock Island, whose home was in Fairbury, was killed in a wreck last night at 10:30 at Thompson.

As near as can be learned he ran into an open derailer at the B. & M. junction at Thompson. He jumped when he saw he had left the track and the baggage car and tender turned over and Smith was caught underneath the overturned coach and horribly mangled.

According to the story told by the fireman who was working with Smith, there was a new man in the tower at Thompson. As No. 8 approached the station she was given the semaphore which the engineer answered. A second later the train had dashed into the open derailer.

The fireman stayed with the engine which remained upright. The baggageman and mail clerk in the overturned car were shaken up but not injured.—Fairbury News.

J. R. Whitaker returned Monday night from a business trip to Morris county, Kansas.
