Phil Hermes made a business trip to Clarinda, Ia., Monday, returning Wednesday.

A letter from our old time Richardson county nurseryman, P. Nemechek, now located at Abilene, Kans., reports another season of prosperity in that section. While the yield in small grain was not so large, the price still makes farming and stock-raising the leading avenue to wealth and our friend, Paul, appears to be in the front now. He will accept our thanks for financial favors and kind words for the Tribune.

Abe Yoder will leave Sunday for Miringo, Ia., where he will assume the management of a shoe store for the Kelley Shoe Co. He worked for the firm during the time they conducted a store in this city and the offer of manager of one of their best shoe stores comes as a compliment to a worthy young man for his efficiency in business. George Lyons has accepted the position with Harry Jenne, made vacant by Mr. Yoder's resignation.
