

LOCAL LORE.

Eat Sowles' candy.

Joe Windle of Salem, was a Sunday visitor in our city.

The Tribune will cost you $1.50 a year after January 1st, 1908.

Dr. Wilson returned Monday from a few days spent in Omaha.

L. R. Chaney of Stella was mingling with friends in this city Monday.

Sam Bucher came down from Shubert and spent Sunday with home folks.

You can tell your troubles to the coal man now and give the ice man a rest.

Miss Leah Poteet, who has been quite ill for some time, is better at this writing.

Mrs. Martin Kanaly returned Saturday from a week spent with her parents in Rulo.

The local Odd Fellows will be the guests of the Shubert lodge October 24th.

Gus Ruegge came in from Gordon Saturday night, and will spend the winter at home.

Glen McMillan arrived in the city Sunday morning from Broken Bow for a visit with home folks.

The dinners served at the National on Sunday from 12:30 till 2:15 are unsurpassed in quality and service.

A 11-pound boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hedges last Friday. All concerned are doing nicely.

Mrs. A. Graham is visiting in St. Louis and from there will go to Cleveland, Ohio, for an extended stay with relatives.

Herbert Hedges came in from his railroad duties Saturday and spent a few days at home trying to teach the new baby how to say "papa."

The time is nearly here when the subscription price of this paper goes to $1.50 per year. If you want in at the old rate you will have to hurry.

Now is the time to subscribe if you want to get in on the $1. rate, as this subscription price will positively be raised to $1.50 after January 1st., 1908.

John Maddox and wife and daughters, Alberta, Deloras and Donie, and Mr. Floyd Furse, Ollie Bennett, and Martin Souders, all of Auburn, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Henry Meyers.

E. F. Sharts went to Kansas City Saturday afternoon, returning Monday. He was accompanied home by his wife, who had been there for the past two weeks visiting her son and other relatives.

The High School band played a few selections on the street Saturday. This is the band's first appearance in marching order and our people were agreeably surprised at the splendid showing they made.

Remember, after January 1st, 1908, the price of this family necessity will be $1.50, to old and new subscribers alike. A dollar saved is a dollar earned, so come in and pay a few years in advance and get in on the $1. rate.

Mrs. Sedlmayer and grand son, Harry Huber, are spending the week in this city visiting their many friends. They like their new home but have to make a trip to Falls City once in a while to get a glimpse of old familiar faces.

John Bruhn was given the second degree work in the Odd Fellows lodge Friday night. It was a hard tussle but he finally pulled through and will be in good shape for the third tonight. Mr. B. Goat is a little worked up over treatment received at the last meeting, and has declared himself, so a warm time is expected tonight. Goats and "Bruins" make a bad mix up.

Everything In the way of Refreshing Drinks

When you are thirsty you will find NUT SUNDAES, CRUSHED FRUIT SODAS and HOT DRINKS OF ALL KINDS.

—Everything in Fresh fruits and handmade Candies.

—Full line of Fine Cigars and Tobaccos.

Yours to Please,
P. G. Bacakos.

Clarence Smith was a Salem visitor Saturday.

Harry Hughes was up from Padonia, Tuesday.

Ralph McDonald of Hiawatha, was in the city Sunday.

Dr. Foster attended the horse show in Omaha this week.

The price of the Tribune after January 1st., 1908, will be $1.50.

Dr. McMillan is in Omaha this week looking after his Holiday stock.

Mrs. Unitt of Seward, is the guest of her brother, Dr. Foster this week.

H. Fisher returned Tuesday from a short visit with friends in Auburn.

Clerence Burchard came down from Omaha and spent Sunday with home folks.

Fleming Robb of Verdon was in the city Thursday evening enjoying the band concert.

The members of the Friends in Council will be guests of Miss Myrtle Bowers this evening.

Mr. W. H. Maddox suffered a severe fall while picking apples on his farm north of town last Monday.

Messrs. Marts, Inskeep, Loree and Fallstead attended a meeting of the grand lodge of I. O. R. M. in Aurora this week.

Wednesday was cleanup day on Stone street, each merchant contributing his share of labor to the improvement.

Mrs. Willard Sears has returned to her home in this city after spending a couple of weeks with her parents in Beaver City.

Dr. Craft's subject at the Court House Wednesday evening will be, "World's progress, as related to Markets, Morals and Missions."

Chas. Hargrave and family accompanied by Miss Bessie Bohrer and Master Roy, were Sunday visitors at Sycamore Springs.

The ladies of the Christian church will give a ten cent tea at the residence of Judge Wilhite, Thursday afternoon, Oct. 24th. There will be plenty to eat and a general invitation is extended.

