

LOCAL LORE.

Eat Sowles' candy.

George S. Cleveland made a business trip to St. Joe Tuesday.

Miss Anna Meyers returned Sunday from a weeks visit in Kansas City.

WANTED:—A good girl to work in the Candy Kitchen and learn to dip chocholets.

W. L. Stephons and wife moved back to their farm north west of Barada last week.

Claude Herman and Elmer Dickason were over from Hiawatha again last Sunday.

Mrs. Daisy Harkins is again back at her work in this office, after a two weeks vacation.

We are very pleased to number Will R. Holt among the new subscribers to this family necessity.

Louie Davidson left Sunday for Witchata, Kans., last Sunday where he has accepted a good position.

Mrs. C. W. Lewis of Seguin, Kansas arrived here last Saturday called by death of her mother Mrs. Cully.

Miss Clara Tanner was back in her place in the post office Monday morning after a two weeks vacation.

One of the standing ones. Editor Herbert of the Hiawatha World was over in his auto last Thursday night.

Rev. George Neide of St. Thomas Church went to Auburn Sunday afternoon to hold services for Archdeacon Moore.

Mrs. Jesse Sears has given up her position with Fred Schmitt & Co. and will return to her home in Reserve, Kansas, Sunday.

Our elegant new pattern hats have arrived and we will be pleased to show them to you.

WITTRICK & PANAUDE.

Mrs. Henry Meyers returned Saturday night from a three weeks visit with relatives and friends in Iowa and Kansas City.

Misses May and Kate Maddox left Monday to enter Wesleyan University where they will be students during the school year.

The swellest patterns and most stylish modles in the city will be found in our display room.

WITTRICK & PANAUDE.

Mrs. Margaret Maddox went to Rulo Friday morning to attend the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Gatlief Dietsch, returning Saturday.

Charlie Davis has secured the old Beaulieu property recently vacated by W. L. Stephons and he and Mrs. Davis will go to housekeeping there at once.

Uncle James McDowell was a pleasant caller at our office, last Saturday. He feels the need of this great family necessity and came in to give it another round.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dietsch and daughter Margaret of Hastings came up from Rulo Sunday afternoon. Mr. Dietsch left for his western territory Sunday night while Mrs. Dietsch and Margaret remained, the guests of Mrs. Margaret Maddox until today, Friday.

While unhitching the team from Mausts coal wagon at noon Monday the darkey driver forgot to loosen the tugs and when he started to lead the team from the wagon it was pulled upon them and in their fright they started for the barn a little more than a block away when they stopped, the wagon still with them. No damage was done.

We are glad to hear good reports from our old friend Will Schock in Las Animas Colo. Will refused an offer of $100 per acre for his melon crop last week realizing he could do so much better handling the crop himself. He is also doing fine business in his real estate and loan office. This is another Falls City young man who is making good.

Dr. Ed Hays was down from Dawson Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

There are at least eight new cement crossings being put down by the city this week.

Guy Crook went to Lincoln Wednesday to resume his studies at the State University.

Harry Cain and Herbert Maish left Wednesday for Lincoln to enter the State University.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schaible spent a few days in Kansas City the last of last week returning Saturday night.

Abe Yoder left last Sunday for Marnigo Ia., to work for the Kelly Shoe Co. We wish him success in his new position.

H. McPherson of Beatrice was in the city this week. He was called here last Friday by the death of his brother, Wm. McPherson.

Harry J. Pittock, entered the Ensworth Central Medical College at St. Joseph Mo., Sept. 16th, where he expects to attend the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwards of Kentucky who have been visiting their sister Mrs. E. L. Sandusky returned to their home last Saturday.

Mrs. A. Glenn of Ft. Worth Texas who has been visiting her niece, Mrs. Herbert Hedges, went to Humboldt Sunday for a visit with old friends.

Miss Winnie McIntire of Council Bluffs, Ia., arrived last Friday evening for a short visit with her aunt, Mrs. H. C. Davis and other Falls City friends.

A little daughter was borne to Mr. and Mrs. George Hall in Verdon last Friday morning and brings additional sunshine and happiness into another home.

