There are things in life that are much worse than a platter of fat young teal ducks.

Can it be the intention of Judge Landis to put the University of Chicago on half rations?

If Graham doesn't beat Bill McCray he will dissappoint a great many suffering tax payers who have been footing the bills for some time.

The appointment of Judge Reese on the supreme court concession was a nice and decent thing to do and is characteristic of Judge Sedgwick.

The Journal says the bridge company has gone into politics. By the way is the Journal supporting John Hinton? Is it against Bill McCray?

Falls City has never had a more faithful servant than John Hinton. Is there any good reason why Mr. Schlosser should replace him on the county board?

Who runs this town anyway, the people who voted so over whelmingly for the bonds or the few who are trying to defeat the will of the people expressed at the bond election?

Judge A. R. Scott is a lawyer of ripe learning and a man of sterling integrity. The rights of no man, dead or alive, will be disregarded by Judge Scott when he is made County Judge.

A Kansas farmer on being asked by an eastern man as to what disposition had been made of the grasshoppers replied that they had been crossed with the hay fever and the state was raising grass widows.

Justice is expensive at best. Many poor people submit to injustice rather than incur the expense of litigation. No Falls City lawyer with any practice but that tries many cases without thought of charging a fee. Yet we have a court reporter who not only charges these poor people all that the law allows but adds about one third to his fees by false estimates. Not a single estimate of his has been found when he has made a mistake against himself.

These are the days when the price of butter, eggs, potatoes and chicken make the city man's pocket book look pretty thin. Hermes Bros. are under contract to ship 5000 chickens to San Francisco every week. This contract endures until March 1st. Is it any wonder that chickens are high with this drain on the supply? It is said of Phil Hermes that every chicken he meets immediately lies down on its back and holds its legs up to be tied. Butter, chickens, eggs and like products have ceased to be an incident, they are industries.

Charles Casey and family arrived from near Oklahoma City Wednesday for a visit with Falls City relatives. At present they are the guests of Mrs. Sandford and sons.

Often overlooked

The public schools too often overlook the practical side of the boy's or the girl's education. It therefore becomes our pleasant duty to assist the boys and girls in getting a knowledge of those things which must shortly concern their financial welfare. Our great effort is to encourage them to save money. Send them to us and we will do our utmost to get them started right.

FALLS CITY STATE BANK

Vincent Arnold.

The republican party has never had a candidate in whom it could take more pride than it can in its candidate for assessor. The business men, and in the term we include merchants, farmers and professional men, have never been privileged to vote for a more competent, industrious and honest man than Mr. Arnold. Richardson County has been his home for many years. He is a farmer and is well acquainted with farm values. He has had years of experience as deputy assessor and township assessor. He is of mature years and judgement. He is honest and fearless. He has no friends to reward nor enemies to punish. He is actuated by an ambition to make a just and capable officer. His office pertains more to business than to politics and he is essentially a business man's candidate.

LOST COIN CHECKS TRAFFIC.

Pathos That is a Part of Great City's Daily Life.

She was a little old woman with a coarse shawl wrapped around her shoulders and a knitted headpiece known as a nubia on her head. Bending over, she peered about the asphalt pavement in total disregard of the dangers from passing traffic on lower Broadway, says the New York Press.

"Lost anything, lady?" asked a policeman.

"Yes, sir," she answered, "some money."

The bluecoat looked at her worn old face for a moment and then he, too, got busy. A newsboy joined in the hunt. Presently several citizens were participants. A street car stopped, and then another. The driver of a big truck pulled up at the curb, clambered down and became another searcher for the lost coin. Several minutes passed. There was a partial blockade of the street, and then the policeman picked up a dime from its resting place on the street car track.

"Is this part of it?" he said.

"Yes, sir," answered the old woman joyfully; it's all of it."

An exclamation arose to the policeman's lips, a laugh ran among the bystanders, but it stopped at the glad look in the old woman's eyes as she reached her gnarled hand for the little coin. The policeman checked the half formed utterance and solemnly escorted the old woman to the curb. The cars rattled on, the big truck swung on its way and the policeman stood silently at his post. No one thought to jibe, no one thought to swear after that look of joy that came into the old woman's eyes as her lost coin was restored. Broadway had been inconvenienced as Broadway seldom likes to be, but who shall say that Broadway is "the cold white path without a heart" after that exhibition?

DECEITFULNESS OF THE MULE.

Asked about the average age of the Georgia mule, Brother Diekey said:

"No man kin tell. En de mule is too stubborn en deceitful ter be candid wid you!"

A NATURE NOTE.

"Cats," said the nature student, "are exceedingly deceitful." He frowned thoughtfully. "I have known them," he said, "to attempt to pass themselves off in restaurants as rabbits."

TRAMP'S ANSWER.

When Mrs. Eddy, the head of the Christian Science church, was young, she conducted a temperance campaign for a time.

A tramp asked her for help. "I'll help you, my friend," said Mrs. Eddy, "but first you must answer me one question. Do you or do you not drink beer?"

The tramp, a hardened customer, looked at her in amazement.

"Why, lady," he said, "ye cert'nly don't think I squirt it into me arm wid a syringe!"—Puck.

CURE (?) FOR SEA SICKNESS.

A cure for sea sickness, which a German doctor has discovered, will be welcomed by hosts of travelers. It consists in the passenger simply lying on his back and having handkerchiefs soaked in hot water twisted very tightly round his forehead. The treatment, it is claimed, cures in about half an hour, and those who undergo it are said never to be troubled again during a voyage.
