Wins Prize. Charles J. Brush, the well known Nemaha county corn spec alist, came away from the corn xposition at Chicago with And old friends, old times, old the result of his action in enterllying colors. He was awarded the prize for the best ten ears other than yellow and white, As I walk the sunset roadway to the house of bishops in the This comes as a distinct honor, as he is one of the few Nebraskans to win a prize.

Mr. Brush has long had more than a local reputation as a corn expert, but this award will place him in the foremost ranks of corn experts of the country, as at Chicago he came into direct competition with the best that there is in the United States.

This is also a compliment to Sweeter grow the soft caresses as Nemaha county, as it shows that this soil and climate is cap | Thru the silver threads that glisable of producing the finest of corn, and all that is needed in addition, is technical know- Softer, sweeter grows the music ledge such as Mr. Brush undoubtedly posesses, and which we may believe will thoroughly and effectually applied .- Auburn Republican.

Most men who own a watch think they know all about it. says an exchange. They have the number fixed in their memory in case it is stolen. They could probably pick it out from 50 other watches with their eyes shut. But how many men know that their watch is a compass and will tell north from south as accurately as it will tell the time of day?