A blind fiddler entertained the people on Stone street last Friday with violin and vocal music and drew quite a croud. He was on his way South for the winter.

The street commissioner has been at work in different parts of the city this week working up and filling in the streets. As a result the air has been filled with dust during the few windy days.

Mrs. W. W. Jenne returned Tuesday evening from a two months trip to the Adarondacks where she enjoyed a very pleasant summer. Mr. Jenne stopped a few days in Kansas City on business and will be at home the last of the week.

A fine big boy arrived at the home of Dr. Fred A. Keller early Friday morning September 13th, and both the mother and son are getting along particularly well. Fred has grown about a foot in dignity, and importance since the young man's advent and we hear his friends are enjoying the finest smokes in the land.

A traveling bicycle clown held forth on the street north of this office Tuesday afternoon and evening. His exhibition was pretty much the same old thing though in some things he was quite clever. His noise and silliness detracted a good deal from some of his best features. The hat was passed as usual.

John Sheard and wife came down from Humboldt Tuesday for a visit to Bart Mettz and wife. Mr. Sheard has one of the finest farms in the neighborhood of Humboldt but has been living for a few years on his land near Cathay, N. D. They are returning to North Dakota after a visit to Humboldt relatives.

The band concert was given on Tuesday night this week owing to the fact that Prof. Harnack goes to Hiawatha to take the 12th Regiment band of that city to the encampment at Ft. Riley, Kansas. The program for the concert was fine and the usual large croud was in attendance. The concerts are always a source of pleasure to our town people and also to the people in the country around our city.

Mrs. Green Nickolson was quite sick a few days the first of the week.

Col. Marion made a business trip to Manhattan, Kas., this week.

Floyd Furst of Auburn was the guest of the Spence families over Sunday.

J. L. Mendenhall of Beatrice, B. & M. claim agent was in town last Tuesday.

Miss Wilma Cline left Monday for Lincoln where she will enter Wesleyan University.

Grandma Fox, mother of Mrs. T. L. Himmelreich was quite ill the latter part of last week.

Louis McPherson leaves tonight for 'Frisco with another car of poultry for Hermes Brothers.

Mrs. A. J. Tucker of Sedalia, Mo., arrived Wednesday to visit Mr. J. L. Slocum and other Falls City friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Connett of Republican City, spent Wednesday night as guests of J. A. Hill and family.

Miss Mildred Holland went to Lincoln Tuesday where she will enter upon her second year at the State University.

Miss Bush of Los Angeles, Cal. who visited Miss Slocum last week, went to Lincoln last Saturday for a visit to friends.

Marshal Beasley and wife went to Nebraska City the first of the week for a few days visit with their daughter, Mrs. Beyette.

Sterling Falloon went to Lincoln Wednesday where he enters upon his first year as a student at the State University.

John Sleight of Griggsville, Ills., arrived in our city last Saturday, called here by the death of his sister, Mrs. Cully.

J. H. Hill arrived home Wednesday from Orwin, Ill., where he had a very pleasant time at the reunion of the 102d Illinois regiment.

Mr. Wade the Clarinda poultry buyer of this city, returned from Wymore the latter part of last week where he had been on business.

Mrs. Anderson Miller was quite ill the first of the week and for this reason Mr. Miller gave up his trip to Wyoming, at least for the present.

George Martin went to Hiawatha Wednesday where he expects to join the 12th Regiment Band as bass drummer and attend the encampment at Ft. Riley.

W. L. White moved his family into the Eversole property this week where they will reside. Mrs. Eversole expects to leave in a short time for the new home in Holdrege, Neb.

Francis Shaffer and daughter, Miss Anna, and his son James Shaffer left Tuesday for a two months trip to California where they will visit relatives and also mans places of interest.

John Roberts was down from Lincoln a few days this week, a guest at the home of Warren Hutchins. Mr. Roberts is taking a scientific course at the state university but expects soon to accept a position in Washington, D. C.