Mrs. M. C. Stoughton and grand daughter, Beatrice Bollman, returned Monday morning from a two weeks visit in Kansas City. Owing to a freight wreck ahead of them it required about ten hours to make the trip.

Mrs. Custer returned Friday from an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Norton, in Colorado Springs. During her absence she also visited relatives St. Paul and Minneapolis. She reports a most enjoyable trip.

Prof. Harnack has consented to give our people another band concert this evening, at 7:30, o'clock, if the weather is favorable. That's right, professor, give us as many as possible, as it will be a long time until next summer.

Wm. Wilson of Oregon, writes his friends that he has almost recovered from his accident of a few months ago whereby he sustained several fractured ribs. He also states that he will soon be settled in a nice new cottage he is building, and writes all his friends to come and see him.

Mrs. E. E. Metz is visiting relatives in St. Joe.

Herman Koehler of Rulo was in this city Saturday.

Wm. Wylie kindly remembered the Tribune this week.

Frank Blakeney came down from Nims City, Saturday.

Frank Nims of Nims City, was a business caller here Friday.

Clyde Haskins of the Stella Press, was a pleasant caller Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. A. D. Spence went to Lincoln, Monday for a short visit with friends.

Adam Muthig and son Tom, of St. Joe, attended the funeral of Mrs. C. Gehling in this city Sunday.

George Abbott informs us that his wife is quite ill at Omaha, where she went some time ago to visit her children.

The first freeze of the season was that of last Friday evening, but it has been almost a nightly occurrence since.

Frank Stump of Kansas City, came up Saturday evening and expects to remain in the city during the winter.

Mrs. Smith of Mound City, Mo., spent the latter part of the week in this city the guest of Mrs. Sidney Spence.

Wm. Fenton, the "Hayseed" of the Dawson News Boy, was visiting with his many acquaintances in this city Tuesday.

Mrs. Mary Pickett has returned from an extended visit with sons in different parts of Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

The Locke Dramatic Co., spent last Thursday in this city the guests of Landlord Spence. They were enroute to Hiawatha.

Mrs. Limebaugh left Monday for Ames, Iowa, after a five weeks visit in this city with her niece, Mrs. Sidney Spence.

Matt Huber and wife returned Thursday to their home in Vermillion, Kas. They were in the city to attend the funeral of Mrs. C. Gehling.

Chas. Roberts of Salt Lake City, was in the city Saturday the guest of the Misses Paxton. He was enroute to St. Louis on a visit to his parents.

Miss Florence Wylie, who has been sick at her home in this city for the past two weeks, has so far recovered as to be able to resume her school work.

Mrs. Mary Kollman and son, Fred, of Rapid City, Ill., arrived in the city the latter part of the week to be at the bedside of the former's sister, Mrs. C. Gehling. They will visit in the city for a short time.

W. J. Moran of this city is one of the lucky ones in the land drawing of the lower Brule reservation, which took place at Pierre, S. D., on Monday. His name appears in the first fifty list. Will's many friends here congratulate him in his good luck.

Jack Crook and wife left Wednesday for quite an extended eastern trip. They will go direct from here to the Jamestown exposition, and from there will go to Washington, D. C., making the trip by boat, where Mr. Crook will attend the postmasters' convention Oct. 22-23-24. They will return home via the northern route visiting many places of interest along the way. They will be absent two weeks.

George A. Abbott made us a pleasant call on Tuesday and has our thanks for $2 on subscription. George holds tax receipt No. 1 for 1907 in payment of $74.70 on 69 acres of land a fraction over $1.10 per acre. Mr. Abbott has been accused of being a rebel and hobnobbing with Jesse James and like desperadoes, in fact has been represented as about the worst ever, but has never been accused of not paying his debts.

CANDY

Our candy tickles the palate. Try it.

SOWLES

English walnuts at Harlow's at 20c per pound.

Jacob Class and son of Preston, were in town Saturday.

Go to Harlow for a selection in fancy and plain pickles.

Dr. Ed Hayes of Dawson was a Sunday visitor in our city.

Ralston pancake flour at Harlow's 10c a package.

Finest raisins, prunes, dried peaches, at Harlow's. All this years pack.

Go to Harlow for oil cans, brooms, baskets, wash boards, wash tubs. Prices are right.

Mrs. J. G. Ranger of Salem, spent Sunday in this city with her daughter, Mrs. Everett Scott.

Steve Miles went to Nebraska City, Saturday to attend a meeting of the river telephone companies.

Don't forget the auction at Powell's grocery, Saturday afternoon and evening. Read ad on another page.

Harry K. Thaw's second trial for the killing of Stanford White will begin December 2nd. Those who have saved the files of the former trial will do well to commence reading them now and save time, as we suppose it will be a re-hatch of what we all waded through a few months ago.

