From Wm. Wilson.
Through the kindness of A. E. Gantt, we are enabled to offer the following, which will be of interest to our readers:

PRAIRIE CITY, OREGON.
MR. AMOS E. GANTT,
FALLS CITY, NEBRASKA.

DEAR FRIEND AMOS:—In regard to Odd Fellows Lodge I appreciate the kindly interest and the concern of my friends has been very gratifying to me and has made me feel that though absent there is a bond of friendship that extends across the broad prairies and rugged mountains that separate us. I was laid up five weeks and unable to do anything for over two months but am now feeling able to again resume work on my little cottage on the mountain side and hope to have it completed ere long. I assure you I am truly thankful to be feeling so well again. For a time I feared I might not recover from the injury received. Tell Mr. Hinton I have reformed and will not again try the high jump but will give my attention to something on terra firma.

A party of friends (young men) have just started out to hunt deer and elk. You of course have heard me tell of the long range guns they have in this portion of country. They soak the bullets in brine to keep the game from spoiling until they can get to it. The boys had their bullets in fine shape and promised me a goodly piece of venison and a piece of elk and possibly a piece of bear. I am anxiously awaiting their return.

Next week my nephew, Mrs. Wilson (she wants to go along to hold the sack) and I are going over to the John Day river to kill ducks and fish, then we are going for grouse and pheasants. If you will come out next spring I will take you over to Harney Lake one hundred miles distant where there are millions of ducks. At least those who have visited the lake tell me you can shoot ducks and swans until you are tired now this is authentic. Come out and bring your best shots from the lodge and I will prove the truthfulness of my assertion. While waiting for elk and venison we are feasting on green corn and fruit. While at John Day I visited "The American Ranch." My old home and the orchard I helped to plant. Still owned by my old partner filled my soul with delight. We set out two or three hundred trees in 1867, and they are still bearing quantities of fruit. Two additions to the orchard have raised the number of trees to nearly one thousand. There are all kinds of apples, peaches, pears, prunes, cherries and berries. Teams from Harney valley and other places where fruit is scarce came to John Day for fruit while we were there, teams were loading every day, four and six horse teams with trail wagons carrying two hundred boxes of apples loaded, and you could scarcely see where the apples had been picked. This is one of their prolific years. Last year fruit was scarce excepting apples, they are a pretty sure crop.

The first snow of the season fell on the mountains on Sept. 28th. Yesterday when we came from John Day the tops of the hill were white with snow, the green valleys below made a pleasing contrast. They tell me there will be plenty of snow up here I am expecting a chance to have a sleigh ride at least as we are at an elevation of thirty six hundred feet. I have already engaged a pair of bobs and with my fine little team will go spinning down the mountain.

No I have not yet struck the "Mother Lode" but have great expectations. My nephew who is a practical mining man has been absent all summer just returned and will in a few weeks get the mine ready for work.

I purchased a lot of iron track and on ore car. There is a tunnel in about seventy five feet and the track must be laid on an ore bin and blacksmith shop built and then mining will commence. We also will burn a pit of charcoal. There is plenty of wood on my claim so there is no danger of our freezing this winter.

Fraternally,
WILLIAM M. WILSON.

Democratic Platform.
The democratic state platform was generated by the warmth of Bryan's unfailing presidential ambition. It deals largely, with national issues and, as usual, resembles a huge dragnet, endeavoring to take in every issue, heard or unheard of, past, present and future, fearful lest some pronouncement on things living, or dead should by the greatest inadvertence be omitted. It is an unsightly conglomeration of "We rejoice," "We condemn" and "We favor."

It points to no specific performance and awakens no pride of achievement, or of ancestry. It is engulfed in the ever present ambition of one man to be president and all sails are set towards that end.—West Point Republican.

It is claimed indigestion is the National disease. That's why the demand for Rings Dyspepsia Tablets keeps increasing because they do the work. Stomach trouble, dyspepsia, indigestion, bloating, etc., yield quickly. Two days treatment free. Ask your druggist about them. Sold by A. G. Wanner druggist.

Golden Wedding at Humboldt

Thursday of last week was given over to a golden wedding feast at the home of James Atwood and wife on Edwards street of this city, the six children being present as follows: Rev. W. C. Atwood, Brookfield, Mo.; J. E. Atwood, Beaver City, Neb.; Mrs. Emma Wilkinson, Auburn, Neb.; Chas. W., Theodore and Ben Atwood of this neighborhood. The couple were united in marriage at Trenton, New Jersey, and were among the pioneers of Richardson county, having settled on their farm near this city in 1869. Their family was raised here and is among the best known in southeastern Nebraska. The scene at home yesterday was a pretty one, with the rooms decorated in yellow dahlias and nasturtiums, and a huge yellow bell suspended over the dining room table while feathery of honeysuckle completed the detail. An original poem descriptive of the life of the pair since their birth in England, was read by Mrs. Wilkinson, and a number of choice and valuable gifts of gold and pearl were presented to the couple. Mr. Atwood is 75 years of age and enjoys excellent health, while his wife is 3 years his junior and has generally been well, although undergoing a sick spell the past summer.

A Commendable Thing.

One hundred feet of cement walk six feet wide were laid on the north side of the park this week. The work was done by the Falls City force who have been here for some time. Lafe Gilbert was the promoter of this improvement, and raised by popular subscription the seventy dollars necessary to defray the expense. An effort will be made to induce the Missouri Pacific to build a cement walk the remainder of the way to the depot.—Stella Press.

A Raise a Coming.

Beginning with the first of this month the ready print houses announced an increase of about twenty per cent in rates. This is due to the fact that the ready print houses belonging to the trust has succeeded in putting out of business an independent house established in Lincoln a year or so ago. Everything in the way of supplies for newspaper offices is steadily on the increase, and the time is not far distant when the prices of all subscriptions to newspapers must necessarily be raised. The Falls City Tribune announces an increase in the subscription rate to become effective the first of the year.—Stella Press.

Will Raper of Omaha, George Randall and family and E. A. Bert Raper and his wife are on their way from Nome, Alaska, to visit her people at Paris, France. They were married last July but his relatives here were not aware of the fact until they came to visit, and the news is also being kept from the Paris relatives until they arrive there. Mr. Raper is a globe trotter. He has been in Alaska two years, following his trade as a barber. His wife has lived in Alaska six years. This was his first meeting with his mother, brothers, and sisters in seven years.—Stella Press.

They attribute the better part of their success to constant advertising.—Stella Press

Feld Against Telegraph Companies.

Formal charges have been filed with the department of justice against the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies, charging them with conspiracy in restraint of trade the Sherman Anti-trust law. It is understood that the striking telegraphers are behind this movement and it is also said that the American Federation of Labor has loaned its lawyers to fight the case.

It is alleged that the companies have conspired to boost telegraph tolls.

Before acting in the matter department of justice will make quiet but thorough investigation into the case.