Thurston McCoy is at home this week on a visit to his mother. He is a government stenographer on the Battleship Georgia and was aboard at the time of the explosion this summer. He will spend his annual leave of absence with relatives in this city.

Miss Sarah Hutchins went to Lincoln Tuesday to visit Mrs. Ray DePutran who is giving a house party for a number of the Pi Phi young ladies. Mrs. Ray Gould of Omaha, Miss Ruth Heacock and Miss Mildred Holland of this city, and Miss Bush of Los Angeles, who has recently visited Miss Slocum in this city, are members of the party.

H. E. Boyd was down from Humboldt yesterday.

L. C. Edwards spent a few days this week in Humboldt and Rulo.

Grandma Diltz left Thursday for a months visit with relatives in Canton, Ills.

Winnie Cooper was called to Shubert Wednesday by the illness of her mother.

Rev. W. T. Cline made a trip to Lincoln Tuesday returning Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Morgan leave today, Friday, for a few days visit with Humboldt friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hoppe were down from Stella Saturday to attend the funeral of Wm. McPherson.

Mrs. George Ocomb and Miss Cora May of Rulo were shopping here and visiting friends Tuesday of this week.

Mrs. Mary Minnick spent a few days the latter part of last week with relatives in Rulo returning Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Prater and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McGuire of Hamlin, Kas., were shopping in this city Friday.

Mrs. Louis Watson of Forest City, Mo., returned to her home Monday after a few days visit with Mrs. Phil Hermes.

Patzman Sisters will show you the swellest modles in the city. Call and see our handsome patterns at the Corner Millinery.

A complete and elegant line of pattern hats, Misses school hats, childrens hoods and caps will be found at the Corner Millinery.

John Fellers of Humboldt was in town Monday evening. He was on his way to Omaha where he has a position with the Lene-gar Implement Co.

We are showing the finest line of pattern hats ever shown in this city. Call and see us. We can always please you. Corner Millinery. Patzman Sisters.

Mrs. Fred Bruhn and Miss Gentry drove down from Salem Tuesday to do some shopping in our city. While here they were pleasant callers at this office.

A little daughter was born Saturday Sept. 14th to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Nachtrieb near Atchison. Mrs. Nachtrieb was formerly Miss Anna Taylor of this city.

Herman Koehler from north of Rulo was in town Tuesday making arrangements to start to Alabama Tuesday night. He will be gone some little time and anticipates a fine trip.

L. C. Edwards and Joe Miles returned Friday from their trip to Oklahoma. They enjoyed the trip hugely and among other pleasures heard Bryan in his speech at Oklahoma City.

Mrs. Anderson Miller and daughter, Mrs. W. H. Keeling returned last Friday from a visit to the latter's daughter, Mrs. Bert Coleman of Forsythe, Mont. They had a delightful visit.

A. J. Brackhahn has rented the Blakeney livery barn west of the State Bank and will soon put in an entirely new livery stock. In the near future he will formally open the barn for business.

Winter is coming. During the week there has been a number of blind or crippled musicians, peddlers and so forth passing through the town to say nothing of the many "overland trains" through passing. There was a perfect string of the latter Tuesday.

Mrs. A. G. Wanner was taken severely ill during Sunday night, falling unconscious on the bathroom floor and remained in an unconscious state for several hours. When revived she had no recollection of anything that happened and though quite ill for a short time seems entirely recovered.

Elmer Hoselton was up from Preston Tuesday on business.

Carl Miller is now employed as clerk in J. C. Tanner's hardware store.

Mr. and Mrs. George Reichers went to Lincoln Monday for a visit with relatives.

The Towle building occupied by the Corner Millinery store, is being freshened by a coat of paint this week.

Chas Nixon of Oniga, N. Y., was in our city a few days the first of the week. He left Wednesday for Auburn.

Mrs. Stovall who visited her sister Mrs. O. Schrader of this place, returned Sunday to her home in Atchison.

Adolph Bently received word Monday of this week of the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. Ellen Hiatt of St. Joseph.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schmelzel and daughter May, came home Saturday from a weeks visit to Humboldt relatives.