Wm. Nims, one of the earliest settlers of this county and among the first business men of Humboldt, was in the city Friday and made the Tribune a pleasant call. Mr. Nims is now waxing rich and fat in the stock business throughout the west. His success will be good news to his many friends in this community.

The Hiawatha Democrat came to us last week in the form of a souvenir edition. It is full of good write ups illustrated with many half tones of the different buildings, business men and enterprises of that town. Mr. Martindale the editor, is a good writer and proves his news paper ability in this last weeks, edition which is indeed a work of art.

Mrs. Grant Windle and daughter, Thelma, accompanied the former's sister, Mrs. Chas. Dockhorn, to her home in Oskaloosa, Kas., last Saturday. Mrs. Dockhorn has been confined to her bed most of the time for the past ten months. She had consulted many physicians, and getting no relief, came to this city about three months ago and placed herself under the care of Dr. Houston. She is much improved and there is every chance for her recovery.

W. H. Wylie made his usual weekly visit here Monday.

G. W. Inskeep spent Sunday in this city with his family.

Col. Ed Stock spent Sunday with his parents in this city.

Elder Yoder and Rev. Teeter are at Partis, Kas., this week, attending district conference.

Harlow has fine northern grown potatoes, 80c per bushel. In five bushel lots you get them at 75c.

Sam Marts and wife who have been visting their son at Goodland Kas., returned home Friday.

Harlow will sell you in 5 and 10 bushel lots of fine Minnesota Burbank potatoes at 75c per bushel.

F. W. Samuelson came down from Lincoln Saturday and spent a few days with relatives in this city.

Revere coffee at Harlow's at 20c, 25c, 30c and 40c per pound. Your money back if goods are not satisfactory.

Frank Norris, an old Falls City boy, is now running a work train out of this place on the B. & M.

Elmer DeJarnet came down from Auburn Friday and visited with his family in this city until the first of the week.

Go to Harlow's if you want to contract for peaches, apricots, raspberries, by the case. Will give you low prices by case or can.

Miss Francis Berry of Atchison, and Miss Margaret Creekmore of Fayetteville, Ark., were guests of Mrs. I. C. Maust last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Marts and son, and Mrs. Earl Marts, who have been visiting relatives in this city returned to their homes in Wymore last Saturday.

The B. & M. is doing a great amount of work on their road in this vicinity, and in order to accomplish as much as possible before the cold weather, are working on Sundays.

Mrs. Fred Unland returned to her home in Humboldt Sunday after a visit in this city with relatives. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Amos Gantt, who returned on the next train.

40 Head

Poland-China Hogs to be sold at Falls City, Neb., Wednesday, Oct. 23.

Ferd Friedly.

Seff Stock Sold.

Having sold the stock to the Great Western Sale Co. of Kansas City, Mo., I wish to express my thanks to the people of Falls City and Richardson county who have patronized me during the length of time I have been in business in Falls City.

Yours to thank you,
M. SEFF.

AUTUMN GOODS

Our new line of Autumn goods is now in. We have selected our stock from myriads of patterns and can show you the best the marts afford. Below are a few quotations which will give you an idea of how the prices range:—

- Bracelets $3.00 up
- Children's Bracelets $1.00 up
- Festoon Neckes $5.00 up
- Large Rope Necklaces $1.00 up
- Gold Beads $4.00 up
- Brooches 75c up
- Locketes $1.00 up
- Locket Chains $1.75 up
- Souvenir Spoons $1.00 up

Call on us for anything in the jewelry line. We have anticipated the wants of the public and are ready to meet the demands.

A. E. JAQUET
The Old, Reliable
JEWELER

Card of Thanks.

We wish to sincerely thank our many friends and neighbors for the kindness to us during the illness and death of our dear mother.
Gehling Family.

We desire to extend our sincere thanks to our friends, both colored and white, who so kindly assisted us in our trouble and death of our beloved son and brother.

CAL. WILSON AND FAMILY.

Revival

All are cordially invited to attend revival services at Silver Creek church, north of town, the next two weeks. Evangelistic sermons each evening.

Rev. R. R. Teeter will occupy his pulpit at the Brethren church Sunday morning but the church will be closed at night on account of this revival.

Foley's Kidney Cure will cure any case of kidney trouble that is not beyond medical aid. Kerr's Pharmacy.

Sold the Stock

THE M. SEFF STOCK at Falls City was sold on Wednesday, October 16, 1907, to the Great Western Sale Co. of Kansas City, Mo., which will reduce the stock at a great reduction before moving it from Falls City.

M. SEFF, Falls City, Nebraska