Avery Bown the horse trainer, who has been in our city for the past two months, left the latter part of the past week for Beatrice.

Miss Lyba Langhening of Nishnabottom, Mo., who has been visiting Mrs. O. Schrader of this city, returned to her home Sunday.

J. H. Morehead accompanied his daughter, Miss Dorothy to Lincoln Tuesday where she will become a student at the Wesleyan University.

Herbert Hedges was at home a few days this week. He is now mail clerk running out of Kansas City and goes through this city at night on the M. P.

Mrs. W. H. Kerr will return tomorrow from Omaha accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Hanson who will remain until she gets quite strong again.

Mrs. Louis Plege underwent a very serious operation Wednesday of this week and at this time seems to be doing as well as could be expected. The operation was in charge of Dr. Houston assisted by Drs. Reneker and Fast. It is to be hoped she will improve rapidly.

Frank Gardener who was a merchant tailor here for several years and now living at Helena, Mont., spent Labor Day with the Falls City families who have recently moved to Missoula, Mont. and seemed pleased to see old friends again.

There are four poultry and produce companies doing business in this city and it is astonishing the amount of business they do. Hermes Bros. ship a car of poultry to California every three weeks besides what they ship to local and eastern markets and it is not exaggerating to say each of the other firms do as much business as this firm.

Wednesday was a red letter day with the Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. church. Twenty ladies accepted an invitation to spend a day in the country. The company consisted of Mesdames Leyda, Cline, Cameron, Schock, Greenwald, Korner, Falloon, Rule, Pittock, Stockton, DeWald, Palmer, Plumb, Musselman, Ramel, Foster, Fast, Pecht, Wilson and Hill. It goes without saying that all had a merry time. At 12 the hostess invited her guests into her dining room where tables were set with room to seat all and not only did the tables groan with the abundance and variety of edables, but the guests did also after partaking of all the good things prepared for them. Mrs. David Grush, Mrs. Berghner and Mrs. Thompson and daughter assisted in serving. At 3 o'clock lemonade was served and at 5 most delicious ice-cream, cake and watermelon. It was rather late when the ladies arrived home all united in saying a most enjoyable day had been spent at the pleasant country home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Grush.

To Start School Right

you will need a dependable timepiece

As a teacher, the correct time is indispensable to you. J. A. QUET is well provided to meet your needs along these lines.

+

Watches

Good timekeepers—from $5 up.

+

Pocket Alarm Clocks

can be carried to and from school in the pocket.

+

Desk Watches

neatly mounted on ebony base and inexpensive.

A. E. Jaquet

"The Old Reliable"

Jeweler & Optician

---

LIPPOLD & FINLEY
Blacksmiths

Horseshoeing done at 25c per shoe for resetting and 75c per pair for new shoes. Give us a trial.

PRATER'S OLD STAND

Poland China Sale.

We will sell at Chapman's sale pavillion, Oct. 19th., 45 males and 15 gilts. This offering is equal to if not superior to any we have had: it is the pick of 200 pigs, the cream of three herds.

H. C. WITTRICK.
H. E. WYATT.
W. F. RIESCHICK.

Discontinues.

The Salem Sentinel served notice upon its patrons last week that it would discontinue publication. its editor, Allen D. May having accepted a position in Auburn. The Sentinel has been a newsy little sheet and its aim has ever been to help build up its town and in losing it Salem loses a good live town pusher.

Lost or Strayed.

Three young cows, 2 or 3 years old, mostly red in color; supposed to be between Falls City and Barada. Reward for information.

E. S. TOWLE.

J. H. Miles made a business trip to Lincoln Tuesday.

Paul Weaver was a business visitor to Lincoln Tuesday.

Dorothy White went to Rulo Tuesday morning, returning on the noon train.

Dave Davies returned Saturday from a two weeks trip in the western part of the State.

The store of M. Seff was closed Tuesday and Wednesday of this week because of Yom Ceper or Atonement Day. Mr. Seff went to Atchison to join his family whom he took there last week to celebrate the Jewish New Year. Mrs. Seff and the children returned home with him Wednesday night.